THE ATTRACTION AT TURNBULL'S.

Have you any notion how pretty the Dress Goods and Trimmings are this spring? A glance at our windows when the blinds are drawn will help you to guess. A stuff that everybody wants all of a sudden is bound to be scarce. Best variety now we have ever had. Those Ingrain cloths we mentioned last week as slow in coming to hand, have arrived. How do they open out you say? Just handsome is not too much to say of them. Ingrain cloths will be much called for or we will be mistaken.

Miss Mercier, our Dressmaker, executes all orders promptly. The Millinery season is right on us, and we are prepared for it. We keep well posted in all the changes in Styles and buy the Newest. Object lessons are in order now, call in and inspect and get our low prices. Children's Sailor Hats in quantities cheap. The latest wrinkle in Ladies Wraps are Jet Visites. We have many other New and Desirable things in Mantles and Dolmans to show you since the opening. All Mantles and Dolmans cut by the new patterns.

The custom Tailoring Department is brightened with a choice lot of piece goods, fine and fashionable. Suits for boys and small boys. In the latter are some Bargains that prudent mothers would be glad to see and buy.

Two qualities of Flannellettes in all colors out of the cases. We have quantity enough for a large city, but the price takes them—10, 12½c. a yard.

Cottons, Cottonades, Shirtings, Linens, &c., have advanced in the wholesale trade rapidly and suddenly We were fortunate in having a large stock bought before the advance—note this fact.

"As Others See Us."

"Oh that some power the gift would gie us,
To see ourselves as others see us."
Thus sighed old Scotia's Bard in vain,
For what he could not then attain.
But had he lived in this fair town
He had no cause to sigh or frown,
For if he walked on Hunter street,
An eager throng he'd surely meet,
With faces bright as summer light,
All coming from one-fifty-eight.
Where photos always are in view,
Which are to life so very true,
That each one who has seen them there,
Does to his comrades all declare,
"SPROULE is the very man can gie us,
The power to see as others see us."

FOR DRINKING
ROYAL DANDELION COFFEE

Some drink because they are hungry,
And some because they're dry,
Some drink to keep them in good health,
And some that they may thrive.

Some drink because they are too hot,
And some because they're too cold,
Some drink to strengthen them when young,
And some when they are old.

Some drink to keep them wide awake,
And some that they may sleep,
Some drink because they merry are,
And some because they weep.

Some drink when they do money gain,
And some because of loss;
Some drink when they are pleased,
And some when they are cross.

Some drink when they are hard at work,
And some when they do play;
Some think it right to drink at night,
While others drink by day.

Some drink for sake of company,
While others drink on the sly;
And many drink but never think,
About the reason why.

Some say they drink for pleasure,
And some they drink for pain,
Some say 'tis good, some very bad,
But never can refrain.

Yet all mustown the proverb true:
"When from's ho to strike it"—
I've just found out the reason why—
All drink because they like it!

SATURDAY, APRIL 13, 1889.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

Mr. R. J. COLVILLE, assistant secretary of the Toronto Y.M.C.A., has taken charge of the Peterborough branch for a few weeks. The work since the retirement of the last secretary has fallen behind considerably, but Mr. Colville by his energy and ability will, doubtless, soon have everything in active operation again. We wish him the success a young man of his earnest Christian character and industry is entitled to.

AT a meeting of the executive committee held last evening at the residence of Mr. Griffin, the following delegates were appointed to attend the district conference to be held at Cobourg on the 21st and 22nd instants:—Messrs. Early, Griffin, Bean, Bennet, Miller and Collins.

OUR own Association, assisted by lady friends, will hold a reception for the members and their gentlemen friends on Tuesday evening, the 23rd inst., in the rooms, when they will be well entertained. The executive are anxious that every one who can assist us in a more enlarged and perfect work for young men will be present on that occasion.

DO NOT forget the young men's meeting to-night (Saturday) at 8 p.m. It is particularly requested that late converts and anxious ones will make a point of being present. Mr. Colville who is now assisting the Association, will be present and take part.

THE usual Sunday night gospel meeting will be held at 8.15 to-morrow evening, to which all are invited. Mr. Griffin will address this meeting.

Longevity.

Scientific men see no reason why the span of human life may not be extended to a round hundred years from the present limit of seventy to eighty years.

From Adam's time to that of Methuselah and Noah, men are recorded as attaining to well nigh the age of 1,000 years. The Psalmist David, however, says: "The days of our age are threescore years and ten; and though men be so strong that they come to fourscore years, yet is their strength then but labor and sorrow; so soon passeth it away, and we are gone."

This wide margin of longevity, together with proper observance of mental, moral and physical laws, leads investigators to believe it is impossible that human life might be made to increase in length of days to a full century, at least.

Moderation and regularity in eating, drinking and sleeping are conducive to longevity, and those who observe proper habits and use pure and efficacious remedies when sick, may accomplish immense labor with so apparent injury to themselves and without foreshortening their lives.

Hon. H. H. Warner, President of the Rochester, N. Y., Chamber of Commerce, and manufacturer of the celebrated Warner's Safe Cure, had devoted much time and research to the subject of longevity, and has arrived at the satisfactory conclusion that life may be prolonged by rational and natural means. Thousands of persons are living to-day—enjoying the blessing of perfect health and vigor—who will testify to the almost magical efficacy of Warner's Safe Cure in restoring them to physical potency and to the normal type of constitution, after they had almost given up hope of life.

After middle age, many begin to lose their wonted vigor of body, and thereupon give way to inertness and useless repining. Yet all such have within reach that which both renews youth and contributes to the prolongation of life. Warner's marvelous Safe Cures are in every drug store, and are now regarded as standard specifics throughout the civilized world.

The strong desire to attain old age—meantime retaining the virile powers of body and mind—is necessarily connected with the respect paid to aged persons, for people would scarcely desire to be old, were the aged neglected or regarded with more sufferance.

New Streets in Ashburnham.

Mr. Dumble has laid out two new streets in block N. The corporation will grade and gravel them, Mr. Dumble furnishing the gravel. Mr. Dawson is about erecting a fine brick house, two vengared houses are now being finished and a number of other new ones will go up this summer. The land is beautifully situated, and, being so near the heart of the town, is a very attractive location. The entire block will probably be taken up this summer, as the lots at their low price are in great demand. 2d36

TIMELY CAPITAL TOPICS.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS BUSY WITH THE ESTIMATES.

The Postmaster-General on the Ocean Mails and the Postal Deficit—The Anti-Combines Resolutions.

OTTAWA, April 12.—The House of Commons today was occupied mainly in Committee of Supply, considerable progress being made with the estimates. Before going into committee a couple of questions were asked, the replies to which contained little information.

In answer to Sir Richard Cartwright Hon. G. E. Foster said the Government were not yet in a position to announce what tariff changes, if any, would be proposed this session.

In answer to Hon. A. G. Jones Hon. Mackenzie Bowell said that whatever might be the intention of the Government no authority had been given to any newspaper to state that it was the intention to abandon that part of the Customs Bill now before the House proposing to add the cost of inland carriage to the value for duty.

The House then went into Committee of Supply, taking up the Inland Revenue estimates.

While the postoffice estimates were being discussed Hon. John Haggart, Postmaster-General, was asked about the sending of the European mails via New York just ordered. He said that the contract with the Allans was supposed to expire to-day and in view of this he had ordered negotiations to be sent out that in case the Allans should decline to continue to take the mails under the old arrangement they would be sent via New York. By a misunderstanding an unconditional order was issued and the mails had been sent via New York. The Allans contend, however, that their contract extends until such time as the negotiations for the proposed fast line are completed.

In answer to another inquiry with respect to his expectations regarding the large annual deficit resulting from the postal operations, Mr. Haggart said that if he got his bill to increase the drop letter and the registration rate through parliament the increased revenue from these sources would probably be $140,000, but nearly this amount would be required to pay for the increased car accommodation lately demanded of the Canadian Pacific Railway. As long as newspapers and periodicals go free, and the department were compelled to carry such a mass of matter free, he thought there was but little hope of reducing the annual deficit.

On the discussion of the appropriation for Dominion lands Hon. Edgar Dewdney presented to the House a detailed statement of the cost of the Interior Department at present compared with its cost under the administration of the Mackenzie Government. This statement had been prepared, he said, in view of the criticisms already made in the House this session. The statements then given, he said, made a very unfavorable showing, but he had found that the showing was really very much in favor of the present administration of the department.

Hon. David Mills disputed the accuracy of the statement submitted. Several hours were then spent in discussion of the details of the Dominion lands expenditure.

The members of the Commons, sleepily sitting out the Northwest affairs, were suddenly roused by Mr. Tom Daly, the fire-eating member from Selkirk, who rose to draw down Sir Richard Cartwright for certain remarks that he had made derogatory to the Northwest in comparison with Manitoba and with Dakota. Speaking with intense warmth and vigor, Mr. Daly accused Sir Richard of persistently slandering the Northwest.

Mr. Laurier interrupted, mildly protesting against the tone and tenor of Mr. Daly's remarks, but that gentleman continued as warmly as before:

"I respect you, sir," he said to Mr. Laurier, "you are a gentleman, but I cannot sit quietly and hear the member for South Oxford's misrepresentations."

Mr. Lister followed and dressed down Mr. Daly as a youngster and a new importation into the Northwest, and quite a lively time ensued. When he had finished Mr. Lister was leaving the chamber, when Mr. Heaven shouted: "Don't go out, young man, I want to talk to you."

"Come outside and talk to me," retorted Mr. Lister.

The two gentlemen left the chamber by different doors but turned in opposite directions when they got outside.

In the meantime Sir Richard said it was a deliberate falsehood, by whomsoever made, to say that he ever preferred Dakota to the Northwest, though it was true that Dakota had the greater population.

Mr. Daly said a great proportion of the Canadians in Dakota dare not come back to Canada.

Hon. David Mills declared that any one who made such an assertion was an unscrupulous calumniator and proceeded in such strain as to draw from Mackenzie Bowell the heated declaration that Hon. David Mills was indulging in insolence and impudence and falsehood.

This ended the liveliest passage of the session and the committee, now thoroughly awake, settled down to work.

The House adjourned at 1.55 a.m.

THE CALGARY MURDER TRIAL.

Winnipeg Loses $40,000 Through Bad Investments—An Old Country "Greeny."

WINNIPEG, April 12.—In the Calgary murder case there was strong circumstantial evidence against Jumbo Fisk. Counsel addressed the jury to-day.

The body of Fletcher, the escaped lunatic, was found three miles from the asylum to-day.

James Cameron, who displaced the C.P.R. switch in this city, was discharged to-day. It being shown that the prisoner, who is a "greeny" from the Old Country, did it through ignorance and mere curiosity.

Winnipeg will lose at least $40,000 through bad investments of its sinking fund.

About 430 immigrants arrived from Ontario to-day.

Morrison's Friends Demand His Surrender.

MONTREAL, April 12.—Judge Dugas has returned to the city. He said to a reporter that owing to recent proceedings the sentiment of the people had completely changed and even Morrison's friends now demand that he shall either surrender or be captured.

Murderer Harvey.

GUELPH, April 12.—Wm. H. Harvey, committed for the murder of his wife and two daughters, is doing well in the jail. He is reticent except to parties whom he may desire to see, and when he consults Mr. Hary Lye, liquidator of the Central Bank, and another accountant from Toronto, will be here next Tuesday to investigate the books of Mr. J. W. Lyon in the interest of Harvey.

THE JESUITS' OATH.

Full Translation of the Vow According to La Minerve.

MONTREAL, April 12.—La Minerve publishes what it declares is the correct vow taken by the Jesuits. They take no oath, says La Minerve, but simply the vow of obedience, poverty and chastity. The following is a translation:

"Almighty and Everlasting God: I, although in every way most unworthy to present myself before You, but confiding nevertheless in Your goodness and infinite mercy and urged by a desire to serve You, vow to Your Divine Majesty, in the presence of the most holy Virgin Mary and the whole of Your heavenly court, poverty, chastity and perpetual obedience in the Society of Jesus, and I promise to enter this society, to live and die therein, interpreting all things according to the constitutions of said society.

"I therefore most humbly beseech Your infinite goodness, through the precious blood of Jesus Christ, that You may be pleased to agreeably accept this holocaust, and that as You have given me the desire and the means to offer it to You, You may furthermore give me abundant grace to accomplish it."

THE GREAT TELEGRAPH SUIT.

Plea of the Montreal Company—A General Denial.

MONTREAL, April 12.—The Montreal Telegraph Company have filed their plea to plaintiff's declaration in the action taken by the Great Northwestern Telegraph Company against them. They make a general denial of the facts stated in the declaration and plead that plaintiffs have been put in possession of the entire system of telegraph which defendants possessed and have never been troubled in possession of it; that they have not acted simply as lessees, but have closed and abolished several of their existing lines and suppressed connections with other lines; that if there is a decrease in the income of plaintiffs it is not due to the cause alleged in declaration but to other causes altogether independent of the agreement between plaintiffs and defendants.

ABANDONED AT SEA.

The Steamer of the Thingvalla Line in a Sinking Condition.

QUEENSTOWN, April 12.—The Inman Line steamer City of Chester, from New York, arrived to-day. She reports that on April 8, in latitude 49 N., longitude 27 W., she passed the Danish steamer Denmark, from Christiania and Copenhagen for New York. The Denmark had been abandoned by her crew, her stern was level with the sea and her bow stood high out of the water. She was apparently sinking. The Denmark was a vessel of 2260 tons and belonged to the Thingvalla line. She was commanded by Capt. Knudsen. The Denmark was formerly the Belgian steamer Jan Braydel. She was a bark rigged vessel, and was 340 feet long, 40 feet in breadth and 26 feet deep. She was built at Newcastle, England, in 1880.

No News of Her 700 Passengers.

NEW YORK, April 12.—The steamer Denmark was abandoned about 600 miles off the Irish coast. The crew and passengers numbered 700 persons. There is great excitement here over the abandonment of the vessel. The Thingvalla line is probably the largest carrying steamboat line that plies between Europe and America. The Denmark had on board when she left Christiania 650 passengers, principally all immigrants. The crew numbered 40 men. The office of the agents of the steamer has been thronged with people all day, anxiously inquiring for later news of the vessel. The agents, as yet, have no news to give them.

A Bark Deserted.

LONDON, April 12.—The German bark Emilie, Captain Ohling, which left Pensacola March 2 for Brake, was abandoned April 7 in latitude 48 north, longitude 19 west. Three of the crew were drowned. The others arrived here to-day.

Fears are entertained regarding the safety of the British bark Shalimar, Captain Linklater, which left Newcastle, N. S. W., Dec. 28 for Portland, Ore.

The Carmen's Strikes.

MINNEAPOLIS, April 12.—The Street Car Company made its first formal attempt to raise the strike shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon. The move was made at the Fourth-avenue car barns. Policemen were on hand, as were President Lowry and Manager Goodrich. The car had not gone 20 feet before it was stopped by the men, the horses unhitched and the car shoved back to the barn. They carried Sergeant Hein and several policemen, but they made no attempt to arrest any one. President Lowry refuses to submit the troubles to arbitration.

SEVEN SPIRITUAL STEPS

In the Church of England Service.

Rev. Canon Dumoulin's Lucid Exposition of the Principles of Public Prayer and its Spiritual Significance—Some Pertinent Remarks on Prevalent Practices.

Following is a full report of Rev. Canon Dumoulin's eloquent and instructive address in St. John's on Wednesday, which we publish according to promise and in deference to the expressed wish of many of the readers of THE EXAMINER:

The reverend preacher began his discourse by saying that after God had given complete instructions regarding the Passover, He said to Moses (Exodus xii, 26): "And it shall come to pass, when your children shall say unto you, what mean ye by this service? that ye shall say it is the sacrifice of the Lord's Passover, etc." From this you can see two things very clearly, brethren. The first, that they had a divinely appointed and regularly ordained service; and, secondly, that it was only fitting for them to ask the meaning of the service. When the Passover was established amongst them, and their children were partakers of that divine service, it would have been a natural thing to ask, "Wherefore are we called upon to keep this ordinance? What mean ye by this service?" Then it was for them to try to perceive and enter into the meaning of this service, in which they were continually called upon to engage. Now, I wish to transfer this to ourselves. We also have an order of divine service, which is a very precious inheritance to us. The pure and unadulterated Word of God forms the greater part of our Order of Common Prayer; the other portions of it come to us from the authority of ancient usage and sanction of the Church of God. This book has come down to us from the Eastern and Western Churches, and has passed through the great struggle of the Reformation. Thus we have, like the people of old, an

APPOINTED ORDER AND FORM OF WORSHIP

It has a meaning, it has a plan, it has a purpose, and all this was very clearly implied in the name which was given to it when it was called "The Order for Morning and Evening Prayer." In speaking of it as an "order," you will notice that it is impossible to place the last first and the first last. If we did so, the purposes and teachings of our services would not be fulfilled. It is an order, intelligible and clear, having a divine aim and purpose in teaching. It is perfectly right and quite logical worship, and, let me say, that our spiritual use of this divine service depends largely upon our intelligent understanding of it. Let it be our endeavour this evening to point out the meaning of Morning and Evening Prayer, in which it is our privilege to engage.

Thus considering it, we shall see that this order of divine Service is so framed as to carry us from the lowest to the highest position. It takes us from the depths of unconfessed sin and sets us with "angels and archangels and all the company of Heaven." I doubt not you have often said the fifteen Psalms, from the 104th to the 119th, called the "Psalms of Degrees," because the Levites chanted them as they ascended the fifteen steps of the altar chanting one on each step. And thus they ascended, higher and higher in the glorious service of praise as they approached nearer and nearer to the presence of God. And so, dear friends, this order of service of the Church, which has come down to us as our great inheritance, takes us up step by step—it advances and exalts our souls, till, at last, we enjoy the full and complete communion with God.

The first step, then, in our order of divine worship is conviction. This is intended to be produced in our souls in two ways—by the voice of God and the voice of man. And notice that the first words in our service are the words of the living God. The voice of the Lord God speaks to you in the words,—"When the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive." "Enter not into judgment with Thy servant, O Lord." "If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us."

These divine words

ARE TAKEN FROM HIGH AUTHORITY,

from the word of God, and open our Divine service. To what purpose? To call us to a recollection of our sinful condition before God, to stir up within us a consciousness of our own unworthiness to enter into His full presence. The voice of God comes to us as it did to our first parents. The voice of the Lord speaks to us as it called out of heaven to Saul of Tarsus—checking us in the midst of our madly sinful career. This feeling of conviction is termed "to be intensified" is as by what we call the "Exhortation"—"Dearly beloved brethren, etc." This is simply a short sermon on the foregoing texts, calling upon us to make confession of sin before God, to the end that we may obtain forgiveness of that sin. Now, there, I think, is the first step in the order of divine service. Do you not feel that since last you were present in the House of God your hearts have been wandering from God, and you have been doing things that you should not have done? If so, your consciences should be aroused by the voice of the living God calling upon you to repent and make confession of your sins to Him. After being thus called to a recollection of our sins, we are led to the second step, namely, Confession. There is nothing so dreadful in the whole world as to have a consciousness backed by conviction, to feel that the wrath of God is hanging over us—and yet to feel that we have no reprieve. David stretches this condition in one of his penitential Psalms. "His spirit," he said, "was quenched within him, his bones were dried up as it were a firebrand," and he only found escape from this dreadful condition by advancing directly from conviction to confession—He said, "I will confess my transgressions." There was the open door by which the prisoner escaped, by which the soul, tied and bound by unseen chains, was liberated. Do you not know something of this yourselves? To be oppressed with this knowledge of some great secret—a secret untold, which hangs upon you like lead till you take some familiar friend into your confidence and are able, as we say, "to make a clean breast of it." And therefore it is that second step the in our order of divine worship, is confession, the out-pouring of a soul oppressed with the consciousness of sin, to One above who can sympathize as well as pardon.

THE GENERAL CONFESSION

includes not only the things which we have wrongly done, but also those things which we have quite as wrongly left undone. Do you ever reflect upon it, dear friends that it includes all the sins we can possibly commit, and thus we make confession by casting ourselves upon God's mercy according to his promises.

Now comes the third step, which is higher still—Absolution. With full authority, the minister of God then declares and pronounces Absolution and Remission of sins to "all them who truly repent and unfeignedly believe" a distinct and definite declaration of pardon, a very blessed assurance of God's mercy and good will towards penitent sinners. This, then, is the third step; higher than the second. What is the fourth? Now that we have heard the pardoning words and the declaration of God's goodwill toward us through His dear Son, what follows? The full reunion of the soul to God. With no bar of sin between us and our Father, we burst out in one united voice, "Our Father which art in Heaven." This is then, dear friends, the fourth step. To see its importance go back for a moment. When we entered this house we were full of the consciousness of sin, we felt ourselves unworthy to lift up our voices in thanksgiving and praise. But we have confessed our sins, have been pardoned and forgiven, and now we can fittingly lift up our voices and call Him by that endearing name—"Our Father." Higher and yet higher we rise in this glorious estate. But can there be anything higher? Can you or I, dear friends, as worshipping people, feel any higher joy than that we should kneel upon our knees, and say "Our Father"? Yes! there is SOMETHING EVEN HIGHER THAN THAT.

As we rise from our knees we can take our places with the angels before the throne of God, and join with them in lofty songs of praise and thanksgiving—"O! come, let us sing unto the Lord, let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation." What exalted words! Better than anything merely human. The cloud is rolled away between our souls and His righteousness, and we stand now before Him and lift up our voices with joy and thanksgiving, worshipping and adoring God in the words of divine inspiration. What then is now your privilege in the worship of God? It is that you worship God in the words which the Holy Ghost teaches—in the words of those glorious Psalms of the Church, which blends the two Dispensations—the song of all ages down to the present—that harp of a thousand strings, which responds to every note in the human breast—the song that transports us from earth to Heaven and enables us to sing with angels and archangels before a listening God. Such is the fifth step.

What next? We have come now to where we are allowed to sit in His presence as learners. Both teacher and people gather round the Saviour's feet to hear the Word of God. So we are called upon now, in this, the sixth succeeding step, to hear His most Holy Word—pure and unadulterated. It is our privilege to hear, once a year, the whole of the Old Testament, and twice a year the New Testament—not merely human or man-made, but the pure word of God, read systematically and profitably to our souls—Gospels and Epistles, many of which have occupied their present positions in the Church of England service for thirteen hundred years.

Now, what is the next? It is the highest and greatest of all. Is the Communion Service we advance even nearer to God, gratefully pleading before Him the death of His dear Son. And there, with our prayers, we present our alms—acknowledgments of what God has given us. There, too, we present our souls and bodies as a living sacrifice. We dwell in Christ and Christ in us. And there in the most lofty and glorious songs that the church sings on earth, we give glory to God on high, and ask that peace may reign on earth. "With angels and archangels and all the company of heaven we laud and magnify His holy name, singing 'Holy, Holy, Holy!'" Nearer than this we cannot be drawn to God on earth. This then is the

in the seven stages of our devotion. Let us for a moment return and re-ascend these stages. Conviction, Confession, Absolution, Pardoned access, Praise, Receiving God's Holy Word, and, lastly, the highest of all—Communion and Fellowship with Him. This we ship takes us then from the lowest degree to the highest. Brethren, when, after taking your children to the house of prayer, they gather round your knee at home and ask you the meaning of this service, cheerfully answer them. Do not dismiss them, telling them to ask their Sunday school teacher, but you yourself tell them the meaning of this service. And remember, it is in proportion as you discern the meaning of this service yourselves that you will be spiritual worshippers. Appreciating freely its aim and spirit, your whole soul will enter into it, and you will respond in the language of the Psalmist when he says: "O, come let us worship and fall down, let us kneel before the Lord our God."

I concluded by calling your attention to two or three things which this order of Divine service demands of us. First, if we at all appreciate its importance and its solemnity, it demands of us a punctual as well as a regular attendance. Some good people make a habit of walking deliberately up the church while prayer is being offered. It is not only a disorderly thing, but it disturbs and upsets the meaning of the whole service. When very late, they come in, with a sweet smile on their unblushing countenance, nodding sometimes to an acquaintance. But this is not only disturbing to the congregation. The individual destroys the proper order and sequence of the service so far as he or she is concerned. He rushes into the presence of God to praise Him with all his sins unconfessed and unpardoned. This is no state in which to appear. Another and more important equipment which our services demands is a living faith in all the essential truths of the Christian faith—the Fatherhood of God, the Divinity of Jesus Christ, the personality of the Holy Spirit, etc.

Lastly, the eloquent preacher urged in strong language the necessity of preserving Reverence in our services. He said he urged this chiefly on the young people before him. In our country and our age disrespect to human authority and irreverence towards God were becoming increasingly prevalent. The worship of God was being robbed of the solemnity which belonged to it. Laughter and applause greeted the sallies of the preacher. But, thank God, the reverent demeanour of Churchmen on I recognized the presence of God in His holy Temple. The spirit and genius of the Church was so strongly felt that by common consent we frowned down every approach to irreverence. Let the young men and young women see to it that this position be maintained. Let them learn to worship sincerely, truthfully, reverently, for "God is a spirit and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth."

MUNCASTER'S

THE BIRMINGHAM BATTLE.

MR. ALBERT BRIGHT MAKES HIS FIRST SPEECH.

Peroration of Sir Charles Russell's Great Speech—The Eloquent Advocate Complimented by Justice Hannen.

LONDON, April 12.—"On the whole," writes a well informed person, "Chamberlain, if he is really responsible for the defeat of the hopes of the Tories in Central Birmingham, may be pretty certain that he has gained nothing by snatching the seat from their grasp. On the contrary, he has done more than could have been done in any other way to render a working alliance impossible."

This expresses the pretty general feeling that Chamberlain, by excluding Lord Randolph Churchill from Birmingham, has really struck a blow at that Unionist alliance which stands in the way of Home Rule. Birmingham continues, at any rate, the central point in politics. The details of the controversy between the Tories and Liberal-Unionists fill the local papers. Even the London papers, which are sometimes willing to print news of events which do not happen in London, enlarge upon Rowland's resignation and statement. To-day's news is, however, that the Tories are slowly coming around to Bright's support, and that Beale's chances are daily diminishing. A compromise is expected by which Bright will retire at the next election in Lord Randolph Churchill's favor.

Albert Bright made his first speech yesterday. He had meant not to speak, for obvious reasons, but political pressure put personal feelings aside. His speech was clever and very uncompromising against Home Rule, a question on which the Tories professed to regard Bright unsound like his father. He goes to America, for illustrations on the Irish question. Referring to American sympathy with Home Rule, "I should like," said Bright, "to have an intelligent American on this platform and ask him what would happen if there were 30 or 40 members of the American Congress known to be supported by English money in order to introduce free trade into the United States?"

Battering Rams and Secret Circulars.

LONDON, April 12.—In the House of Commons this evening, Prof. James Stuart (Rad.), asked Mr. Balfour whether the circular sent to the Irish police, directing them to collect all secret information regarding the doings of members of the National League, was designed to aid The London Times.

Mr. Balfour replied that he made it a rule neither to own nor to deny the truth of allegations regarding the issue of secret circulars.

Mr. Parnell demanded a straightforward answer. Referring to the use of battering rams in forcing evictions in Donegal, Parnell protested against such cruelty and barbarity.

Mr. Balfour ignored the question regarding the secret circular. Regarding the battering rams he held that it was necessary to use them, as the tenants had built elaborate fort works inside their doors.

Sir Charles Russell Concludes.

LONDON, April 12.—Sir Charles Russell to-day concluded his speech before the Parnell Commission in defence of the Parnellites. He undertook to show that the money Parnell gave Byrne, which the prosecution allege was given for the purpose of enabling Byrne to escape, was meant by Parnell to be used for the ordinary purposes of the National League, and that Parnell did not know Byrne was in peril of arrest. The Court, Sir Charles said, was trying the history of the Irish revolution. He asked that fair and generous consideration be given it. If prosperity was returning to Ireland, thanks be to God, but if ills were unhealthy in that country, where the people considered the imprisoned members of the House of Commons heroes and martyrs. Sir Charles declared he did not speak merely as the advocate of the accused members of the House of Commons, but for the land of his birth, and, he believed, in the best interests of England. The inquiry which was intended to be a curse had been a blessing. It had been designed for the purpose of ruining one man, but it had proved the means of his vindication.

In his peroration, which lasted half an hour, Sir Charles Russell said: "In opening our case I said we represented the accused. The positions are now reversed: the accused sits there (pointing with indignant scorn at Mr. Walter and Mr. McDonald of The Times). This inquiry will not vindicate individuals but it will remove misconception of the character, action and motives of the Irish people and their leaders. It will set earnest, honest minds to thinking and will hasten true union and effect a true reconciliation. It will dispel the weighty clouds that have darkened the history of a noble race and dimmed the glory of a mighty empire."

There was a sensation when Sir Charles concluded his speech. It is the general opinion that he never spoke better. When Sir Charles had finished Presiding Justice Hannen passed a note to him, in which he said:

I congratulate you. Your speech was a great one and worthy of a great occasion.

The Court adjourned until April 20.

The Archbishops of Dublin and Cashel will be among the witnesses who will testify for the defence.

The Artillerymen Celebrate.

LONDON, April 12.—The Field Battery of the Honorable Artillery Company celebrated the return of its guns from Woolwich last night by a big supper. Captain Fry, who presided, read a cable from the Honorable Artillery Company of Boston, congratulating them on their victory and hoping that the cordial relations between the two companies would always be maintained. The hope was expressed that the Prince of Wales would be induced to take command of the regiment again.

Food for Reflection.

The New York World of February 9th, says:

"The question as to how much of what they pretend to know doctors really know is a very interesting one."

"They possess exceptionally great facilities for humbugging, and the presumption is that they are not proof in most cases at all times at least, against temptation to make use of them. Their profession comes as near being an esoteric one as any that is acknowledge to be respectable. But the revelation as to their views in the Robinson strychnine poisoning cases in Boston is startling."

"There were five deaths from the drug, and the doctors in their certificates ascribed them respectively to pneumonia, typhoid fever, meningitis, bowel disease and Bright's disease of the kidneys. The truth would have never been known but for suspicions with which the doctors had nothing to do. There is food here for reflection—and for doctors."

The above criticism is fully warranted by the startling ignorance shown by the attending physicians in the Somerville cases.

Too often it happens that fatal results follow an improper course of treatment—the physician treats the patient for consumption, general debility or for nervous disorders, whilst the real disease, which is slowly destroying the kidneys and filling the system with a poison quite as deadly as arsenic, is altogether overlooked or does not attract attention until too late.

Physicians too often treat the symptoms of disease instead of the disease itself.

It is well established that four-fifths of the ordinary ills of humanity are the results of disease in the kidneys, which will yield to the curative properties of Warner's Safe Cure if timely used, and to it alone. What is apparently a disease in the other organs is more often times a mere symptom of kidney disease, which should be promptly eradicated by Warner's Safe Cure before it secures too firm a hold on those organs.

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Ulcerated Stomach.

"For three years I was unable to work, suffering from ulcerated stomach. Medical aid having failed, I was told to try Burdock Blood Bitters, of which 7 bottles made a permanent cure. This was two years ago, and I feel that I have to thank B.B.B. for being alive and well to-day." Mrs. Rose Ann McCloskey, Marmora, Ont. 2w14d

A Frightened Mother.

"My little girl, 4 years old, frightened me one night by a croupy cough, but I gave her a dose of Hagyard's Yellow Oil, which relieved her at once, and she slept well all night. I have since used it in several cases of croup, frost bites, etc., and find it always reliable." Mrs. Eva Bradley, Virden, Man.

Father had Quinsy.

"We find Burdock Blood Bitters excellent for weakness, and equally so for headache. Father also suffered severely from quinsy, which B.B.B., by its tonic and purifying properties, completely cured." 2w14d

DYSPEPSIA, that great source of misery to so many people, can be effectually cured by the use of Dyer's Quinine and Iron Wine—it is carefully prepared, easily assimilated, and can be taken by the weakest invalids. 6d82

ALL competent authorities say Bright's Disease has no symptoms of its own, but presents the symptoms of other affections. Warner's Safe Cure is universally recognized as a specific for Bright's Disease. That is why it cures so many other diseases, which are caused by the kidney affection. It restores the kidneys to healthy action.

The Bridge Broken.

A break has occurred in the Chemong Lake floating bridge, and farmers from Keenismore had to drive around by Fowler's Corners to reach town to day. The ice was clear on the west side of the bridge but remained solid on the east side, and the east wind driving it against the bridge caused a break of about 60 feet. Mr. Kelly, caretaker, will have the bridge repaired as soon as possible.

The Finishing Touch.

The finishing touches to the improvements in Mr. J. J. Sheehy's dry goods shop, George street, consist in the placing of plate glass sidelights and plates in the doors. Mr. Sheehy has now one of the best lighted, neatest and noblest shops in town, whether the condition of the premises or disposition and display of stock is considered.

They will report Monday night, when officers will be elected and the Society firmly established.

Holy Week at St. John's.

The proposed order of services during next week has been somewhat changed so as to give all classes an opportunity of uniting with their brethren in all parts of the world in commemorating their Saviour's sufferings and death. The list of services, as amended, is as follows:—Every morning except Saturday, 10 a.m.; every evening at 7.30 p.m., except on Wednesday and Saturday evenings, when at the usual hours. On Thursday, Holy Communion at morning service. On Good Friday: Ante-Communion service at 10 a.m.; prayers and sermon at 11 a.m.; special service in commemoration of the Agony on Calvary, at 1.30 p.m.; children's service at 3.30 p.m.; Evening Prayer and sermon, 7.30 p.m.

A New Pulpit.

The fine new pulpit, made for St. John's church by Mr. A. Comstock from plans prepared by Mr. J. E. Belcher, C.E., is completed and will be first used on Easter Sunday. It is a beautiful piece of workmanship in oak in the perpendicular gothic style, to correspond with the altar rail and windows of chancel. The cost of it is $100 which sum has been secured through the exertions of Messrs. Harry Long and Joseph Mills, who have much reason to congratulate themselves on their success in adding another adornment to one of the most beautiful church interiors in Ontario. The elegant gas standards which adorn it, are the gifts of Mayor Stevenson.

Pastoral Letter.

The following pastoral letter, sent out by the Bishop of Toronto, has been read in the several English churches, but the near approach of Good Friday makes its publication at present advisable:

To the members of the Church of England in the Diocese of Toronto:

BELOVED BRETHREN,—It must be regarded as a matter for devout thankfulness that the season, which, by long continued and almost universal usage has been set apart by Christians for the commemoration of the solemn events connected with the temptations, suffering and death of Christ, and especially the transactions of the week in which His great sacrifice was completed, is being year by year more religiously observed. Yet it is evident that there are many professing Christians, who, from want of sufficient thought, either disregard even Good Friday altogether, or worse still, make in more or less a day of amusement. I therefore venture to call thoughtful attention of Christians proper to this subject, and to express the hope that all who call themselves by the name of Christ will not only scrupulously abstain from all holiday making, concerts and amusements on the day sacred to the memory of their Lord's death, but also be careful not to make arrangements for entertainments to follow so closely upon Easter, as to involve, by preparations or rehearsals for such entertainments, the necessity of disturbing the holy solemnity which ought to precede that festival.

Believe me, beloved brethren,
Your friend and Bishop,
ARTHUR, Toronto.

The Body Recovered.

The Remains of Mr. Thos. Coe, Drowned a Couple of Months Ago. Found in Little Lake.

Friday afternoon about five o'clock Mr. David McGregor, a cooper of Ashburnham, was out in his canoe on the lake, and discovered the body of a man floating, face downwards, in the middle waters. He towed the corpse to shore, and on examination it proved to be the remains of Mr. Thos. Coe, who, it will be remembered, on the morning of February 14th, left his home at an early hour while suffering from a mental disorder, the result of spinal injury received over a year ago, and could not be found. It was feared almost beyond a doubt at the time that the unfortunate man had committed suicide by drowning, and their fears have now been realized. The family have the deep sympathy of their many friends in town. Deceased was aged about 60, and was an old and well-known and respected resident of the town. He carried a $1,000 life insurance policy.

The features of the drowned man were swollen and discolored so as to be scarcely recognizable, and the whiskers on one side of the face were worn away, but otherwise there was no difficulty in identifying him. The body bore no marks of violent contact with ice or logs, as would naturally be expected. The clothing was all right, and he was found to be in his sock-feet, as he was supposed to have left home.

Coroner Fife was notified, but he did not consider an inquest necessary. Undertaker Clegg brought the body over to his warerooms and prepared it for the interment which took place this afternoon at 2.30 in Little Lake cemetery.

Clean Up!

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—Allow me to say a few words as to sanitary work.

The early spring necessitates earlier cleaning up this year than usual. Complaints are beginning to come in freely, and it is important that yards and premises should be put in good order as soon as possible. In some shaded places ice may remain very late, but this is no excuse for not removing what can be taken away. It must be remembered that according to the statute all refuse, whether vegetable or not, such as ashes, scraps, rubbish, metal clippings or anything unsightly, must be removed in the spring. The Inspectors are beginning their rounds and have orders to enforce the law strictly.

It is only by persistent cleanliness that such diseases as diphtheria and typhoid fever can be kept down. The death ratio of the town has been steadily decreasing, and it is to be hoped that this year the present low rate may be maintained and even reduced.

Yours, etc.,
J. CLARK, M.D.,
Medical Health Officer.

Canada's New Party.

Organization of a Branch in Peterborough—The Motto and Platform.

A branch of Canada's "New Party" was organized in Peterborough last evening under the most favourable auspices.

Its principles were fully considered and heartily endorsed by all present.

Following are its platform and motto:—

"FOR GOD, HOME AND COUNTRY."

Righteousness and truth in public affairs as well as in private business, and no compromise with wrong.

Equal rights for all creeds and nationalities, but exclusive privileges to none.

A national sentiment, a national literature, and in all matters of public policy—Our country first.

The prompt and absolute prohibition of the liquor traffic, and the honest and vigorous enforcement of all other laws for the repression of vice and intemperance.

Retrenchment and economy in public expenditure, with the view of reducing our enormous national debt.

Manhood suffrage, with an educational qualification; that is, a vote to every freeman of legal age who can read and write.

The extension of the franchise to women.

An elective Senate.

Civil Service Reform.

An Address to Powderly.

Mr. T. V. Powderly Grand Master Workman of the Knights of Labor of America, lectures in Toronto to night and will pass through Peterborough to-morrow night at 11:40 en route to Ottawa, where he will deliver an address to the workingmen Monday evening. Mr. Powderly was expected to appear in Peterborough this afternoon, but all his Canadian engagements except three have been cancelled on account of ill health. A delegation of Peterborough's prominent workingmen will wait upon Mr. Powderly at the station here Sunday night and present him with an address. The train will be detained for about ten minutes to enable the deputation to have an audience with the celebrated advocate of the workingmen's interest.

Railway Changes.

Among the improvements to be made by the Grand Trunk railway in the Lindsay district this year and next are the running of a new line through Fenelon Falls, below the falls, so as to avoid a swing bridge, or else a new swing bridge where the present one is; the lowering of the grade on Victoria avenue in Lindsay; the erection of a new passenger, freight, telegraph, library and general station at Lindsay; and, probably in 1890, the rebuilding of the first bridge, 76 feet high, east of Omemee, in stone piers and iron spans. G. T. Asst. Engineer Carney has already taken the levels at Fenelon Falls and at the bridge, and at an early date will level Lindsay grade.—Warder.

WARNER'S Safe Cure removes headache, deafness, nausea and convulsions. Why? Because these troubles are symptoms of malaria (uric acid poisoning) "Reynold's System of Medicine" says of the symptoms of uræmia: "They generally begin insidiously, with headache and vomiting, followed by heaviness, indifference and somnolence, succeeded by general convulsions and coma."

Personal.

Mr. W. D. Nicholls, real estate agent of Beatrice, Nebraska, and the youngest son of Mr. W. C. Nicholls, has been in town the past few days visiting his parents. Mr. Nicholls went away 27 years ago with nothing but his indomitable pluck and enterprise to assist him in making his way in the world, but by these and the exercise of keen judgment he has been enabled to lay up a competency and become possessed of a profitable and lucrative business. He is still a young man, and can reasonably look forward to a long life of comfortable serenity.

Messrs. Fred Wesley and Wm. Chowe left this evening for Sarnia, where they have secured employment. They will probably return to town next fall.

Mr. C. E. Stewart, of the Bobcaygeon Independent, favoured the town with a visit and the EXAMINER with a call to-day.

Mr. Thos. Blezard, M.P.P., East Peterborough, was in town to-day.

Now Is Your Opportunity to secure great bargains in choice, fresh groceries, provisions, &c., which are now being opened out at R. H. Green's grocery, corner Hunter and Aylmer streets, Peterborough, including another fresh supply of that celebrated tea at 25c. per pound. Also a large stock of sugars and other groceries bought before the recent advance in prices, of which the purchasers will get the benefit. Choice butter, fresh eggs, a good assortment of apples and other farmers' produce always on hand, including a large stock of first class potatoes, which is now being sold at 40c. per bag, delivered to any part of the town. dw

"SNUFF THE CANDLE" and see the true merit of our teas. Nothing better in town for the money than what M. R. Kidd is selling.

Touching Teas.

Twenty-five years ago people paid $1 per pound for a good tea. The tea was not actually worth it, but the cost of carriage, handling and selling fixed the price. Now see the change 25 years has wrought. Hawley Bros. will sell you as good a tea as formerly cost $1 per pound for 40c., single pounds. Take 5 lbs. and you get it for 30c. per lb. Take 10 lbs. and pay 27½c. per lb. Hawley Bros., No. 370 George st., divide profits with customers and give satisfaction every time. Their specialty is tea, clearly tea, absolutely tea, positively tea, and particularly tea. dw

MR. CHAS. LEGROS now has a telephone in his tonsorial parlors for the convenience of ladies who require hairdressing done at their houses. His George street parlors are the handsomest and neatest in town, and are fitted with hot and cold water baths. His stock of cigars, pipes and tobacco comprise the best and biggest variety. Smoke Gladstone, 5 for 25c. at Legros'. Cheap smokers should use Legros' Best, 2 for 5c.; very fine imported cigars, 3 and 4 for 25c. He is selling all best Havana cigarettes that cost 15c. per packet, at 10c. El Padre, 4 for 25c.; Creme de la Creme, 4 and 5 for 25c.

Accidentally Run Into.

Mrs. Renwick, an old lady 81 years old, was accidentally run into on the corner of Water and Hunter streets to-day by a farmers' team, the pole of the waggon cutting her cheek, one of the horses tramping on her foot and her hand being cut, besides a severe shaking up. She was taken to Dr. Yelland's office and her wounds dressed, and afterwards went to her son's residence on Bon Accord street.

"As Others See Us."

"Oh that some power the gift would gie us,
To see ourselves as others see us."
Thus sighed old Scotia's Bard in vain,
For what he could not then attain.
But had he lived in this fair town
He had no cause to sigh or frown,
For if he walked on Hunter street,
An eager throng he'd surely meet,
With faces bright as summer light,
All coming from one-fifty-eight.
Where photos always are in view,
Which are to life so very true,
That each one who has seen them there,
Does to his comrades all declare,
"SPROULE is the very man can gie us,
The power to see as others see us."

THAT AWFUL HURRICANE.

THE APPALLING DISASTER IN APIA HARBOR.

A Storm Never Before Equalled in Pacific Waters—Nearly 150 Lives and $3,000,000 of Property Lost.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 13.—A letter from Apia, Samoa, dated March 20, says: The Samoan Islands have been visited by a disaster more appalling than all the wars ever waged here. In attempting to effect a solution of the Samoan difficulty and to protect their respective interests in the islands the United States and Germany have lost nearly 150 lives and $3,000,000 worth of property. The most violent and destructive hurricane ever known in the South Pacific Ocean passed over these islands on March 16 and 17, and as a result six warships and ten other vessels were ground to atoms on the coral reefs in the harbor or thrown on the beach in front of the little city of Apia, and 142 officers and men of the American and German navies sleep forever under the reefs or lie buried in unmarked graves, thousands of miles from their native lands.

The United States frigate Trenton, flagship of the Pacific squadron, which arrived here from Panama March 11, lies within a stone's throw of the American consulate—a total wreck. The great hull of the magnificent vessel rests on the bottom, fast going to pieces. The United States steamer Vandalia, which arrived from San Francisco in February, is buried out of sight between the Trenton and the shore. Her shattered foremast and smoke stack rise from the water to mark the spot where the gallant vessel struck and lay for over 12 hours before the awful torrent of water which swept four officers and 39 men from her decks and rigging. Her commander, Captain C. M. Schoonmaker, was among the first who perished in the waves. The other officers who met their deaths were Paymaster Frank H. Arms, Lieut. Frank Stetson of the marine corps and Pay Clerk John Roach. The United States steamship Nipsic lay for several days alongside the Vandalia with her bow high on the beach and within five feet of the water's edge. The vessel, though badly damaged, was hauled off a few days after the storm, and is the only warship afloat in the harbor. Several of the officers and crew are living aboard. All the Nipsic's officers are safe, but she lost five men by the swamping of a boat and two others who jumped overboard were also drowned. The three American men-of-war were swept ashore almost at the same time.

It was on the late German gunboat Eber that the greatest loss of life occurred. The Eber had a complement of six officers and 76 men. Five men were ashore during the storm. When the vessel struck the reef she sank completely out of sight and a minute later there was not a vestige of her to be seen, and all on board were lost except one officer, Lieut. Galdeke, and four sailors. The other five officers and 66 men were either killed when the vessel crashed to pieces or were drowned in the roaring torrent of water that broke upon the reef. A small part of the Eber's prow was afterwards washed ashore near an American vessel. This and a few pieces of broken wreckage near the point where she struck are the only portions of her that have ever been seen since the moment she went down.

Just on the edge of the reef about 800 yards west of the Trenton is all that remains of the Adler, the flagship of the German squadron in Samoan waters. The Eber was washed on top of the reef and turned completely over on her side. She has remained in that position since and is almost entirely out of water. Nearly every man aboard was thrown into the water when the Adler struck but only 20 sailors were drowned and all her officers were saved.

The German corvette Olga, in fast upon a wind fast about a quarter of a mile east of the American vessels. While the storm was raging and the vessels fighting for their lives the Olga came into collision with nearly every other man-of-war in the harbor and was badly damaged. It is thought she can be towed off. No lives were lost on the Olga.

The only other man-of-war in the harbor was the British corvette Calliope, which arrived here in February and relieved the Royalist. Her machinery was very powerful and she was capable of steaming at the rate of 16 knots an hour. She narrowly escaped going ashore at the same place with the Adler, but was one who was about to strike the reef she let go her anchors and in the face of the terrible wind left the harbor and put to sea.

Merchant vessels which were wrecked were principally small craft. Nearly all of them were thrown on the reef near the wreck of the Adler, but one or two escaped with slight damage. One of these was a schooner belonging to the German Trading Company and she was made ready at once to send to Tutuila to meet the Mariposa from San Francisco, so that news of the disaster could be forwarded to Auckland and from there cabled to Europe and America.

The beach is strewn with wreckage from one end of the town to the other. Over 900 American and German sailors are quartered in Apia and for a few days after the storm subsided the greatest confusion existed everywhere. A large number of the men on the Vandalia and several on other vessels were badly injured by falling from the rigging and being thrown about decks by the terrible seas, and it was necessary to provide a temporary hospital for their accommodation. A great many men from the wrecked vessels became intoxicated as soon as they reached the shore.

The force of the storm was never equalled in this part of the world before. The barometer had been falling steadily for several days previous to the storm and the wind commenced to blow Friday afternoon, March 15, and continued until Sunday morning. The rain fell in torrents during the whole time and great clouds of sand swept over the town. Hundreds of people stood on the beach and watched the awful spectacle in the harbor. The vessels all had full head of steam on and three or four anchors out. Their yards and topmasts were down and every precaution was taken to insure the safety of the ships, but the wind constantly shifted from northeast to northwest. The force was so great that the vessels dragged their anchors all over from one side of the bay to the other and came into collision a dozen times. Tremendous seas broke over the decks and torrents of water rushed down the hatchways and put out the fires. There was great confusion among the men on several of the vessels early Saturday morning but the officers did noble work and the men became orderly and attended to their duties bravely in the face of danger.

Persons on shore were powerless to render any assistance to the ships. Hundreds ran to the water's edge and stood in the blinding storm watching the great vessels pitch about on the waves or drift on to destruction against the reefs. The sea broke upon the reef with a roaring sound and washed far up on the beach, carrying with it great quantities of wreckage. Watchers on shore were submerged time after time and many were injured by the floating wreckage. Great clouds of sand filled the air and cut face and body like a knife. Every one was drenched with the rain but stood shivering in the storm prepared to render whatever assistance might be possible.

The natives waded far out into the surf where a white man could not live and many a life was saved through their efforts. Americans and Germans were treated alike, no thought was given to the state of war existing between the Germans and themselves and the men who fought the Germans at Vailele a few months before now battled with the waves and risked their own lives to save their enemies from a watery grave.

The storm raged furiously for nearly two days and when the wind finally abated the scene of destruction was awful. On the shore houses were uncovered and blown down and trees and fences were blown across the streets so that passage was almost blocked. Out of seventeen vessels moored in the harbor only two small schooners remained afloat and these were badly damaged.

The survivors of the latter counted dazed. They had seen friends and comrades swept away from their grasp and go down to death and had expected to follow them as every wave broke over the ill-fated vessels. Long exposure had rendered them weak and exhausted. Very few had tasted food for 36 hours, many had clung to the rigging without a particle of clothing and all bore marks of terrible suffering.

The houses of Apia were thrown open and both native and foreign residents did all in their power to accommodate the shipwrecked sailors.

Apia harbor is a little semi-circular bay on the northern side of the Island of Upalu. The distance across the entrance is about three miles. A coral reef extends in front of the harbor but is broken for three-quarters of a mile. This break forms a gateway for ships. The space within this reef where ships can lie at anchor is very small, as there is a shoal of large dimensions in the eastern part, and the western portion is obstructed by another coral reef located 200 to 400 yards off shore. It was on this inner reef that most of the vessels were wrecked, as the wind blew into the harbor from the open sea and forced them bodily against it.

There is no holding ground at the bottom of the bay and vessels have dragged anchor during a stiff breeze. Rapid currents shoot about in several directions, the velocity of which is greatly increased by immense volumes of water emptying from several rivers. The principal current rushes along shore, past the point where the American vessels struck. One hundred yards further west it was met by the roaring torrent of the Vaisigano River. Thus a whirlpool was formed, and a dozen men tossed overboard from the Vandalia were swept to this point, whirled round for a moment and then forced into the bay.

The men-of-war in the harbor were necessarily close together. The vessels nearest the shore were the Eber and Nipsic. The Eber was in front of the American Consulate, a quarter of a mile from shore, and the Nipsic about 200 yards east of her. The Adler was just ahead of the Nipsic and the Olga and Calliope were ahead of the Eber. The Vandalia was beyond the Calliope, a mile off shore. The Trenton, being much larger than any other man-of-war, there was no room for her near shore, so she was obliged to anchor beyond the Vandalia just within the outer reef.

The sailing craft were in shallow water west of the men-of-war. The Trenton and Vandalia had the most dangerous berths, while the Nipsic was considered safest.

For a few days preceding the hurricane the weather was cloudy and the barometer steadily fell, but no one anticipated the storm which commenced in the afternoon of March 15. By 11 o'clock at night the wind had increased to a gale, and nearly all the warships had their engines working to relieve the strain upon their anchors. The crews on most of the sailing craft put out extra anchors and then went ashore. The rain commenced at midnight and the wind increased in fury. Great waves rolled in from the ocean and the pitching of the vessels was fearful. Every man was at work.

The Eber commenced to drag anchor at midnight and an hour later the Vandalia was dragging. By using full steam power they kept off the reef and away from the other vessels. The wind blew stronger and stronger and the rain fell in torrents. By 3 o'clock the situation was alarming. Nearly every vessel was dragging anchors and there was imminent danger of collision. A panic began to break out among the men on several vessels and they were kept at their posts with the greatest difficulty.

On shore the howling of the wind among the trees and houses and the crash of falling roofs aroused many persons from their beds, and figures were soon groping about the streets looking for shelter from the tempest. The tide came in rapidly and waves washed all over the street 100 feet above the usual high water mark. The spray was thrown high in the air and beat into the windows of houses nearest shore. Rain fell like sleet, and men and women wandering in the storm shielded their faces with pieces of board or any other article that could be used as a protection against wind and sand. The natives seemed to realize more than any one else that the storm would result in awful destruction.

People gathered in little groups and peered into the darkness across the foaming waters. Through the blackness of the night could be seen the lights of the men-of-war, and above the roaring of wind and waves the shouting of officers and men came faintly across the water. It could be seen the vessels were dragging, as the lights were moving slowly in different directions and apparently crossing and recrossing each other. Every moment it seemed as though two or more great ships were about to collide and the watchers on the beach waited in breathless anxiety to hear the crash and to see the vessels go down.

A little after 5 o'clock dawn revealed the situation. The wind from the northeast had swept the vessels from their former moorings and they were all bearing toward the reef. Black smoke was pouring from their funnels, showing desperate efforts were being made to keep up against the wind. The decks were swarming with men clinging to masts and other objects. The hulls of the warships were tossing like corks. One moment the vessels seemed to stand almost upon their beam ends and the next instant their sterns would rise out of the water and expose to view the rudders and revolving propeller. Then the prows would be lifted high in the air only to plunge into the next wave and deluge the ships with water. Several small sailing vessels have already gone ashore.

The Trenton and Vandalia being farther from the shore than the rest were observed by the mist. The vessels most plainly visible were the Eber, the Adler and the Nipsic. They were very close together and only a few yards from the reef.

The Eber was making a desperate struggle but every moment she was being drawn nearer the reef. Suddenly she shot forward as if making a last effort to escape destruction. The current however bore her to the right and her prow struck the port quarter of the Nipsic. The shock carried away several feet of the Nipsic's rail and one boat. The Eber then fell back and fouled with the Olga but neither sustained much damage. The collisions checked the Eber's progress and she seemed unable to make further effort. She swung across broadside to the wind and drifted slowly towards the reef. Awful seas broke over her. In a moment a great wave rolled in towards shore, the Eber was lifted high on its crest and carried broadside on the reef. She came down with awful force and in an instant there was not a vestige to be seen. She struck fairly upon her bottom, rolled over towards the open sea and disappeared.

About 10 o'clock the excitement on shore, which quieted a little, commenced to grow more intense as the Vandalia and Calliope were seen in a most dangerous position, and a collision between the two vessels seemed inevitable. They were both bearing back against the reef near a point where the wreck of the Adler lay. The Calliope was nearer the shore and her bow was close to the stern of the Vandalia. Great waves were tossing the two vessels about and they were coming closer together every minute. The space between the men-of-war was next seen to close altogether, when suddenly the great iron prow of the Englishman rose high in the air on the crest of an enormous wave and came down with full force upon the port quarter of the Vandalia. The crash was awful. The jibboom of the Calliope was carried away and heavy timbers of the Vandalia was shivered. Every man who stood upon the poop deck of the Vandalia was thrown from his feet by the shock. A hole had been torn below the rail and the water rushed into the cabin. It was impossible to ascertain the extent of the damage in a moment, but at the time it seemed that the Vandalia had received her death blow. The men rushed up the hatchway as the vessel was sinking, and it was only after great effort that the officers persuaded them to return to their posts.

Just after this collision Capt. Kane of the Calliope determined to make an effort to steam out of the harbor, as he saw that to remain in his present position would lead to another collision with the Vandalia and throw his vessel on the reef. He accordingly gave order to let go all anchors. The Calliope's head was swung around to wind and her powerful engines were worked to their utmost capacity. It was an anxious moment on board the corvette, as with her anchors gone she had nothing but her engines to depend upon to keep her off the reef. The steamer seemed to stand still for a moment and then the rapidly revolving propeller had its effect, for the vessel moved up slowly against the great waves which broke over her bows and flooded her decks from stem to stern. Clouds of black smoke poured from her funnels and fresh coal was thrown into her furnaces. Every muscle was strained in the desperate struggle against the storm. She seemed to make her headway at first inch by inch, but her speed gradually increased until it became evident she could clear the harbor. As she passed abreast of the Trenton a great shout went up from over 400 men aboard the flagship and three hearty cheers were given for the Calliope. Three cheers for the Trenton and the American flag was the answer that came back across the angry waters. The Calliope passed safely out of the harbor and steamed far out to sea, returning after the storm abated. She sustained little injury outside the loss of all her boats.

Order was generally restored in Apia in a few days. A large force of Samoans succeeded in hauling the Nipsic off. The Trenton's sailors are temporarily quartered in tents in the middle of the town. The Vandalia's men are quartered near the American consulate. The survivors of the German vessels are quartered in the German Trading Company's warehouses. If the Nipsic can be made seaworthy she will be sent to Auckland or San Francisco for repairs. The Trenton is believed to be beyond repair. The Olga is aground in the harbor, having been hauled off. She was hauled off by Mataafa's men with whom the Germans are at war. Most of the merchant vessels in the harbor at the time of the storm belonged to the German Trading Company.

MORRISON'S TERMS.

The Outlaw Interview Judge Dugas and Makes Impossible Conditions.

SHERBROOKE, April 14.—At the earnest solicitation of friends Donald Morrison had a long interview with Judge Dugas last week between Gould and Winslow. Donald's terms of surrender were as follows: The reward of $2000 to be given to Donald himself and he would surrender, he not to be incarcerated in jail before or during the trial, or he will take the $2000 which he claims is owed him by McAulay and five days' clear start and leave the country, or that he be guaranteed an acquittal. Of course Judge Dugas refused these terms and the interview ended.

Arrests in connection with Morrison's affair are recommended and there is woe in the homes of the people. William Morrison, a young blacksmith of Sternaway, and Murdock McAulay, a section man on the C.P.R., together with four others, were arrested Friday and conveyed to Sherbrooke jail. The temper of the people is being aroused to the highest pitch and the general opinion is that forty five warrants will never be executed without bloodshed. Five of the friends of Morrison arrested Friday by High Constable Mee arrived here by Saturday morning's train and were committed by Judge Elleux for eight days or until such time as Judge Dugas can attend to their examination.

WINNIPEG, April 14.—In the Calgary murder case yesterday the jury found a verdict of not guilty. The court refused to accept the verdict and sent the jury back to reconsider. Great indignation at the verdict is expressed and an indignation meeting is talked of.

A Town Captured by Outlaws.

LAMAR, Col., April 13.—Boston, a town 35 miles south of here and the same distance from any railroad, is in possession of a gang of outlaws headed by Bill Thomson, an old pal of "Billy the Kid." They have taken possession of stores, saloons and the postoffice, have damaged the contents and threaten the lives of citizens if they attempt to interfere. The town has been fired in several places and the people have fled to surrounding towns for safety. It is feared the town will be burned any night. Couriers have been sent to Trinidad and Las Animas for aid.

TRENT VALLEY COMMISSION.

The Mail's Ottawa correspondent writes as follows:—

"The statement was made by Mr. Barron in committee last night that the Trent Valley Commissioners proposed to report against the enterprise. The Premier denied the accuracy of the statement, but it is learned that it comes from an authority that ought to know. From the point of view of the localities to be affected by the undertaking, the report will be regrettable. These, however, who think that Canada is exceeding her spending capacity will not deplore it. The canal would cost millions, and it can hardly be argued that it is a business necessity. There is a curious set of circumstances connected with the canal. The Mackenzie Government transferred the existing works to the Ontario Government, to be used for local purposes; but the present Dominion Government resumed them, and declared their intention of utilizing them as a basis of a regular canal. Upon their declaration of policy they carried the constituencies along the route. Having spent considerable money in surveys and digging, they suddenly came to the conclusion that the desirability of proceeding with the work was worth enquiring into. The commission was thereupon appointed. As a result of the investigation the work will be abandoned."

If the commission should report against the continuance of the work, no doubt the present Dominion Government will be guided by that report, and the people of this district will have to swallow their disappointment and the political heelers their chagrin, with as good grace as possible. As stated by the Mail's correspondent, the Dominion Government were so anxious to make political capital that they seized upon the Trent Valley Canal project, and have used that project and, in accompaniment, many thousand dollars in securing some dozen seats for supporters in the canal district. After solemnly giving the people of this district an assurance of their intention to construct the canal, they let years pass without doing much more than spend the public money in trifling with the work and keeping the heelers in line. But, doubtless, discovery that the public money could be more profitably expended in another form of bribery, say, public buildings in close constituencies, they invented the commission to discover that the project was not feasible. It would be no surprise if the government abandoned the Trent Valley Canal; they have used it so long as a bait, that the electors had become familiar with it and the gudgeons were beginning to refuse to bite. Verily, statesmanship is a great thing.

Legal Intelligence.

The following case of local interest was disposed of before Chief Justice Boyd at Toronto Thursday:—

Cuddy v. Berry.—Judgment on motion by plaintiff to continue an injunction restraining the defendant Berry from removing or disposing of the goods, chattels and estate of the defendant Harran, by consent turned into and argued as a motion for judgment. Injunction dissolved; Berry to be allowed to dispose of so much of the stock as may be necessary to pay the balance due on his mortgage; if the parties cannot agree as to the balance, reference to the local Master at Peterborough. Costs of action out of the estate. Masten for the plaintiff. Possette, Q.C., for the defendant Berry.

The following appeared in the Globe's legal column on Saturday:—

Hall v. Fortye.—Motion by the defendant to compel the plaintiff to speedily deliver his statement of claim in an action by the Sheriff of Peterborough, a subsequent assignee for creditors of Porter Bros., insolvent debtors, against the prior assignee and to restrain the defendant from selling the stock-in-trade of the debtors. A motion for an interim injunction restraining the sale was refused by Boyd, C., some days ago, but the sale was in fact prevented from going on by the action of the solicitor for the plaintiff, who also represented the insolvent debtors, and, by appearing at the place of sale and warning persons not to purchase, in effect blocked the sale. Mr. Dalton, Q.C., held that the conduct of the solicitor brought the case under the same rules as if there had been an injunction or lis pendens, and that he was therefore justified in speeding the trial of the action. He ordered that the plaintiff should deliver his statement of claim on or before Monday, the 15th April. Shepley, for the defendant; Hoyles, for the plaintiff.

Tempting Teas.

Twenty-five years ago people paid $1 per pound for a good tea. The tea was not actually worth it, but the cost of carriage, handling and selling fell off the price. Now see the change 25 years has wrought. Hanley Bros. will sell you as good a tea as formerly cost $1 per pound for 40c., single pounds. Take 5 lbs. and you get it for 30c. per lb. Take 10 lbs. and pay 27½c. per lb. Hawley Bros., No. 370 George st., divide profits with customers and give satisfaction every time. Their specialty is tea, clearly tea, absolutely tea, positively tea, and particularly tea. dw

That Seized Railway Released—Interesting Insurance Statistics.

Ottawa, April 14.—Judge Downes of Calais, Me., and Mr. John D. Chipman of St. Stephen, N. B., waited on the Minister of Customs on Saturday in relation to the seizure by Customs officers a few months ago of 44 miles of the Calais and Penobscot Railway, a road running along the international boundary. The seizure was made on the ground that material used in the refitting of the road had been unlawfully imported without entry at the Customs. It was shown to the satisfaction of the minister that the duty on all the material so imported for the past ten years would not exceed $30, and that with respect to this the strict letter of the law had unwittingly been departed from owing to the peculiar situation of the road. The minister coming to the conclusion that in a case of this sort a departure from the strict letter of the law was not inexcusable, decided to have the seized strip of road released and the delegation left well satisfied with the result of their interview.

An abstract of statements of insurance companies doing business in Canada just issued gives many interesting particulars respecting the people's precautionary investments. The amount of fire insurance in 1888 was:

In Canadian companies	$139,158,695
In British companies	376,460,369
In American companies	44,881,243

The premiums charged upon this $541,000,000 of insurance amounted to $6,402,606. Of this the companies received net $5,440,009 and the net cash paid for losses was $3,076,282. The proportion of losses to premiums was considerably less than in 1887.

In life insurance 11 Canadian, 16 British and 13 American companies operated in Canada in 1888. The policies in force and the amounts were:

Companies.	Policies.	Amount.
Canadian	72,259	$114,084,571
British	14,734	32,668,441
American	26,731	97,734,084
Totals for 1888	123,698	$213,483,096
Totals for 1887	118,113	191,681,971
Increase	16,585	$28,799,825

The total premiums paid during the year amounted to $6,560,218, being an increase of $558,813 on the premiums paid the previous year.

The Safe Plan.

When suffering from a troublesome cold, a hacking cough, hoarseness, asthma, bronchitis, or other forms of throat or lung troubles, is to use Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam to loosen the phlegm and soothe and heal the inflamed mucous surfaces. It cures where others fail. 2w14d

The Blood is the Life,

And on its purity largely depends the general health. No one is free from danger, and nine-tenths of humanity actually do suffer from one form or other of impure blood. No one remedy has such a wide range of curative power as has Burdock Blood Bitters—that best of all blood purifiers and tonics.

A Cure for Lumbago.

That painful complaint can be quickly cured by the right remedy. Miss Mary Jane Gould, of Stoney Creek, Ont., says: "I was troubled with lumbago, and could not get relief until I used Hagyard's Yellow Oil, one bottle of which cured me entirely." 2w14d

GEN. BOULANGER ON TRIAL

THE SENATE SITTING AS A HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE.

Members of the Right Ignore the Request to Appear in Evening Dress—Commissioners Appointed to Conduct the Case.

PARIS, April 12.—In the Senate to-day the President read the decree constituting that body a tribunal for the trial of General Boulanger, Count Dillon and Henri Rochefort. Procureurs-General Quesnay and Bourepaire read a statement setting forth the grounds upon which the prosecution of the accused is based. The Senate went into secret session and the public withdrew. The trial of Gen. Boulanger and his associates was then formally began. The Senators had been requested to appear in evening dress for the occasion. This request was ignored by the members of the Right, all of whom were frock coats. The members of the Left were attired in evening dress, and wore white cravats.

A motion from the Right declaring that there was no ground for a judicial inquiry into the conduct of Boulanger was rejected by a vote of 209 to 86. The Senate then resolved, by a vote of 210 to 55 to proceed immediately with the trial. Thereupon the doors were reopened and the public session was resumed. Mr. Laroyer read the decree authorizing the Senate to sit as a court and directing that the trial proceed.

Boulanger's Prosecutors.

PARIS, April 12.—The following commissioners have been appointed to conduct the trial of Boulanger and the other accused persons: Senators Merlin, Casot, Cordelet, Trarieux, Munier, Demarcere, Demole, Laverture, Morellet and Humbert. Assistant commissioners have also been appointed, who will replace their colleagues on the regular commission if necessary.

Senator Dubriel will not attend the trial. He holds that a political body like the Senate has no right to try a delegate of the people. He declares that the trial is a revolutionary measure and a defiance of universal suffrage.

Senator Leon Renault will abstain from participation in the trial.

Violence of the Parisian Press.

PARIS, April 12.—The violence of journalistic polemics has reached an extraordinary pitch in the Parisian press. Exasperated by recent measures taken by the Government against Boulanger, the party that acknowledged him as chief, no longer restrains itself in the matter of abuse of the party in power. The amount and character of insults the Boulangist organs manage to turn out daily is astonishing. Henri Rochefort, who has hitherto enjoyed a monopoly in this line, has now numerous imitators. The Ministers are daily compared to all sorts of celebrated criminals and assassins. Paul de Cassagnac indulges almost daily in the most violent abuse of the Senators of the Right who have signified their intention of taking part in the proceedings of the Senate as a High Court of Justice. There are not more than three or four Boulangists in the Senate, and the Conservative Senators will in all probability vote against Boulanger in a body. They have, however, given it to be understood that if the charges against the accused are not substantiated at the first sitting, or if the acts prove not to be of a treasonable nature, they will press forward a motion for the Senate to declare itself incompetent.

A Brooklyn Blaze.

BROOKLYN, N.Y., April 12.—A fire occurred at 1 o'clock this morning in Buchanan & Lyle's jute mill at Hoyt and President-streets, while 300 girls were working over time, and two of them were badly burned. The others escaped amid great panic and confusion. The loss will reach $6,00,000. All the inmates were rescued, but there were many narrow escapes. Within five minutes after the girls had been rescued the boiler blew up with a great explosion, and shortly after this the entire building was in flames. Opposite the jute factory is the tobacco factory of the same firm, Buchanan & Lyle, and close to that is a flat house four stories high. The occupants fled in great alarm. When the boiler exploded the roofs of six houses adjoining the jute mill were set on fire, but the flames were extinguished. The property was insured on the co-operative plan.

Collapse of a Meat Company.

NEW YORK, April 12.—It is reported that the American Meat Co. has collapsed. The company was incorporated under the laws of New Mexico, and acquired considerable property, among which were 1,500,000 acres of land and $20,000 head of cattle, with ranches and all the equipments for conducting the largest business in the dressed beef traffic yet undertaken. The authorized capital stock was $11,000,000, of which $7,000,000 was subscribed up to April 10. The collapse of the scheme is said to be due to pressure brought to bear upon the company by Armour & Co. of Chicago.

A Kansas Tragedy.

KANSAS CITY, April 12.—Yesterday at Bramin Hill were found the bodies of Wilhelmina Selderick, a widow, owning a farm, and Jacob Schafer, the hired man. Both had evidently been dead several days. The woman had been shot in the mouth, abdomen and breast, while the man had a fatal wound back of the ear. Schafer had been working for the woman for years, and the neighbors say the couple frequently quarrelled. It is supposed to be a case of murder and suicide. Mrs. Selderick's first husband hang himself and her second husband died under mysterious circumstances.

Would-Be Mexican Assassin Shot.

NEW YORK, April 12.—A letter from the City of Mexico says: "Four of the men arrested on the charge of being implicated in the derailment of President Diaz' train a few weeks ago have been shot. The impression is deepening in many minds that Diaz will not be able to maintain his position to the end of his term."

A Newsboy's Revenge.

NEW YORK, April 12.—Martin Brock, a newsboy, who was severely injured while being put off an elevated train in January, 1888, brought suit against the Manhattan Elevated Railroad Company and was awarded $600 damages yesterday.

Hostics and Earthquakes in Hayti.

NEW YORK, April 12.—Advices from Hayti state heavy fighting took place on March 26 between St. Marc and Gonaives, and that on the same day great damage was done by an earthquake at Port Depaix, many houses being wrecked and several persons injured. No lives were lost.

Driving the Drives.

A number of men, who have been taking a little relaxation in their own peculiar way for the last few weeks, have gone to the woods again to prepare for "driving" the logs. The most will have to be made of the first start, says the Bobcaygeon Independent, for there is a smaller supply of water than usual. On Thursday morning three loads of men went off to Apsley and Burleigh for Strickland's limits, under David Ritchie.

Navigation Opened.

Navigation was opened in the Otonabee this morning. Mr. Calcutt's yacht Pearl made her first trip to Jubilee Point in place of the Golden-Eye, which will not be ready till the first of May. She is in the water, and only needs painting to complete her repairs. The Pearl will continue her trips regularly till relieved by the Golden Eye.

In 1844.

The Canadian Baptist publishes a list of Baptist ministers who were labouring in Upper Canada in 1844—45 years ago. Among the thirty-six contained in the list appear opposite Peterborough the names of Rev. John Edwards and Rev. John Gilmour, who will be remembered by old residents, for, half a century ago everybody knew everybody else in Peterborough.

To the Toronto Conservatory of Music.

This morning Mr. Fred. L. McIlmoyle, son of Mr. James McIlmoyle, who has for some time been a violin pupil of Prof. Docest, went to Toronto to enter the Conservatory of Music under Prof. Boucher. He will devote his attention to the study of the violin, with especial reference to orchestral music. He is a young man with good musical ability, and was brought by his first teacher to considerable proficiency. He has great industry and perseverance, and will, doubtless, make his mark in his profession. The EXAMINER wishes him every success in his chosen profession.

Flying Paper Causes a Runaway.

A flying bill of paper near the C. P. R. station Saturday afternoon frightened a team of horses, behind which were seated in a carriage a young man and woman, belonging in Otonabee. One of the animals was rather wild. It had been borrowed of a neighbour on the way to town, to take the place of one of their own horses which became sick and unable to continue the journey. The young man could not control the team, but ran them into the fence, and the young lady was thrown out, but fortunately not severely injured. The collision smashed the pole and the [illegible] station, where they were caught.

"The Pathway of Life."

By the world's greatest living preacher, T. De Witt Talmage. This is a book that touches the heart of man, woman and child, and it will be read and treasured next to the Bible in millions of Christian homes in all countries of the world. This is truly the life work of the author, as it contains his grandest, best and most beautiful thoughts. Every one who reads this book will feel that it has helped him onward and upward in the "pathway of life" and nearer to the throne of God. It is now in the hands of T. A. McKelvie, of this town, who has placed over three hundred orders since January for this new work.

Scots a Horse and Buggy.

Mr. John Fitzgerald, of Otonabee, reported a case of horse stealing to the police Saturday night. He said he put up at Wilson's hotel during the day and in the evening a man was seen driving his horse and buggy out of the yard by one of the hotel attaches. Pursuit was immediately given and the man followed through Ashburnham to the turn of the road leading past Lodgate's hill, where the chase was dropped. The police took steps to have the supposed thief's flight cut off, but about midnight the horse and buggy were found at Croft's hotel, where they had been left a short time before. No doubt the equipage was taken as a practical joke, but if the police had caught the offender he would have smarted for his fun.

THINK OF IT! Seven pounds of good Japan tea for a $1 bill, at M. E. Kidd's.

Saved by a Lawyer's Advice.

The other day a man wearing a fierce and irate look strode into a law office on Water street. "Say," he exclaimed excitedly, "what'll it cost to lick a man?" "W-why, what do you mean?" asked the astonished lawyer, who didn't know but what he might be facing an irate client of his own. "What do I mean? What'll it cost to give a fellow a good pounding, something that'll lay him up for six weeks?" Then he unburdened himself to the man of law, and after his grievances had been sufficiently aired he was advised to postpone his intentions and told that sometimes it meant a month in gaol. That settled it; he decided to leave his enemy alone, and peace was preserved.

Floating Birch Logs.

Since publishing our former article on the plan of floating birch logs, says the Warder, we farther learn from Mr. J. A. Ellis, of Fenelon Falls, that his experiments were fully tested, the logs having been floated all the way from Stanhope, and lay months in the water without becoming waterlogged. Mr. Ellis thinks that painting the ends would have a further beneficial effect where the drive would have far to go. From Mr. Wm. Gaiser, of Minden and Allsaw, we learn also that he has successfully floated the birch in the same way as Mr. Ellis; and that Mr. James Aikens, of Stanhope, has brought them to Peterborough. The plan of these gentlemen is to cut down the birch in the last of May or early in June, when the sap is running well, strip it of its bark and leave on sticks off the ground. In October cut into logs and they will float anywhere.

Freeman in Gaol.

The man, J. H. Freeman, arrested here and taken to Orillia, was tried Wednesday. There being no evidence to convict him on the charge of gaol breaking he was discharged. He left in company with the constable on the afternoon train for Barrie, where he will put in his term of four months on the original conviction for violation of the Crooks Act. It is understood that as soon as the prisoner is safely disposed of the constable will again bring up the charge of prison breaking. The Orillia Times says a chance was given the prisoner to escape from this serious charge if he would "peach" on those who let him out. But in spite of his not very robust appearance and weak nerves, he is clear grit and prefers to suffer than bring trouble on his friends. Constable Clark is determined to sift the affair to the bottom end will find out who the accomplices were if it takes five hundred dollars to do it.

The Reward of Merit.

We understand that Miss Harper has had the refusal of two good positions this present week, and has decided to accept the one offered by the William Johnson manufacturing Co., of Montreal, filling the Toronto position with one of her own pupils. Miss Harper will draw a salary of $600.00 per annum. The position has hitherto been filled by Mrs. O'Neil, late vice-president of the Canadian Shorthand Society, and one of the most successful shorthand writers in the Province. Mrs. O'Neil has been promoted to the position of Vice-Managing Director, and this is one of the many illustrations where perseverance and stick-to-it-iveness secure appreciation and reward. Young men and women can not do better than take a course in shorthand and typewriting, and so fit themselves to fill positions, not only of trust, but which are well remunerative. As will be seen by card in another column, Mrs. Geo. Cluxton has very kindly offered to take charge of all pupils who have not completed the present term, and will also accept new pupils for the term beginning directly after Easter. The classes will meet at her residence, No. 197, Brock street.

Personal.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fairbairn (Miss Mills) are spending their honeymoon at Washington.

Mr. Frank Karch, a former resident of Peterborough, is now managing one of the C. P. R. hotels in the Rocky Mountain district.

Dr. Brennan and Mr C. J. Phelan will represent the Riverside Lacrosse Club at the annual meeting of the C.L.A. at Niagara tomorrow.

The Minden Echo says:—Mr. W Manicom, cutter for the Dickson Lumber Co., having completed his work for the season, left Minden Thursday for his home in Peterborough.

Death on the Rail.

An Aged Poet Found Dead on the Railway Track.

As No. 6 express was bowling along the line of the C.P.R. a few miles east of Havelock on Saturday, the driver noticed the body of a man lying dead alongside the track. He stopped the train and the corpse was taken aboard and brought on to Havelock. The man had evidently been killed by another train, as the body was quite cold. There were rumors of foul play, to the effect that the man had been stabbed and laid on the track to hide the crime, but the report is not confirmed. The unfortunate man's name was Thos. Owens, of Springbrook, often spoken of as the Rawdon poet. It is supposed he was walking on the track, and was struck by a night train. No inquest was held.

Church Chimes.

Mr. Patton, a student, preached in St. Andrew's church Sunday night.

The Rev. Father O'Brien, of Merrisburg, has been appointed to succeed the late Father Walsh of Trenton.

At to-morrow night's service in St. Luke's church the subject will be "The Winepress of the Wrath of God, the Seven Plagues."

On Sunday, the 28th, the members of the E.B.A. will receive Holy Communion in a body at St. Peter's Cathedral.

Mr. Colville, Secretary pro tem of the Y.M.C.A., preached in the Mark street, Methodist church, Ashburnham, Sunday night.

Miss Chant, of Port Hope, presided at the organ in St. Andrew's church Sunday. She is one of the applicants for the vacant position of organist.

A punster created a laugh to-day by saying that he saw a clergyman preaching on Palm Sunday with a crown on his head and a palm in his hand. On second thoughts this appears nothing unusual.

Rev. S. J. Shorey announced in the Charlotte street church last night that some ninety new members had been added to the church at the morning reception service as a direct result of Messrs. Crossley and Hunter's meetings. Another reception will take place in two weeks, when further additions are expected.

At the George street church Sunday reception services were held morning and evening, at which about 150 new members were added to the church. Rev. Mr. Pearson at night read over the rules of the church. His address was on events of the last week of Jesus' career on earth. Mr. Pearson said he thought it was a nice thing to celebrate Palm Sunday and the memory of Christ's last days, and proposed every evening this week to deal with the different events in order as they occurred, at the meetings in the church.

At St. Peter's Cathedral Palm Sunday was celebrated as usual. The palms were blessed at the 10.30 mass by Rev. Father Dube and distributed among the congregation. At the eight o'clock mass the Passion hymn was sung by the boy choir. Rev. Father McEvay preached in the evening on the gospel of the day. Next Thursday (Holy Thursday) there will be a mass at eight o'clock and the blessed sacrament will be exposed during the day in church. On Good Friday the office of the Veneration of the Cross will be fulfilled at eight o'clock and at three o'clock in the afternoon the "stations of the cross" will be followed. Usual Lenten service at 7.30 p.m. On Easter Sunday masses at 6, 8.30 and 10.30. Special music and decorations.

There was a large attendance at the Baptist church on Sunday morning. The pastor, Rev. P. Clifton Parker, preached a good sermon on "The Saviour's Triumphant Entry into Jerusalem." He closed his sermon with a very eloquent tribute to the work of Messrs. Crossley and Hunter. After showing how, during the last six weeks, the Lord Jesus in his gospel chariot had been riding among us as a conqueror, the reverend gentleman said: "I believe that in these meetings chords have been struck in hundreds of hearts, that have broken into songs of gladness, songs that will tremble away into the silence of unborn years of history of the homes and churches of this city; and when you and I stand up yonder, my brothers, on the eternal heights, we shall weep tears of joy as we hear these notes breaking forth in divine harmony from the trembling lips of some redeemed souls standing before the throne of the Almighty God and everlasting Father, where the day breaks and the shadows flee away."

Mr. Powderly's Visit.

The General Master Workman of the Knights of Labor of America Addressed by the Workingmen of Peterborough.

About a hundred workingmen and others gathered at the C. P. R. station last night, and presented Mr. T. V. Powderly, who was passing through from Toronto to Ottawa, with a short address. Mr. Powderly lectured in Toronto Saturday night and is to speak in Ottawa to-night. He was originally billed for Peterborough but the engagement, like many others, was cancelled.

All arrangements had been made, Mr. Powderly was aware of the reception that awaited him and the train was to be delayed ten minutes for that purpose. It arrived a little ahead of time. Mr. Powderly came out of the sleeping car attired in his slippers and smoking cap. He is an elderly man of distinguished appearance, with heavy iron grey hair and moustache, and a full deep voice that is pleasant to hear. With him was Mr. A. W. Wright, of Toronto, a prominent Knights of Labor man. He was escorted into the waiting room of the station, where, in the centre of the crowd the following address was read, or rather begun to be read, by Mr. John O'Brien.

To T. V. Powderly, Esq., General Master Workman of the Knights of Labor of America:

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—We, the Knights of Labor of the town of Peterborough of the province of Ontario, hearing of your advent to our province, and being unable to participate at your meetings in Toronto and Ottawa, seize the only opportunity afforded for showing our profound admiration and confidence in your excellent executive qualities as displayed with so much effect and benefit to the workingmen of America, since you were so worthily placed at their head. We feel we cannot express with sufficient warmth our deep gratitude and appreciation of your noble and successful efforts in elevating to a higher plane the sons of toil on this continent. Every department of labor on land has been benefitted by your noble and self-sacrificing exertions, and we hail now with a salvo of cheers your last grand effort for the amelioration of the condition of the tyrannized sailor, and in this you will be successful as you have right and might on your side. We renew again our delight at meeting you and trust that your health and strength will be maintained by a beneficent providence to guide unerringly and successfully, as you have in the past, the emancipated sons of toil on this broad continent.

From Sanctuary 6952, attached to District Assembly 256.

JOHN O'BRIEN, Secretary. RICHARD CALVERT, Master Workman.

In the midst of it Mr. Powderly, fearing there would not be time to finish, took the address, saying he would read it at his leisure in the car. Mounting a chair he thanked them for the address, which he would accept as a memento of their esteem for him. He was sorry he could not stop in Peterborough, but his duties kept him bound down in one place. He, however, proposed that they arrange a meeting for next Thursday night, to be addressed by Mr. Wright, who would be able to stop off here on his return from the capital. Mr. Powderly said he was pleased to meet them and was proud of the demonstration gotten up for him on such short notice. He had no intention of making a speech and would, therefore, content himself with thanking them and shaking hands with as many as he could.

Mr. Powderley was then introduced to and shook hands with a large number of the gentlemen present, and after re-entering the car, as the train pulled out, three cheers were given as a parting salute.

Ashburnham Brevities.

A new sidewalk is being laid on Lake street opposite the Dickson estate property.

The last of the ice left Little Lake on Saturday.

The school closes Tuesday evening for the Easter holidays. Other places would do well to take a leaf from the book of the Ashburnham school board, and give their teachers a needed breathing time after being cooped up all winter.

A Barber's Scrape

Rival Tonsorial Artists in Difficulty—One Committed for Trial.

A few days ago an item appeared in THE EXAMINER regarding an assault case arising out of a row at Chamberlain's Monday night of last week. The affray was ventilated in court this morning. Geo. Provencanse, the plaintiff, appeared with a badly damaged countenance, which was the cause of his remaining indoors under Dr. Yelland's care all last week. Provencanse is a barber at the Oriental hotel, and his antagonist was a rival "shaver" on lower George street. The charge was assault in a criminal degree. The defendant elected to be tried by jury at the assizes next week, therefore the trial today partook more of the nature of a preliminary examination. County Crown Attorney Wood prosecuted and Mr. A. P. Ponsonby, Q.C., conducted the defence.

The witnesses were Geo. Provencanse, P. Sevier, clerk at Chamberlain's, Prof. Clemens Waterford, and Dr. Yelland. It seems that on the night in question Provencanse entered Chamberlain's and accused the other barber of working after hours. Thus the latter denied. Words were followed by blows, and in the fracas Provencanse was badly cut about the head. The men clinched, and Provencanse struck his antagonist first, but the latter got the best of him, throwing him down and beating him, and, it is said, kicking him also. However, these facts will all come out at the trial next week.

The magistrate thought it better to reduce the charge to common assault and settle the matter there and then, but the defendant wished it carried to the higher court. He was committed for trial but allowed out on personal bail of $100, and the witnesses were bound over in $100 each to appear at the trial.

The Late Lionel Yorke.

A Former Resident of Peterborough Passes Away.

Lionel Yorke, one of the most prominent contractors of Toronto, died in that city on Saturday evening. His death, which was preceded by only a few hours' illness, was caused by fatty degeneration of the heart. Mr. Yorke was a native of England, and, about 1860, came to Peterborough, where he was well known as a builder for ten years. He was a man of strong physique, and, in his younger days, in town he was not a safe antagonist in a test of strength or fistic skill. About twenty years ago he removed to Toronto, when his abilities met with remunerative appreciation and he became one of the foremost contractors in the city. He is credited with building more churches than any man in Toronto. His first contract was the brick work of the Lieut.-Governor's residence. He superintended the work on the Central prison. Other contracts included some of the finest public buildings. At the time of his death he was contractor for the erection of the stone work of the new Parliament Buildings in Queen's Park. He was a member of the Bond street church (Dr. Wild's), and was also a member of St. Andrew's Lodge A.F. and A.M., and had also entered capitular and templar Masonry.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

A NUMBER OF BILLS PASSED THROUGH THE HOUSE.

The Minister of Finance Gives Notice of a Resolution Authorizing Several Steamship Subsidies.

OTTAWA, April 15.—Hon. John Macdonald's bill respecting the new Toronto Board of Trade building was next over from the Senate this afternoon and rushed through its three stages in the House. Mr. Small moved urgency and the rules of the House were suspended to press the bill through all its stages. By the old charter of the Toronto Board of Trade, that organization was limited to holding but $250,000 worth of real estate. The new fire-proof building which will be erected will cost over $350,000, and without this amended legislation the board could not own such a structure. Had the bill gone over till the next session the board would lose $10,000 in interest on the subscriptions to erect the new building on account of its being unavailable for a year. This is now relieved and the board can go straight ahead with their proposed stupendous pile.

Hon. Edgar Dewdney introduced a bill to consolidate and amend the Northwest Territories Act. In view of certain minor amendments desired in its purposed, he said, to consolidate the three acts now existing relating to the Northwest Territories. Hon. Mr. Laurier objected to a consolidation bill being introduced at this late stage of the session, and Hon. David Mills also objected, declaring is to be a most monstrous proceeding. Sir John Thompson said he saw no cause for alarm, as the amendments were very few and simple, and there being not the slightest expectation of Parliament closing before the end of next week, there would be plenty of time for consideration.

Hon. John Costigan introduced a bill to amend the General Inspection Act. The amendments include provision for the determination of the wheat standards west of Port Arthur, to be fixed by a board chosen from that locality. Authority is given to inspectors and deputies for the Northwest and Manitoba.

The Bagwell, Wand and Middleton divorce bills were read a third time and passed.

On motion that the House go into committee on the bill for the relief of William Gordon Lowry, Sir John Thompson moved the six months' hoist. Though the evidence showed that the petitioner was not guilty of collusion the case rested only on the admission of the wife, an admission made under circumstances which rendered it of very little value.

The House having divided, Sir John Thompson's motion was lost, 55 to 69, and the bill was read a third time and passed.

The Senate amendments to the bill to amend the statute respecting the safety of ships were concurred in. So also were the Senate amendments to the bill respecting the Harbor of Belleville.

The bills from the Senate to amend the Summary Trials Act and to amend the Summary Convictions Act were passed.

The House then went into committee on the bill respecting the expropriation of lands, which was adopted with amendments.

After recess Hon. John Carling introduced the resolution, of which the details were given some days ago, reducing the amount of interest payable by the Manomite body upon the loan made to them in 1876 to aid needy immigrants. In place of 6 per cent. compound interest the rate is made 4 per cent. simple interest. Computed at this rate the loan, principal and interest, has been repaid.

The resolution was adopted.

Hon. John Costigan introduced his proposed resolution amending the Inland Revenue Act so as to make it more conveniently operative. With respect to the duty on cigarets, which it had been proposed to raise to $1.95 per thousand, he now placed it at an equivalent to the duty now collected, or $1.50 per thousand.

A lengthy discussion took place on the motion by Sir John Macdonald for the second reading of the bill authorizing the granting of pensions to members of the Northwest Mounted Police. The Liberals opposed the extension of the pension system and Hon. A. G. Jones offered an amendment to the effect that a sum should be deducted from the daily pay of the force to be paid to members upon their retirement, or to their heirs if they died in the service.

The House divided on this amendment, which was lost by 66 to 106, and the Pension Bill was read a second and third time and passed.

Sir John Thompson moved the third reading of the bill amending the Franchise Act.

Mr. Charlton moved an amendment declaring that in any province where manhood suffrage may be adopted the qualification under the act shall be the same as under the provincial franchise, and that the provincial lists shall be used. This was voted upon and lost, as were also two other amendments proposed by Messrs. Davies and Watson, and the bill was read a third time and passed.

Hon. John Haggart moved the reading of the postal bill. An amendment by Mr. Peter White of Renfrew against the proposition to increase the registration fee was lost on a division of 55 to 95. An amendment by Hon. A. G. Jones against the increased rate on drop letters was lost on a division.

The bill was read a third time and passed, and at 12.45 the House adjourned.

STEAMSHIP SUBSIDIES.

The Fast Atlantic Service to Cost Not Exceeding $300,000 a Year.

OTTAWA, April 15.—Mr. Foster gives notice of a resolution authorizing a subsidy of $45,000 per annum for a monthly steamship service or $35,000 for a fortnightly service between British Columbia and China and Japan, provided the Imperial Government gives a subsidy of not less than $45,000 for monthly, or $75,000 for fortnightly service.

Also a resolution authorizing a subsidy of $35,000 for a fortnightly steamship service between British Columbia and the Australian colonies and New Zealand.

Also a resolution authorizing a contract for a term not exceeding ten years for a fast weekly steamship service between Canada and the United Kingdom, making connection with a French port, for a subsidy not exceeding $600,000 a year.

[illegible], N.J., April 15.—Over 10,000 Philadelphians came here yesterday. A HUNDRED HOMES BURNT

TERRIBLE FOREST FIRE IN THE "OLD DOMINION."

The Flames Sweep Through a Virginia County Like a Tornado—One Life Known to be Lost—Four More Missing.

DANVILLE, Va., April 16.—Information has been received of a terrible forest fire in Patrick County, which swept everything before it. One man, six horses, a large number of hogs and cattle and numerous dwellings and tobacco barns were consumed. Many poor people are left destitute. Such a fire was never before known in that section.

The fire extended from Patrick Springs to Critz Depot, covering an area 10 miles long and three to six wide. The fire commenced Friday and burned until a heavy rain aided the men Sunday night in stopping it.

The flames impelled by a gale swept through the fertile valley called Wildcat Hollow like a tornado, preceded by sounds like rolling thunder, and dashed up the mountain side casting a lurid glare over the country for miles around and terrifying the mountaineers.

Over a hundred families were left homeless, escaping with only the clothes they were. Every vestige of fencing in the track of the fire is gone.

One man is known to have been burned to death and four others are reported missing.

The damage will amount to many thousands of dollars.

Extensive Incendiary Fire—A Farmer Loses Heavily.

PORT HOPE, April 15.—An extensive incendiary fire occurred on the premises of Mr. Thos. Cole, lot 25, 7th con. of Hamilton. The fire was first discovered about 2 o'clock this morning. Two barns, two stables and a lot of farming implements, cutter, robes, two or three sets of harness and all the grain and feed on the farm, with all the seed grain, were destroyed. The loss is estimated at between $3000 and $4000, insured for about $1400.

Tortured by Thieves.

MEYERSDALE, Pa., April 15.—Masked men Saturday night invaded the house of Christian Yoder near here and spent several hours torturing the old man, who was infirm and ill, in order to make him disclose the whereabouts of his money. They hanged him to a hook, took him down and hanged him up again, as though he were an old coat, and then secured $186 and left, taking two of his best horses. The horses, however, have since been recovered at Pinkerton Tunnel. At the time there were in the house a hired man, two servant girls and Mr. and Mrs. Yoder. Yesterday the hired man's wife, wondering at his continued absence, went to Yoder's house and found the doors locked. She finally gained an entrance and there on the floor was the old man, his wife, the two girls and her husband, all bound and gagged.

Up Goes Beef in Minnesota.

DULUTH, April 15.—Friday the Legislature passed a meat inspection bill, which practically prohibited Chicago and Kansas City dressed beef from being sold in this state. GREENSBURG, Pa., April 16.—Saturday night during a festival in the A.M.E. church in Mount Pleasant a dispute arose about some change and a riot ensued, in which knives, clubs, etc., formed the prominent weapons. Chief of Police Wolfendale had an ear almost bitten off, besides sustaining other injuries, and George Twining, another policeman, was stabbed twice in the back by George Lightfoot, the leader of the gang. With difficulty the disturbance was quelled and George Lightfoot, John Grant and Lemuel Strander were jailed.

BIRMINGHAM FOR BRIGHT

HE IS ELECTED BY AN OVERWHELMING MAJORITY.

The Liberal-Unionists Poll More Than Double the Gladstonian Vote—The Imperial Finances—Mr. Goschen's Budget.

LONDON, April 16.—John Albert Bright, the candidate of the Liberal-Unionists, was to-day elected to succeed his father, the late John Bright, as representative of the Central Division of Birmingham in Parliament. Mr. Bright received 5610 votes against 2260 for William C. Beale, the Gladstonian.

At the last election in the Central Division of Birmingham the late John Bright was returned without opposition.

Mr. Goschen's Budget.

LONDON, April 15.—In the House of Commons to-day Mr. Goschen, Chancellor of the Exchequer, introduced the Budget. The revenue for the year exceeded the estimate of the last Budget by £1,643,000. The expenditures were £941,000 under the estimate, leaving a surplus of £2,584,000, the largest amount since 1873. The revenue from spirits and tobacco decreased, while that from tea shows a small increase.

The income tax realized £1,201,000 over the estimate, the postal service £328,000 and the stamp tax £490,000. Other increases were in the Custom House duty and the revenue from the telegraph service.

It is calculated that the revenue for the current year will be £85,060,000 and the expenditures £86,967,000, making a deficit of £1,917,000 caused by increased army and navy expenses. This deficit will be met by taking £1,000,000 saved last year and putting an additional tax of 1 per cent. upon the death duties on estates of the value of £10,000 and upwards and adding a duty of 1-14 of a penny upon every gallon of beer.

Mr. Goschen promised that the Government would deal apart from the Budget with the question of light gold currency due to wear, and would take care that the proposals would not tend to decrease the gold reserves.

Hugh C. Childers congratulated Mr. Goschen upon meeting the increased expenditures without placing a burden upon the general taxpayers. He said he approved of the new death duty on estates.

Parjurer Molloy Convicted.

LONDON, April 15.—Patrick Molloy, summoned as a witness for The Times before the Parnell Commission but who gave evidence at variance with the statements he had made to The Times' counsel before he was placed on the witness stand and who was tried on a charge that he perjured himself during his examination, was convicted today. He was sentenced to six months' imprisonment at hard labor.

How's This, Mr. Blaine?

COLOGNE, April 15.—The Gazette says: 'The nomination of Mr. Sewall as disbursing officer of the American commissioners to the Samoan conference, together with the appointment of Mr. Bates as a member of the commission, warrants the supposition that the Washington Government does not seriously desire a friendly settlement of the questions concerning Samoa."

ON THE WARPATH.

Turbulent Coal Handlers at Cleveland—Willing to Take the Old Rate.

CLEVELAND, April 15.—The coal handlers on the docks fronting the river are on the warpath. Last season they were paid 14 cents for loading coal into vessels. Early this season they concluded they should have 16 cents, but their employers decided to reduce the price to 12 cents. The old men laid down their shovels and new men were employed. This morning about 100 strikers, carrying sticks which they used for canes, marched from dock to dock. They ordered everybody to quit work and their command was respected. At the Pennsylvania Railroad docks the workmen resumed work shortly after the strikers had disappeared, as policemen arrived to protect them. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon all the docks except those belonging to the Pennsylvania Company were deserted. The strikers are now willing to accept 14 cents.

Pennsylvania Labor Notes.

PITTSBURG, April 15.—The Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers will demand that all the iron mills be closed for two months during the summer. This move meets with general favor among the iron workers. The two months would give the iron workers a chance to rest and the employers to make repairs. The suspension would throw 22,000 men in this district out of employment.

The railroad coal miners belonging to the Progressive Union have accepted the operators' scale proposing a reduction of 2½ cents per ton in wages for the ensuing year. The K. of L. miners withdrew from the meeting because the Progressive officials controlled. The Knights then met and denounced the action of the Progressive officials. It is thought the Knights will also accept the scale.

TUESDAY, APRIL 16, 1889.

AN INDISPENSABLE INSTITUTION.

Our costly collection of Senatorial antiques, maintained at an enormous expense at Ottawa, is becoming more and more obstructive and daily furnishing new arguments for its extinction. The rejection by the Senate of the wrecking bill, which was passed by the people, through their representatives in the House of Commons, is another case in point, where a body largely composed of political incapables, appointed because of their failure and uselessness in representative politics and responsible to nobody but the political leader, who created, them can nullify and void the voice of the people at their own caprice. Sir John uses the Senate to destroy legislation he does not wish to oppose openly. He astutely permits his servile majority to vote for measures demanded by the public or in the public interest, and then, quietly instructing his creatures in the Senate, the legislation is killed and thus Sir John reaches a result which it would be impolitic (in his view) to insist on in the House of Commons. The Senate is not responsible to anybody; they may safely defy public opinion. Public indignation at the thwarting of the popular will might just as well be directed against the occupants of a cemetery as against the Senate, as a body. Another evil possibility of the Senate, as at present constituted, is shown in the case of Mr. Eybert, the member for Lincoln, who is ready to drop into the Senate at any time. His constituents at a recent meeting declared that he did not represent their sentiments in his speech and vote on Col. O'Brien's Jesuit Estate resolutions. But Mr. Eybert openly and boldly defied them. He has for years done a large amount of dirty political work, and now, sure of his reward, he can defy his constituents and become a member of a body with the evil power to destroy legislation enacted by the people's representatives.

N. S. Wales vs. Victoria.

Comparisons between the progress made by New South Wales and Victoria, Australia—the former a free trade province, the latter protectionist—are being kept pretty steadily before the world; and there is no denying the fact that, so far as the statistics indicate, the comparisons are immensely in favor of the free trade province. The Telegraph, of Sydney, N.S.W., in a recently published article, shows that, between 1877 and 1887, the manufacturing industries of New South Wales show an increase of 76 per cent., against 53 in Victoria. The development is not confined to manufacturing, but extends to population, trade, telegraphs, railways and revenue, as the following table from that paper shows:

	Increase during 10 years ending with December 31, 1887: Victoria.	N. S. Wales.	Excess in favour of N. South Wales.
	per cent.	per cent.	per cent.
Population	34.7	88.2	54.1
Revenue	81.8	187.6	72.8
Trade	4.8	58.2	53.0
Imports	14.0	71.6	58.6
Exports	34.0	66.6	32.4
Railways	282.5	416.4	98.9
Telegraphs	4.8	94.4	89.6
Manufactories	*83.3	*76.7	*6.5

—* For 11 years.

New South Wales has recently taken an important step toward in adopting the English system of free trade, having decided to sweep away all specific duties and provide for the revenue thus lost by direct taxation.

A close investigation of the progress made by Canada previous to and since 1878, would probably show that under the protectionist regime a great deal of the development observable in of an artificial character, due largely to the expenditure of immense sums of borrowed money—about $100,000,000 in ten years—and not to natural and healthy progress. Our trade is at a stand-still—actually less than it was fifteen years ago; our population is increasing very slowly—the increase by immigration being almost balanced by the exodus of our own population; our once great shipping industry is steadily declining from year to year since the adoption of protection; while the development of manufacturing industries has been mainly artificial, due to the hot-house stimulus of the tariff. What is to be the result when the large expenditure of borrowed money which has been going on for some years either wholly ceases, or is reduced to small proportions, as the financial condition of the country at present demands? It will be matter for congratulation if very serious commercial and financial disaster does not overtake Canada.—Montreal Herald.

GABRIEL'S GUFF.

Dumont Stirring Up Discontent Among the Halfbreeds.

WINNIPEG, April 15.—Gabriel Dumont has been indulging in a lot of guff at his old home. He told the French halfbreeds that a given number of them well armed could lick a similar number of any other nation. He said amnesty had been granted and all the rebels should get back their estate and other goods confiscated. A petition was being prepared and would be sent to Governor Royal for signature, and if he refused he (Dumont) would go to Ottawa himself with it.

Judge Dugas to Go to Sherbrooke on Thursday to Try the Prisoners.

MONTREAL, April 15.—Judge Dugas states that he will go back to Sherbrooke on Thursday next to continue the preliminary investigation in the three first arrests.

"Why did you not admit them to bail?" he was asked to-day.

"It is a felony," replied the judge. "There is evidence that two of the men had threatened to shoot the would-be captors of Morrison. I see I am blamed for having sent Morrison. I have already stated that I hesitated, but the mayors of Stornoway and Gould and a number of Justices of the Peace insisted that I should go and assured me that Morrison would surrender to me. Had I not gone I would have been blamed. Some one said I had two revolvers with me at my so-called interview with the outlaw. That is not true; I was unarmed."

OVER THE MOUNTAIN.

A Cock-Fight Between Toronto and Hamilton Roosters—Anti-Prohibition Burglars.

HAMILTON, April 15.—On Saturday night there was a big cock-fight over the mountain between representative Toronto and Hamilton roosters. Eleven carriage loads of sports went out from the city to attend the festivities. Hamilton birds won five battles out of six.

Last night Daniel Sullivan's grocery at the corner of Walnut and O'Reilly-streets was entered by some anti-prohibition thieves, who got away with nine bottles of brandy, four or five bottles of port wine and six flasks of whisky.

There were thirteen applications for the vacancy on the police force caused by Constable Strangman's death. John S. Cross, 5 ft. 11 in., 196 lbs., 26 years old, a native of Waterdown, secured the appointment.

Wm. Harper, one of the oldest and most generally respected of the Grand Trunk Railway employes in Hamilton, died on Saturday night after a short illness.

At the Police Court this morning on the charge of assaulting an officer Henry Hanley was fined $10, and on charges of interfering with the police George Johnson was fined $4 and Frank Doolan and John Kelly $5 each.

THE END OF A DEBAUCH.

A Drunken Woman Accidentally Suffocated at Kincardine.

KINCARDINE, April 15.—Yesterday morning Margaret McLeod, a middle-aged woman living with her son, was found lying on the floor dead. Her son was asleep in another room and was awakened by Edwin Bateman and Kenneth Matheson, who discovered the body. An inquest was held to-day. Although foul play was at first suspected, it would seem that Margaret, her son and a young man had been drinking on Saturday night, that they all became drunk, the men fell asleep and the woman, in falling off her chair, was suffocated.

HARRY PHILLIPS TOO.

The Noted Sport Arrested for Complicity in the Alleged Jewelry Steal.

MONTREAL, April 15.—Harry Phillips, late manager for John L. Sullivan, was arrested this afternoon on a charge of helping Andy Maloney to steal $14,000 worth of jewelry from Von Reinholtz, agent of P. W. Ellis & Co. of Toronto. The case will come before the court to-morrow.

The Loss of the Hair

Is a great misfortune and the sight of a bald head should be a warning to you to take the best possible care of your hair. A little of Dr. Dorenwend's "Hair Magic" used occasionally will prevent all chances of its falling out or turning gray, and will remove all traces of dandruff. Every druggist has it in stock. Ask for it. dw

The Blood is the Life,

And on its purity largely depends the general health. No one is free from danger, and nine-tenths of humanity actually do suffer from one form or other of impure blood. No one remedy has such a wide range of curative power as has Burdock Blood Bitters—that best of all blood purifiers and tonics.

Eczema, Itchy, Scaly Skin Tortures.

The simple application of "Swayne's Ointment," without any internal medicine, will cure any case of Tetter, Salt Rheum, Ringworm, Piles, Itch, Sores, Pimples, Eczema, all Scaly Itching Skin Eruptions, no matter how obstinate or long standing. It is potent, effective, and costs but a trifle. Lyman, Sons & Co., Montreal, Wholesale Agents. dw

A Cure for Lumbago.

That painful complaint can be quickly cured by the right remedy. Miss Mary Jane Could, of Stoney Creek, Ont., says: "I was troubled with lumbago, and could not get relief until I used Hagyard's Yellow Oil, one bottle of which cured me entirely." 2w14d

HA! HA! HA! Do you see the point? Kidd sells good honest tea as a beverage. See it now?

25 REASONS

FOR DRINKING

ROYAL DANDELION COFFEE

Some drink because they are hungry,
And some because they're dry,
Some drink to keep them in good health,
And some that they may thrive.

Some drink because they are too hot,
And some because they're too cold,
Some drink to strengthen them when young,
And some when they are old.

Some drink to keep them wide awake,
And some that they may sleep,
Some drink it right to drink at night,
While others drink by day.

Some drink for sake of company,
While others drink on the sly;
And many drink but never think,
About the reason why.

Some say they drink for pleasure,
And some they drink for pain,
Some say 'tis good, some very bad,
But never once refrain.

Yet all must own the proverb true:
"When you've ho to strike it"—
I've just found out the reason why—
All drink because they like it!

GRAND OPENING

OF

GOUGHS' GREAT HAT and CAP DEPARTMENT

During the past month our Store has been undergoing extensive alterations, and now with pardonable pride, we have much pleasure in announcing that our Store is one of the Finest in Canada. Our aim has been to clothe a man or boy from head to foot, and we have been adding department after department until we have reached the goal of our ambition. Our last Great Department, namely, HATS and CAPS, is now open, and we are showing the Latest Styles from London, New York and Paris. We will not enlarge on the prices these Goods will be sold at, suffice to say,—they will simply astonish our patrons. Remember our Great HAT and CAP DEPARTMENT is now open.

A WORD ABOUT OUR CLOTHING DEPARTMENT, THIS SPRING:

Never in the history of the trade has such an Array of Fine Clothing been placed before a buying public. Our Stock this Spring embraces all the LATEST DESIGNS and PATTERNS, and as they were made under our own special supervision, the workmanship is of a SUPERIOR quality. Notwithstanding all this our prices will be found LOWER than ever. When we came to you as the Revolutionizers of the Clothing Trade, we promised you then that we would benefit the public, and now after a long trial have we kept our word? If so, let that be our best guarantee to the public, that we deal honestly and squarely with them in the future. We are not so egotistical as to believe that we please every one, (our Divine Master when on earth did not please everyone) still to those who we did not please, as well as those we did please, we sincerely return thanks for past patronage. As we are not infallible we are prone to make mistakes and our judgment like any human being's may err in buying. Still we try to avoid errors, as much as possible, and therefore it is our proud boast when anyone has a grievance we never refused to make it right when brought to our notice. This spring we are going to REDOUBLE OUR ENERGIES, and by keeping GOOD GOODS, NICE GOODS, SQUARE DEALING, and EXTREMELY LOW PRICES, we hope to merit a Continuance of your Generous Patronage.

THE MALADY OF HER RACE

EMPRESS AUGUSTA OF AUSTRIA AFFLICTED WITH INSANITY.

Kaiser William Exasperated by the Failure of Press Prosecutions and Determined on a Rigorous Gag Law.

BERLIN, April 13.—The Court of Appeals convention of the police decree against The Volks Zeitung and the failure of the prosecution of The Freisinnige Zeitung exasperate the Emperor and confirm his determination to insist upon a bill to accentuate the rigors of the ordinary press law. An intimation has been made to the leaders of the National party through Count Herbert Bismarck that a press law compromise must be abandoned, the Government finding it necessary to press upon the Reichstag a measure to control criticism. This decision promises an upheaval of parties during the remainder of the session. The persecution of the press excites every populous centre in Germany, is strengthening the Progressists and Socialists and is making a bad impression on the country that the Emperor's future will justify the worst fears of his despotic tendencies.

Advices from Vienna state that the Empress of Austria has been attacked by the family malady—insanity. She suffers from long spells of melancholia and entertains delusions, accusing herself of the death of Crown Prince Rudolph. She is possessed with ideas of suicide, thinking to leave the Emperor free to re-marry. Sometimes she fondles a cushion or a pillow, thinking it a new-born heir to the throne. The Emperor is greatly affected. He suffers from insomnia and has no zest for work, taking only a languid interest in State affairs. It is reported that he has consulted with Count Kalnoky and Count von Taafe upon the advisability of abdicating in favor of his nephew Franz. It is also said he wrote to the Pope declaring that he longed for rest and wished to retire, and that the Pope's response urging upon him the necessity of submitting to the decrees of God, combined with the protests of the Ministers, induced Him in the meantime to remain upon the throne.

The liabilities of Emil Treitel, the grain dealer who failed recently, are 3,300,000 marks, assets 1,100,000 marks. The failure of Zelter & Co., grain dealers, has affected the Bourse owing to the firm's stock speculations. The firm's debts amount to 1,600,000 marks. The assets are meagre. The two failures involve several smaller firms.

Sydney G. Danes, the alleged spy, has been sentenced to 4½ years' imprisonment and his accomplice Hartung has been acquitted. The trial was secret.

The hereditary Duke and Duchess of Oldenburg and Count and Countess Hohenthan had a narrow escape from death recently while journeying from Bombay to Calcutta by steamer. They and many others were taken ill with symptoms of poisoning. Seven passengers died, while the four mentioned and the others recovered. It was found the meals had been cooked in ungalvanized copper vessels.

The Protectors Scabbed.

DUBLIN, April 13.—During the evictions on the Clyde estate yesterday the agent and a number of emergency men were assaulted and otherwise seriously wounded.

They Should Pay Up.

DUBLIN, April 13.—Forty tenants on the Marquis of Lansdowne's estate have received notices of eviction.

Boulanger's Trial.

PARIS, April 13.—M. Martin has been elected president of the commission of the Senate which will conduct the trial of Boulanger.

A meeting of the members of the legislative party of the Right to-day adopted a protest against the trial of Boulanger by the Senate. The protest characterizes the court as a parody on justice.

Funeral of M. Chevreul.

PARIS, April 13.—The funeral of M. Chevreul, the aged chemist, was held to-day with imposing ceremonies. All the city authorities and many persons of prominence were present.

A Nihilist Arrested.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 13.—The Nihilist Meyher has been arrested here and sent to St. Petersburg. He had in his possession a revolver and a quantity of poison.

MONTREAL, April 13.—It is understood that important changes will be made in the heads of several of the departments of the Canadian Pacific Railway in a few days. The resignation of Mr. Tuttle, passenger traffic manager, is already announced. He goes to New York about May 1 to accept the chairmanship of the passenger committee of the trunk lines.

Defective Stockings.

St. Louis, April 13.—R. H. Kribben, cashier of Bailey K. Dieckman, the $100,000 defaulter, has returned from Windsor, Ont., where he went to consult with his friends on business connected with his financial affairs in St. Louis. Mr. Kribben said that he would have his client's affairs settled in a few days. He does not know what Mr. Dieckman intends to do in the future as to business. Mrs. Dieckman is in constant communication with her husband. The attorney brought a proposition from Dieckman to those he defrauded for ultimate restitution if he is permitted to return and guaranteed immunity from prosecution.

Struck Gas.

WINDSOR, April 16.—Michael Effenbaugh of Pelee Island, while drilling for water, struck a gas and oil vein at a depth of forty-nine feet. The gas was set on fire and is burning with a good, steady flame.

The Minneapolis Street Car Strike.

MINNEAPOLIS, April 13.—The street railway management has decided not to try to run cars before Monday. Everything is quiet and it is not probable that there will be further trouble until an attempt is made to run cars.

A Frightened Mother.

"My little girl, 4 years old, frightened me one night by a croupy cough, but I gave her a dose of Hagyard's Yellow Oil, which relieved her at once, and she slept well all night. I have since used it in several cases of croup, frost bites, etc., and find it always reliable." Mrs. Eva Bradley, Virden, Man.

The Intelligencer makes a poor fist at copying.

A Day for the Firemen.

The chief of the Midland City fire brigade was in Peterborough the other day for the purpose of seeing Chief Rutherford, of the Peterborough brigade. Timber for Quebec.

Preparations are being made in Belleville harbor for the rafting of large quantities of timber, which will be floated down to Quebec and from thence conveyed to Liverpool, where it will be utilized for ship building purposes. This timber is all brought to Belleville over the Grand Junction, and must pass through Peterborough. The Collins Bay Rafting Company have 1,000,000 feet to be thus rafted during the summer. The lumber is shipped from the Georgian Bay district, Mr. H. G. Buck will raft 140,000 white feet. Some of this was brought from near Toronto, some from Keene, this county, and some from Coe Hill and Marmora.

The Peterborough Driving Park Association have decided to close up the race course this year, as last season it was not a paying venture. In future the track will be rented to parties who may wish to use it, but it will no longer be run as a public institution in connection with the agricultural grounds nor will its present owners manage races that may take place there. It is understood some private parties are arranging to secure the track for races on the 24th of May.

Scott Act Cases.

Mrs. J. H. Brault (or Freeman) who lives on King street, and whose husband is now in gaol at Barrie, was tried at the police court this morning on a charge of violating the Scott Act. Mr. E. B. Edwards, town solicitor, prosecuted, and Mr. J. O'Meara conducted the defence. Two witnesses were examined but no case was made out and the defendant was discharged. The prosecution asked for an enlargement to re examine a witness but the magistrate said that as they had other witnesses who had not been subpœnaed, and as in case of a conviction there would be no means of securing the fine, except by selling the woman's household goods or sending her to gaol and leaving her children unprovided for, he did not feel like allowing it to go further, as she had enough trouble already with a husband in gaol.

A Scott Act case against Geo. Henry was enlarged till to-morrow.

The Boys Bothered Him.

William Edgar, who hails from Orillia, got gloriously drunk yesterday and was arrested for beating a small boy. In the police court this morning the prisoner said that a number of little fellows were teasing him and would not leave him alone. So he caught a lad, whom he supposed was one of his persecutors, and administered a rather severe thrashing. But according to the evidence he got hold of a boy who was quite innocent, but who appeared to his beery eyes to be one of the offending youths. The prisoner expressed his regret that he had punished the wrong boy, and begged off as hard as he could, saying that considering the roasting he had got while in the overheated cells and the trouble on his mind, he had suffered enough already. He was, however, fined $2. After paying his fine he left court with a jaunty air and a farewell word to the magistrate, "Good morning, your Honor, I hope the next time we meet it will be under happier auspices."

Bicycle Notes.

The annual meeting of the Bicycle Club will be held Thursday evening at 7.30 in the old post office block for organization. The prospects are most encouraging for a successful wheeling season. A large number of new bikes have been brought to town and their owners are enthusiastic wheelmen. A full representation is desired as the meeting Thursday night, when officers will be elected and the season's operations discussed.

Mr. W. B. Greatrix is agent for the "Columbia" and "Radge," the former a Boston and the latter an English machine. These two makes of wheels are the only ones used by the professional and amateur champions of the world. Young men who propose to buy bicycles are directed to Mr. Greatrix, at Ormond & Walsh's drug store. His terms are easy as it is possible to make them. 1d

The Col. Williams Memorial.

The Port Hope Times of Saturday says:—"At a meeting of the Williams Memorial Association held yesterday afternoon in the council chamber, it was definitely decided to have the pedestal to the monument erected of international granite, obtained from the Thousand Islands. A committee was appointed to collect subscriptions towards obtaining $2,500 to purchase the property south of the post office, and turn the same into a public park, in the centre of which it is proposed to have the statue placed. The date for the unveiling was not decided upon, as there existed some difference of opinion as to what day would be most appropriate. It was also unanimously decided that Sir John A. Macdonald would be invited to perform the ceremony of the unveiling." It is desirable that the pedestal should be of the best, for the statue itself will be a fine one. The Dominion Illustrated gives a spirited illustration of it, as designed by Hamilton McCarthy, A. R. C. A. of Toronto. Mr. McCarthy has very happily caught the spirit of the occasion. The artist's purpose was to represent the dead warrior in the act of leading his men against the foe. The statue stands with the right arm extended, the sword firmly grasped, the head slightly bent to one side, the lips, which have just given the word of command, closed in firm revolve, the left hand clutching the doffed cap, and the left foot advanced. Altogether the pose is striking, and the statue deserves a fitting pedestal.

Tree Planting.

A Few Practical Hints that may Help One to Succeed in Growing Trees.

The season is pretty well advanced and those contemplating the planting of shade trees have no time to lose. The frost is pretty well out of the ground and the earlier trees are removed the better. The most important point of success in tree planting is careful digging up. Cut a circle in the earth around the trunk of a size in proportion to the limbs of the tree. Care should be used to retain as many of the fibrous roots as possible—they do the work of growth Before being set in the soil the trunk should be trimmed clear of limbs. Then all the growth is thrown into a few new, fine, thrifty shoots and we have a prospect of a good top. This applies especially to maples, but is a good plan with every other tree. If the top limbs are left on, the diminished roots, not yet in the best of working order in their new place, are overworked to maintain a large top, and we have sickly, slow growth, and, in all probability, a dead tree at the second season. For planting maples, dig a good sized hole, deeper than the tree is required to rest. Fill about two-thirds full of good mould. Put in water and work with a spade till a sort of mortar is formed. Set the tree on this, and by putting the foot on the root near the trunk and pressing with the foot and working the trunk, imbed the roots in the moist soil. Then the fibrous roots come in contact on every side with the earth. Throw loose soil on this, then tramp firmly around the outer edge of the hole. By this means the soil is forced upward against the roots, which have only to begin growing. Fill in with earth and tramp down firmly. The layer of loose earth on top prevents the puddle from hardening when drying, of which there is no danger, however, with loamy soil. Stake the tree well and you will have some satisfaction in seeing a thrifty growth. All who can possibly plant trees this spring should do so, as it is probable we shall have a season favourable to tree growth. The last two summers have been very dry and it is likely that nature will give compensation this season in the form of abundant rain. A year gained is considerable. A tidy appearance given to a place, with trees growing, adds to the selling value of a property out of all proportion to the cost, besides it adds to the general beauty of the town. Everyone has only to do his share and Peterborough will show a marked increase in that attractiveness, which makes it now one of the most desirable places of residence in Ontario, as it is ahead of all other towns in enterprise and progress. A man who plants a tree and makes it grow is a public benefactor.

Peterborough Summer Resort.

The Chemong Lake Park to be Made An Attractive Place—The Improvements Going on.

The proprietors of the Chemong Lake park are negotiating for the continuation of the railway from its present terminus in in Bridgenorth to the park. If this is done a large summer hotel will be erected and the place fitted up as a summer resort.

The line would have been built last year but for some difficulty regarding the right of way, but as the people owning the property have agreed to an arbitration to settle their claims, it is believed their will be no further trouble in securing the route. When everything is settled a large hotel will be built, with accommodation sufficient for about 200 guests, and fitted up in modern style. A number of lots have been sold to private parties, but about half of the park, which comprises 75 acres, has been reserved for the hotel property. The site chosen for the hotel, the plans of which have been made out by Mr. J. E. Belcher, C.E., is a beautiful one, and, as a healthy summer resort, the Chemong Lake Hotel would, doubtless, be a success. The boating privileges would be unsurpassed. Should the hotel be built, and there is scarcely a doubt that this will come to pass shortly, a line of steamers will be run in connection with it to all parts of the lake and its tributaries.

The benefits of such a place to Peterborough are obvious. The town has been in need of just such a summer resort, easy of access, and altogether a splendid watering place, while it would attract to this district large numbers of American and Canadian tourists, who are in search of a healthful and delightful spot to spend the heated term. Peterborough would reap advantages from the presence of these strangers in more ways than one.

The promoters of the scheme, Messrs. Alex. Elliots and R. H. Fortye, intend organizing a joint stock company to build and manage the hotel. The prospectus is out and soon a vigorous canvass will be begun for subscribers. The venture is considered a profitable and successful one. It would fill a long felt want in Peterborough, and would no doubt receive the patronage and support of the public.

Grand Junction Notes.

The workmen are busy with the ironwork of the first span of the Hastings bridge.

The survey of the short route through the village of Campbellford, cutting off a long curve, and saving about half a mile of distance is being done.

Again complaint is made of the wretched train service on Saturday—market day in Peterborough. Last Saturday morning the single, and by no means too respectable, coach was packed like a herring box with farmers and their families coming to market. One would think that the Grand Trunk would not select the Grand Junction to show a lack of that consideration for the comfort and convenience of the travelling public which is the general rule on other branches of their system.

Keene.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

SERMON.—The Rev. Mr. Anderson of Campbellford gave a very interesting discourse in the Methodist church Keene on Sunday last.

GOING NORTH.—Messrs. Joseph Bryce and Enos Tucker left our enterprising village on Monday last and are going to try their fortunes in the far west. Our worst wish to them is that good luck may follow them.

BOATING.—The boatmen of Keene are getting their crafts into sailing order.

BUSINESS.—The farmers of the surrounding country, who wish to receive good value for their money, will find it to their advantage to come to Keene where they will be waited upon in the most pleasing and obliging manner.

Personal.

Messrs. James and George Junkin, of Montreal, were in town to-day.

Mr. Wm. Ferguson, recently of High Park Farm, North Monaghan, having disposed of that property, has removed to town, taking up residence in the house lately occupied by Mr. H. B. Morlock, 376 Brock street, corner Donegal.

News Nuggets.

—The Hunter street bridge is being replanked.

—Mr. George Hutchison's hardware store on Hunter street is being refitted with a fine new front.

—The creditors of the Henry Sheppard estate are receiving to-day the 15 per cent dividend recently declared by the assignee.

—A large quantity of lumber is now passing over the Midland Railway—two or three trains daily.

—The Belleville Ontario states that the fall wheat in Hastings county is looking well as a rule. The same applies to this county.

Farmers, Beware!

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

SIR,—Knowing that you are an advocate of justice and fair play, will you allow me a small space in your paper to warn my fellow farmers against the fraud that may be practised upon them? On the 10th inst. I sent my son to Norwood on business, and wanted to get some horse-shoeing done. He took feed with him for his horses, so that, if he had to wait any length of time to get his horses shod, he could feed them in the blacksmith shop; but, as he got the shoeing done without waiting any length of time, he did not feed until the shoeing was done and then he took them to Drain's Hotel where we have always stopped and put them into the stable and fed them his own feed and got his dinner in the hotel. He was charged forty cents for his dinner, whereas twenty five cents is their regular price for meals. When he came to get his horses out of the stable he had to pay one dollar for merely standing in the stable for two or three hours, Drain's excuse was that our horses had frequently stood in his stable during the winter and we had not paid him. Now sir this is false, for we never use any one's stable without paying the charge therefor, and that at the time. We do not run hotel bills. The only reason that can be given is that we are strictly temperance men and voted for the Scott Act. This is Mr. Drain's reward for any one who dares to do right. Thanking you for your space I am sir yours respectfully.

Obituary.

The Late John Kinnear.

The removal by death of Mr. John Kinnear, of Springville, on the 27th March, has left a blank in the community. Mr. Kinnear was a much respected member of society and a good friend to the church with which he had identified himself. Next to his own family the Presbyterian congregation has sustained the greatest loss by his death. Mr. Kinnear had been a sufferer for nearly a year from the disease of which he at last died. From the very beginning of his sickness he felt assured that he could not recover. He immediately gave up all thought about the things of time and devoted himself exclusively to spiritual exercises. He died in the full hope of eternal life through Jesus Christ his Lord and Saviour. Mr. Kinnear was a native of County Armagh, Ireland. At the time of his death he was 73 years of age. He came to Canada in the year 1832 and finally settled in the township of Cavan, of which place he had been a resident for between 20 and 30 years. He leaves behind him a mourning widow and a number of sorrowing relatives.

Canadian Geography.

As Taught by the London Times.

Our esteemed transatlantic cotem, the London Times, publishes the following:—

We have just received the intelligence of another terrible catastrophe in our colony of Canada. The sad affair occurred on Monday last, in a small village called Kingston, a few miles from Winnipeg, on the main line of the Union Pacific Railway, and not far from the main station at Hudson's Bay. It appears that a settler named John Mogar, who was president of the village fire, water and gas club, was on his way home from one of its meetings, and when almost at his own door a huge grizzley bear sprang upon him from an adjoining forest. The snow at the time was about eight feet deep, and the thermometer fifty below zero, and the unfortunate man being on snowshoes, and only armed with an ordinary shotgun, was unable to cope with the savage beast, and consequently was fearfully mangled. His cries, however, brought to the spot some halfbreeds, who lived in wigwams near the edge of the bush, and these, with the assistance of the members of the fire club, who had also been attracted by the cries, soon dispatched the brute. The bear was found to measure eighteen feet from snout to tip of his tail. The town has, since the commencement of the winter, been overrun with bears, and it is not safe to venture out at night without a good rifle and lantern. The unfortunate settler was carried to the hospital at New York, the nearest town, and we are glad to say is doing as well as can be expected.

MR. CHAS. LEGROS now has a telephone in his tonsorial parlors for the convenience of ladies who require hairdressing done at their homes. His George street parlors are the handsomest and tastiest in town, and are fitted with hot and cold water baths. His stock of cigars, pipes and tobacco comprise the best and biggest variety. Smoke Gladstone, 5 for 25c. at Legros'. Cheap smokers should use Legros' Best, 2 for 5c.; very fine imported cigars, 3 and 4 for 25c. He is selling all best Havana cigarettes that cost 15c. per packet, at 10c. El Padre, 4 for 25c.; Creme de la Creme, 4 and 5 for 25c.

Kind of a Surprise

for the public to buy peaches at 15c. per tin—3lb. tins; tomatoes 3 tins for 25c. We have been carrying a very large stock of tomatoes and canned goods of the finest brands. Some houses have been selling off brands at lower figures, so we have decided to sell our fine brands at the above prices to put a damper on them. It is useless for other houses to try to compete with us. W. J. MORROW, 240 George street.

—At an adjourned meeting of the Belleville Board of Trade on Friday evening, Mr. Thomas Ritchie was elected president, L. W. Yeomans vice-president, J. P. Thompson treasurer, and J. P. Thomas secretary. A council of eleven was elected, also sixteen new members. A first annual dinner, at a date yet to be fixed, was decided on.

is always a subject for sighs with a housekeeper and she often wishes that the law settled the question of "What shall we have for dinner,' and prescribed certain dishes for certain days. Such a law would certainly save a great deal of worry and questioning to many tired women. But it is not such a difficult problem to solve after all especially in Peterborough, where we have such a good market, besides at China Hall you can secure full Dinner Sets that will grace any table for so little money that anyone can afford the outlay.

"TOWER FUND"

GEORGE STREET METHODIST CHURCH

"For which of you intending to build a tower sitteth not down first and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it."—Luke xiv.-28

We have considered the cost of the proposed tower to be erected on the George street Methodist church, and have placed it at $2000,00. Help us to build the Tower, by adding a brick to the structure.

The "Idlers and Strangers" of the congregation have decided to raise part of the above amount by subscriptions, and a Tea and Platform Meeting, to be held on

TUESDAY, APRIL 23rd,

(instead of Good Friday, as first announced.) The following gentlemen from a distance are expected to take part in the programme at the Platform Meeting:—

MR. G. A. COX, Toronto; REV. PROF. WALLACE, M.A., B.L., of Victoria University, Cobourg; REV. I TOVELL, of St. Catherines, formerly of Peterborough; REV. THOMAS MANNING, B.A., of Orillia; REV. GEO. W. DEWEY, the Singing Evangelist of Lindsay, and MR. W. A. DIXON, Peterborough's Ventriloquist.

The Committee are sparing no pains to make this one of the grandest affairs every held in Peterborough, of the kind, both in decoration and in securing the very best talent for the programme.

The Committe have taken the liberty of sending out a number of tickets on approval; do not consider the prices charged for the tickets is for the Tea and Platform Meeting alone, but more as a subscription for the tower fund.

BUY A BRICK—And be able to say you own property on George Street, Peterborough. If you buy a ticket it will give you the sole right to claim you own a brick in the George Street Methodist Church.

TEA! TEA! will be served from 5 o'clock until 8.

The chair will be taken at 8 o'clock by GEORGE A. COX, Esq., of Toronto, ex-Mayor of Peterborough

Mr. W. H. DINGLE will have charge of the musical part of the programme.

"As Others See Us."

"Oh that some power the gift would gie us,
To see ourselves as others see us."
Thus sighed old Scotia's Bard in vain,
For what he could not then attain.
But had he lived in this fair town,
He had no cause to sigh or frown,
For if he walked on Hunter street,
An eager throng he'd surely meet,
With faces bright as summer light,
All coming from one fifty-eight,
Where photos always are in view,
Which are to life so very true,
That each one who has been there,
Doth to his comrades all declare,
"SPROULE is the very man can gie us,
The power to see as others see us."

TOPICS FROM THE CAPITAL

WHAT THE DOMINION LAWMAKERS DID YESTERDAY.

Measures Which Received the Royal Assent Yesterday—A Lively Discussion Over the Customs Law.

OTTAWA, April 16.—The House to-day was busy mainly with matters of routine, the proceedings, however, being enlivened by a brisk discussion touching the administration of the customs law.

Hon. G. E. Foster moved the second reading of the bill from the Senate to amend the Railway Act. This deals with the construction of drains which have to cross any line of railway. It was read a second time and referred to the Railway Committee, an objection by Hon. David Mills as to the constitutionality of the bill being held over until a later stage.

With reference to the Easter adjournment Sir John Macdonald said in consequence of representations made by members the Government were considering the advisability of adjourning from Thursday to Monday in place of sitting on Saturday as had been suggested. The Maritime Province members contending for a Saturday sitting because they would not be able to go home and the extra holiday would [illegible] be of no use to them, Sir John Macdonald said he would reserve definite announcement until Thursday.

On receipt of a message from the Senate the Commons proceeded to the chamber of that body, where Mr. Justice Strong as Deputy-Governor signified the Royal assent to these bills passed this session:

An act respecting the St. Lawrence and Atlantic Junction Railway Company.

Further to amend the act incorporating the London and Canadian Loan (and Agency Company.

To incorporate the Cobourg, Northumberland & Pacific Railway Company.

Respecting the Bay of Quinte Bridge Company.

Respecting the Berths & Canadian Pacific Junction Railway Company.

To ratify an exchange of land between the Ontario & Quebec Railway Company and the Land Security Company.

Respecting the incorporation of the Northern Pacific & Manitoba Railway Company.

To amend the act incorporating the Ontario Mutual Life Assurance Company.

To amend the act to incorporate the Prescott County Railway Company and to change the name of the company to the Central Counties Railway Company.

On motion that the House go into Committee of Supply Mr. Holton offered an amendment dealing with the administration of the customs law. He advocated several changes. Where there is no dishonest intent shown he contended that there should be no penalty imposed for violation of the law. He asked the total abolition of the spoils system and a reference to the courts of all cases of seizure, deprecated the habit of allowing customs officials to receive remuneration from importers for services rendered in their capacity as customs officers, and held that this practice carried on with the sanction of the Minister, had degenerated into a system of blackmail. He moved a resolution declaring the expediency of amending the Customs Act so as to relieve the honest importer from danger of oppression, and providing in case of persons charged with violation of the law that no one shall be subject to fine or forfeiture except after a fair and public trial, and that no officers making seizures shall participate in fines imposed for offences for which such seizures are made.

Hon. Mackenzie Bowell admitted that there was room for much diversity of opinion as to how the Customs law should be carried out, but he objected to the nature of the specific evidence just made. He denied that he had sanctioned the receipt by customs officials of remuneration from importers except pay for work performed by the importer's request outside the usual office hours. He showed that every person who considered that his goods had been unjustly seized now got an opportunity of taking his case into court if he asked for it, but that it would be inexpedient for the Government to take every case into court, as there were about 1100 seizures in a year and many of these of a very trivial character.

After recess, Hon. Mackenzie Bowell continued his reply, contending that the enforcement of the law is in favor of the honest trader.

After addresses by Messrs. Paterson of Brant and Lister, the House divided on the amendment, which was lost by 71 to 111.

The House then went into Committee of Supply, taking up the votes for penitentiaries, and went for agriculture and immigration.

THE LABOR COMMISSION.

A VOLUMINOUS REPORT PRESENTED TO PARLIAMENT.

Wages in Canada Higher at Present Than Ever Before, Hours of Labor Reduced and Necessaries of Life Lower in Price.

OTTAWA, April 15.—The report of the Labor Commission was presented to Parliament to-day. With the evidence it makes over 4000 printed pages, bound in several volumes. Without explanation as to how this course came to be adopted the commissioners make two reports or sets of deductions from the evidence and two sets of essays upon each of the general subjects of inquiry. The two reports are designated "First" and "Second" respectively. Those signing the first are A. T. Freed, Jules Helbronner, J. Alfred Clark, Michael Walsh, G. Boivin, five in all. The second report is signed by eight members: John Kelly, S. R. Hooker, H. A. McLean, N. Corser, John Armstrong, Wm. Hogarty, Wm. A. Gibson and Patrick Kerwin.

The two reports agree in the statement that the testimony sustains a belief that wages in Canada are generally higher than at any previous time, while hours of labor have been reduced and necessaries of life are lower in price. The advance in house rents is noted as a marked exception to the rule of lower prices for necessaries, and the belief is expressed that the principle of co-operative building associations might be extended in such manner that moderate weekly or monthly payments would in a few years purchase homes.

The first report votes as an injustice that in some cities, if not in all, the houses of the comparatively poor are, in proportion to their value, more highly taxed for municipal purposes than those of wealthy people. Both reports say:

It is believed that in collection of rents landlords should have no preference over other creditors [illegible] as many articles of household use as are necessary to comfort should be exempt from seizure to satisfy any debt.

The second report adds this:

Tenants should be protected against the growing practice of increasing rents from year to year at the will of the owners of houses or household land. A simple remedy should be provided for arriving at the value of household land where a renewal of lease is required to protect the lessees from excessive rents.

Attention is called to the defective sanitary condition of many working men's dwellings and the first report recommends that the letting as a dwelling of a house in a bad sanitary condition should be forbidden by law, that frequent inspection should be made and alterations or repairs necessary to health ordered.

Concerning hours of labor the commissioners believe that the ordinary working day may be still further reduced with advantage to workmen and without injury or injustice to employers. They recommend a limitation to 10 hours a day or 54 hours a week for female or child labor, and that all Government contracts stipulate that the daily hours of labor under them shall not exceed nine.

Of labor contracts it is laid down that each party to a contract should be on an equality with the other.

In the first report the belief is expressed that some provisions of the Master and Servants Act are not in accord with the liberal spirit of the present age and that only civil remedies should be sought for breach of civil contracts. The second report says:

Trade unions are legalized by the laws of this Dominion and any contract which binds the workmen to abstain from attaching himself to one of these organizations ought to be declared null and void.

The first report speaks in appreciation of labor organizations. The second report declares that it would be productive of much good if the principle of co-operation in business were carried out in the Dominion. The first notes that satisfactory results have been obtained elsewhere and recommends that the labor bureau, if established, shall publish from time to time all obtainable information on the subject.

Recommendations are made looking to the greater safety of vessels navigating on inland waters. The first report recommends the attention of the legislatures to the matter of securing the greater safety of railway employes. The second specifically recommends the placing of a guard rail on the outer edge of roofs of freight cars, making it a penal offence to leave frogs unprotected, prohibiting the dangerous style of deadwoods attached to some freight cars, the adoption of automatic air brakes for all cars and the introduction of couplers that will remove the necessity for brakemen going between cars, and to prohibit unnecessary Sunday labor and if possible entirely prohibiting the moving of freight on that day.

It is recommended that strict examination be made of persons controlling large steam engines and boilers and that none who do not hold certificates shall be permitted to remain in charge of engines exceeding a certain power, or of boilers used for heating factories or other large buildings.

Factory or similar employment of children under 14, it is recommended, should be prohibited. The fining of employes by foremen or employers is condemned. Frequent and thorough inspection of factories is recommended, also stringent laws to ensure safety and proper sanitary conditions in the buildings.

On the subject of recovery of wages the first report says:

Artizans, laborers, domestic servants and others should have powers to obtain from magistrates or county courts summary judgment for wages due. In cases of bankruptcy wages should have preference and should constitute a lien on such products of their labor as public works, buildings and even sawlogs and timber.

The second report also recommends that the three months' wages of operatives rank as a preferential claim upon all insolvent estates.

It is recommended that courts of arbitration should be established, that Labor Day holiday should be proclaimed each year, and that technical instruction in the public schools, in special schools or classes or in colleges of technology should be given.

The commissioners joining in the first report believe the patent laws susceptible of material improvement, assisted immigration is condemned and the second report asks also that a penalty be imposed upon the resident contracting party and those who undertake the transportation of the alien contract laborer or mechanic into the Dominion.

The creation of an annuity system is also advocated under which provision might be made for old age by periodical or occasional payments of small sums.

Attention is directed to the heavy charges for collecting small debts. It is recommended that the law costs for such collection be reduced to the lowest possible sum. The second report says that the garnishing of wages should be forbidden. The system of letting prison labor by contract is condemned.

The establishment of a labor bureau is recommended.

The second report declares the importation of stereotype plates and celluloid matter to be used in the printing offices of Canada operates unjustly to the Canadian mechanic. If on account of its cheapness publishers find it necessary to use such matter it should be obtained from Canadian makers. A sufficient specific duty should be levied upon this matter to prevent its importation.

Rheumatism and Neuralgia

Many even chronic cases yield entirely. Doctors admit that they are difficult to cure—so do their patients. Paine's Celery Compound has permanently cured the worst cases of rheumatism and neuralgia—as my those who have used it.

"Having been troubled with rheumatism of the knees and feet for five years, I was almost unable to get around, and was very often confined to my bed for weeks at a time. I used only one bottle of Paine's Celery Compound, and was perfectly cured. I can now move around, and feel as lively as a boy." FRANK CARGILL, Reveille, Nevada.

After suffering with chronic rheumatism for several years, I was induced to try Paine's Celery Compound, and after using two bottles found myself greatly improved. In fact, after using three bottles I was not free from rheumatism. Can conscientiously recommend it. Yours very truly, Mrs. F. COWAN, Cornwallis, P.Q.

TEACHERS' SALARIES.

At the last meeting of the Board, statistics were presented showing that the average of salaries of teachers in the public schools of the town of Peterborough was less than those of teachers in the schools of any town in the district. A recent report of the superintendents of the public schools in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick shows that Peterborough is even below the average of these little provinces. These reports show that in the former province a male teacher of the first class gets an average salary of $430, and in New Brunswick $626. A female teacher of the same class gets on an average $206 in Nova Scotia, and $328 in New Brunswick. In the third class the averages for male teachers are $190 and $231, and for females $161 and $187. According to Mr. Ross' last report, the average salary paid a male public school teacher in Ontario is $425, and a female teacher $292. It is scarcely necessary to say that these figures are all disgracefully low, but the reason is that the supply of teachers is much greater than the demand. Speaking of this state of affairs, Dr. Allison, Superintendent of Education for Nova Scotia, makes the following sensible and timely suggestion:—"In most of the grades there have been slight reductions in the average rate of salary. As the excess of supply over demand has continued to increase, this fact ought not to excite surprise. It is becoming clear to everyone who chooses to think on the subject that the most effective way to improve the remuneration of teachers lies in surrounding their work with the pre-emptions and safeguards that are the prerogatives of skilled labour. An elevation of the standards of admission in the direction of a specific professional training would benefit no one interest so much as the teaching body itself. Until a closer equation of supply and demand is brought about, recommendations on the subject of salaries, whether given to employers or employed, can produce but little effect."

The dairying interests of Canada are growing more important every year, and in no part of Canada is the progress more marked than in Ontario. Cheese factories have multiplied in this province during the last few years till now there are 770 in operation, and there are also 40 creameries doing a profitable business. In the annual report of the professor of dairying in the Ontario College there is a statement of some significance. "The dairy industry is now recognized as the most important of all branches of Canadian agriculture."

From Our Own Correspondent.

On Thursday last the house occupied by Mr. A. Johnston was seen on fire. The building was small and the flames had soon spread over it all. There being no one at home, nothing was saved, and thus the family were left destitute for a time. However, Archie has commenced building his new abode, and a day or so from neighborly farmers will again soon reinstate him. It's an ill wind that blows nobody good, for if a contrary wind had blown that day the Peterborough brigade would have saved his barns only with the greatest difficulty.

There have been no less than seven housemovings in this settlement within the last month, and furniture is reeked to a greater or less extent. CLARKE WALLACE'S TRIUMPH.

The Combines Bill Reported by the Committee with Two Slight Amendments.

Ottawa, April 16.—There was a crowded attendance at the Banking and Commerce Committee this morning, when the Combines Bill was again discussed. At the last meeting of the committee it will be remembered that the preamble of the bill was adopted. When the committee met to-day it was moved that Mr. Osler, Q.C., be heard on behalf of the Toronto Board of Trade.

Mr. Cockburn insisted on Mr. Wallace withdrawing the clause in relation to insurance and he might see his way clear to support the measure.

Sir John Thompson was doubtful if this clause relating to insurance could be dealt with in a question of trade and commerce. If so, the Insurance Act would have to be amended to correspond with whatever legislation might be included in this act.

Mr. Osler then addressed the committee. He had several amendments which he intended to lay before the committee, as he said, to make the measure more workable and prevent it as far as possible from restricting trade. As these prosecuted for misdemeanors would have to be tried before consumers, and to a certain extent it would be one class against another, he suggested an amendment to the effect that a preliminary trial be granted the accused to see whether the act was an unlawful one or not, as the bill provided that the crime committed must be an unlawful one. He suggested another amendment, that a person shall be a witness in his own behalf, and also that the accused should have the option of being tried by a judge without the intervention of a jury, and that an appeal to the Supreme Courts should be allowed. Other amendments were that the party committing the misdemeanor alone should be tried, and that no case could be prosecuted without first obtaining the sanction of the Attorney-General of the province in which the offence was committed.

Mr. Wallace agreed to withdraw the clause affecting insurance companies, after what had been stated by the Minister of Justice.

Mr. Waldie objected to the withdrawal of the clause, pointing out that in 1885 and again in 1886 and in 1887 he insured some $20,000 worth of ships in Buffalo for 1 per cent., it being 1½ in Canada. Last year he was told that he would have to pay 1½ although American hulls were insured at 1 per cent.

Mr. Lister objected to Mr. Osler's amendments, and said that if they were accepted the prosecutor would find himself in the place of the prisoner. The amendments would defeat the objects of the bill.

Mr. Wallace said he would rather withdraw the bill than accept the amendments.

Mr. Moncrief moved some of the amendments, which were defeated.

On motion of Mr. Davies the amendment to the effect that accused be allowed to give evidence in his own behalf was carried. The option of trial by judge was also granted. These were the only two amendments suggested by Mr. Osler that were carried. The bill was afterwards reported.

"MOVE ON" JARVIS.

The Ex-Policeman Found Guilty of Felonious Assault.

Toronto, April 17.—At the Assizes yesterday the court room was crowded when the case against Richard, Daniel and Lewis Jarvis was reached. They were charged with having assaulted a cattle-drover named Robert Hornby at Weston on the night of March 14. The complainant was the first witness. His evidence went to show that on the night in question and at the place above named, the three defendants attacked him. He defended himself with a stick or cane, which subsequent evidence went to show was four feet long and three-quarters of an inch in diameter. He alleged that the defendants knocked him down, struck him and kicked him. In the affray his nose was broken.

Deputy Chief Stewart said that during the eight or nine years Jarvis had been on the force, with the exception of the last three or four months of his service, his character had been very good. Inspector William Ward of No. 2 Division, was also called. The defendant's character as a policeman, he said, had been fair. There had been reports against him in that capacity, but he did not think they would affect his character as a private citizen. He had been dismissed from the force for being under the influence of liquor, and, the Inspector added with great reluctance, for being found in a disreputable house. The jury was out about an hour, and then brought in a verdict of guilty, with a strong recommendation to mercy.

That painful complaint can be quickly cured by the right remedy. Miss Mary Jane Could, of Stoney Creek, Ont., says: "I was troubled with lumbago, and could not get relief until I used Hagyard's Yellow Oil, one bottle of which cured me entirely." 2w14d

The Safe Plan.

When suffering from a troublesome cold, a hacking cough, hoarseness, asthma, bronchitis, or other forms of throat or lung troubles, is to use Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam to loosen the phlegm and soothe and heal the inflamed mucous surfaces. It cures where others fail. 2w14d

PIMPLES TO SCROFULA

A Positive Cure for Every Skin, Scalp, and Blood Disease, Except Ichthyosis.

Psoriasis 6 years—Head, arms and breast a solid scab—Body covered with sores—Best doctors and medicines fail—Cured by Cuticura Remedies at a cost of $5.75

I have used the Cuticura Remedies with best results. I used 3 bottles of the Cuticura Resolvent, three boxes of Cuticura, and one cake of Cuticura Soap, and am cured of a terrible skin and scalp disease known as psoriasis. I had it for 6 years. It would be better and worse at times. Sometimes my head would be a solid scab and was all the time I broke the use of the Cuticura Remedies. My arms were covered with scab; from my elbows to shoulders, my breast was almost one solid scab and my back covered with scab varying in size from a pea up to a dollar. I had doctored with all the best doctors with no relief, and used many different medicines without effect. My case was hereditary, and I began to think, reasonable, but it began to heal from the first application of Cuticura. ARCHER RUSSELL, Deshler, Ohio

Skin Disease 6 Years Cured.

I am thankful to say that I have used the Cuticura Remedies for about eight months with great success and consider myself entirely cured of salt rheum, from which I have suffered for six years. I tried a number of medicines, and two of the best doctors in the country, but found nothing that would effect a cure until I used your remedies.

Mrs. A. McCLAFLIN, Moreton, Mo.

The Worst Case of Scrofula Cured.

We have been selling your Cuticura Remedies for years, and have the first complaint yet to receive from a purchaser. One of the worst cases of Scrofula I ever saw was cured by the use of five bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, Cuticura and Cuticura Soap.

A WORD ABOUT OUR CLOTHING DEPARTMENT, THIS SPRING:

Never in the history of the trade has such an Array of Fine Clothing been placed before a buying public. Our Stock this Spring embraces all the LATEST DESIGNS and PATTERNS, and as they were made under our own special supervision, the workmanship is of a SUPERIOR quality. Notwithstanding all this our prices will be found LOWER than ever. When we came to you as the Revolutionizers of the Clothing Trade, we promised you then that we would benefit the public, and now after a long trial have we kept our word? If so, let that be our best guarantee to the public, that we deal honestly and squarely with them in the future. We are not so egotistical as to believe that we please every one, (our Divine Master when on earth did not please everyone) still to those who we did not please, as well as those we did please, we sincerely return thanks for past patronage. As we are not infallible we are prone to make mistakes and our judgment like any human being's may err in buying. Still we try to avoid errors, as much as possible, and therefore it is our proud boast when anyone has a grievance we never refused to make it right when brought to our notice. This spring we are going to REDOUBLE OUR ENERGIES, and by keeping GOOD GOODS, NICE GOODS, SQUARE DEALING, and EXTREMELY LOW PRICES, we hope to merit a Continuance of your Generous Patronage.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Suggested Aldermen—The New Civic Loan—Andy Maloney's Peril.

TORONTO, April 16.—At the meeting of the City Council last night Ald. E. A. Macdonald tendered his resignation saying that he thought his usefulness was at an end as he seemed to have no influence in that body. The council declined to accept the resignation, although it was again tendered in an excited form.

The case of fraud against Andy Maloney the Montreal gambler, is assuming a serious phase for that gentleman. Ever since George Von Reinolts fled from Montreal after being victimized he has been in constant communication with P. W. Ellis & Co., whose property he allowed to slip through his fingers. Mr. P. W. Ellis has made several trips to the States to interview him. The result was that Reinolts consented to come back to Montreal and testify against Maloney if guaranteed government protection. This was secured and on Sunday night he arrived in Toronto, leaving yesterday morning with Mr. M. C. Ellis for Montreal on time to be on hand when the case is called this morning. He is bitterly hostile to the Montreal crowd and said while stepping on board the train that he would make it hot running for the men who had ruined him.

The new Toronto debentures have been well taken up in London. The total applications amounted to £268,400 sterling, at prices ranging from the minimum to 104¼ per cent. The average price obtained for the ten-year bonds is £102 2s. 6d., and for the twenty-year bonds £102 16s. 11d.

The Spring Criminal Assizes opened yesterday before Mr. Justice Rose. Two young Central Prison convicts, Frank Smith and T. W. Henderson, were found guilty of attempted prison breaking. There is a heavy docket for trial, including a batch of bucket shop cases.

Ex-Policeman William Thompson, who resigned a year ago from No. 3 Division and who then opened a butcher's shop on Queen-street west, has disappeared. His family are extremely anxious about his whereabouts.

Shortly after midnight a private of "O" Company named Joseph Wright was walking down University-place near Queen-street when he was brutally assaulted by three men. He was knocked down and got a severe pasting. He received serious injuries to the head from blows with a stick. The ruffians stole his cap and stick and made off. He was found by a policeman, who took him to the nearest drug store, where his wounds were dressed.

CAPITAL GOSSIP.

The Recent Loan and the Jesuit Question to Come Up Again in a New Guise.

OTTAWA, April 16.—Sir Richard Cartwright is again to bring up the subject of the recent loan by an inquiry as to whether the Government have demanded from the High Commissioner and the financial agents explanations of the insertion in the prospectus of the unusual clause over which all the talk has taken place, also whether the Government have demanded a list of the applicants for the loan and the parties to whom it was allotted.

Mr. Watson has a rod in pickle for Warden S. L. Bedson of the Stoney Mountain Penitentiary, lately appointed Lieutenant-Colonel commanding the 91st Battalion and also an extra A.D.C. to the Governor-General. He wants to know whether these appointments were with the knowledge and consent of the Minister of Justice.

Mr. Bourassa will inquire if it is the intention of the Government to cause legal proceedings to be instituted in order to test the legality of the Jesuits Estates Act; if not, does the Government propose to bear any proportion of the costs which may be incurred in testing the constitutionality of the act.

Mr. Scarth, M. P., left for Winnipeg last evening and will not return.

Mr. Justice Strong, acting as Deputy Governor, will attend in the Senate to-morrow to give the Royal assent to bills so far passed. This will be the second batch of bills put into effect this session.

In the Senate to-day the Adulteration Act amendment bill was withdrawn. Senator Abbott stated that since its introduction the Minister of Inland Revenue had been considering the question of increasing the facilities for prosecution of persons guilty of adulteration. He is satisfied that a more extensive measure is required, especially in regard to representations made at the dairy convention recently held. Such a measure is in course of preparation and will be presented next session.

Sir John Macdonald has given notice of a resolution asking legislation of the Imperial Parliament to define the westerly, northern and easterly boundaries of Ontario.

The Trust Deposit Binds.

NEW YORK, April 15.—The representatives of John L. Sullivan and Jake Kilrain met here to-day and made the final deposit for the fight to take place on July 8, selecting Allan M. Ortège the well known bookmaker as final stakeholder.

The Largest Gun Will Ever Struck.

PITTSBURG, April 15.—The largest naval gun will ever struck is near Bolle Furgeon, 26 miles from here. It is running of 40,000,000 feet a day.

A Pennsylvania Failure.

MORRISTOWN, Pa., April 15.—The Conshohocken Worsted Company assigned to-day. The company operates three mills, and the pay roll amounts to $35,000.

All Discharged.

At the police court this morning there was a imposing array of drunks and vagrants awaiting the magistrate's attention. Mary Chadwick, of Ashburnham, and Robt. Lee, a stranger in town, were arrested last night for drunkenness, and while in the cells the woman drove away solitude and the mice by singing lustily until sleep overcame her. They were both discharged this morning. Three vagrants, giving the names of Thos. Gillan, Fred Adams and John Wilson, were also allowed to go on promising to leave town at once.

Their Object.

The enterprising proprietors of the Peterborough Business College are determined to make this institution the most efficient in the Dominion. With this object in view, they have taken a lease of the roller rink from Mayor Stevenson and are having it fitted up in the most approved style. They are also adding to their staff a penman who has very few equals in his art, so that the staff will, without doubt, be more capable than that of any other Canadian College. Every young man and woman who wishes to get a thorough business training should take a course at this college and fit themselves for lucrative positions. dw

Mr. Howden has bought Easter beef from Mr. Sutton now regularly for the past five years. Five head came in on the train from Mr. Geo. Campbell, of Millbrook. Mr. John Mervin is also making preparations for a fine display at Easter. Yesterday he received five head of fat cattle by train from Hope township, and besides has purchased several fine animals from men in the county.

At Hyman's Altar.

A wedding ceserred in St. Luke's church yesterday afternoon at three o'clock, Mr. J. F. Junkin, of Montreal, being married to Miss Susie A. Morgan, late of Chicago. Rev. W. G. Warren officiated. There were but few guests, the wedding being altogether a very quiet one. The groom was assisted by his brother, Mr. Geo. H. Junkin, and the bride by Miss Lottie Green. Both bride and bridesmaid looked charming in their neat travelling dresses. Mr. R. H. Green acted in the capacity of gos-father and gave away the bride. After the ceremony the party repaired to the residence of Mr. Green, where the bride had been visiting, and partook of an elegant dejeuner, prior to the happy young couple's departure on the 5.50 train for the west, where they purpose spending several weeks, returning to Montreal before taking a more extended trip to South America via Europe. The numerous beautiful gifts to the bride were a practical expression of the high esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Junkin are held by their many friends. The bride formerly lived in Peterborough, being engaged with Miss Delaney, but has for a few years past resided in Chicago. Mr. Junkin was a former Peterborough boy, and is now reckoned the most enterprising and successful insurance man in the employment of that live company, the Sun Life. He occupied a high position in Montreal, and has been given a new territory to manage. He will establish the "Sun" in South America, locating at Buenos Ayres, the capital of the Argentine Republic, and no doubt from his previous experience and well-known pluck he will succeed in placing himself at the head of a large business. His many friends here will wish him success, and he and his bride a happy wedded life.

Prof. Carter's Piano.

A Dispute Over the Right of Possession—The Case Enlarged till To-morrow.

At the police court this morning Mr. Chas. Chapman was charged with breaking into Prof. A. E. Carter's late residence, 595 George street, yesterday, and unlawfully taking therefrom a Heintzman piano. The case involves a point of law as to who is rightful owner of the article, and is rather intricate throughout. All parties seemed to have been acting under legal advice, so that it will, perhaps, be a knotty question to decide who is in the right. It appears the piano had been got from the local agent, Mr. Chapman, by Carter but was not all paid for, and after his elopement all the goods and chattels in the house were seized for some $52 back rent due Mr. John Hall, and Mr. L. Potvin made bailiff therefor. Yesterday about noon Chapman entered the house and took away the piano, which he claimed he had a right to, and it is alleged in so doing broke in the back door. He was arrested yesterday afternoon and the trial was begun today. Mr. E. B. Edwards prosecuted and Mr. A. P. Poussette defended the prisoner. Mrs. Carter was in court and watched the trial with a great deal of interest.

The case was heard before P.M. Edmison, Mr. Dumble being disqualified from acting by having given advice to some of the parties to the suit.

Mr. L. Potvin testified to having been appointed bailiff and on the 6th of April he had made a seizure of all the goods in Carter's house. He left the property in the house, but since that time Mrs. Carter had not been there and no one had been inside until yesterday, when the prisoner entered and took away the piano. An hour or so before that Chapman had offered to pay the rent due if he (Potvin) would give him the piano, but the latter refused the money as he had orders from Mr. Hall to receive the rent from no one but Mrs. Carter herself. Mrs. Carter was in the store at the time, but Chapman would not give the money to her so that she could hand it to him. About noon Mrs. Carter came and told him Chapman had broken in the door and was taking the piano away. He went out and saw the piano being taken by Chapman and three other men to a cart which stood behind the house. He then immediately took steps to have the prisoner arrested.

Mr. John Moroney, engineer at Baptie's mill, saw Chapman and the men going towards the house, but he turned to look at the clock just then, and when he looked back again he just saw a man's heels going through the window of the summer kitchen. Afterwards he saw Chapman assisting men to carry the piano down the garden to the cart.

Mr. Wm. Beiler said he had been engaged by Mr. Chapman yesterday forenoon and went to Carter's house on George street. To the question, "Did you see prisoner enter Carter's house?" he refused to answer, on the ground that he might incriminate himself. After some cross-firing between the counsel and the magistrate as to whether the witness could be compelled to answer, the case was enlarged till to-morrow to give him time to consider the matter.

The prisoner was admitted to bail, himself in $200 and Mr. T. Cavanagh in $200 also.

A Pet Dog's Death.

Mr. Harry Neil mourns the loss of his pet dog "Carlo." The other day he was boating on the lake and the dog sat on the railway track near the bank intently watching him. A train backed down the line, but Carlo was so engrossed in following his master's movements that he did not see it approaching and was killed. His head was severed from the body. Carlo was a trained favorite, performing all sorts of fancy tricks, and was besides a valued pet amongst the men at the brewery. Harry would not have taken $50 for his handsome water spaniel friend.

Canada's New Party.

An Address on the Object and Aims of the Party by Rev Mr. Huff—Dr. Sutherland to Deliver an Address in Peterborough.

At the public meeting in the Y. M. C. A. hall last night for the propagation of an interest in Canada's new party, there was not a very large attendance, but among those present were some of the strongest temperance men of the town.

Mr. J. J. HARTLEY, chairman of the committee appointed on the 4th of April to arrange for the organization of a branch here, occupied the chair, and in his opening remarks stated that the committee had examined the platform of the new party and found nothing objectionable therein. It was for those present to say whether they would adopt this platform or organize on a new line. He called upon Rev. Mr. Huff, an advocate of the new party principles, to make an address.

Rev. Mr. HUFF objected to anyone calling this "the third party," for there was already a third party in the land, the Roman Catholic church, which held the balance of power. The new party started out in a new line distinct from all other parties. The speaker first pointed out the magnitude of Canada's area, and predicted that our Dominion was to be one of the greatest countries of the world. But if this was to be the case there would have to be of the present political management. He reviewed the political situation and asserted that the great Protestant majority was ruled by the Roman Catholic and liquor elements, who influenced the two great political parties as they willed. It behooved Protestants to unite and resist this aggression upon their rights by organizing some such party as that whose platform he was advocating. Mentioning the great debt of our country, $200,000,000, which had been incurred mainly by the government granting subsidies to railways, he said it would be better for a government, if it wished to encourage railways, to subscribe largely to the stock and receive therefrom substantial returns, than, as in the case of the C.P.R., bear all the expense and receive none of the profits. He held that both governments of this country had played fast and loose with the temperance people, notably in the case of the Scott Act, and had always sunk temperance interests for the political. The proposed New Party was intended to secure better temperance legislation, and Mr. Huff contended that in the present state of affairs a new party was necessary to gain such an end, despite all statements to the contrary. All great reforms have been brought about by people outside of the great political parties of the day, who were too ready to pander to the wishes of a controlling few. Rev. Mr. Huff then dealt ad seriatim with the nine planks in the platform of the new party, which are as follows:

"FOR GOD, HOME AND COUNTRY."

Righteousness and truth in public affairs as well as in private business, and no compromise with wrong.

Equal rights for all creeds and nationalities, but exclusive privileges to none.

A national sentiment, a national literature, and in all matters of public policy—Our country first.

The prompt and absolute prohibition of the liquor traffic, and the honest and vigorous enforcement of all other laws for the repression of vice and intemperance.

Retrenchment and economy in public expenditure, with the view of reducing our enormous national debt.

Manhood suffrage, with an educational qualification; that is, a vote to every freeman of legal age who can read and write.

The extension of the franchise to women.

An elective Senate.

Civil Service Reform.

THE PLATFORM EXPLAINED.

The first three were not exactly planks, but rather moral principles intended to permeate and contract the operations of the party. It had been said that a government must be guided by policy, and he did not hesitate to say that Sir John Macdonald was the most tricky of statesmen, while the other governments vied with Sir John as to which could be the most scheming; but the new party demanded the exercise of truth and righteousness in public affairs, as in matters of ordinary business. Regarding the equal religious rights clause, he pointed out as a violation of this principle the Jesuit grant. The fourth plank, entailing prohibition, was probably the most important one, and for which the party had chiefly been organized. The speaker also drew attention to the importance of the educational qualification in the sixth plank, and pointed out what a source of danger to the commonwealth an uneducated man was if the franchise might become in the hands of unscrupulous politicians. He maintained that women should be allowed to vote, for they represented the moral tone of the community, and would always be found on the side of the right. As to the civil service reform, he said it was well known that the service was filled up with political friends without much regard for their qualifications.

Some might say this platform was indefinite and not comprehensive enough, but it was of course subject to improvement; and where was the political party that could show a printed platform like it. The party was as yet only in process of organization, but there was a membership of one hundred in the Executive Board, clubs were organized wherever ten persons could be found to endorse the platform, and party literature was being circulated, while a proposition to establish a party organ was now well under way. Mr. Huff, in conclusion, said he felt, as a loyal Canadian, it was his duty to help the New Party along, which he considered was the only means available of bringing Canada through the present crisis in her history. He asked those who would join the party to sign the pledges which he would give them at the close of the meeting.

Mr. HARTLEY announced that Dr. Sutherland, of Toronto, a leader of the New Party, would address a public meeting in Peterborough on either the 22nd or 29th, the date to be chosen hereafter. He said they all felt the need of some change from the existing state of affairs, and in this country at least the temperance people could wield the balance of power if they chose. There was too much partyism at present, and he endorsed the formation of the New Party.

Rev. Mr. HUFF read the detailed plan of organization, and after a few words in endoration of the principles set down on the platform by Mr. W. J. Mason, and a vote of thanks to the speaker, the meeting adjourned. At the close nearly all those present signed the slips endorsing the platform of the New Party and pledging themselves to support it.

DINNER

is always a subject for sighs with a housekeeper and she often wishes that the law settled the question of "What shall we have for dinner," and prescribed certain dishes for certain days. Such a law won't certainly save a great deal of worry and questioning to many tired women. But it is not such a difficult problem to solve after all especially in Peterborough, where we have such a good market, besides at China Hall you can secure full Dinner Sets that will grace any table for so little money that anyone can afford the outlay.

COLD IN HEAD CATARRH THE CONSUMPTION 4 STAGES DEATH

There is positive danger to health and life in neglecting a case of Cold in the Head or Catarrh, and at this season with its changeable weather, unusual moisture and sudden change from heat to cold, there is peculiar liability to cold in the head. A neglected case of Cold in the Head rapidly develops into Catarrh, and neglected Catarrh just as certainly develops into Consumption and leads to premature death. Medical testimony proves conclusively that a large percentage of all the deaths occurring from Consumption had their origin in a neglected cold, which by gradual stages, developed into Catarrh, and then into Consumption, that dread disease with which medical science is as yet unable to cope successfully. If you are suffering from a cold in the Head or any of the numerous symptoms of Catarrh, such as bad breath, foul mucous discharges, headaches, droppings from the head into the throat, hawking and spitting, offensive discharges from the nostrils, loosing sense of smell, or taste becoming dull hacking cough, or a general feeling of debility, husky voice, a wheezing or suffocating sensation in your chest when breathing, a feeling of dizziness particularly when stooping, a feeling of tiredness and indisposition to exertion, a feeling of nausea in the morning when attempting to dislodge accumulations in the throat, do not neglect them. These are but a few of the many symptoms of Catarrh, and if you are troubled with any, BE WARNED IN TIME. Do not permit them to run under the mistaken impression that the disease will eventually wear away. It will not, but on the contrary will wear you away, as it has thousands before. Procure at once a bottle of NASAL BALM, the only certain and speedy cure ever offered the public for Cold in the Head and Catarrh. This is no idle assertion, but an unquestioned fact, which is verified by the thousands of testimonials in our possession, telling of marvellous cures. These testimonials we have received from all parts of the Dominion, and we append a few, selected at random, as fair samples of the whole:

Mr. Alex. Burns, of Sudbury, Ont., says: Gents I may state that I have been afflicted with catarrh for 7 or 8 year., and it was attended by consequent symptoms, such as foul breath, constant dropping into the throat, hawking and spitting, partial deafness, ringing in the ears, and sickening pain in the head directly over either eye. I have used powders and douches, but all to no effect, the only result arising from the use of such was temporary relief, followed by the usual symptoms in a more aggravated form. The results arising from the use of Nasal Balm are sweet breath, stoppage of the dropping into the throat (consequently less hawking and spitting), clearness of hearing and not once since I began its use have I had pain in the head—in fact it is my opinion that a careful and persistent use of the "Balm" will effect a cure in the worst case of catarrh.

Mr. John H. Adams, merchant, Brantford, Ont., says: I have used NASAL BALM for catarrh, and found it to be a CERTAIN CURE.

W. A. Doyle, Beulah, Man., writes: As a family medicine to check Catarrhal affections, or cold in the head, NASAL BALM HAS NO EQUAL. We prize it highly.

Henrietta Blackwell, Parker, Ont., says: Your NASAL BALM is the BEST REMEDY I have yet used for catarrh. I can breathe more freely than before and my breath has regained its sweetness. I consider NASAL BALM a boon to the suffering.

W. Chas. Hanley, Postmaster, Spry Bay, N. S., says: I submit the following to the public that any who may be afflicted may be benefited by the same remedy. Two bottles of your NASAL BALM has RESTORED to PERFECT HEALTH a four year old child of ours, suffering from Catarrh.

Alpha H. Dales, Tarbert, Ont., writes: Your NASAL BALM has made a new man of me. have never used a remedy so satisfactory.

Miss Maggie M. Martin, Tweswood, Pa., says: Through a friend in Canada I became acquainted with your NASAL BALM. I have suffered for years with Catarrh and it is the first remedy from which I have experienced relief, and I feel certain that it will cure me.

Miss Minnie McNairn, Mills Roches, Ont., says: Your bottle of NASAL BALM did me much good. The pain in my head ceased after before I had used the bottle, and I feel myself receiving the greatest benefit. I am certain NASAL BALM will cure any case of Catarrh if its use is preserved in.

James H. McLeod, Mink River Road, N.S., says: I have tried other remedies for Catarrh, but received little or no good from them. Your NASAL BALM is certainly the BEST REMEDY I have ever tried, and all you claim for it. The fact that it is pleasant and convenient to use adds greatly to its value, but its chief worth lies in being a CERTAIN CURE for that unpleasant disease—Catarrh.

Mr. Feb'cenig, Toronto, says:—For a number of years my wife has been badly troubled with Catarrh. Dr. —— have promised to cure her, but after using his remedy for six months she became worse and weaker than before, and I found that I had spent $25 for medical treatment that did no good. My wife then began to use your NASAL BALM and has improved wonderfully, and she is better and stronger than for years. Your remedy is the best in the market and you can use this testimony.

Emilie Pelletier, Grenville, says:—I can scarcely find words to tell you how highly I prize NASAL BALM. Its effects in my case have been wonderful.

A CAUTION:—Beware of imitations. If your dealer has not NASAL BALM in stock do not let him persuade you to take any other remedy which he may say is just as good, but send direct to the undersigned and it will be sent you post paid on receipt of price—50 cents and $1 a bottle.

"Oh that some power the gift would gie us,

Thus sighed old Scotia's bard in vain,
For what he could not then attain.
But had he lived in this fair town
He had no cause to sigh or frown,
For if he walked on Hunter street,
An eager throng he'd surely meet,
With faces bright as summer light,
All coming from one-fifty-eight.
Where photos always are in view,
Which are to life so very true,
That each one who has seen them there,
Does to his comrades all declare,
"SPROULE is the very man to gie us,

TOPICS FROM THE CAPITAL

A DISCUSSION OVER LIQUOR PERMITS IN THE NORTHWEST.

The Railway Grants—The Brockton' Royal Grant Bill to go on the Government Order Paper.

OTTAWA, April 17.—In the House this afternoon Mr. Barnard having asked: Is it the intention of the Government to cause legal proceedings to be instituted to test the legality of the Jacobs Estate Act? Sir John Macdonald replied that the Government still being of the opinion first expressed as to the constitutionality of the act, it remained for those of a contrary opinion to test it.

The Easter adjournment was brought up by Sir John Macdonald, who said that as the members were anxious to know whether or not the House would sit on Saturday, he would put the question now to the House to decide, and he therefore moved that when the House adjourns on Thursday it stand adjourned until Saturday afternoon. The Speaker declared the motion carried.

On motion of Sir John Thompson the Anti-Combines Bill was transferred to Government orders.

Hon. G. E. Foster moved and it was resolved that the House go into committee tomorrow to consider the steamship subsidy resolutions.

On motion of Hon. Mackenzie Bowell the clause in the Customs Act Amendment Bill declaring that inland transportation charges shall be added to the value for duty of goods imported was struck out, and the bill as amended was read a third time and passed.

The bills amending the Summary Convictions Act, the act respecting interest—providing for 6 per cent. interest charge on judgment debts in the Northwest—and respecting appropriation of lands were read a third time and passed.

Mr. Fisher, on motion that the House go into Committee of Supply, offered an amendment condemning the issue of liquor permits by the Lieutenant-Governor of the Northwest and the grant of license to sell liquor in the Rocky Mountains Park by authority of the Lieutenant-Governor, in violation of the act, which he claimed put the traffic, so far as the park is concerned, under the direct control of the Governor-General-in-Council. He censured the Minister of the Interior for not dealing with the matter himself.

Sir John Thompson followed, stating that this contention by Mr. Fisher had no foundation in law, and that the Lieutenant-Governor undoubtedly had the right to exercise all the authority which he had assumed.

After recess the discussion on Mr. Fisher's resolution was continued at great length and at 11 o'clock the House divided, the resolution being lost, 53 to 100.

The House then went into Committee of Supply, taking into consideration the military service appropriation. Col. Denison took the opportunity to again urge upon the attention of the Minister of Militia the desirability of remodelling the schools and of introducing the cadet system. Captain Casey called for a new arm for the force, declaring that the Snider was antiquated. Major Sutherland urged that the issue of clothing and equipment should be more liberal. He referred especially to the head dress worn, and the fact that though helmets were prescribed as the full dress of rifle corps such as his, the 32nd Battalion, these helmets have to be procured at the cost of the men themselves. Sir Adolphe Caron said he agreed that the head dress should be supplied by the department, but it was admitted by military critics that forage caps were a necessity and the department having to supply these could not on the present appropriation supply both helmets and forage caps.

In answer to a suggestion by Col. Kirkpatrick, that fatigue suits should be issued to save the full-dress uniform, Sir Adolphe Caron said he believed the subject was one well worthy of consideration, and he would give it attention.

The appropriations for lighthouse construction were next discussed.

On the vote for the superintendence of insurance, Sir Richard Cartwright gave notice that on concurrence he would have some observations to offer with respect to the propriety of a minister of the Crown having any official connection with companies inspected by officers of the department. He would not proceed at present because he noticed that the First Minister was not present.

After further progress the House adjourned at 2.10 a.m.

These subsidies are made conditional upon commencement of construction before Aug. 1, 1891, and completion within a reasonable time, not exceeding four years, to be fixed by order-in-council. Some new votes to railways will in all probability be submitted next week.

Mr. Wilson of Elgin inquires if legislation will be introduced this session based on the Labor Commission's report.

A deputation is in the city from Toronto to urge upon the Government the granting of a subsidy to the Toronto, Hamilton and Buffalo Railway. This enterprise is said to be in the interest of the Canada Southern Railway and will be the third projected line between Toronto and Hamilton. Sir John promised to take their representations into consideration.

Trunk Line Freight Rates Reduced.

NEW YORK, April 17.—The Trunk Line Executive Committee discussed the lake and rail rates at its meeting here to-day. It was decided to lower the westbound freight rates east of Chicago. On classes 1 and 2 the reduction is three per cent., 3 and 4 two per cent. and 5 and 6 one per cent. These rates apply to all 70 cent rates between New York and Chicago. The reduction will go into effect April 24.

LORD HARTINGTON TALKS

HE CLAIMS THE GOVERNMENT IS NOT LOSING GROUND.

The Tories Puzzled by Lord Rosebery's Declaration at Norwich—The Men of the Trenton's Dauntless Cheer.

LONDON, April 17.—Lord Hartington, in a speech at Sunderland to-night, dealed the truth of the assertion that the bye-elections showed a revulsion of popular feeling in favor of Mr. Gladstone. He claimed that the fact that the Liberal-Unionist poll had in every instance been increased, even when the Liberal-Unionist candidate had been defeated, showed that the country adhered to the decision given at the last general election. He said the principles of local government, as accepted by the peoples of England and Scotland, would be offered to Ireland as soon as the Irish were ready to recognize that there was no grievance in possessing an equality in political status with the English and the Scotch.

A Cheer Heard Round the World.

LONDON, April 17.—Nothing has been read here with more interest than the reports of the Samoan disaster. Captain Kane's handling of the Calliope is extolled by the English, even though Ireland claims him as Irish. The press does, as Admiral Sir Geoffrey Hornby did, justice to her American and German consorts. The cheer of the Trenton's crew to the Calliope has been heard in England. "Consider the scene," says The Telegraph, "and the matchless heroism and generosity of this Yankee crew. They could see the Queen's ship fighting the hurricane and appreciate the gallantry of the effort with the generous pleasure of true mariners. We do not know in all naval records any sound which makes a finer music upon the ear than the cheer of the Trenton's men. It was distressed manhood greeting triumphant manhood, 'the doomed saluting the saved. It was plucklier and more human than any cry raised upon the deck of a victorious line of battle ship. It never can be forgotten, never must be forgotten by Englishmen speaking of Americans. That dauntless cheer to the Calliope was the expression of an immortal courage." These are extracts from a long editorial all in a similar tone.

Brutality of the Derry Police.

LONDONDERRY, April 17.—Prof. Harrison has been committed to jail for trial Tuesday next on the charge of assisting bankrupted tenants at Gweedore. While he was being conveyed to jail he was heartily cheered by the populace. The sergeant in charge of the policemen who arrested Harrison ordered his men, "Beat the devil out of them" and Father Gildea, Boyle, Conyboare, O'Brien and O'Shea and a reporter of The London Daily News were roughly handled. Women were trampled upon by the crowd and in some instances were clubbed by the police. The excitement was intense. The people were greatly enraged by the action of the police.

Lord Rosebery's Norwich Speech.

LONDON, April 17.—Lord Rosebery's speech at Norwich is to Tory minds a political sarcastic. They do not pretend to have found a solution, but they dwell on two things as the most puzzling of all. He proposes a committee of eminent jurists and civil servants to get the next Home Rule bill into workable shape before it is presented to Parliament. Did he, ask our Tory friends, take Gladstone's opinion before putting forward that suggestion? There is no answer, but they insist that it is tantamount to an admission that the difficulties in framing a measure cannot be removed by ordinary means. More important still, perhaps, is this declaration: "Home Rule in our sense," said Rosebery, "is distinct from the national and historical argument. It is simply a question of devolution and decentralization." What does that mean, and, whatever it means, does it come direct from Gladstone? Lord Rosebery praises this Government for having gone far toward his "devolution" policy in England by their local government bill. They have gone not less far in Scotland, and they are known to be considering a similar measure for Ireland. Parnell has said that Home Rule is an open question. Rosebery says that the historical argument may be neglected. Is this another approach to a new departure? Is Home Rule to mean after all only one more large county council? Such are some, and only some, of the Tory questions to which an answer has yet to be given.

The Tyrian in Distress.

NEW YORK, April 17th.—The steamship reported in distress last night off Beach Haven, N.J., was probably the steamer Tyrian, of the Anchor line. The Tyrian was due here last Monday, but her machinery broke down soon after taking a pilot on board, and she is now making for Sandy Hook under sail.

RAMSLEY'S BABY'S DEATH

A MYSTERIOUS OCCURRENCE IN TODMORDEN.

An Absconding Toronto Jeweler Captured in Windsor—How Henry Alyear Raised a $300 Loan.

TORONTO, April 18.—It will be recollected that early in January last John Clarke, a jeweler doing business on the corner of Esther and Queen-streets, suddenly disappeared, leaving the city wholesale jewelers to mourn the loss of some $2000 worth of goods with which they had been foolish enough to trust him. Clarke had made a clean sweep of everything of any value, and when the creditors took possession they found a comparatively empty store. Among the number of those from whom he got the almost entire stock of some $2000, and until Tuesday night last saw no visible prospect of realizing payment.

Last week the fraud was noticed that Clarke was located in Detroit, and was in the habit now and then of taking cheap journeys across the Detroit River to Windsor. Mr. Austin set a watch on Clarke's movements, with the result that as the latter stepped off the ferry-boat at Windsor on Tuesday night, he was arrested on a capias issued by Mr. Austin, and conveyed to Sandwich jail, where he is likely to remain for some time. Just as soon as he satisfies for the $300, a score of other Toronto wholesalers are ready to sale on (upon) him, and hold him tight until he disgorges dollar for dollar. They are in great glee, as Clarke has a wealthy father in Georgetown, who they believe will foot the entire bill now that the hopeful son is behind the bars.

Henry Alyear, a New York Hebrew, but late of Toronto, was arrested in Hamilton last night on a dispatch from Toronto, charging him with forgery. On Monday last, it is charged that he went to the operator in the Rossin House and giving the name of C. W. Gauthier, a Windsor man, a then guest of the Walker House, requested him to telegraph to Mrs. Gauthier, Windsor, requesting her to forward forthwith $100 to her husband in care of the clerk in the Rossin House. The operator did so, and Alyear calling the day following found that the money had arrived. The clerk, however, refused to hand it over unless Alyear identified himself as Gauthier. He did so by calling the operator, who remembered him as the man who had sent away the message on the day previous. This identification proved a sufficient warrant for the money to pass into his possession. Meanwhile Mr. Gauthier had returned to Windsor, and as soon as he had learned of the transaction he at once telegraphed to Toronto to stop the payment of the $100. The dispatch coming too late, the matter was placed in the hands of the police. Detective McGrath was detailed to look up Alyear, and tracing him to Hamilton secured his arrest in that city, $60 being found on his person.

The residents of Todmorden are greatly excited over the peculiar circumstances surrounding the death and interment of the infant son of William Bamsley, pottery moulder, of that village. The child was born on March 14. Dr. Pickering being in attendance. He saw it several times up to March 26, when on all occasions it seemed healthy and thriving. Since that date it disappeared, and Bamsley being unable to told inquirers that the child had died. Dr. Pickering thereupon instituted inquires in order to find out where the body had been interred, or whether a duly authenticated certificate of death had been secured. He was unsuccessful in both instances, and thereupon placed the case before Coroner Johnson, who yesterday instructed the county authorities to institute a search for the remains, at the same time issuing a warrant for an inquest to be held this afternoon at the Morgue in case the searching party would prove successful.

Rumor had placed the grave of the little one in a two-acre lot outside the village, and thither yesterday afternoon proceeded County Constable T. J. Brown, Undertaker McCabe and an assistant. After digging all over the lot the grave of the child was at length in the centre of the piece of land. When the coffin containing the body was brought to the surface the undertaker was astonished to find that it was one he had sold himself to a man named F. J. Burns on March 26. The body, coffin and all were taken to Undertaker McCabe's establishment, 206 Queen west, and will be removed to the Morgue to await the result of the inquest.

The Bamsleys claim that the child's death was perfectly natural and that the body was interred where it was found only temporarily to await its ultimate removal to Mortimer, where the family have a burial lot. On the other hand neighbors say that Mrs. Bamsley, when asked about what had become of the body, replied, "It is dead, and I am glad the little yellow brat has gone." The whole matter will be carefully sifted this afternoon.

The Minneapolis Strike.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., April 17.—Soon after noon a car on the Bloomington line reached the corner of Washington and Seventh-avenues. It was found the switch had been spiked. A big crowd gathered and stones flew. Several hit the driver, who unhitched his horses and abandoned the car. The mounted police charged the crowd with drawn clubs. Eleven men were arrested. The crowd, numbering several thousands, was surly and sullen, but there was no more trouble. The abandoned car was drawn away by Irish horses and another driver.

There were several brushes to-day between the strikers, their sympathizers and the police. A mob on Washington-avenue was the hardest to handle. It would be scattered in one place only to gather in another. Many arrests were made, some of the officers picking up small boys and bringing them to the station. This afternoon a Bloomington-avenue car was boarded by a number of men. The police were forced up. It gathered others as it proceeded and when it reached Hennepin-avenue it was packed, many climbing on the top. The driver became excited and the car was run off the track several times. It was finally started for the shops two blocks away. A small riot followed on its arrival there. After savage clubbing by an officer and with the assistance of the office employes, President Lowry leading a band, the car was housed, but not before it was badly wrecked. The attempt to effect a settlement between the company and the strikers to-day was a failure.

The Flour Output.

MINNEAPOLIS, April 17.—The Northwestern Miller says: The flour output last week was the heaviest since November, 16 mills out of the 23 contributing to the result. The aggregate production for the week was 100,850 barrels against 98,150 the week before and 109,200 for the corresponding time in 1888. The daily output for the week just given promises of reaching 100,000 barrels or over. Fluctuations in wheat values have had a depressing influence on the flour trade, and prices are 20 to 25 cents per barrel lower. Buyers appear to be unwilling to make purchases, excepting as they are absolutely forced to do so. Some mills report moderate sales, with the demand rather on the increase. The export trade is light, bakers' being most in demand. The direct exports last week were 61,000 barrels, against 46,900 the preceding week.

FAIR VIEW STOCK FARM.

The "Examiner's" Representative's Visit.

Mr. Levi S. Bowles, a Successful General Farmer—His Fine Stud of Thoroughbred Clydesdales.

Your correspondent was invited to inspect "Fair View" stock farm. This excellent farm consists of one hundred & fifty acres of choice land most suitable for either stock or grain farming. It is an excellent quality of soil, well watered, is situated about one-half mile west from our village and is owned and occupied by Mr. Levi S. Bowles. Mr. Bowles, who is a young man, in the prime of life, appears to possess a thorough knowledge of farming, and pursues the course that all successful farmers take, that is mixed husbandry.

After viewing the surroundings of the beautiful residence and receiving a few useful hints as to rotation of crops, your correspondent was invited to view some of the very fine stock. The first was a beautiful Clydesdale stallion, Brown Stout. This fine animal was imported in the fall of 1886 and purchased by Mr. Bowles in the fall of 1887; he is a dark brown color with white patch on face, and shows very superior action for one of his class, he is four years old first of May and tips the beam at the enormous weight of nineteen hundred pounds. It is doubtful if there is another of such weight for the age in Central Ontario. He has a beautiful head and neck, which are much sought after in this class of horses; sloping shoulders, well coupled with good short back, and ribs well sprung; excellent set of legs, with fine, silky hair, which is much prized by all good horsemen; good feet-locks and fine shaped foot. This horse traces back through many of the best bred horses in Scotland, is registered in vol. nine, B. C. S. B. No. 4,985, having such blood as Lord Derby, Broomfield Champion, Pride of Renfrew and the Loftye's and Farmers'. Fancy all being noted prize-winners in Scotland. On the dam's side the noted mare Lilla (vol. nine, 5,806, B. C. S. B.), sired by Pride of Basque (2,337), grand dam, Sally Douglas (4,180), by Merry Tom (536), the noted prize-winners of the old country.

Mr. Bowles has also some very fine mares and fillies, one an imported thoroughbred Clydesdale mare, registered in the 10th vol. of the B. C. S. B. Dark brown color, two white hind feet, patch on face, short legs, flat bone, excellent feet; she is in foal to Marquis, an imported stallion.

The next imported was a pair of fillies, one of which was sired by Brown Stout and is a very fine colt, with splendid action; also a mare and foal which is well worthy of mention. The mare, which is one of Mr. Bowles' team that carried off so many prizes at the local fairs, is a very handsome animal, and has a foal about five days old at foot, sired by Brown Stout, which promises to be a prize-winner at the coming autumn exhibitions. Mr. Bowles has now engaged an experienced stock man from Scotland, who appears to understand his business to perfection, as everything presents to the visitor the evidences of a careful, systematic way of handling and feeding. After spending a profitable and social half hour in viewing other departments of farming well worthy of mention, which want of space will not allow, your correspondent took his departure, being well repaid for the visit.

Newspaper Criticism.

It is a privilege every newspaper reserves to itself to criticise, adversely if needs be, for the public's benefit, anything in which the public is deeply interested.

It is the custom of H. H. Warner & Co., proprietors of the renowned Kidney and Liver Cure, better known as "Warner's Safe Cure," to flood the country with medical pamphlets. The writer has taken the liberty to examine one of these marvellous little books, and finds food for criticism, but before indulging in it, will give our readers some quotations therefrom, from the highest medical authorities, which we believe worthy of consideration. Under the head of "No Distinctive Symptoms Apparent," we find:

First—More adults are carried off in this country by chronic kidney disease than by any other one malady except consumption.—Thompson.

Second—Deaths from such diseases are increasing at the rate of 250 per cent a decade.—Edwards.

Third—Bright's Disease has no symptoms of its own, and may long exist without the knowledge of the patient or practitioner, as no pain will be felt in the kidneys or their vicinity.—Roberts.

Fourth—In the fatal cases—and most cases have hitherto been fatal—the symptoms of diseased kidneys will first appear in extremely different organs of the body as stated above.—Thompson.

Fifth—Only when the disease has reached its final and fatal stages may the usual symptoms of albumen and tube casts appear in the water, and will great pain rack the diseased organs.—Thompson.

Sixth—Bright's disease, which usually has three stages of development, is a universal disease in England and America.—Roberts and Edwards.

Thompson is authority for saying that more adults are carried off in this country by kidney disease than any other malady except consumption. Under Warner's "Safe Cure" article on consumption, we find a paragraph claiming to be a quotation from a publication issued by Brompton Hospital for Consumption, London, England, which states that 52 per cent. of the patients of that institution died of kidney disease. Dr. Herman Weber, an eminent German authority, also says that consumption is always due to deficient nutrition of the tissues, because of bad blood.

Medical science can no longer dispute the fact that the kidneys are the principal blood purifying organs of the human system, and if they are diseased and thus fail to expel the uric acid poison or the waste matter of the blood, as the blood passes through these two great organs, the "Safe Cure" claim is correct, and the reasoning of its proprietor holds good.

There is no doubt but that in too many instances the medical fraternity doctor for symptoms, instead of striking at the root of the disease, and that under this form of treatment many patients die.

An Important Suit.

At Osgood hall, Toronto, Wednesday an appeal against an order for examination of several witnesses in the case of Rogers vs. the Canadian Order of Foresters was dismissed with costs. The case is one of local interest. Mr. J. B. Rogers, of Lakefield, was a member in good standing of Lakefield Court, C. O. F., at the time of his death last year. The Order refused to pay his death benefit of $1,000 to his heirs on the ground that he had violated the constitution. The point in question is whether the Lakefield branch did not waive the rules of the constitution in his favor. It is the contention for the plaintiffs that by their conduct the Foresters are compelled to pay this amount. O'Meara & Burnham, for the plaintiffs, were granted an order by Judge Weller to examine certain officers of the Lakefield branch. The defendants' counsel appealed against this order but the appeal was dismissed with costs. The officers will therefore have to submit to an examination, which will probably take place on Friday in Peterborough.

ALL competent authorities, prominent among them being F. F. Roberts, M.D. Professor of Chemical Medicine at University College Hospital, London, Eng., say:—"Bright's disease has no marked symptoms of its own, but takes the symptoms of other (so-called) diseases." If you have headache, fickle appetite, failure of eyesight, tube casts in urine, gradual loss of flesh and dropsical swelling, extreme wakefulness, distressing nervousness, do not neglect such symptoms, or you will eventually have Bright's disease, or some other effect of neglected kidney disease. Take Warner's Safe Cure, the only recognised specific for this disease.

GOUGHS' GREAT HAT and CAP DEPARTMENT

During the past month our Store has been undergoing extensive alterations, and now with pardonable pride, we have much pleasure in announcing that the Store is one of the Finest in Canada. Our aim has been to clothe a man or boy from head to foot, and we have been adding department after department until we have reached the goal of our ambition. Our last Great Department, namely, HATS and CAPS, is now open, and we are showing the Latest Styles from London, New York and Paris. We will not enlarge on the prices these Goods will be sold at, suffice to say,—they will simply astonish our patrons. Remember our Great HAT and CAP DEPARTMENT is now open.

A WORD ABOUT OUR CLOTHING DEPARTMENT, THIS SPRING:

Never in the history of the trade has such an Array of Fine Clothing been placed before a buying public. Our Stock this Spring embraces all the LATEST DESIGNS and PATTERNS, and as they were made under our own special supervision, the workmanship is of a SUPERIOR quality. Notwithstanding all this our prices will be found LOWER than ever. When we came to you as the Revolutionizers of the Clothing Trade, we promised you then that we would benefit the public, and now after a long trial have we kept our word? If so, let that be our best guarantee to the public, that we deal honestly and squarely with them in the future. We are not so egotistical as to believe that we please every one, (our Divine Master when on earth did not please everyone) still to those who we did not please, as well as those we did please, we sincerely return thanks for past patronage. As we are not infallible we are prone to make mistakes and our judgment like any human being's may err in buying. Still we try to avoid errors, as much as possible, and therefore it is our proud boast when anyone has a greviance we never refused to make it right when brought to our notice. This spring we are going to REDOUBLE OUR ENERGIES, and by keeping GOOD GOODS, NICE GOODS, SQUARE DEALING, and EXTREMELY LOW PRICES, we hope to merit a Continuance of your Generous Patronage.

"For which of you intending to build a tower sitteth not down first and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it."—Luke xiv. 28

We have considered the cost of the proposed tower to be erected on the George street Methodist church, and have placed it at $2900.00. Help us to build the Tower, by adding a brick to the structure.

The "Idlers and Strangers" of the congregation have decided to raise part of the above amount by subscriptions, and a Tea and Platform Meeting, to be held on

TUESDAY, APRIL 23rd,

(instead of Good Friday, as first announced.) The following gentlemen from a distance are expected to take part in the programme at the Platform Meeting:—

MR. G. A. COX, Toronto; REV. PROF. WALLACE, M.A., B.L., of Victoria University, Cobourg; REV. I. TOVELL, of St. Catherines, formerly of Peterborough; REV. THOMAS MANNING, B.A., of Orillia; REV. GEO. W. DEWEY, the Singing Evangelist of Lindsay, and MR. W. A. DIXON, Peterborough's Ventriloquist.

The Committee are sparing no pains to make this one of the grandest affairs every held in Peterborough, of the kind, both in decoration and in securing the very best talent for the programme.

The Committe have taken the liberty of sending out a number of tickets on approval; do not consider the prices charged for the tickets is for the Tea and Platform Meeting alone, but more as a subscription for the tower fund.

BUY A BRICK.—And be able to say you own property on George Street, Peterborough. If you buy a ticket it will give you the sole right to claim you own a brick in the George Street Methodist Church.

TEA! TEA! will be served from 5 o'clock until 8.

A BRAVE BANKER.

Failure of a Desperate Attempt to Rob a London Bank in Broad Daylight.

LONDON, Ont., April 18.—A bold and desperate attempt at bank robbery occurred here in broad daylight to-day. About 2.30 this afternoon two strange men entered the banking office of Mr. F. B. Clarke, where Mr. Frank Clarke was alone behind the counter. One of them presented a pistol at his head and called upon him to deliver his money. Mr. Clarke stood for a moment in astonishment, and the order was repeated rather imperatively:

"Hand out your money!"

The young man at once answered: "No, I won't!" and reaching quickly over the railing grasped the barrel of the pistol and turned it aside.

The other stranger was standing at the door of the counter as if ready to pounce in and secure the cash on a favorable opportunity, but on seeing the bold stand taken by Mr. Clarke, and his evident determination to fight, both men turned and ran out of the door and down Richmond-street as fast as their legs could carry them.

Three Robbers Were Arrested.

MINNEAPOLIS, April 18.—At noon to-day two men went into the State Bank when only two employes were present. One covered the employes with a revolver while the other vaulted over the railing and thrust $8000 over the railing into a valise. Just then a depositor entered and this forced the uncovering of the assistant cashier, who rushed to the safe to get his revolver. The robber threw the valise to his accomplice, who dashed into the president's room by mistake. He then jumped through a window and fled. The other man also escaped. There was a wild rush to the street, in which three or four policemen joined and finally the robbers were arrested. Their names are given as James Henry and Fred. Douglas.

NEARLY WIPED OUT.

A Michigan Town Devastated by Fire—Thirty Buildings Destroyed.

MUIR, Mich., April 18.—Fire which originated in Dakon's Hotel this morning came pretty near wiping out this town. As it was some 30 odd residences and business places were destroyed, and as a town of 1000 inhabitants cannot afford a fire department very little could be done to control the flames. A good many of the contents of the buildings burnt were saved, however, and the streets for blocks in every direction are lined with household goods, store stocks and other articles of value. Lansing was wired for help, but it did not arrive until too late. The total loss will fall little short of $94,000, with but $10,000 insurance.

Incendiaries at Listowel.

LISTOWEL, April 18.—Last night the residence of J. M. Terhune was burnt to the ground with the contents, the family barely escaping. They had to borrow clothes to cover themselves with. Insured in the British American $700 on building, $300 on contents. Loss above insurance about $1000.

About two hours later the stable owned by the trustees of the Baptist Church and occupied by Rev. Mr. Dack was burnt to the ground together with a horse, cutter, harness and a quantity of hay and feed. Insured in the Imperial for $100 on building and $225 on contents.

Three parties are now in the lock-up supposed to be the ones who have been setting the fires. Five buildings were fired last night.

LOST AT FREEZE OUT.

Von Reinecke Tells His Story in Court—Bail Refused for Phillips.

MONTREAL, April 18.—The case of Harry Phillips, arrested in connection with the loss of $14,000 worth of jewelry by Von Reinecke, salesman for P. W. Ellis & Co., came up in court to-day. Von Reinecke told his story, which was in substance that he on behalf of his employers negotiated with Maloney to exchange the jewelry for some real estate in Montreal, but that Maloney finally refused to trade. Phillips, however, produced about 700 carats of diamonds, worth $200 to $300 per carat, at Maloney's house in Craig-street, and proposed to play them against the jewelry, the player who first won fourteen games of "freeze out" to take the entire stake.

They played until morning when Phillips won the fourteenth game. Von Reinecke then told Phillips the jewelry belonged to P. W. Ellis & Co. Phillips told Reinecke he would have to leave the country and proposed to assist in concocting a story of mysterious disappearance, in which plan Maloney also joined, saying he would place some of Von Reinecke's effects on the canal bank to make it appear that he had been drowned.

When he arrived in New York Von Reinecke telegraphed that the story must be reversed up and that the mysterious disappearance story wouldn't work, as he had already informed his employers of the loss.

Phillips' application for bail was refused and the examination continued until to-morrow, when Von Reinecke will conclude his story.

THE DUNNVILLE TRAGEDY.

Clemo and Smith Committed for Trial on the Charge of Murder.

CAYUGA, April 18.—The hearing of the Dunnville murder case was concluded to-day. Joseph Clemo and Samuel Smith, the prisoners, were committed for trial for the murder of an unknown man found in the canal at Dunnville on Nov. 1 last. There were many witnesses examined and much excitement prevailed. Detective Murray has made out a strong chain of circumstantial evidence against the accused. They will not have their trial until the fall assizes.

A Fatal Chastisement.

ADRIAN, Mo., April 18.—A crowd surrounded the house of F. Burnett, a farmer living five miles from here, last night to give him a third successive chastisement, he having been married Saturday. The intruders disregarded repeated warnings to leave and were fired upon by the occupants of the house. One man was fatally shot and two received severe wounds.

A Kansas Defaulter.

KANSAS CITY, April 18.—It is reported from Phillipsburg, Kan., that John W. Lowe, agent for the Equitable Mortgage Company of this city and for other companies, has absconded, being a defaulter to $35,000.

A Copper Find in Duluth.

DULUTH, April 18.—A blast fired to-day at the Missouls Temple excavation in the heart of the city revealed a vein of copper bearing rock of exceeding richness. It is considered a valuable find.

Winnipeg's Population.

WINNIPEG, April 18.—Winnipeg's population, according to the assessor, is 26,000. The assessment is lowered by about $2,500,000.

Address Cy. for Fletcher's Castoria.

Parallel Lines.

Every student knows that in close reasoning parallel lines of thought are laid down and deductions educed.

We have drawn the above visible lines simply to bring them prominently before your eye and to ask what they represent to you.

A railroad man to whom we showed them said, "To me those four lines represent a double-track railway."

A doctor replied to the same interrogatory, "The lines are to me the larger arteries and veins lying alongside each other in the human body."

As every intelligent man or woman knows, the blood of every living person flows with almost railroad speed through the arteries, forced by that wonderful engine, the heart. From the arteries it is side-tracked through the capillaries and veins, and every drop of blood goes through the kidneys for purification no less than 2500 times every twenty-four hours. If the kidneys be diseased the impurities of the blood containing the worn out tissues and deleterious acids are not drawn out or excreted as nature intended, but continually pass and repass through every fibre of the system, carrying death and decay with every pulsation. Unless remedied the heart becomes weakened, the lungs, trying to do double work, break down, the liver becomes congested, the stomach refuses to digest food and the result is a general breakdown.

Why?

Because the kidneys, the sewers of the system, are foul and stopped up, and the entire blood becomes nothing more nor less than sewage.

Now is it not criminal, nay, suicidal, to allow such a state of things to continue when a simple remedy is within your reach, known for a certainty to do as represented, which will open the closed pipes of the kidneys, allow the effete matter to escape, relieve the over-worked heart, lungs and liver, cause a healthy appetite, put the bloom of health in your cheek, the dove of hope in your breast and the light of life in your eye?

Do not allow prejudice to blind you to your best interests, but to-day procure Warner's safe cure and be put on the straight road to rude health and correct living.

Our parallel and closing lines to you are, take our advice and your experience will justify you in thanking us for bringing under you notice a remedy without a parallel.

Why?

Why suffer a single moment, when you can get immediate relief from internal or external pain by the use of Polson's Nerviline, the great pain cure? Nerviline has never been known to fail. Try a ten cent sample bottle. You will find it just as recommended. Neuralgia, toothache, cramps, headache and all similar complaints disappear as if by magic, when Nerviline is used. Large bottles 25 cents. Test bottles 10 cents, at druggists and country dealers. 6w16d

Ulcerated Stomach.

"For three years I was unable to work, suffering from ulcerated stomach. Medical aid having failed, I was told to try Burdock Blood Bitters, of which 7 bottles made a permanent cure. This was two years ago, and I feel that I have to thank B.B.B. for being alive and well to-day." Mrs. Rose Ann McCloskey, Marmora, Ont. 2w14d

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Lyman, Sons & Co., Montreal, Wholesale Agents. dw

A Frightened Mother.

"My little girl, 4 years old, frightened me one night by a croupy cough, but I gave her a dose of Hagyard's Yellow Oil, which relieved her at once, and she slept well all night. I have since used it in several cases of croup, frost bites, etc., and find it always reliable." Mrs. Eva Bradley, Virden, Man.

Father had Quinsy.

"We find Burdock Blood Bitters excellent for weakness, and equally so for headache. Father also suffered severely from quinsy, which B.B.B., by its tonic and purifying properties, completely cured." 2w14d

MARY a sufferer from Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, General Debility, etc., will be glad to find that Dyer's Quinine and Iron Wine is strongly recommended for such cases. It is easily assimilated, prepared with great care and is an admirable tonic. W. A. Dyer & Co, Montreal. 6d88

Brightening Up.

The Commercial House is being thoroughly renovated and repaired, the exterior also being painted and given the appearance of new. Mr. Ed. Brown is the enterprising proprietor, and is determined to make his hotel second to none.

Highly Creditable.

Mr. Adam Hall has been awarded the contract for the plumbing of the new Nicholls Hospital, in competition with several outside houses. The Giant T is a case in point where it is not required to go outside of town to get first class work done.

R. A GUNN, M.D., Dean and Professor of Surgery, of the United States Medical College, says:—"I am willing to acknowledge and commend thus frankly the value of Warner's Safe Cure." The late Dr. Dio Lewis, writing to the proprietors of Warner's Safe Cure, said, over his own signature: "It I found myself the victim of a serious kidney trouble, I would use Warner's Safe Cure."

Brisk Business.

To show the activity that prevails consequent upon the superior quality of the implements and machinery of the Peter Hamilton Agricultural Works, the fact is stated that, since the first of April, the establishment has shipped a car-load of implements, etc., daily. There are no "flies" on the humming wheels of these works.

Beginning their Drill.

The first squad drill was held at the drill shed last night by Sergt.-Major Randle for the purpose of teaching Sergeants their new duties in connection with the revised drill disciplines, by which the Sergeants act as guides and are obliged to do nearly all the work. Company drill will probably begin next week and battalion drill a week or so later that.

Cheap Stoves.

Mr. Adam Hall has purchased the entire output and balance of the stock of the Parkdale Stove Works, which ceased manufacturing last March. Particulars will shortly be announced. 2w16-24

The Daughters Disbanded.

The "Daughters of the Regiment" are parting with their uniforms, not enough funds being raised by entertainment and otherwise to pay for them. Ridgetown high school is organizing a similar brigade and is buying most of the uniforms from the Collegiate Institute here at half price. The young ladies are, however, continuing their drill, and have advanced to Indian club exercises, but as "Daughters of the Regiment" they are no more.

The Clergymen Invited.

Mr. A. W. Wright, who will address a public meeting in the opera house to-night in the labor interests, invites all the clergymen of the town to be present and take seats on the platform. If Mr. Wright's invitation had been received in time the invitation would have been made a personal one, but in default of this the names of the press is called into requisition to bring Mr. Wright's request to the notice of the clergymen.

Remember

the sale of Dr. Kinsid's residence on Saturday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, p.m., sharp. It is seldom that such an opportunity offers to secure a residence so conveniently situated. The farm in North Monaghan will be sold at the same time and place Kennally's Hotel, 20th inst.

Shop Improvements.

When the repairs which have been begun on Messrs. Craig & Mooney's furniture shop are completed, they will have one of the neatest places of business in town, a credit alike to the firm and to their landlord, Mr. John Burnham. The whole front is to be re-modelled, with a corner door and low-cut plate glass windows on both streets, giving excellent accommodation for displaying goods. The workshop will also be extended rear-wards to the lane. Mr. Wm. Langford has the contract, Mr. J. J. Hartley doing the brick work.

Their Object.

The enterprising proprietors of the Peterborough Business College are determined to make this institution the most efficient in the Dominion. With this object in view, they have taken a lease of the roller rink from Mayor Stevenson and are having it fitted up in the most approved style. They are also adding to their staff a penman who has very few equals in his art, so that the staff will without doubt, be more capable than that of any other Canadian College. Every young man and woman who wishes to get a thorough business training should take a course at this college and fit themselves for lucrative positions. dw

St. Paul's Endeavor Society.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor in connection with St. Paul's church was organized last night by Rev. Mr. Mitchell of Port Hope. A part of the constitution, outlining the modus operandi of the society, was read, and the following officers elected for the next six weeks:—

PRESIDENT—Mr. Alf. Johnston.
VICE PRESIDENTS—Mr. McCallum and Miss Fanny Dixon.
SECRETARY—Mr. Fred Hall.
TREASURER—Mr. Wm. Thompson.

At the first of June new officers will be elected for a six month's term. Several committees, club, etc., were also appointed. The Society starts out with a large list, of both active and social members, the latter being persons who are not professing Christians and do not participate actively in the religious parts of the services.

Who'll Get the Camp.

The military authorities in Peterborough have been making making a bid for the military camp of this district this summer, but it seems it cannot be secured without giving a bonus in the shape of free site, water supply, latrines and horse pickets. If our town does not succeed in getting the camp we can console ourselves with the following sour grapes reflection of the Brockville Recorder:—Kingston is anxious to secure the military camp for this district the coming summer. Gananoque, too, would like to have it but does not feel like having to pay for it again. The Reporter remarks that as a financial enterprise it did not pay last year. That is exactly the conclusion that Brockville arrived at after having the camp located here for a number of years, and it will be some time before this town again offers a bonus to have it located here. After all does it not seem rather petty business on the part of the militia department to be playing the part of bonus hunter with its military camp.

A Reasonable Sermon.

At St. John's Church last night after the regular service, Rev. G. Warren, curate-in-charge of St. Luke's, Ashburnham, preached a sermon on "The Agony of our Saviour's Soul." He took for his text St. John xii. 27:—"Now is my soul troubled, and what shall I say? Father save me from this hour; but for this cause came I unto this hour." The speaker emphasized the fact of Christ's humanity, the only difference between His humanity and ours being that He was excepted from sin. And in the hour of agony over His anticipated death, He exhibited His humanity by being troubled. But He was not only troubled by the prospect of His own death, but from sympathy with His followers, who He knew would have to suffer similar indignities. But as Christ had to pass through death to reach eternal life, so we had to do likewise; and in conclusion Rev. Mr. Warren pointed out that Christ was as human in His sympathy for mankind to-day at the right hand of God as when He walked the earth. He urged the congregation to a love and faith in the Christ who suffered so much for them.

Personal.

Hon. G. E. Foster, Finance Minister, will be married this year to an Ottawa lady.

Hon. Mr. Mowat will shortly leave for a tour of England and the continent, taking in the Paris exhibition in June.

Mr. M. Fawcett is confined to the house by a badly sprained ankle, the result of an accident last Saturday. He wishes his friends to call upon him.

Mr. Allan, Inspector of the Standard Life, is away on a business and pleasure trip to Kingston, Napanee, Trenton and other places.

Dr. Oronhyatekha, supreme chief ranger of the Independent Order of Foresters, visits California to plant the order in that state. Thence he will proceed to British Columbia, Northwest Territories and Manitoba.

Sir John Macdonald is most scrupulous in his dress. He generally wears a black diagonal morning coat and vest, and a collar of the Gladstone shape. Sometimes, however, he appears in a tail-less and jaunty Bohemian velvet coat, but there is one peculiarity of his dress which he seldom varies. He has a penchant for bright red London ties, and, except when in evening dress, rarely wears any other hue. Several people have endeavored to discover the secret of Sir John's London tie-maker, but in vain, the genius remains an interesting incognito.

To-morrow's Services.

How Good Friday is to be Observed Among the Churches.

CHARLOTTE STREET CHURCH.—Services at 10:30 a.m.

ST. PETER'S CATHEDRAL.—The office of the Veneration of the Cross will be fulfilled at eight o'clock and at three o'clock in the afternoon the "stations of the cross" will be followed. Usual Lenten service at 7.30 p.m.

ST. LUKE'S CHURCH, ASHBURNHAM.—There will be service in this church to-night at 8 o'clock, consisting of litany, intercession and reading. The service on Good Friday commences at 10 a.m.

GEORGE STREET CHURCH.—Service will be held in the George Street Methodist Church to-morrow morning at 11 a.m., conducted by the pastor, Rev. M. L. Pearson. Subject of sermon, "The trial and condemnation of the Saviour." Collection in aid of the Worn-out Ministers' Fund. Evening service at 7.45. All are cordially invited.

ST. JOHN CHURCH.—Ante Communion service at 10 a.m.; Prayers and sermon at 11 a.m.; special service in commemoration of the Agony on Calvary, at 1.30 a.m.; children's service at 2.30 p.m.; Evening Prayer and sermon, 7.30 p.m.

The morning and evening services will be of the ordinary type. Those in the afternoon will be what are usually known as preaching services. The first at 1.30 will consist of short addresses on the "Seven Words from the Cross," together with a few collects and a good many hymns founded on the seven last sayings of Christ. Any person who wishes to do so may enter or leave the church during the singing of any of these hymns. The next service follows at half past three and will only last for three-quarters of an hour. It is being held particularly for children and it is expected that a large number will attend. The service will consist of an address and the following hymns, "Tell me the Old, Old Story," "There is a Green Hill Far Away," "Jesus When in Dust to Thee." It is by no means intended, however, that only children should be present at the service. It is confidently hoped that a large number of adults will appreciate both the hour and shortness of the service and be present. We are requested to state that the Friday confirmation class for boys will be postponed on account of this Friday being Good Friday. The class will be held on Sunday evening after church.

A Long Drawn Out Case.

The Trial of Chapman Enlarged Again till Saturday—A Five Hours' Session To-day.

The trial of Charles Chapman for breaking into Prof. Carter's house and taking a piano was continued this morning. Mr. A. P. Poussette is conducting the prosecution in this case, and Mr. E. B. Edwards defending the prisoner.

No new evidence was elicited. Mr. Wm. Beller was recalled and replied to the questions of Mr. Poussette which he declined to answer yesterday, regarding Chapman's entering the house. Mrs. Carter was also examined, and Mr. Richard Hall, landlord, and Mr. John Parrington, carter, also gave evidence.

The trial occupied till three o'clock, this afternoon. There was a great deal of legal argument and objection as to the right of Chapman to enter the premises in the way he did and commit "statutory larceny," as it was termed. The goods in the house were all under distraint at the time, and could not be interfered with by him, but Mrs. Carter said she asked Chapman to give her the money to pay the rent and she would give him the keys so he could get the piano, if it was his. This Chapman would not do, but offered Bailiff Potvin the money on condition that he let him take the piano. The result was Chapman made forcible entry and took the instrument, which he claimed belonged to the Heintzman Company by right of unfulfilled contract for payment

Mr. Dumble, being present, said that as a magistrate he would like to make a statement to clear himself of any doubt that might rest upon his conduct as legal advisor to the prisoner. The latter had come to him for instructions, he said, and together they went to the bailiff of the Division Court, supposing that he would be in possession of the property if anyone were; but on learning that no distress warrant had been executed by him, though he had a few attachments in his possession, he (Mr. Dumble) supposed no seizure had been made and advised his client accordingly. Afterwards he learned that a seizure had been made and Mr. Potvin was his bailiff. It was quite a misunderstanding on his part, and he did not wish the impression to get abroad that he had given wrong advice and got Mr. Chapman into trouble.

Mr. Poussette held that this statement did not affect the case, and in any case Chapman was aware of the seizure.

An effort was then made to settle the case, Mr. Edwards offering on behalf of the prisoner to pay the $52 rent and make good any damage to the house caused by the removal of the piano; but the prosecution claimed costs and expenses besides, the total footing up to $102. This the defence would not agree to pay, so the case went on.

Then the argument was as to whether the prisoner should be committed for trial or not, and after a couple of hours heated argument, just as the clock struck three, the case was enlarged till Saturday to decide a couple of knotty points. The suit involves a number of fine legal points.

The Cadet Corps.

A New Military Company at the Collegiate Institute

The cadet corps recently organized at the Collegiate Institute is making rapid progress. Under Sergt.-Major Randle's instruction they have already acquired considerable proficiency in the new drill ordered to be adopted in the Canadian militia. Regular drill is held every Thursday afternoon at 3:15; the corps parades full company strength, 38 privates and officers besides; to-day they were to have marched to the Riverside Park, where there was better accommodation provided for drill than in the school grounds, but it being so near the Easter holidays there was a small turn-out and the regular drill was dispensed with.

It is expected by next drill the officers will be supplied with their uniforms, which are to consist of neat blue, trimmed with black braid and a Glengarry cap. This outfit is quite suitable for wearing to school. The whole corps may, and no doubt will, eventually be fitted with uniforms of a similar kind, which can be fitted up cheaply, while, at the same time, they are neat and attractive. Each cadet will have to provide his own uniform, which will not cost over $6.50. This done, on application to the Government the corps will be supplied by the Militia Department with arms and belts, on a guarantee from the School Board that they will be looked after, and in this way we will have a cadet corps that will be decidedly useful as well as ornamental.

The boys take an interest in their drill and are anxious to get into uniform. If permission is granted they will march with the volunteers on the 24th of May, forming a seventh company.

The Scott Act Repeal.

The Official Declaration of the Voting—The Total Majority 362.

Mr. Charles Stapleton, returning officer under the writ for the voting upon the petition for the repeal of the Scott Act, this morning made the official declaration of the count of the ballots cast on April 4th. The count was made in the presence of Dr. Fife and Mr. F. W. Hilliard, for the Act, and Messrs. E. A. Peer and Jas. Stewart, against the Act. The following are the totals:—

Total vote against Act, 1926
Total vote for Act..... 1564
Majorities against Act, 768
Majorities for Act..... 416

Total majority against, 352
Total vote polled, 3490

The rumour that the wrong lists for voting were used in some counties does not apply to the voting in this county. The lists used here were the last revised and duly certified lists of July, 1888—rather musty, it may be said, but perfectly regular, nevertheless.

"As Others See Us."

"Oh that some power the gift would gie us,
To see ourselves as others see us."
Thus sighed old Scotia's Bard in vain,
For what he could not then attain.
But had he lived in this fair town
He had no cause to sigh or frown,
For if he walked on Hunter street,
An eager throng he'd surely meet,
With faces bright as summer light,
All coming from one SPROULE sight.
Where photos always are in view,
Which are to life so very true,
That each one who has seen them there,
Does to his comrades all declare,
"SPROULE is the very man can gie us,
The power to see as others see us."

MURDER IN WINNIPEG.

A WOMAN OF THE TOWN KICKED TO DEATH.

Her Paramour Suspected of the Crime—The Mounted Police Ordered Home From the Morrison Expedition.

HAMILTON, April 19.—The $20,000 breach of promise suit brought by Miss Myra Harrell of this city against Thomas O'Callaghan of London will be tried at the assizes next week. The plaintiff and defendant were examined before Mr. Sadlier yesterday, when Mr. O'Callaghan was so ungallant as to contradict Miss Harrell's sworn assertion that he had proposed to her. The trial promises to be quite interesting. The London man's lawyer bears the appropriate name of Love.

The miserable woman, Ellen Hill, whose husband died in the hospital yesterday morning, was arrested last night for drunkenness. She had her child with her and let it fall several times on the stone pavement.

A special meeting of the Hamilton Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals was held last night. Mr. Adam Brown, M. P., President of the Society, explained his bird bill, after which a resolution was passed regretting its defeat and expressing the hope that success would crown his efforts at the next session of Parliament.

The Building Committee of the Free Library Board met yesterday afternoon and had a chat over Architect Stewart's report on the old Upper Canada Bank building. Nothing was decided upon.

The second annual dinner of the Association of Stationary Engineers (No. 2), of this city, took place last evening at the Dominion Hotel.

Death Duty at Hamilton.

HAMILTON, April 19.—Mrs. Isabella Buchan, relict of the late Mr. A. Alexander of this city and mother of Professor W. J. Alexander of University College, Toronto, died yesterday at her late residence in this city. She was in the 77th year of her age.

At the ripe old age of 87 years, Mrs. John Waugh, widow of the late Mr. John Waugh, carpenter, of this city, passed to her rest yesterday. Mrs. Waugh came to this city over half a century ago and has lived here ever since.

Mrs. Thomas Allison of this city died on Wednesday evening and the funeral will take place to-morrow.

At an early hour this morning, Mr. George Morton, sr., died at his home, No. 59 Herkimer street. The old gentleman was visited with a paralytic stroke on Saturday last and remained unconscious up to the end. He leaves a grown-up family, Mr. George Morton, the well-known barber of South John street, and Mr. Emanuel Morton, the giant, being sons of his.

Forgeries in Belleville.

BELLEVILLE, April 19.—A note made by Jacob Ira Cook of Marmora for $2000 and endorsed by three good farmers was sent to the Bank of Montreal here to be discounted on behalf of the Tweed Bank. Mr. Richardson, manager of the Bank of Montreal, was suspicious and refused to discount the note. An enquiry having been instituted it was found that the endorsations were forgeries. It is said that the Traders' Bank, Madoc, had a similar note for $2000 and O'Flynn's Bank, Madoc, another for $600. Cook is the manager and proprietor of a cheese factory and has a good farm in Marmora. His credit was in every way good. Yesterday he disappeared. Every effort will be made to have him arrested.

Back to Burnaose Vile.

KINGSTON, April 19.—Allan Hersey, arrested a few days ago on a charge of having robbed the till at Catlin's restaurant, G.T.R. station, of $40, is an escaped prisoner from the Penetang Reformatory, whither he was sent four years ago from this city to serve a sentence of five years for larceny. A little over two years ago he escaped and went to the States. His return to the city and subsequent arrest for the larceny of the money mentioned reached the ears of the authorities at Penetang, and yesterday morning Mr. Murdoch, an official of that institution, arrived to take Hersey back. The prisoner appeared before the Magistrate and was handed over to the tender mercies of the official, who will convey him back to the home which he so abruptly left. Hersey is a sharp-looking youth, and when he saw Mr. Murdoch his first words were: "Is he after me? I don't like his looks." Since his return the young man has continually worn rubbers, so as to be in good shape for running. Although he has been away from the institution over two years, he will not have to serve the full time, according to the rules which govern that prison. He will have to serve but a few months.

Sleeper Carter's Plans.

PETERBORO, April 19.—Charles Chapman, who was arrested for breaking into the house of Carter, the man who recently eloped with Miss Graham, appeared at the Police Court yesterday morning before Acting Police Magistrate Edmiston. Chapman, who represents the firm of Heintzman & Co., piano manufacturers of Toronto, has a lien on the piano, and desired to have the instrument returned, on which little or nothing had been paid by Carter. W. Baller, who assisted in removing the instrument, was placed in the witness box and refused, under advice, to answer any questions put to him. After some parleying the case was enlarged.

The Morrison Expedition Ordered Home.

MONTREAL, April 19.—This afternoon by order of Mayor Grenier telegraphic orders were sent to Spring Hill and other points near Lake Megantic where the Montreal police are located, ordering all the officers and men to return to-morrow.

A Winnipeg Highwayman.

WINNIPEG, April 19.—There was a daring attempt at highway robbery in Main-street late the other evening. R. Gearley, a driver of the Street Car Railway Company, left the station with the last car. He had no passengers. Before he got far on his way a man jumped on to the front of the car and caught at his throat, and said "hands up." The driver, not realizing what his assailant was driving at, shoved him off the car, thinking that he was drunk; but he jumped on again, drew a revolver and again requested Gearley to throw up his hands. Gearley swung the brake around suddenly, again knocking the would-be highwayman off the car, and then he proceeded on his journey. He was not further molested.

A SCORCHER IN GOTHAM.

OVER $3,500,000 OF PROPERTY GONE UP IN SMOKE.

The Biggest Fire New Yorkers Have Witnessed in this Generation—One Man Killed and Several Injured.

NEW YORK, April 19.—The biggest and fiercest fire New Yorkers have witnessed in this generation swept the east bank of the North River clean to-day from 59th-street to what would be 65th-street if the street ran to the river, there. It destroyed more than $1,500,000 worth of property belonging to the New York Central Railroad and at least $600,000 worth of stores of lard, flour and the like belonging to other persons, notably N. K. Fairbank, the great Chicago lard merchant; destroyed the two big elevators A and B of the Vanderbilt system, a big brick building stretching from 59th-street to 60th-street and occupied jointly by the Fairbank lard refinery and the Rossiter stores, and wiped out the dock property of the New York Central Railroad system from 59th to past 65th-street.

At least one man was killed in his headlong flight from the fire at the first outbreak. A number were injured by jumping from the windows of the burning buildings but in the wild terror of the conflagration no account was kept of them. The police have a record of the following casualties:

Henry Benning, a workman in Fairbank's refinery, killed by jumping from a third story window.

John Johnson, a workman in Fairbank's, severely injured on the back by jumping from a window.

Charles Brown, severe injuries about the head from the same cause.

William J. Noble, fireman of engine No. 9, prostrated by the heat while at work at the foot of 59th-street.

Edward H. Tobin, fireman, likewise prostrated by heat.

Rumors were flying round all the evening that a number of workmen had been caught and burned in the Fairbank refinery, but it was impossible to verify them. At least 200,000 people turned out to watch the brilliant sight from beyond the police lines on Twelfth-avenue. All the west side streets were blocked and the elevated trains carried swarms up and down town to swell the crowds. The police reserves were called out to preserve order. Every fire engine above 14th-street was called out, but the firemen fought against tremendous odds, partly owing to the nature of the ground, and their efforts were wasted. They made absolutely no impression.

For hours the wildest sort of a conflagration raged and for a time threatened to spread over a goodly portion of the city. The fire burned so furiously that the firemen were forced to abandon for frequent intervals positions advantageous for throwing streams of water on the burning buildings. The clanging of the bells of fire engines mingled with the shouts of the firemen and the ding-dong of ambulances.

The fire originated in the five-story brick building which occupied the block from 59th to 60th-streets, facing the river front. It was 200 feet in width by 100 in depth. The walls were 20 inches deep and were constructed of the best materials. It was in the engine room of the Fairbank refinery, the old establishment of the W. J. Wilcox Company, one of the largest lard refining concerns in the country, that the fire broke out. Recently a new machine for cooling lard was built in this building, and it is understood that from this machine some lard boiled over and caused the fire. Soaked in grease as the old building was it was aflame in an instant. From the ground floor the fire swept upward to the roof.

The men at work in every story dropped their tools and ran for life. The stair hole was a glowing chimney spewing out fire. The windows were the only way out. They flung themselves out by scores headlong, and behind them burst the flames. How many were there no one could tell. Those who came out were picked up and carried away by friends. Crying wives and mothers crowded the police lines shouting for their husbands and sons or begging for news of them.

Within an hour and a half the entire section of the building occupied by the refinery was gutted. The northern section of the building, that extending to 60th-street, was occupied by the Rossiter Storage Warehouse Company. In it were stored about 1000 casks of ale and in the section occupied by the Refinery Company were thousands of barrels of lard material. This was all destroyed. A strong brick wall divided the building in the middle. Upon this wall the firemen hung their hopes for a half-hour of desperate effort. But the flames fed by molten lead leaped about and around it and reached across 60th-street and the slip. The walls of this structure fell with a frightful crash shortly before 6.30 o'clock and it was by a few seconds only that the firemen at work at the northern end escaped being burnt under the ruins.

Meanwhile the fire had burned so fiercely that grain elevator A, the biggest of the enormous elevators of the New York Central road, which occupies the water front from 60th to 61st-street, and which cost $500,000, had ignited and was well under way to be destroyed. Elevator B stood 500 feet further up the river. Between the elevators on water front and Twelfth-avenue were, first 27 rail road tracks which no fire engine could cross, and next the Union Stock Yards, a half mile of board enclosure and pens equally impassable. Between the enclosure and the tracks was a stone wall with a sudden descent of five feet. There was no way for a fire engine to reach the elevators except along 60th-street past the burning building, and that was almost impassable then and was soon to be blocked entirely.

Chief Shay telegraphed for the fire boats, for the Charity Commission's two boats and for the police boat Patrol. The Patrol was laid up for repairs, but the others responded. They came down with four or five tugs belonging to the railroad companies and put their pumps at work to throw water on the threatened buildings. Seconery hose was playing and a select company of firemen directed operations.

It was almost impossible for any one but the firemen to approach within several hundred feet of the fire at this time. The building of the lard refining company and the Rossiter storage warehouse was still burning grandly in its ruins, and flames were shooting heavenward from the great grain elevator.

The docks and the sheds on the piers from 58th-street as far north as 64th-street were now a mass of flames. The approach of darkness added to the intensity of the scene. With the apparent helplessness of the firemen to check the conflagration the moment was decidedly tragic. The slaughter house of Mr. Eastman had caught fire and elevator B was by this time wrapped in flames. The fire boats were prevented from rendering efficient aid owing to the danger of taking fire if they came near the shore. When elevator B was partially destroyed the fire boats were enabled to run in between the docks and do some good work and at 4 o'clock the fire was under control.

The police estimates the damage at $3,500,000. No official statement could be obtained. At a late hour it was stated that four men were buried in the ruins of the refinery.

General Payne's International Cup Which Lord Dunraven May Win.

BOSTON, April 19.—The following circular issued yesterday by the Eastern Yacht Club is the result of General Payne's offer to race that a cup for seventy footers is forthcoming:

A challenge cup for international matches between yachts not exceeding seventy feet water line measurement has been offered to the Eastern Yacht Club by one of its members.

At a meeting held yesterday the council of the club holding the opinion that the American's Cup represents the championship of the world, to be raced for by the fastest yachts within the prescribed limits, voted to accept the offer and now announces that a match of one or more races will be sailed for the above International Challenge Cup after the races for the American's Cup.

Previous to the offer of the cup assurance was obtained that the Valkyrie would compete for it.

Among the few yachtsmen as yet aware of the proposed races the above circular has created the greatest enthusiasm, for they see at last the probability of cup races in the East. Though no details as yet are settled, the sentiment of the club is in favor of Marblehead as the place for the races, and a strong effort will be made to have them there.

Predictions are made that the races for the new cup will be quite as interesting as those for the American's cup, and the possibility of a new seventy footer being built in the East is now being discussed.

The O'Connor-Searle Race.

NEW YORK, April 19.—Despatches received here to-day state that Henry Searle, Australian champion, and William O'Connor of Toronto, the American champion oarsman, have been matched to row for $10,000, the champion challenge cup, and the single scull championship of the world. The stakes are the largest ever contended for by oarsmen. The race is to be rowed in England in September over the Thames course, four miles and three furlongs.

A Big Regatta Suggested.

CHICAGO, April 19.—A preliminary meeting of members of the Chicago Navy was held at the Sherman House last evening for the purpose of considering the advisability of asking the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen, which body as to the East what the Mississippi Valley Rowing Association is to the West, to join the latter organization in a grand regatta this summer, the same to take place at Pullman in the latter part of July. Heretofore each association has held separate regattas.

A more largely attended meeting is expected on Monday next at the same place, when definite action will be taken.

In a cablegram to The Police Gazette it is reported that both men's eyes were closed after the fight, and that they had to be led home.

Little Hope for the Polo Grounds.

ALBANY, April 19.—In the Assembly this afternoon the friends of the New York Aldermen managed to knock out Senator Canter's bill allowing the New York Baseball Club to use the Polo Grounds for the baseball season. When the bill was reported favorably from the City's Committee of Mr. Crosby an effort was made to have it read immediately, but Messrs. Martin and Mullaney raised the point of order that no bill introduced after March 15 could take precedence of any bill introduced before that time without unanimous consent. They had their way, and the bill went over with little chance of becoming a law.

THE HOPE OF HUMANITY.

The Competitive System Must be Abolished

If the Human Race is to be Rid of Poverty—A Three Hours' Address on the Subject by Mr. Wright, of Toronto—The Objects and Aims of the Knights of Labor—The Church's Part in the Work.

There was an audience of a couple of hundred at the Opera House Thursday night, when Mr. A. W. Wright, of Toronto, delivered an address on Knights of Labor topics. Mr. Richard Calvert, President of the local Assembly, acted as chairman, and there were also on the platform Messrs. Robt. McGregor and Geo. Ball. Mr. R. R. Elliott, District Master Workman, could not be present.

The Chairman read a letter from Rev. J. C. Davidson, regretting his inability to attend the meeting and expressing the wish to know more about the Knights of Labor.

Mr. WRIGHT, the speaker of the evening, was introduced by the Chairman with a few remarks. Mr. Wright explained that Mr. Elliott's duties at Ottawa in connection with the Legislative Committee had prevented him from being present, as he had desired. They were mailing reports of the Labor Commissioner's meetings all over the country, from which they hoped much good would be derived to the labor interests. Mr. Wright then began a three hours' address on the objects and aims of the Knights of Labor, and first proceeded to point out the reasons why workingmen should organize for the improvement of their condition. The Knights of Labor aimed to strike at the very root of the matter and remove the causes for the grievances complained of. Increase of wages and shorter hours of labor were very good in their way; but if this great labor question was ever to be finally settled it must be by removing the causes of the trouble, for in every case the conditions make the man, and no amount of education or working upon the internal tendencies of mankind would effect a remedy. Nothing but a change in the outward circumstances would do. Remove the causes which lead to crime and the tendency to crime is eradicated. So with this great labor question; poverty was the cause of all the workingmen's troubles, and how to remove it was the query? The Knights of Labor hold that the present distress is due to which prevails in commercial circles. By it all the labor-saving machines invented by labor are given into the possession of the capitalist, who instead of using these God-given inventions for the amelioration of the condition of the workingman, used them simply for the purpose of forcing the labor market down to the very lowest ebb. For instance, by one of these machines perhaps a boy can do as much as a half dozen men used to do; the result is these men are thrown out of employment, and they must find something to do, so they have to work for whatever they can get, thus being brought down to dire poverty. But the capitalists were themselves driven to this cruel measure by the competitive system of of the day, which was inimical to the human race. In view of these things one might reasonably look to the church for aid; but none was given. In fact Rev. Lyman Abbott went so far as to write in a religious paper that "the Christian church had nothing to do with the amelioration of the condition of the laboring classes." The Knights of Labor did not overstate the case in behalf of the workingmen, for there was no doubt if there had been a fair distribution of the increased wealth consequent upon the invention of these wealth-producing machines, the progress of the workingman would have been obvious to everyone. But in many cases the laboring classes had degenerated instead of improving. Political economists say that poverty is caused by financial panics, for which they can see no remedy, but the speaker explained that these panics were caused by this same pernicious competitive system which affected the labor market. Others account for panics by the theory of over-production—that was as much as to say that if a man had too many hats he would have none at all to wear. This over-production theory was all humbug; it was, rather, under-consumption that caused panics. Over-production might occur if several manufacturers worked to supply the same market; but that being so, it only proves the evils of the present selfish commercial system. The law of supply and demand was another theory which it was claimed could not be regulated; but if that were true, it meant simply that the human race would

EVENTUALLY BE DESTROYED.

The speaker did not believe that God ever intended to allow his people to degenerate and die, but would rather believe that this law of supply and demand could be regulated and the two made to work in harmony with each other. The one conclusion to come to was that the present competitive system was a wrong one. The Knights of Labor believe all human law should be founded on the divine law, and the Bible in more places than one condemns monopolies and usury. Usury means more than the taking of interest on money; the capitalist in taking advantage of these inventions to reduce the labor market was guilty of usury. Adulteration of food was usury. To this competitive system, which sets man in antagonism to each other and brings the low rate of wages to the lowest minimum, is due the poverty and distress of our race. The speaker cited a number of cases where men were able to earn scarcely enough to keep body and soul together; and mentioned the classes to which girls in large cities were driven in order to live without becoming prostitutes. The wage system was but slightly better than chattel slavery, for it tended to reduce wages to the lowest minimum. Again, whole families, father, mother and small children, are often compelled to go out to work in order to live, the result being that the home is broken up and the children reared in ignorance and poverty. The evils of this competitive system which brings such things as its train were intolerable; until this system was reformed the present evils would continue to exist. This could be accomplished by organization among the laboring classes, by which they could count of the market. Buy only those articles which bear the label of protected manufacture, which they know have been made by men who received fair wages for their labor. Strikes, boycotts and dynamite won't do. Strikes affect all classes and should only be adopted as a last resort. The speaker believed a board of arbitration between employers and employees would be a good plan to regulate wages. Still all these things were merely branches; the root of the whole difficulty was in monopoly, which could not be destroyed so long as this competitive system lasts.

CAN THIS SYSTEM BE ABOLISHED?

The postal service is managed by the government, who are the people, and could not the railway, telegraph and other concerns which are at present monopolies be likewise managed by the public for the public weal? And could not the corporation look after the gas company, the street car service, etc.? The speaker pointed out that the condition of the miners in Nova Scotia was vastly superior to the miners in Pennsylvania, because of the system of land nationalization in vogue in the Canadian province. The Irish famine, he contended, was directly due to the landlordism there. He urged all who wished to understand how this competitive system could be blotted out to get "Looking Backward," a novel published by Ticknor, of Boston. It would fully explain what the Knights of Labor aimed at. Mr. Wright then spoke briefly of the Knights of Labor. He said that if they were to succeed they must bring the women in, and he impressed this upon the members of the local Assembly for their guidance. He advised them to be careful of whom they admitted as members, and not accept any who went in solely for the purpose of benefitting themselves. Knights of Labor must work for the general good. Another way was to build up trades unions and so help the cause. There was no antagonism between the Knights of Labor and trades unions. The Knights of Labor welcomed all classes, creeds and colors into their ranks; they wanted the women in, and the clergymen also, for they considered this was church work. All who could endorse the principles of the K. of L. and were willing to do their share towards bettering the condition of mankind were invited to join.

Mr. R. McGregor moved a vote of thanks to the speaker, which was seconded by Mr. Geo. Ball in a brief speech and carried. The meeting then broke up.

"Editor's Back Stairs."

The Interesting Views of the Late Dr. J. G. Holland.

The columns of the newspapers appear to be flooded with proprietary medicine advertisements. As we cast our eyes over them, it brings to mind an article that was published by the late Dr. Holland in Scribner's Monthly. He says: "Nevertheless, it is a fact that many of the best proprietary medicines of the day were more successful than many physicians, and most of them, it should be remembered, were at first discovered or used in actual medical practice. When, however any shrewd person, knowing their virtue, and foreseeing their popularity, secures and advertises them, then, in the opinion of the bigoted, all virtue went out of them."

Is not this absurd?

This great man appreciates the real merits of popular remedies, and the absurdity of those that derided them because public attention was called to the article and the evidence of their cures.

If an ulcer is found upon one's arm, and is cured by some dear old grandmother, outside of the code, it will be pronounced by the medical profession an ulcer of little importance. But if treated under the code, causing sleepless night for a month, with the scientific treatment, viz., plasters, washes, dosing with morphine, arsenic and other vile substances given to prevent blood poisoning or deaden pain, and yet the ulcer becomes malignant, and amputation is made necessary at last, to save life, yet all done according to the "laws" of the medical code, this is much more gratifying to the medical profession, and adds more dignity to that distinguished order than to be cured by the dear old grandmother's remedy.

One of the most perplexing things of the day is the popularity of certain remedies, especially Warner's Safe Cure, which we find for sale everywhere. The physician of the highest standing is ready to concede its merits and sustain the theories the proprietors have made—that is, that it benefits in most of the ailments of the human system because it assists in putting the kidneys in proper condition, thereby aiding in throwing off the impurities of the blood, while others with less honesty and experience decide, and are willing to see their patient die scientifically, and according to the code, rather than have him cured by this great remedy.

The discoverer comes boldly before the people with its merits, and proclaims them from door to door and is in our opinion much more honorably than the physician who, perchance, may secure a patient from some catastrophe, and is permitted to set a bone of an arm or finger, which he does with great dignity, yet very soon after takes the liberty to climb the editor's back stair at 2 o'clock in the morning to have it announced in the morning paper that "Dr. So-and-so was in attendance," thus securing for his benefit a beautiful and free advertisement.

We shall leave it to our readers to say which is the wiser and more honorable.

My case was hereditary, and I began to think incurable, but it began to heal from the first application of CUTICURA. ARCHER RUSSELL, Deshler, Ohio

MONTREAL, April 17.—C. R. Griffith, a rbrooke merchant, was in town to-day king up two boys who ran away from employ. Mr. Griffith says he is sure st now things have gone to far Morrison ll not be captured without bloodshed. A good story, which serves to show what a an scout the officers are now following, ms from the Excelsior copper mines, 6 les from Broughton and about 60 miles m any place where Morrison has ever n seen. A few days ago J. N. Greenields was at the mines and having occasion nd a cablegram to England telephoned ude message to the station agent at roughton. The message being duly record- the agent was asked if there was y news of Morrison yet; and replying in e negative Mr. Greenshields jokingly reked: "The workmen say that the time- eper says three men went down the Kent ft and only two came up again, and they y the third man must be Morrison." Mr. eenshields thought no more of the matter il he received the following telegram from ptain Prideaux, who is in charge of the ine:

PITTSBURG, April 17.—There was great excitement at the Oil Exchange to-day, and prices dropped nearly 4 points. The market was active and feverish all day and the fluctuations were rapid, but the session was devoid of panicky features. At the opening sales were made at 87¼. The close was at 86 5-8 bid. The feeling was still weak and unsettled. The day's transactions were very heavy and aggregated millions of barrels.

It can be given in a cup of tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it; it is absolutely harmless, and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. It has been given in thousands of cases, and in every instance a perfect cure has followed. It never fails. The system once impregnated with the Specific, it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist. Obituary.

The Late D. M. Sim.

The public will learn with regret of the death of Mr. D. M. Sim of this town which event took place rather unexpectedly last night in Toronto. For about three years Mr. Sim had been suffering with consumption and last December he went to Toronto for medical treatment and though he received assurance of improvement from his physician he was doubtless, gradually sinking. Until within a few days he had been able to be about, and had been confined to his bed only two days. His most sanguine friends did not hope for his recovery, yet his death came unexpectedly. In the death of Mr. Sim, one of nature's noblemen passes away. He was one of those sterling characters whose quiet, unassuming demeanor covered great strength of manhood. In every respect he was thoroughly reliable, with great natural ability and acquired experience in the details of the clerical department of business. He entered the employ of Mr. Geo. A. Cox at the early age of eleven years and his assiduous application to his duties and his entire trustworthiness brought their reward. He was steadily promoted till at length he became Mr. Cox's confidential secretary is everything worthy of the large trust reposed in him. This position he held till he became Secretary of the Central Canada Loan and Savings Company. Five and a half years ago Mr. Sim was united in marriage to Miss Turnbull, sister of Mr. J. C. Turnbull, merchant, and leaves behind him a widow and two children. He was a member of the congregation of St. Paul's, and though dying at the early age of 31 years, he had in that short time won the universal respect and esteem of those who knew him. The funeral will be conducted under Oddfellow auspices, to-morrow afternoon at 3.30 o'clock.

Among the Churches.

Good Friday's Services and the Services for Sunday.

At St. John's Church on Good Friday there were services at 10 o'clock fairly well attended, and there was a good attendance at the 1.30 service. At 3.30 o'clock the service for children was largely attended and very interesting. There was a brief, pointed address, and the singing of the hymns, "Tell Me the Old, Old Story," "There is a Green Hill Far Away," and "Jesus, when in Dust to Thee." There was a large congregation at the evening service, which was of the usual character.

At St. Peter's Cathedral the Good Friday services began at 8 o'clock, when the Mass of the Presanctified was sung. Rev. Father Dube was celebrant, Rev. Father Cotsy, deacon, Rev. Father Rudkins, sub-deacon, and Rev. Father McEvay, master of ceremonies. At three o'clock there was the service of the Stations of the Cross. The priests and acolytes proceeded from station to stations, repeating suitable prayers at each station. At 7.30 the Office of the Tenebræ was celebrated by the Cathedral clergy. There were large congregations at all the services.

In the Methodist churches Good Friday was observed by services in the forenoon, at which appropriate sermons were preached.

T. GRAINGER STEWART, M. D., F.R.S.E., Ordinary Physician to H. M. the Queen in Scotland, Professor of Practice of Physic in the University of Edinburgh, says: "Headache is frequently complained of by patients suffering from Bright's disease. Apoplexy from hemorrhage into the substance of the brain is common in the later stages of the inflammatory and cirrhotic diseases." The headache is one of the early symptoms of kidney disease, and the cause should be removed before the more serious consequences follow. Test Warner's Safe Cure as the most effective remedy for this purpose is amply proven by the thousands of testimonials received from those who have been cured.

Is it Genuine?

Probably thousands of people in this section of the country, and this section is no exception to any other in this respect in the United States, have read the report said to have been written by Prof. R. A. Lattimore, Ph. D., LL. D., Analyst of Foods and Medicines, New York State Board of Health, and Professor of Chemistry in the Rochester, N. Y., University, stating that all of the Safe Remedies manufactured by H. H. Warner & Co were pure and wholesome, nor did any of them contain any mercury or deleterious substance. To shorten the controversy, however, we will give Prof. Lattimore's report entire:

UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER, CHEMICAL LABORATORY.

Mr. H. H. Warner has placed in my possession the formulæ of the several medicines manufactured and sold under the general designation of "Warner's Safe Remedies." I have investigated the processes of manufacture which are conducted with extreme care and according to the best methods. I have taken from the laboratory samples of all the articles used in the preparation of these medicines, as well as the several medicines in which they enter. I have also purchased from different druggists in this city "Warner's Safe Remedies," and upon critical examination I find them all entirely free from mercury and from poisonous and deleterious substances.

Analyst of Foods and Medicines, New York State Board of Health, Professor of Chemistry, University of Rochester, N.Y.

We cannot think that a firm of the standing of H. H. Warner & Co. would dare publish such a statement if it were untrue, and we now have that firm's authority to say to our readers that it is absolutely and unqualifiedly true in every particular.

COLD IN HEAD CATARRH THE 4 STAGES CONSUMPTION DEATH

There ... danger ... neglecting a case of Cold in the Head or Catarrh, and at this season with its changeable weather unusual moisture and sudden changes from heat to cold, there is peculiar liability to cold in the head. A neglected case of Cold in the ... usually develops into Catarrh, and neglected Catarrh just as certainly develops into Consumption and leads to premature death. Medical testimony proves conclusively that a large percentage of all the deaths occurring from Consumption had their origin in a neglected cold, or of gradual stages, developed into Catarrh, and then into Consumption, that dread disease with which medical science is as yet unable to cope successfully. If you are suffering from Cold in the Head or any of the numerous symptoms of Catarrh, such as bad breath, dull oppressive headaches, droppings from the head into the throat, hawking and spitting, copious discharges from the nostrils, loosing sense of smell, or taste becoming dull hacking cough, or a general feeling of debility, husky voice, a wheezing or crouching sound for your chest when breathing, a feeling of dizziness particularly when stooping, a feeling of tiredness and indisposition to exertion, a feeling of nausea in the morning when attempting to dislodge accumulations in the throat. Do not neglect them. These are but a few of the many symptoms of Catarrh, and if you are afflicted with any, BE WARNED IN TIME. Do not permit the ... that the disease will eventually wear away. It will not, but on the contrary will wear you away as it has thousands before. Procure at once a bottle of NASAL BALM. The only certain speedy cure ever offered the public for Cold in the Head and Catarrh. This is no idle assertion but an unquestioned fact, which is verified by the recommendations of testimonials in our possession telling of marvellous cures. These testimonials we have ... and we append a few, selected at random, as fair samples of the whole:

Mr. Alex. Burns, of Sudbury, Ont., says: Gents I may state that I have been afflicted with catarrh for 7 or 8 years, and it was attended by consequent symptoms, such as final wretch, constant dropping into the throat, hawking and spitting, partial deafness, ringing in the ears, and sickening pain in the head directly over either eye. I have used powders and douches, but all to no effect, the only result arising from the use of such was temporary relief, followed by the usual symptoms in a more aggravated form. The results arising from the use of Nasal Balm are sweet breath, stoppage of the dropping into the throat (consequently less hawking and spitting), clearness of hearing and not once since I began its use have I had pain in the head—in fact it is my opinion that a careful and persistent use of the "Balm" will effect a cure in the worst case of catarrh.

Mr. John H. Adams, merchant, Brantford, Ont., says: I have used NASAL BALM for catarrh, and found it to be a CERTAIN CURE.

W. A. Doyle, Beulah, Man., writes:—As a family medicine to check Catarrhal affections, or cold in the head, NASAL BALM HAS NO EQUAL. We prize it highly.

Henrietta Blackwell, Parker, Ont., says:—Your NASAL BALM is the BEST REMEDY I have yet used for catarrh. I can breathe more freely than before and my breath has regained its sweetness. I consider NASAL BALM a boon to the suffering.

W. Chas. Hanley, Postmaster, Serry Bay, N. S., says:—I submit the following to the public that any who may be afflicted may be benefited by the same remedy. Two bottles of your NASAL BALM has RESTORED to PERFECT HEALTH a four year old child of ours, suffering from Catarrh.

A CAUTION:—Beware of imitations. If your dealer has not NASAL BALM in stock do not let him persuade you to accept something which he may say is just as good, but send direct to the manufacturers and it will be sent ... on receipt of price—50 cents and $1 a bottle. dw

Alpha H. Dales, Tarbert, Ont., writes:—Your NASAL BALM has made a new man of me. I have never used a remedy so satisfactory.

Miss Maggie M. Martin, Teeswood, Pa., says:—Through a friend in Canada, I became acquainted with your NASAL BALM. I have suffered for years with Catarrh and it is the first remedy from which I have experienced relief, and I feel certain that it will cure me.

Miss Minnie McMairn, Mills Rechee, Ont., says:—Your bottle of NASAL BALM did me much good. The pain in my head disappeared before I had used the bottle, and I find myself receiving the greatest benefit. I am certain NASAL BALM will cure any case of Catarrh if its use is preserved in.

James H. McLeod, Mink River Road, N.S., says:—I have tried other remedies for Catarrh, but received little or no good from them. Your NASAL BALM is certainly the BEST REMEDY I have ever tried, and all you claim for it. The fact that it is pleasant and convenient to use adds greatly to its value, but its chief merit lies in being a CERTAIN CURE for that unpleasant disease—Catarrh.

Mr. Schlessig, Toronto, says:—For a number of years my wife has been badly troubled with Catarrh. Dr. ... have promised to cure her, but after using his remedy for six months she became worse and weaker than before, and I found that I had spent $50 for medical treatment that did no good. My wife then began to use your NASAL BALM and has improved wonderfully, and she is better and stronger than for years. Your remedy is the best in the market and you can use this testimony.

Emile Pelletier, Granville, says:—I can scar

"As Others See Us."

"Oh that some power the gift would gie us,
To see ourselves as others see us."
Thus sighed old Scotia's Bard in vain,
For what he could not then attain.
But had he lived in this fair town
He had no cause to sigh or frown,
For if he walked on Hunter street,
An eager throng he'd surely meet,
With faces bright as summer light,
All coming from one fifty-eight.
Where photos always are in view,
Which are to life so very true,
That each one who has seen them there,
Does to his comrades all declare,
"SPROULE is the very man one gets us,
The power to see as others see us."

MORRISON A PRISONER.

THE OUTLAW LODGED IN SHERBROOKE JAIL.

Constable Hallahan of Montreal Captures the Fugitive in a House at Hereford—A Brief Fracas.

MONTREAL, April 21.—Donald Morrison, the Lake Magantic outlaw who has defied the whole force of the Provincial Government for over twelve months, was captured this evening by a constable from Montreal.

The Government failing in their attempts to arrest him for the murder of a United States Marshal named Warren at Lake Megantic appealed to the Mayor of Montreal and he sent out a force of city police headed by Judge Dugas. These men were ten days in the woods without success, though Morrison persuaded Dugas to hold an interview with him, but no terms could be arranged. Yesterday all these police except five were recalled and returned to the city.

To-day one of the Montrealers, Constable McMahon, saw a man answering Morrison's description enter a house at Marsden, and after watching the house for several hours went up and demanded that the man come out.

He did so, but instead of obeying the policeman's order to throw up his hands he drew his revolver and fired three shots at McMahon and his Indian companion.

Quicker than a flash they pleased their rifles in position and brought the outlaw to the ground with a wound in his hip. Assistance soon arrived and the captured outlaw was taken to Sherbrooke Jail by special train.

PHILIPS STILL IN JAIL.

Judge Dunsmore Again Refuses an Application for Bail.

MONTREAL, April 20.—In the Maloney-Phillips case to-day the clerk read over the deposition of P. W. Ellis in the Maloney case and Mr. Ellis affirmed that it was equally true in the case of Phillips. Some further evidence was given in reference to the pocket book and the trunks of jewelry, and the case was adjourned to Tuesday.

Lawyer Greenshields thought that Harry Phillips should be given a chance to do his Easter duty and let out on bail for that purpose. Judge Dunsmore, however, declined, saying there was a good chapel at the jail.

Von Reinsin has waived the protection offered by Judge Loranger, but there is no likelihood of his arrest.

SHOT BY A BURGLAR.

A Gang of Professionals Operating at Winnipeg—Fatal Accident at Moosomin.

WINNIPEG, April 21.—The gang of professionals which recently arrived here made their first attempt to burglarize Saturday morning between 2 and 3 o'clock, Dell's wholesale jewellery house being visited. A clerk named Hunt heard them and going out of his room saw a man on the stairs who retreated. Hunt followed when the burglar stopped and grabbing him and holding him against the wall fired, the ball passing through Hunt's left arm, and inflicting a slight wound. The burglar then fled and Hunt chased him, when another burglar came up behind and choked Hunt and pounded him in the face. The two then fled and the police were called but could find no trace of the desperadoes.

Harry Constantine, son of the inspector of Mounted Police at Moosomin, accidentally shot himself yesterday while handling a rifle and died from the effects of the wound.

Sir Charles Tupper arrived yesterday from the Coast and leaves Tuesday for southwestern Manitoba. He goes east Friday.

The impression out west is that the recent attempted robbery of Indian Head existed only in the imagination of the operator.

The bylaw to raise $14,000 to erect a new market here was carried yesterday, 87 to 13

A Postoffice Robbed.

PEMBROKE, April 2.—The postoffice here was entered and robbed last night. An opening was made into the brick vault large enough for a man to crawl through, and everything in the shape of money, stamps and registered letters is said to have been taken. The amount of the loss is not known, but is believed to be considerable. Several hundred dollars in stamps were reported taken. Two suspicious-looking parties who were hanging about town lately are believed to be the robbers.

LONDON NOTES.

George Fryer's Downfall—Cruelty to Horses—An Amorous Veteran

LONDON, April 21.—The Glencoe express robber, George J. Fryer, now in jail here, attributes his downfall to his wife's extravagance. Her outlays were more than his income could cover, so he made the deficiency from the company's cash. Discovering her unfaithfulness, he determined to leave her, but at her dictation he wrote a letter announcing that he had gone with another woman. Some time afterwards he got a newspaper containing a report that she had secured a divorce and on the strength of that report he married again. The reputation of Mrs. Fryer No. 1, who came to this city after her husband's death, was none of the best.

Charles Wright, a gypsy horse trader, was arrested Saturday night for cruelty to animals. The case is of a most brutal character. He was in the habit of tieing strings round horses' tongues to make them go. On Saturday a crowd gathered around a horse that had a stream of blood running from its mouth. The crowd attracted the attention of a policeman, who found that the horse's tongue was nearly cut off with a string. He immediately arrested Wright and locked him up.

James Constantine, formerly an inmate of Mrs. Veitch's Old Men's Home on South-street, went back there yesterday and asked for a girl there as a servant. As soon as she appeared he threw his arms around her neck and commenced hugging her. A policeman was called in and Constantine was arrested.

U.S. BOODLERS IN CANADA

HAVE MORE REASON THAN EVER TO BE UNEASY.

Prof. Weldon's Bill Transferred to Government Orders—Three Important Bills Put Through Committee.

OTTAWA, April 20.—The House had a Saturday sitting to-day, the first of the session. The uneasiness of the colony of United States boodlers in Canada will not be at all allayed by the action taken with reference to the bill of Professor Weldon of Albert to extend the list of extraditable crimes. Sir John Thompson moved that the bill be transferred to Government orders.

Hon. Mr. Laurier said the details of the bill would occasion a very long discussion and it might be well therefore to leave it over to next session.

Sir John Macdonald said there was great moral impatience on the part of the people of Canada to put an end to the influx of criminality from the United States. Dyson might say we had enough criminality of our own, but it was well to tell the world that we don't want either those people or their ill-gotten gains. He thought the bill so unobjectionable in principle that it would meet with but little opposition, but if its details were likely to lead to protracted debate it would then remain for the House to say what disposition should be made of it.

Hon. L. H. Davies thought the Imperial authorities would not allow the proposed act to come in force. He knew it would meet great opposition in the House.

Mr. Charlton endorsed the Premier's contentions.

Hon. David Mills objected and said there was a big heap of constitutional questions in the way of the measure.

Sir John Macdonald then pointed out that both England and Canada were anxious to enlarge the list of extraditable offences, and that whatever delay had taken place in this direction was due to the action of the American authorities. By passing the bill we would inform England and the United States that Canada is anxious to have the extradition treaty enlarged, and this would have a beneficial effect.

The motion then passed.

When Hon. John Costigan's bill to further amend the Inland Revenue Act was before the Committee of the Whole Mr. Davin moved an amendment permitting brewers in the Northwest to manufacture 4 per cent. beer, that strength being now imported for sale by special permit. The motion was lost without division, and the bill adopted.

When the bill to amend the General Inspection Act was before the committee Mr. Davin moved to increase the number of inspectors of grain standards from 9 to 11, so as to give the Northwest representation on the board. The amendment was accepted by Mr. Costigan and the bill agreed to.

The bill amending the Copyright Act was agreed to after some discussion on the powers of Parliament to enact such legislation, and on Sir John's statement that it would not come in force until it had received Imperial assent.

After recess the debate on the resolution respecting the proposed subsidy for the Atlantic steamship service was resumed in committee of the whole. Some opposition was offered by Ontario members on the ground that the improved service would not be of sufficient advantage to offset the increased expense. Colonel O'Brien held that the country should not pay $500,000 to gratify St. John or Halifax. He wanted a class of vessels that would give farmers cheaper and faster freight service. Six-day ocean steamships such as proposed were of advantage only to the rich, to the class who used Pullman cars on the railways.

Mr. Paterson of Brant held that the people of the Upper Provinces were bound to use New York as a more expeditious port than Halifax or St. John, but Prof. Weldon and Mr. Shanly showed that with a reasonably fast mail train to meet the incoming boats the passage from England to Toronto would take less time via Halifax than via New York.

The evening discussion was mainly devoted to a discussion of the relative advantages of St. John and Halifax as the winter terminal port. A few minutes before midnight the resolution was adopted by the committee and the House adjourned.

The Missing Link.

OTTAWA, April 21.—Sir John Macdonald has given notice of a resolution affirming the expediency of the building by the Government of the proposed line of railway between Harvey and Salisbury and asking an appropriation this year of $500,000 towards that object. The line to be built is about 120 miles long and passes through a country rich in unworked coal beds. The Canadian Pacific Railway Company have long been pressed to build this link as part of their short line but have declined. It will make Halifax about 15 miles nearer to the Upper Provinces.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Honors at Old Trinity—A Verdict of Wilful Murder—A New Church.

TORONTO, April 22.—The various degrees in medicine were conferred upon the students of Trinity Medical School on Saturday at Trinity University. Convocation Hall was crowded. Mr. H. W. Armstrong, the gold medalist, was highly complimented by the Dean. The silver medalists were Messrs. H. Chapple and J. M. McFarlane. These three gentlemen received the degree of M.D.C.M. The silver medalists in the primary were James Sutherland 1st, James Third 2nd.

The annual meeting of the Toronto branch of Queen's University Endowment Association was held in the lecture room of St. Andrew's Church on Saturday afternoon. A matter of considerable interest was brought forward by Mr. Macdonnell, namely the securing of a common examination for matriculation for all the universities in Ontario. For the last two years one set of papers has been prepared by Toronto university and another by the combined universities of Trinity, Victoria and Queen's. In view of all this Mr. Macdonnell moved:

Whereas, it is in the interests of university education that there should be a high and uniform standard of matriculation for all the universities of Ontario; and whereas, the securing of such a standard would render more effective the work in our high schools and collegiate institutes directed in preparation for a university course; resolved, that in the opinion of this association the Minister of Education should be respectfully invited to call a conference of representatives of the universities of Ontario and of the inspectors of high schools to consider this whole subject.

The motion was seconded by Dr. McTavish and unanimously carried.

At 8 o'clock Saturday night Coroner Johnson convened a jury to inquire into the death of the child whose body had been found on Friday in the bush near Eglinton. The medical testimony went to show that the child had been born alive but had not been properly cared for, and a verdict of wilful murder against a party or parties unknown was returned.

Yesterday was the dedication day of Immanuel Baptist Church, corner of Jarvis and Wellesley streets. This structure, which has very recently been completed, cost $40,000, of which there still remains a debt of about $13,000.

Harry Algase, the young Hebrew who by means of bogus dispatches defrauded a number of people in different parts of Canada and the United States out of various sums of money, was brought up in the Police Court Saturday, when he pleaded guilty to having defrauded Mrs. C. W. Gauthier of Windsor out of $100, and Mrs. K. P. Patton of Utica out of a similar sum, and he was remanded to Friday next for sentence. It is stated that the prisoner worked his swindle on people in Seneca Falls, Collingwood, Castleton, Beamsville, Bowmanville, and Ottawa.

The breach of promise case of Miss Lizzie Macdonnell against Martin Summers has been settled out of court. This is the case which attracted some attention last fall, the headquarters of the love-making being at Johnny Beer's hotel in King-street west.

At 2.30 on Saturday afternoon Coroner Johnston attempted to resume the adjourned inquest on the body of the Bramley infant found buried in a field at Chester the other day, but there had to be a further adjournment until to-day as three of the jurors did not appear. The coroner hesitated at issuing warrants for their arrest, but they will get a talking to when they appear to-day. Each is liable to the extreating of his bond, which is $100.

In the Assize Court Saturday morning, before Judge Rose, Richard Ismed Gibbons

THE SEVEN HUNDRED SAFE

THE DANMARK'S PASSENGERS AND CREW UNHARMED.

Part Landed at the Azores, Whence They Have Arrived at Lisbon—The Others on Board the Missouri.

COPENHAGEN, April 21.—A telegram from Lisbon announces the safety of the crew and passengers of the steamer Danmark. The tidings reached Lisbon from the Azores.

Taken Off By the Missouri.

LISBON, April 21.—Forty-two of the crew of the Danmark have arrived here. Mr. Raben, the first officer, who is among them, reports that on April 4 the Danmark's shaft was broken. On the next day the disabled steamer met the steamship Missouri, from London March 26 for Philadelphia and Baltimore. The Missouri towed the Danmark until April 6, when the latter seemed to be about to sink. As first the Missouri was only able to take on board 20 of the Danmark's passengers, but after having jettisoned a portion of her cargo she found accommodations for all the crew and passengers of the Danmark.

The Missouri then proceeded to the Azores and left there the first and second officers and 230 passengers. She then continued her journey to Philadelphia with 340 passengers and the remainder of the crew. The captain and three engineers of the Danmark left the Azores on April 14 for London on board a steamer from Demarara.

The Danmark was about 300 miles from Newfoundland when the accident happened. Some say that the engines broke down. Engineer Kaas was found dead in the engine room after the accident.

LATER.—Forty-two sailors and all the passengers left at the Azores by the Missouri came to Lisbon on the steamship Acor.

The death of the Danmark's engineer was due to the bursting of an engine pipe. The engineer was killed on the spot and the ship was badly damaged. In consequence of this damage, together with the breaking of the shaft, the vessel was helpless in the heavy seas that prevailed.

The Missouri's First Trip.

NEW YORK, April 21.—The steamship Missouri is a new vessel and this is her first trip from the other side. She is in the carrying trade between London and Philadelphia.

CABLE NEWS.

Gradual Reconcilement in Germany—Emperor William's Hatred of the French.

BERLIN, April 20.—Herren Liebknecht, Grillenberger, Schumacher and Harmare are involved in the prosecution impending against 108 Socialists as members of a secret society. The prosecutions do not impede the electoral preparations of the Socialists, who are feverishly active throughout the empire. Everywhere new workmen's associations are forming, and already numerous candidates have been selected. A striking characteristic of the movement is the spread of the canvass beyond towns into the country. Short electoral flysheets, written in a clear style, denouncing landowners are widely distributed among the peasantry. The police have arrested Socialist agents engaged in the propaganda at Edinburgh, Pomerania, and seized enormous quantities of American revolutionary leaflets. The Munich Allgemeine Zeitung says South Germany has never witnessed anything like the present recrudescence of Socialism, the aim of which is to influence the peasants and smaller land owners with a view to obtaining their suffrages in the coming election.

Prince Bismarck in consulting with the Emperor on overtures from the Vatican for the appointment of a nuncio at Berlin found unflinching opposition, the Emperor even declining to consider the nomination of a certain archbishop to fulfil the functions of nuncio. The Vatican hoped that the presence in the capital of a high Catholic dignitary would overshadow the humbler Protestant clericals and give eclat to the Church, as such a dignitary would figure in some degree as a primate. Prince Bismarck is credited with a willingness to assent but the Emperor's prejudices are unconquerable.

The Emperor in ordering the trousseau for Princess Sophia, sister of the Empress, who is to be married to Prince Frederick Leopold, and that of his own sister, Princess Sophia, who is to be married to the Duke of Sparta, stipulates that they shall be entirely of German manufacture and specially forbids the use of any French silk, lace, linen or other material. All the members of the Imperial family will make presents of jewelry, which have been ordered in Germany.

The squadron which will accompany the Emperor to England consists of the ironclads Baden, Bayern and Oldenburg, the corvette Irene, which will be commanded by Prince Henry of Prussia, and the Aviso and Wacht. Admiral Kallo commands the squadron. The imperial yacht Hohenzollern will convey the Emperor to Spithead.

The arrangements for the visit to Berlin of Emperor Francis Joseph have been stopped. Since her sojourn at Ischl the condition of the Empress has slightly improved. Professor Kraft Ebing, an expert in nervous diseases, who attended the Duchess of Cumberland while she was insane, has charge of the Empress. He predicts a gradual amelioration of her condition. Meantime Her Majesty passes whole days without speaking or moving. If the Empress improves she will go to Wiesbaden, but if her disease becomes aggravated preparation will be made to take her to Styria.

The Catholic Congress at Vienna will open on April 29. It is expected the congress will proclaim the necessity of the re-establishment of the temporal power of the Pope and declare the right of the Church to direct schools to the exclusion of state interference.

The syndicate of the Vienna corn market has decided to abandon the international congress of grain merchants. This congress has been held for fifteen successive years, drawing a host of visitors and a large amount of capital. The syndicate alleges that the insults which the populace heaped upon the large number of Jewish dealers have rendered necessary the removal of the annual market to Pesth.

The East African Association has elected Herr Vohsen, the German consul at Zanzibar, a director in place of Dr. Peters. Dr. Peters, it is said, will soon return. Captain Wissmann refuses to sanction the Emin relief expedition and no porters are obtainable.

The supreme ecclesiastical council has forbidden Chaplain Stoecker to speak at political meetings.

An Error of a Vowel.

LONDON, April 21.—Lord Rosebery's answer to Lord Hartington is simple but curious. All Lord Hartington's comments, and all the criticisms and queries of the last few days, are due to the error of a single vowel. Lord Rosebery was reported in all the papers as saying: "Home Rule is distinct from the national and historical argument, and is simply a matter of devolution." What he did say was: "Home Rule, as distinct from the national and historical argument, is simply a matter of devolution." The correction upsets a whole library of conjectures respecting a new departure by Lord Rosebery, Mr. Gladstone and the Liberal party generally.

Birmingham's Troubled Waters.

LONDON, April 21.—Mr. Chamberlain has written a long letter in reply to the charges against him in connection with the Birmingham election. He alleges, but does not prove, that no binding compact existed between the Liberal-Unionists and the Tories to accept Lord Randolph Churchill for a candidate. He has against him the positive statement of Sir Joseph Sawyer, of Mr. Rowlands and of other local Tory leaders. For him appears only Mr. Powell Williams, who defils for Mr. Chamberlain in politics. Lord Randolph himself has been telegraphed to—he has been fishing in Scotland—and replies that the allegation that he would not accept an invitation to stand is absolutely inaccurate, and that Mr. Rowlands' statement is quite true. So Mr. Chamberlain will have to write another letter. He and his friends, by the Trent Valley Canal Criticism.

Mr. Barron "Wades Into" the Government—Mr. Stevenson Succeeds and Defends the Government's Trifling With the Work.

A few days ago in the House of Commons in committee of supply, upon the item, "Trent River Navigation $6000," Mr Barron M. P. North Victoria said as reported in Hansard:—

Mr. Barron.—I would like to draw the attention of the First Minister to the report of Mr. Rogers, the chief engineer of the Trent River Navigation works, who says:—

"Navigation commenced on the completion of swing bridges: During the past three years new steamboats have been placed in the waters from Lakefield to Balsam Lake. There are now 13 steamboats on this stretch."

I do not suppose that he intended that report to be misleading, but it is quite misleading, because the fact is that although we spent an enormous sum of money in building a lock at Fenelon Falls, the navigation above the falls is completely stopped by the obstruction of the railway bridge, and on account of the ridge at Cameron Lake which has never been removed. The first session I had the honor of a seat in the House I drew the attention of the First Minister to these circumstances, showing that this money was completely thrown away unless these obstructions I speak of were removed, so as to allow navigation to pass. From that time up to the present (two seasons of navigation) not one single thing has been done in the matter. I confess that when I drew the attention of the Government by telegram last summer, to the fact that the swing bridge at Fenelon Falls was being delayed in its construction, that they showed a reasonable promptitude to have it completed as fast as possible so as to allow of navigation over the lock itself. But I wish to draw the attention of the Minister of Finance to the fact that the railway bridge is there without any swing in it at all, and it is utterly impossible for any craft of any dimensions such as it is proposed shall navigate these waters to get through into the lake further than about 100 yards north of the lake itself. Even if that bridge is made so that a craft can pass backwards and forwards there is a ridge at Cameron Lake which prevents navigation, especially when the water is at all shallow. It seems to me that the Government put the cart before the horse in this matter. They went to work and spent this enormous sum of money on this lock, of which I do not complain, but it is entirely useless without the clearing away of these obstacles. The matter is of questionable importance to the people of that district.

Mr. Stanley, May I ask what railway is here?

Mr. Barron.—It is the Victoria branch of the Grand Trunk Railway. The enormous output of forest produce in that part of the country is really astonishing. The waters all lead to Fenelon Falls and I certainly can applaud the expenditure of money as far as this lake is concerned, if for no other purpose than to enable the forest produce to get to some railway station; but, as I have said, the whole expenditure becomes absolutely wasted, and it has been wasted, and we have lost the interest on that expenditure for two years for the simple reason that the Government will do nothing in the way of removing these obstructions. I know that great complaint was made last year that the Government did nothing; a great many people wanted to make use of the upper waters in connection with the lower waters, but they were prevented from doing so. Large contracts were entered into in anticipation that these obstructions would be removed, but the contracts had to be cancelled. People entered on the construction of steamboats, and I see that the engineer, Mr. Rogers, states the fact that steamboats were built on the upper waters, but these steamboats have been rendered useless by obstructions to the navigation of these waters. I would like to draw the attention of the First Minister also to the fact that there is a great deal of dissatisfaction with this work as far as the Commission is concerned. The Government for years and years have professed to be in the possession of knowledge sufficient to enable them to ask large appropriations for the purpose of building the Trent Valley Canal. I can refer to the letter of the chief engineer of the 21st May, 1881, directed to Mr. Page.

Mr. Barron then read letters from the chief engineer, May 11st, 1881, directing the beginning of surveys that summer and stating that a sum of $6,000 for surveys had been appropriated. He also read Sir Charles Tupper's report to the Council setting forth, and directing attention to the time the project had been under consideration, and from a speech delivered by Sir John in Peterborough before the elections, showing his desire to create a favourable impression by intimating that the Government was ready to go on with the canal. Mr. Barron, continuing said:—

The impression created up to that time was that the canal, from Lake Ontario to the Georgian Bay, should be constructed, not simply that those waters should be connected by means of these lakes. Mind you, I do not condemn the Government for spending this large sum of money to connect these inland waters, because I believe it is a good expenditure; but what I do complain of is that the Government should create the impression time and again that they were going on with the construction of the Trent Valley Canal, while they are not doing so. Mr. Stevenson, speaking on the night of the last election, by the authority of the Minister of Public Works, said:

"The Minister of Public Works had given him every assurance that the Trent Valley Canal contract between Peterborough and Lakefield would be let during the coming summer. This was no electioneering dodge because the elections were now all over."

Mr. Stevenson made that statement on the evening on which he was elected. Therefore the Minister of Public Works must have stated that to him before the election was held, so that when Mr. Stevenson said that it was not an election dodge, I take issue with him, because the statement was made to him before the election was held. Now, I would like the Minister of Public Works to say whether he intends to ask the Government to carry out that pledge to build the works from Peterborough to Lakefield. It appears that the Government have taken refuge in the appointment of a Commission—to ascertain what? To ascertain that which the Government have professed to know for many years past, when they assured the public from time to time that they were going on with the work. The First Minister has stated that the Commission has not reported, and very likely will not report this session. In fact, one of the commissioners has left the country on a holiday, with the knowledge and consent of the Government, so that we cannot expect them to report for some time yet. They have ceased taking the evidence, which is necessary to enable them to report. I want to know why they do not report? The Government may think that this is a light and unimportant matter, but I can assure them that the people do not think so at all. They think that the Government are simply playing with the matter, and that they have appointed this Commission to give them an opportunity to get out of the work, because I can inform them that the Commission is found to report anyhow going on with this canal. Whom did they appoint on the Commission? A gentleman from Toronto, who, if in favor of canal at all, is in favor of the Huron and Ontario Ship Canal; then they appointed a gentleman from Montreal, who, I believe, is antagonistic to the canal as the people of Montreal are; and the the chairman is a Peterborough gentleman, who, I believe, will be largely guided by the o her commissioners. When the Commissioners report against the canal, I suppose the Government will not go on with it, and if they do not they will be flying in the face of what they again and again promised to the people. I want to read what the Peterborough Review, which is a Conservative organ, thinks of this Commission. It says:

"The statement made by the Minister of Railways and Canals that a Commission would be appointed to examine, during the recess, into the nature and cost of further works to open the Trent Valley continue all not favorably reported in this direction, the nature and cost of these works have already been fully investigated, and if the Ministers insist upon their officials preceding them they will find ample materials on which to form a judgment. Indeed on the information before them they some time ago founded a judgment, recognized the value and feasibility of this great improvement, and promised to carry it out as promptly as the finances permitted. So far they have certainly prosecuted the works, but the section now in hand is now near its completion, and for the first time since it was re-commenced there will be a cessation of the work. There is no disposition to demand an investigation on account of want of confidence in the merits of this improvement. The more it is investigated the more clearly it will appear that for a comparatively small outlay a route can be opened that will be of great value to the country at large. Its benefits have been plainly demonstrated and have been officially admitted. Mr. Stark's careful estimates showed that it would be far from costly for a route of such great importance, and nothing has since risen to modify this view. If a Commission is to be appointed, we hope it will consist of men of sound judgment, and then there can be no fear of their reporting adversely to this necessary work. But, as we have before remarked, we see no need of a Commission. The stage of investigation is passed. Another section, say from here to Lakefield, might well be placed under contract, for the plans and estimates are ready. Many railways that have been subsidized in other parts of the Dominion are of far less public importance than this navigable route."

ON TO OKLAHOMA.

The Coming Tide Still Rolling on—10,000 Already Across the Line.

Arkansas City, Kan., April 20.—More than 10,000 settlers have crossed the line within the past three days and the stampede still keeps rolling on. To-morrow 5000 will arrive by railroad and wagons if the latest advices from the north and east are reliable. A dispatch received here to-day by the Gutrie Town Site Company from Secretary Noble reads as follows:

"The law restricts town site entries in Oklahoma to 240 acres each. Actual cases will be decided as they arise, on the application to district land offices after the agencies are opened for business."

No Liquor to Be Sold.

Arkansas City, Kan., April 20.—Marshals Jones of Kansas and Needles of the Indian Territory, who are in authority over the Indian Territory and Oklahoma, were in this city to-day and announced that they had instructed their deputies to confiscate all liquors taken into the territory.

Boomers Who Avoid the Main Trails.

Kansas City, Mo., April 20.—A dispatch to The Star from Arkansas City says that it has been estimated by ranchmen that from 500 to 1000 boomers will have made an illegal entrance into Oklahoma before noon of April 22.

The telegraph company is preparing for a tremendous day's business on Monday. It has been estimated that there will be 100,000 words of special dispatches from Oklahoma on the day of the opening.

Stage Robbery Near the Border.

Fort Smith, Ark., April 20.—A rumor was received here this morning that the stage running between Wagon and Walker, on the southern border of Oklahoma and on the bank of the Canadian River, had been robbed last Thursday night. Two drivers jumped into the river a few hours after the attack and swam across. He walked to Walnut Creek and stated that his passengers, consisting of two men and a boy, were in the hands of robbers and the coach had been burned.

Thirty Boomers Prisoners.

Chicago, April 20.—A dispatch from Purcell, I.T., regarding the reported conflict between deputy marshals and boomers, says thirty boomers were taken prisoners, several being wounded. One deputy was slightly hurt.

Boomers Killing Each Other.

Fourth Smith, Ark., April 21.—On Tuesday last five brothers named Arnold, who reside in the Choctaw Nation, near this place, started with their teams for Oklahoma. A rumor has reached here that three of them were killed on the road. The report is that they attempted to pass other boomers on the road, which resulted in the fight for the right of way, Albert, Ward and Jones Arnold being killed. It is not stated whether any one was killed on the other side. The Arnolds are part negro and are well known as railway contractors.

A Georgetown Fire.

Georgetown, April 20.—Shortly before 12 o'clock last night a fire broke out in the dwelling house of W. R. Brown, wagon-maker and implement agent. The fire had attained considerable headway before it was discovered. The members of the family were soundly sleeping, and when aroused barely escaped with their lives. Mr. Brown's loss is heavy. It includes his dwelling, wagon shop and contents, implements and a new wagon and two other dwelling houses owned by him and occupied by E. Black, Geo. Errington and M. Newton, the contents of which were partially saved. Insurance about $1000, in the Glasgow and London and the Wellington Mutual.

Sentenced to Death.

Washington, April 20.—Grace Smallwood, a small, weazened colored woman, was to-day sentenced to be hanged Oct. 11. She murdered her illegitimate child at its birth by tying a shoe string around its neck. Her mental condition is open to doubt. In passing sentence the court said it had reason to believe executive clemency would interfere to prevent its execution. This is the first time since Mrs. Surratt's trial that a woman has been sentenced to death in the District of Columbia.

A Father's Terrible Crime.

Addison, N.Y., April 20.—Frank Hancock, employed as fireman in the mill of Waite & Atwell at Blue Run, Pa., was found dead this morning between 6 and 7 o'clock, having hung himself in a bedroom of the shanty he occupied. In bed in the same room lay the bodies of his four children, two with their throats cut, the other two stabbed in the heart. The eldest was 10 years old. The youngest child, aged 4, was still alive when the horrible discovery was made, but has since died.

MUNCASTER'S

THE BUSINESS OUTLOOK.

Bradstreet's and Dun-Wiman on the State of Trade.

NEW YORK, April 19.—Special telegrams to Bradstreet's report moderate gains in the distribution of staple goods at Baltimore, Kansas City and Pittsburg. There is a good average business doing at Chicago, St. Louis and New Orleans. The outlook for wheat, cotton and corn is bright. Mercantile collections have improved at Pittsburg, Detroit, Chicago, Burlington, St. Joseph and New Orleans. San Francisco has shipped 187,000 bushels of wheat to Australia this year and tonnage for 200,000 bushels more has been engaged. Good Friday observances have curtailed the volume of business somewhat this week, and at New York the centennial inaugural celebration will further check the volume of wholesale trade.

Country produce and building materials are most active at New York, with prices tending upward. Building is active and the demand for materials is 20 to 50 per cent. in excess of last year. Trade in furniture, machinery, naval stores, fruits, leather, rubber, paper, paper stock and cans is quiet. Liquors, paints, jewelry and boots and shoes are fairly active. Prices of furniture, naval stores and crude rubber tend downward.

Stock speculation at New York has been dull and mostly of a professional character, with downward tendency, owing in part to the coming centennial celebration. Bonds have advanced slightly, call loans are 3 to 3½ per cent. and demand sterling is firm at $4.86½ to $4.88. Net railroad earnings of eighty-seven companies for February aggregate $10,066,290, against $9,580,279 last year.

Sugar advices from primary sources are stronger and prices of raw are ⅛ to 7 1-16c. higher, holders of raw declining contracts at current rates. Crop estimates are less encouraging. Arrivals are 14,200 tons Boston this week. Stocks at the four distributing points of the United States are 62,000 tons, against 144,200 tons a year ago. There was a heavy demand for refined early in the week, which was followed by a still advance amounting to ⅛c. on the week. The price of sugar is declared to be not yet abnormally high.

Coffee prices in speculative lines have been fairly supported, although holiday observances in Europe and at home have checked trade. Rio is unchanged on the week. Jobbers are awaiting a revival of demand from their customers.

The vegetable market is weaker and lower, the trading in wheat is of smaller volume and prices are off ⅛c. on increased stocks afloat and unusually favorable western crop outlook. Flour is weak in sympathy and prices are shaded. Indian corn forms an exception, with an advance of 1½c. on reduced offerings and better foreign demand. Oats are ½ to 1c. lower. Hog products and lard is dearer.

The Week's Failures

NEW YORK, April 19.—Dun, Wiman & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade will say: It is still the fact that most of the indications usually considered of value point to a genuine improvement in business, though moderate in amount and rather in volume of transactions than in profits. Yet in some directions the outlook grows less satisfactory every week and the disheartenment and uncertainty in a few important branches affect all trade in some degree. Crop prospects brighten steadily. Lower prices result in largely increased exports. Money is abundant, the treasury is pouring out freely and there are no signs of pressure from abroad. Railroad earnings are increasing and payments through banks, yet failures in some important branches of trade are numerous. Collections are generally slower than usual.

Business failures during the last seven days number for the United States 211 and for Canada 35, a total of 246 against a total of 230 last week and 223 the week previous to the last. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 195, made up of 177 in the United States and 18 in Canada.

A Paleolithic Man.

GAINESVILLE, Tex., April 19.—A strange discovery was made yesterday by a citizen in the northwestern district of this county. Having occasion to sink a well, Mr. Somms selected a spot in a valley near a ravine of great length, and which during heavy rains is transformed into a raging torrent, depositing in the valley limestone, gravel, mud and other debris. After reaching a considerable depth, and while in a formation of limestone gravel that had been found almost uninterruptedly from the surface down, Somms came upon the vertebræ and ribs of an animal. The ribs were about the size of a small pig's and rapidly tapered. When unearthed the remains were found to be those of a man of gigantic stature, whose body tapered like a serpent. Near the bones of the man's right hand was found a rude stone hatchet, which is said to be similar to the handiwork of the Paleolithic man.

Hanged on Good Friday.

VINCENNES, Ind., April 19.—Sylvester Grubb was hanged to-day. On the scaffold he was asked if he had anything to say and responded that he had plenty to say but declined to open his mouth because there were so many reporters present. Grubb's neck was broken. At the Gibson County fair in September last, Grubb, in full view of several thousand persons, murdered Gertrude Downey, his sweetheart. They had quarrelled and the girl said she did not wish to keep company with Grubb any longer. He then shot her.

Replacing the Strikers.

CITY OF MEXICO, April 19.—Workmen from the United States have reached Yuntan and are replacing the strikers there.

A Double Hanging at Fort Smith.

FORT SMITH, Ark., April 19.—Malachi Allen, a one-armed negro, and James Mills, half Indian and half negro, were hanged here to-day for murders. Both their necks were broken. Neither had anything to say except that Allen protested innocence.

The President Has Gone to Europe.

NEW YORK, April 19.—Many rumors are afloat about the affairs of the Colleader Insulating and Waterproofing Company of Newark, N.J. It was reported that a receiver had been appointed. One report has it that there is a deficit of $200,000. It is conceded that President Colleader has gone to Europe. James N. Nelson, the bookkeeper, was seen to-day and was reticent. He refuses to substantiate, although he appeared to recognize a statement which places the liabilities at $1,422,000 and assets at $737,000, and which declares that patents nominally worth $600,000 are actually worth nothing.

Mrs. Langtry's Cook Sues Her.

NEW YORK, April 19.—Mrs. Langtry is being sued by her (ex-chef, Gustave Brecha, for $200, unpaid salary. His lawyer, Louis Mathot, was unable to serve the summons in the case upon the Lily personally, and finally was obliged to secure from Justice McAdam an order allowing substituted service. The summons was [illegible] Sunday night, but as Mrs. Langtry is in Boston [illegible] summons will be issued when she will receive it.

Gone In to Break the Whiskey Trust.

CHICAGO, April 19.—George W. Hall, the New York Wholesale Liquor dealer, whose fortune is estimated at $6,000,000 to $10,000,000, has, it is said, gone in to break the western Whiskey Trust. Whiskey Trust men have declared the Trust is strong enough to ruin any man who dares [illegible]

Why?

Why suffer a single moment, when you can get immediate relief from internal or external pain by the use of Polson's Nerviline, the great pain cure? Nerviline has never been known to fail. Try a ten cent sample bottle. You will find it just as recommended. Neuralgia, toothache, cramps, headache and all similar complaints disappear as if by magic, when Nerviline is used. Large bottles 25 cents. Test bottles 10 cents, at druggists and country dealers. 6w16d

A Wonderful Flesh Producer.

This is the title given to SCOTT'S EMULSION OF COD LIVER OIL, by many thousands who have taken it. It not only gives flesh and strength by virtue of its own nutritious properties, but creates an appetite for food. Use it, and try your weight. Scott's Emulsion is perfectly palatable. Sold by all druggists, at 50c. and $1.00. 4w15ed

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Lyman, Sons & Co., Montreal, Wholesale Agents. dw

The Blood is the Life,

And on its purity largely depends the general health. No one is free from danger, and nine-tenths of humanity actually do suffer from one form or other of impure blood. No one remedy has such a wide range of curative power as has Burdock Blood Bitters—that best of all blood purifiers and tonics.

CONSTIPATION claims many victims. Ward off this dread disease by the use of small sugar-coated Burdock Pill when needed. dw

A Cure for Lumbago.

That painful complaint can be quickly cured by the right remedy. Miss Mary Jane Could, of Stoney Creek, Ont., says: "I was troubled with lumbago, and could not get relief until I used Hagyard's Yellow Oil, one bottle of which cured me entirely." 2w14d

The Safe Plan.

When suffering from a troublesome cold, a hacking cough, hoarseness, asthma, bronchitis, or other forms of throat or lung troubles, is to use Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam to loosen the phlegm and soothe and heal the inflamed mucous surfaces. It cures where others fail. 2w14d

MANY a sufferer from Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, General Debility, etc., will be glad to find that Dyer's Quinine and Iron Wine is strongly recommended for such cases. It is easily assimilated, prepared with great care and is an admirable tonic. W. A. Dyer & Co, Montreal. 6d38

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

UNSIGHTLY PIMPLES, Blotches, Tan, and all itching humors of the skin are removed by using Dr. Low's Sulphur Soap. dw

—A contemporary asserts that when a mud hole in Belleville dried up the other day they found portions of three wagons, a barrel of salt, a pair of boots and a keg of nails. They are now searching for two men who mysteriously disappeared.

It Made Mother Strong

"My mother has been using PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND for nervous prostration, accompanied by melancholia, etc., and it has done her a world of good. It is the only medicine that strengthens the nerves."
G. H. BEERS,
Orbisonia, Pa.

"I am in my 46th year. Have been afflicted to several ways—could not sleep, had no appetite, no courage, low spirits. I commenced using Paine's Celery Compound, and felt relief from the third day after taking it. I now have a good appetite and can sleep well. My spirits and strength are almost like those of a young man."
S. C. EDELEAU, D. D., Gonzales, La.

Paine's Celery Compound

Strengthens and builds up the old, and cures their intermediate ailments. Rheumatism, indigestion and nervousness yield quickly to the curative power of Paine's Celery Compound.

A Perfect Tonic and Invigorator, it GIVES NEW LIFE.

"I am now 69 years old and have tried several remedies, but none had any effect until I used Paine's Celery Compound. I feel entirely different for the short time I have used it. I can walk nearly straight, sleep sound and well, and feel as though there was new life and energy coursing into my whole system."
H. MYLUE, Cleveland, Tenn.

Paine's Celery Compound is of unequaled value in winter. It strengthens the nerves, regulates the kidneys, and has wonderful power in curing the painful diseases with which women so often miserably suffer.

A Sailing Velocipede.

An employee on the engineering staff of the G.T.R., who is of an inventive turn of mind and believes in taking things as easy as possible, has occasion frequently to use a railway velocipede, and to save unnecessary wear and tear upon his shoes has rigged up a sail for the machine, which carries him along at a spanking rate without any labor on his part. This young man has a long head, and is evidently known how to benefit by it.

Putting the Grounds in Order.

The directors of the P.A.A.A. are having the grounds put in repair, and with an increased membership they are encouraged to do their best to make the grounds first-class. The track is to be re-cindered the whole length, and a portion of the field is to be rolled for a lawn tennis court. It is expected all the departments will flourish this year, baseball, football, bicycling and lawn tennis as well as cricket.

Commendable Liberality.

The handsome new pulpit for St. John's church was used yesterday for the first time. Rev. Mr. Davidson preached the sermon. The remark that, though the occasion was not, in one sense, suitable, he would not refrain from referring to the beauty and appropriateness of the pulpit as an Easter offering. It will not be inappropriate to refer to the fact that the elegance of the pulpit is not only due to Mr. J. F. Belcher's taste as an architect, but that his important services were given gratuitously.

Norwood High School.

The Norwood Register states that Inspector Hodgson's report of his inspection of the High School, is "the most gratifying the trustees have received. . . . This together with the fact that the number of pupils in regular attendance equals that in some of the Collegiate Institutes in large towns, has elicited congratulations from the Department, and it is something that Norwood may feel proud of. The Inspector pointed out the fact that if the Board could obtain the necessary financial aid our school could be raised at once to the status of a Collegiate Institute."

A Rather Sudden Death.

Mr. John O'Connor died on Sunday rather suddenly of apoplexy, at the residence of Mr. Martin Connors, George street, over his restaurant. Deceased had been ill only since Friday. The funeral took place this afternoon from the residence of his son near the R. C. Cemetery. The deceased came out to this country 40 years ago, and after spending three years in Cobourg settled in Douro and became a prosperous farmer. He possessed a remarkably rugged constitution, and was well known throughout the county. He leaves four children, one daughter and three sons.

Society Funeral.

The funeral of the late David Sim took place yesterday afternoon from the family residence, McDonel street, to Little Lake Cemetery, at 3:30 o'clock, under Oddfellow auspices. Deceased was a member of Peterborough Lodge, I.O.O.F., the members of which, as well as a number from Otonabee Lodge, attended the funeral in a body. The fire brigade band and the Canton also paraded in honor of the deceased. The pallbearers were Messrs. W. J. Green, W. A. Sanderson, R. McWhinnie, J. C. T. Lacey (Toronto), Alf. Johnston and Albert Loeb. A number of handsome wreaths decorated the coffin, gifts from Peterborough Lodge, Mr. Geo. A. Cox and Mr. F. Foote.

The Lakefield Bartender Arrested.

The Globe of Friday had the following:—Wm. H. May, a bartender, was arrested at the Union Station last night under peculiar circumstances. Some time ago he was convicted of a breach of the Scott Act at Lakefield, Peterborough County, and fined $50. Instead of paying the fine he skipped out to Toronto, and a warrant was issued for his arrest. May says that County Constable Williams came up and made an arrangement with him by which he was to report that May could not be found. For this service May gave him his silver watch and promised him $5. Meanwhile the city police were on the lookout for May, and he was arrested by Constable Reburn on board an east-bound train.

Willow and Whitet.

A meeting of the committee of the Ontario Cricket Association was held Saturday at Toronto. Mr. J. Stirling of Peterborough attended. The committee suggested a number of district divisions, Peterborough being represented in two. In No. 2 it is the Peterborough's proper who are included, and in No. 3 the Maple Leafs, a second eleven of the Peterborough club. The districts are:—

No. 2—Parkdale, Owen Sound, Toronto, Hamilton, Peterborough, Rosedale, Goodertham & Worts, Aurora, Brampton, Trinity University, Upper Canada College and Toronto University; Petman, of Rosedale, hon. secretary.

No. 3—Peterborough (Maple Leafs), Trinity School, Port Hope; Whitby, Uxbridge, Sandesland, Lindsay, Campbellford, Cannington, Oshawa, Colborne, Belleville, Bowmanville and Cobourg. J. Stirling, of Peterborough, hon. secretary.

The Fire Record.

Sunday morning about one o'clock the fire bell pealed out its alarm, and the brigade lost no time in turning out. They only went a short distance, far enough to ascertain that the fire, the reflection of which was very distinct, was outside the town limits. The fire was at Welsh's brickyard, in Otonabee, about two miles from town. The house, barn and sheds were totally destroyed. In the latter were four horses and some cattle, which were also burned. The loss to Mr. Thomas Welsh, proprietor of the burned buildings and contents, will be from $4,000 to $5,000. He was insured for $1,350 in the North British and Mercantile.

Sunday noon the tailor shop of Louis Stone, of Lakefield, was partially destroyed by fire. The building, a frame one, was situated in the heart of the village, and the fire was prevented from spreading by the exertions of the citizens. There was no insurance. A spark from a burning chimney on a house adjoining caused the blaze. Mr. Stone was in Peterborough at the time attending the Salvation Army services.

Bellegheen's Room in Furniture.

Bellegheen, the Furniture King has a bad attack of boom. He is bound, regardless of consequences to give, and is giving now, special inducements to spring purchasers of furniture. Now is the best time to invest in furniture and the only greatest place in town is the warerooms of Bellegheen, Hunter street Peterborough, Nos 188 and 190. Here is found a magnificant stock both in quality, variety excellence of construction and the point the public want to learn is the fact that this superb collection of furniture, is now and for a short time being offered at prices which constitute inducements to buyers never before heard of. Don't rub on with that old parlour suite, which has seen its best days years ago. Don't make your good and patient wife blush when she has callers, at its antiquated shabbiness. She has been a good wife to you and has worked hard to make your home pleasant and cheerful. Now, when you have the chance, make her heart happy and your home bright by buying a new parlour suite at Bellegheen, while his special inducements are being offered, or if you require a first class bedroom set, or have any furniture that upholstering would make as good as new, go to Bellegheen, the Furniture King. He is always ready for purchasers, and especially at the present time, when he stands ready to welcome them with open arms, and special inducements which cannot fail to impress those who call at Bellegheen's warerooms, 188 and 190 Hunter street

Seceding Salvationists.

The Toronto Mail says a meeting of ex-members of the Salvation Army, who are dissatisfied with some of the internal workings of that organization, was held last evening at the hall of La Mission Canadien Francaise on Queen street east. Brother Britnell occupied the chair, and several gentlemen aired their grievances. The main grievance preferred against the Army is that it is a grasping institution, and that the officers expect a great deal of work from the men while they enjoy the luxury of idleness. There was also a hinted suspicion that the receivers of the loaves and fishes formed a close corporation in the Army, and that promotion in the ranks was labored and painfully slow. A committee consisting of Brothers Britnell, Bell, Smith, Sheaklin, Thomas, Whale, McCartney, Dale, Webster, Smith, Collins and Pottegrew was appointed to draw up a scheme for evangelization work, and a constitution for the new association which is to be formed, under the name of the Christian League. The new association is to be conducted on the basis of a majority vote controlling its appointments and working. This idea is to defeat the possibility of any individual members obtaining permanent control and running the association. Business meetings will be held frequently, at intervals of about three months, for the discussion of general business, and in case of dissatisfaction with the head of the organization, for the election of new officers. The committee will meet again next Thursday evening, and on Tuesday evening of next week an open meeting will be held, when the report of the committee will be submitted to the association. It was also decided to hold a public meeting for the ventilation of their grievances on or about the 9th of May, when a number of resolutions, embodying the causes of the rupture from the army will be presented for public consideration.

THE DAILY EXAMINER is delivered to any part of the town for 15c. a week, 25c. a month, [illegible] months.

Church Chimes.

On Sunday the Baptist church was tastefully decorated with flowers, and special music was sung suitable to the season. In the morning service, A. A. Procter's "My God I thank Thee," Wesley's "Christ the Lord is Risen to-day," "The Strife is O'er," and "The Lord is Risen Indeed." Rev. P. Clifton Parker preached from Luke xxiv, 34: "The Lord is risen indeed." He showed the importance of this doctrine, how clearly it was attested, the change it had wrought in the lives of the Apostles. Good Friday might represent the triumph of human wickedness but Easter Sunday represented the triumph of the divine Saviour. On Friday the stone was rejected by the builders, but on Sunday it became the head of the corner. There was a large congregation present. In the evening the pastor preached a very impressive sermon on the doctrine of Substitution, to a large and attentive audience.

On Sunday Whiting's celebrated hymn for those that travel on the sea, "Eternal Father, Strong to Save," was sung in the Baptist church both morning an evening in remembrance of the pastor's family, who left Liverpool by the R.M.S. "Oregon" on Thursday, the 18th.

At St. Peter's Cathedral Easter Sunday the decorations and music were particularly noticeable in the services. His Lordship Bishop Dowling pontificated at high mass at 10.30, assisted by the other clergy, afterwards preaching an excellent sermon. At Vespers the altar was brilliantly illuminated and special music was rendered by a full choir. After Vespers the Bishop blessed two large statues, one of the Virgin Mary and the other of St. Joseph, the gift of a benefactor of the church. There were a large number of communicants at the three masses during the day, and the Bishop took occasion to thank them for fulfilling their Easter duty. The collection was a large one. A list of the donors will be printed and distributed among the congregation.

Rev. Mr. Carmichael, of Norwood, preached in St. Andrew's Church Sunday.

The floral decorations and music in the Charlotte Street Church Sunday were of a special nature.

At St. Luke's the Easter Sunday services were of the usual order, but the chancel was handsomely ornamented with flowers, the handiwork of the ladies of the congregation. The music was also of a special nature as befitted the occasion. At the 11 o'clock service Rev. Mr. Warren preached and in the evening Rev. Mr. Walsh. There were a large number of communicants.

The Easter services in St. John's Church were in all respects a very gratifying success. In the morning at eleven the church was filled, and in the evening it was literally packed—so to speak—and the afternoon service for children was also well attended. The joyous outburst of Easter rejoicing, of course, found expression in the music which, under Mr. Seward's efficient and judicious management, was a striking feature of the services. At the morning service Lloyd's concerted Gloriæ were sung, Kotzmar's Te Deum and Concone's Jubilate. The anthem was "This is the Day," quartette with soli, by Mrs. Seward, Miss Rush, Messrs. Badden and Pousette. The hymns, "Come, See the Place," was sung to music composed specially by Mr. Seward, and the music of the Kyrie and Gloria were all his compositions. At night the anthem was Southard's "I Will be Glad," with Mrs. Seward as soloist; she was in excellent voice and did full justice to the task assigned her, and was ably supported by the chorus. The closing hymn, "Onward Christian Soldiers," was sung to Mr. Seward's stirring air. The music throughout was very bright and inspiriting, its production reflecting credit on both choirmaster and choir. The sermon in the morning was preached by Rev. Mr. Davidson, and in the evening by Rev. Mr. Kenrick. Both were brief but earnest and appropriate. The children's services in the afternoon were largely attended, the two schools uniting. The children sang special hymns with good effect, and Rev. Mr. Davidson gave a very interesting and appropriate address. The decorations of the church are worthy of especial commendation, the chief points being the profusion of flowers and the excellent taste shown in their disposition and arrangement. The beautiful floral symbols which adorned the scarp of the nave windows were the gift of four gentlemen of the congregation. The cut flowers adorning the communion table were the gift of a young lady. While the general scheme of decoration was in the hands of the members of the Young Men's Guild of St. John's, who exhibited much energy and interest in the matter, yet their success was facilitated by the spontaneous and hearty co-operation of the members of the congregation generally and by the ladies, who had special charge of the chancel decorations. Both ministers and people feel that the success of the Easter services in all ways is but an expression of a common feeling of interest in the promotion of the welfare of St. John's and of an activity of spiritual life.

The Bishop elect of Peterborough, to be consecrated on May 1st, Rev. R. A. O'Connor, received farewell addresses from his congregation in Barrie yesterday, to which he made eloquent and feeling impromptu replies.

Yesterday's services at the George street Methodist church were of an appropriate nature. The pulpit and platform of the church were tastily decorated with flowers. At the evening service the choir under the able leadership of Mr. W. H. Dingle sang an anthem appropriate for the occasion. The morning sermon by the pastor, Rev. M. L. Pearson, was from the text, "Come see the place where the Lord lay." A very large congregation attended the evening service and listened to an eloquent sermon on "The Chiefest of Ten Thousand,

The Evangelists in Woodstock

A Short Newspaper Extract Showing How Crossley and Hunter are Succeeding.

(Woodstock Standard, April 18.)

The evangelistic movement that was inaugurated by the Rev. Messrs. Crossley and Hunter in our town at the beginning of this week is now in full swing. The popularity of these ministers of God is by no means diminishing, but continues to increase each succeeding evening. Last night nearly every available seat in the Central Methodist church was occupied, and the good work is progressing successfully. The meetings also continue to have the countenance of the ministers of our several denominations and other prominent Christian workers, their hearty co-operation being expressed by their constant attendance and by their taking an active part in the services.

Not the least attractive feature of this evangelistic campaign is the beautiful and accomplished singing of Rev. Mr. Crossley.

As an expounder of the Holy Scriptures Rev. Mr. Hunter has probably few compeers. Last night he read the 22nd chapter of Genesis "Jacob wrestling with the Angel," from which he drew many soul-stirring lessons, every sentence of this Bible incident under Mr. Hunter's masterly touch being pregnant with deep meaning and prolific with Christian hope and encouragement. Jacob's struggle and victory were delineated in impressive language.

Rev. Messrs. Crossley and Kerby sang a duet entitled "Thinking of Home," which was rendered in such a manner that the sentiment of the song seemed to penetrate the very hearts of his hearers, the refrain "Over the sea, voices are tenderly calling for me," being particularly effective.

Mr. Hunter then offered prayers by requests for "an unconverted family" and "a dissipated son."

Mr. Crossley next took the platform and said that if each Christian did his duty and the work progressed as it had commenced there was no reason why one thousand souls, or even five thousand, should not be converted. His text was Luke ix. 13, the miracle "Feeding of the multitude," the only one recorded in the four gospels. . . . The entire discourse was a forcible elucidation of this miracle, every point being the foundation of personal application.

The meeting was closed by a strong appeal from Rev. Mr. Hunter.

An after meeting of prayer was held, at which several men and women, young and old, went forward to the front seats.

Important Sales.

The auction sale of the Kincaid property took place on Saturday. Mr. Wm. Yelland purchased the residence premises, corner Murray and George streets, for $6,900, and the two farms in North Monaghan, 200 and 150 acres respectively, were sold en bloc to Messrs. W. F. King and Samuel Thompson, Douro, for $13,600. The proceeds of the sale satisfy the mortgagees, with a small balance remaining.

THE MOST AGREEABLE, restorative tonic and mild stimulant is Milburn's Beef, Iron and Wine.

High Court of Justice.

The Spring Assizes—Opening Session—Mr. Justice Hoblitzell Presiding.

APRIL 21st, 1889.

The Spring Assizes for the County of Peterborough, opened at the Court House to-day at one o'clock. There was a large attendance of spectators.

The bar was represented by Messrs. John Bernhem, E. B. Stone, E. M. Donaldson, W. H. Moore, J. O'Meara, J. H. Bernhem, L. M. Hayes, D. W. Dumble, E. B. Edwards, C. W. Sawers, Arthur Stevenson, John Green, town; W. H. Riddel, Cobourg in charge of the Crown business, Messrs. B. B. Osler, Q.C., Walter Cassels, Q.C., G. H. Watkins, Toronto: Mr. J. W. Carry, Millbrook.

The following gentlemen composed the Grand Jury panel:—

E. S. DAVIDSON, Foreman.

Jas. Barnard,	W. B. Ferguson,
Thos. Brooks,	Thos. Fraser,
John Cameron,	Thos. Gladman,
J. D. Collins,	H. Humphrey,
Michael Clark,	Robt. Hall,
Jas. Darling,	J. J. Hartley,
Jas. Moore,	Geo. Hockey,
Chas. O'Reilly,	Jas. Lancaster,
W. Paterson,	John O'Donohoe,
J. C. Sherin,	G. Payne, jr.
J. T. Stenson,	J. C. Sullivan,
John Vanstickle.

MR. JUSTICE MCMAHON, in ADDRESSING THE GRAND JURY, referred to the criminal calendar as containing four charges of forgery and one of larceny. He pointed out that the jury was not called upon to try the accused, but simply to hear the evidence on behalf of the Crown and from that alone they were to decide whether a prima facie case had been made out. He gave the legal definitions of the crimes of forgery and larceny. The proposed abolition of the Grand Jury system was referred to, and the Scotch system of a procurator-fiscal minutely defined. The average expense annually per county was about $1,200, and the remarks of the learned judge tended to give the impression that he thought it was worth the cost, as a public educator, apart from its functions as an aid in the administration of justice.

The first case called was the Queen vs. James Sampson, larceny. The charge, which was laid over from last assizes, was that of stealing cloth from Eliza Wood, of Belmont. The charge was dismissed, and the Enniskmore assault case is in progress as we go to press.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

On Saturday evening the meeting for young men, and led by them, was a time of refreshing and was much enjoyed by those who were present.

Last evening, at the gospel and song service, Mr. O. C. Rowse gave a rousing address on the incident on Blind Bartimeus receiving his sight, which cannot fail to be the means of doing much good to the large audience present.

Both these meetings are growing in numbers and favour with our young men. The results of Messrs. Crossley and Hunter's meetings are visible in the increased attendance.

The invitations for our reception are going rapidly, for we are hoping to interest many who have a wrong idea of the aims and work of the Y. M. C. A. We trust those who can attend will kindly obtain cards of invitation from reception committee or acting secretary at the rooms.

The Y. M. C. A. conference at Cobourg is being attended by Messrs. Bennett, Early, Bean, Griffin, Miller, Armstrong and Colville.

Their Object.

The enterprising proprietors of the Peterborough Business College are determined to make this institution the most efficient in the Dominion. With this object in view, they have taken a lease of the roller rink from Mayor Stevenson and are having it fitted up in the most approved style. They are also adding to their staff a penman who has very few equals in his art, so that the staff will, without doubt, be more capable than that of any other Canadian College. Every young man and woman who wishes to get a thorough business training should take a course at this college and fit themselves for lucrative positions. dw

CLEVELAND'S SUPERIOR BAKING POWDER

THE PUREST AND BEST

Is made only of strictly pure grape cream of tartar, strictly pure bicarbonate of soda, and a small portion of flour as a preservative, nothing else whatever, and is warranted entirely free from alum, ammonia, phosphates, lime, and all the adulterants frequently found in baking powders. The character of materials used, their purity, and the nicety of their combination, render Cleveland's superior baking powder the most healthful and most economical in use, and it always affords wholesome, nutritious, and delicious food.

It is recommended for purity, healthfulness and efficiency by Government and State chemists, Boards of Boards of Health, and professors in institutions of learning throughout the country.

He bears the best wishes of all who knew him.

THE EXAMINER has received the first number of a bright, cheery monthly, The Cadet, published in St. John's College, Denver, an educational institution conducted under Episcopal management. Rev. W. C. Bradshaw occupies the position of warden of the college, and The Cadet says in reference to him:—"We extend a hearty welcome to our new warden, who is very much liked by the boys, notwithstanding that his discipline is stricter than what we were accustomed to recently." An additional paragraph gives the information that "Miss Mabel Bradshaw, our warden's daughter, is now a day scholar at Wolfe Hall. She is very bright and smart, and it is useless to say is a general favorite."

On Thursday the Building Committee of the School Board, comprising Messrs. Weir, English, Hughes and T. Rutherford, went to Toronto to inspect the Smead-Dowd system of heating as it is in use in the public buildings there. After thoroughly inspecting the heating apparatus of a four-room, eight-room and twelve-room school, the Parkdale Collegiate Institute and some of the city churches, the committee expressed themselves as unanimously in favor of the adoption of this system for the new school buildings to be erected in Peterborough.

"Oh that some power the gift would gie us,

Thus sighed old Scotia's Bard in vain,
For what he could not there attain.
But had he lived in this fair town,
He had no cause to sigh or frown,
For if he walked on Hunter street,
An eager throng he'd surely meet,
With faces bright as summer light,
All coming from one fifty-eight.
Where photos always are in view,
Which are to life so very true,
That each one who has seen them there,
Does to his comrades all declare,
"SPROULE is the very man can gie us,
The power to see as others see us."

THE ANTI-COMBINES BILL

PASSES THROUGH THE COMMITTEE STAGE IN SAFETY.

The Steamship Subsidy Resolutions Adopted by the House—The Government's New Arrangement With the G.P.R.

OTTAWA, April 22.—In answer to enquiries, during the sitting of the House this afternoon, Sir Hector Langevin said it was not the intention to introduce this session legislation based upon the Labor Commission's report, but the Government would during the recess examine the report and the evidence so as to determine if legislation is necessary.

Sir Adolphe Caron said the negotiations with the Imperial authorities respecting the British Columbia coast defences were still in progress and were strictly confidential. The National Committee, consisting of the Major-General commanding, the Adjutant-General, the Commandant of the Royal Military College, and the inspector of artillery, is to meet from time to time as may be deemed expedient.

Hon. Mackenzie Bowell said the owners of the seized vessel Bridgewater had made a demand for $30,000 compensation.

On the motion to adopt the report from the Committee of the Whole on the resolutions to provide for a fortnightly steamship service between British Columbia and the Australian colonies and New Zealand, Hon. Mr. Laurier offered an amendment declaring that the Government failed to show that such a service would result in advantages in any way commensurate with the cost. The amendment was lost on a party division of 55 to 77, and the resolution as reported from the committee was concurred in.

Hon. Mr. Foster then moved the adoption of the report of the Committee of the Whole on the motion to provide for a subsidy for a fortnightly steamship service between British Columbia and China and Japan.

Hon. Mr. Davies moved an amendment declaring the inexpediency of adopting the report until the correspondence and the negotiations and agreement between the British Government and the Canadian Pacific Railway have been laid before the House, also that the subsidy should be made conditional upon the vessels calling at Victoria or Esquimalt. This amendment was declared lost on a division, and the report was concurred in.

Hon. Mr. Foster moved the adoption of the report of the Committee of the Whole on the resolution respecting a contract for a fast weekly steamship service between Canada and the United Kingdom.

Hon. A. G. Jones moved an amendment declaring that the amount of the proposed subsidy should be reduced so as to provide, instead of a 20-knot service as introduced, a 17-knot service, all that is required for the passenger and general interests of the country, while at the same time offering greater facilities for freight; also that it should be made a condition of the subsidy that the terminal port should be in Canada.

After recess the amendment was discussed and declared lost on a division.

The House then went into committee on the Combines Bill. It was opposed by Hon. David Mills, Mr. Edgar, Mr. Colter and others on the ground that it declared only against unlawful combinations, leaving it to stand what kind of combinations are unlawful and recourse having to be had as before to the common law. After discussion the bill was adopted by the committee without amendment, save by the addition by Clarke Wallace of a clause exempting the provisions of the bill from application to any handicraft on the performance of labor.

The House then went into Committee of Supply, taking up the supplementary estimates.

TORONTO TOPICS.

The Morality Inspector's Peril Lustrey Shown "Move-on" Jarvis.

TORONTO, April 23.—It is again reported that Mr. Joseph Priestman and the others who were arrested with him in his office have instructed their solicitors to enter a civil action against Morality Inspector Archibald for illegal arrest and false imprisonment, damages being placed at a heavy sum.

Another of the alleged assailants of P. C. Duncan, a young man named Frank Kitchen, was taken into custody yesterday.

The police Sunday made several fruitless searches for liquor in places where it was suspected an illicit traffic was being carried on.

Thirty-two prisoners crossed the Don in the Black Maria Sunday and there they remained until this morning, the Police Court taking a holiday yesterday.

Early yesterday morning an attempt was made to burglarize the residence of Mr. Samuel Rook, 206 Spadina-avenue.

The 5-year-old daughter of Mrs. Lynght, Adelaide-street west, was badly burned by her dress igniting from a lighted match.

Mrs. Ellen Wright, the proprietress of a baby farming institution at 19 Portland-street, is in the cooler for abandoning one of her infant charges on a door step on Sherbourne-street.

Messrs. McMichael and Deans, two Torontonians, earned high places at the recent examinations of the New York Homœopathic Medical College.

Ex-Constable Jarvis, of "move on" fame, who was convicted at this assizes of assault, was yesterday released on a suspended sentence. Justice Rose delivered a severe lecture to the prisoner, who felt the biting words more perhaps than a castigation.

At three o'clock yesterday afternoon Convocation Hall at Toronto University was filled with interested spectators to witness the conferring of degrees in medicine and dentistry on 74 fortunate candidates. Sir Daniel Wilson, President of the University, presided.

A fracas in the National Club Sunday night has caused no end of talk about town. Mr. P. McPhillips, the gentleman who complains of being held under a tap by two other members of the club, is a young lawyer, at one time a partner of Hector Cameron. The members of the club are doing their level best to hush the matter up, but Mr. McPhillips, it is claimed, will see his assailants punished to the full extent.

The inquest on the body of the infant Barnsley was resumed yesterday before Coroner Johnston. The jury brought in a verdict of "death from natural causes and not otherwise." Two delinquent jurors, John Reed and Thomas Davidson, will have their bond of $100 each estreated and they will be summoned to appear at the Assizes.

SWEPT BY FIRE.

Disastrous Conflagrations at Port Hope and Welcome—Church and Mills Burnt.

PORT HOPE, April 22.—Yesterday afternoon, about 3 o'clock, fire originating from a chimney in the house of Mrs. W. Shaw, in the village of Welcome, destroyed the dwelling together with the nearly new brick church adjoining on the south and the house and stables of John Grimson. The loss is about $10,000; insurance: Mrs. Shaw, $1200 on house and $1000 on contents in Watertown Mutual; church, $2000 in Mercantile; Mr. Grimson, $800 in Agricultural of Watertown.

About 9 p.m. same secondrel fired Mr. John Helm's large frame grist mill here and the flames spread to J. Dyer & Sons' stone woolen mill, both of which were up in smoke. The grist mill was fired on the night of April 4, but on that occasion little damage was done. Mr. Helm had an insurance of $4000 and Dyer & Sons $4000 on machinery and $4000 on stock. The loss will be extremely heavy. A dozen families are thrown out of employment.

Mysterious Fire at Hepworth.

HEPWORTH, April 22.—At 10 o'clock yesterday morning flames were discovered issuing from the roof of the residence of J. E. Murphy, lumber merchant of this place. Damage to the extent of $2500 was done. The wind was high, and but for the timely arrival of the G.T.R. fire brigade by special train from Wiarton the whole place would have been burned down. The origin of the fire is a mystery.

A Kingston Blaze.

KINGSTON, April 22.—A stone dwelling in Division-street owned and occupied by Matthew Elliott was burned on Sunday. Insured for $2000 in the Queen's Fire and Life. The fire was caused by a spark from the chimney setting fire to the shingles.

Stabbed by a Lenten Expiationist.

WOODSTOCK, April 22.—The handsome new dance of Mrs. Emigh in the corner of Princess and Wellington-streets was almost completely destroyed by fire early this morning, caused by a lamp exploding. The loss is covered by an insurance of $2000.

Heavy Business Failure of Messrs. Ainsworth Bros., Vic. April 22.—A famous old firm of Ainsworth Bros., of Lindsay, has gone down. Liabilities, $100,000; assets, $80,000.

A Freight Shed Burnt.

BOSTON, April 22.—One of the freight sheds of the Boston and Albany Railroad was burned here to-day. The building was 400 by 50 feet, and two-thirds of the roof collapsed. Loaded freight cars were also destroyed. Loss $50,000.

THE THIRTEEN THANKED.

AN OVATION TO THE M.P.'S WHO VOTED FOR DISALLOWANCE.

The Meeting Under the Auspices of the Citizens' Committee at Toronto—D'Alton McCarthy's Speech.

TORONTO, April 22.—The Granite Rink was filled last night on the occasion of the meeting under the auspices of the Citizens' Committee in honor of the thirteen M.P.'s who voted for Col. O'Brien's disallowance resolution. The thirteen were represented by D'Alton McCarthy, John Charlton, Col. J. C. Dennison and G. R. R. Cockburn, all of whom addressed the meeting. A vote of thanks was tendered the supporters in Parliament of disallowance. The speech of the evening was made by D'Alton McCarthy, Q.C.

Mr. McCarthy, in rising to reply on behalf of the thirteen, said he did not feel able to find fitting words to express his sense of the honor conferred upon the thirteen by the resolution just passed so enthusiastically and heartily. After a few other preliminary remarks the speaker referred to the action of Parliament in regard to the Jesuit bill. Said he, I have been witness to votes on great questions, I have seen both parties rally all their forces in order to put their standing before the country, but I have never witnessed before, and I doubt if parliamentary history records such a scene as we saw on March 27, when the whips of both sides rallied all their forces—and what for? Not merely to record their votes for and against the Government, but unanimously to put down the few men who were prepared to speak and act independently of party and as they believed in the interests of their country. Why were both parties so anxious on this occasion to vote the same way, to cast the very largest vote that was ever recorded in the Canadian Parliament? The reason is this: both parties were anxious to prove to the people who have ruled this Dominion so long—so long that I am now tired of it—[loud applause]—they both wanted to prove that they were the best friends of the Lower Canadian party, governed by their hierarchy, marshalled and led to maintain power, place and pelf from the Dominion.

Mr. McCarthy then related the details of the debate on the Jesuits Bill in the House of Commons, how the thirteen were talked down and voted down by the leaders and followers of both sides of the House. He proceeded to answer some of the arguments presented by the supporters of the Government during the debate. This matter, said he, divides itself into two separate and distinct considerations. If this bill is beyond the power of the Province of Quebec then the bill can be assailed in the courts at any time, and by the courts it will be pronounced to be void. If that bill was void on legal grounds it ought to have been so declared by the Administration, because that is their duty. The question, however, was not to him a dry question of law. It is a question of policy. It is a question whether, if it was in the power of the Province of Quebec to pass such a law, such a law should not have been wiped from the statute book.

Before one could arrive at a satisfactory conclusion on this question it is necessary to go back a little in history to understand upon what basis the so-called moral claim of the Jesuits rested. When this country was ceded by the King of France to the Crown of Great Britain, the Jesuits had been dissolved so far as France is concerned. The year preceding the treaty of 1763 the Jesuits of France were dissolved and expelled from France as being inimical to the best interests of the country, so that had this country continued to be a part of France the Jesuits would have been expelled from Quebec as they had been expelled from France. The speaker then went into details to show the unconstitutional character of the Jesuits Bill, going over the same ground as that taken by him when discussing the question in the House of Commons.

Why had Mr. Mercier taken up this claim of the Jesuits and passed it through the Quebec Parliament? Is was to make himself solid with the hierarchy. They asked their price, they wanted to know what they were to get. He agreed to revive this old, stale claim of the Jesuits, he bled himself off to Rome and laid himself at the feet of His Holiness. He, the premier of an English province, actually asks permission from His Holiness to sell the public lands of the Province of Quebec! Well, have we come to this—that the premier of a British province has to go and sit at the feet of a foreign potentate, be he prince or pope, to get authority to dispose of the public domain? (Loud applause.) The Minister of Justice and the interference of the Pope was merely for the purpose of settling a dispute between two bodies of the Church, that the Pope merely acted as an arbitrator. There was not a single word in the records to show that such was the case.

If this was a just claim on behalf of the Jesuits why didn't they get the whole $400,000? They only got $160,000. Why did they only get that if they were illegally treated and had been despoiled of two million dollars? The speaker said he would like to see Mr. Mowat dividing the public money among Principal Caven or Dr. Stafford the same as the Pope did among the Jesuits and the bishops of Quebec. [Applause.] What a row there would be! [Laughter.] If there is one thing in this free country that should be solemnly settled, and settled once for all, it is the principle that all religions should be free and equal before the law. [Applause.] No church in free Canada is going to have any advantage over any other church.

The Minister of Justice admitted there was no legal title to the estates, but he put forward a moral claim. Now, the Jesuits had years ago coaxed the King to dedicate these estates for the purposes of education, and for the purposes of education they had been dedicated. Where was the morality for these people afterwards to turn round and claim this property that had been dedicated for educational purposes should be granted to themselves? The speaker would rather term their claim an immoral one. He never denied the perfect freedom of the Roman Catholic people to enjoy their own religion, but what he did protest against was the Pope's assumption to exercise in any part of the Dominion any temporal control or say temporal power. [Applause.]

Why did the 186 members record their votes in favor of allowing the bill? Many of those who were on the speaker's side politically had voted with great reluctance with the Government. He never supported Sir John with more pleasure than when he allowed the law to take its course with regard to Riel, but he regretted that on this occasion he and Sir John had to part company, when both parties, instead of supporting Ontario and the other English Provinces, had conspired to capture the solid French vote.

It has been said this was a provincial matter, that the provinces, within their own sphere, were omnipotent. The speaker believed that this country was not composed of a string of provinces connected together for merely commercial purposes. He believed this country was a Dominion—hear, hear!—and whenever any of the provinces attempts to pass a law that is hurtful to the national life of the Dominion then it is the duty of the Dominion to step in and disallow that law. If there is any one subject more than another upon which the Government should exercise crastinus vigilance it is upon this question of religion.

What of the future? Is this agitation to end here? Gentlemen, the future is in your hands. It depends on you. Do you mean now what you say? (Cries of "Yes, yes.") Are you determined that you will be represented by men who will make this their first principle? [Hear, hear.] If we are to make Canada a nation we have to stop French aggression, which was now asserting itself so strongly in our own province. The time has now arrived when we have to take care of our own home in Ontario.

Seven New Cardinals to be Appointed.

ROME, April 22.—The Pope celebrated mass in the Consistory Hall to-day. Many strangers were present. At midday he received prelates and others. At the coming consistory he will create seven cardinals.

Earthquake in Egypt.

CAIRO, April 22.—A slight earthquake shock was felt here to-day.

Renewed Rioting in Vienna.

VIENNA, April 22.—The rioting in connection with the strike of the tram car men was renewed here to-day. The strikers attacked the cars and smashed many of them. The cavalry were again called out and a charge was made upon the rioters, many of whom were wounded. About a hundred strikers were arrested.

Love at First Sight.

BUFFALO, April 22.—A rather romantic event took place at St. Paul's Church to-day, when Semmes, relict of the late General Semmes, was united in marriage to Grover Alfred Bowen, formerly of Toronto, but now of this city. The bride was attended by a lady friend, and the groom was supported by a gentleman friend of the bride. The bride is 43 years of age and possessed a large fortune. The groom is 32 and was employed in Adams, Meldrum & Anderson's dry goods house. Mrs. Semmes first met him at that store in a business way, and both say it was a case of "love at first sight."

FAILURE OF THE REAL PURPOSE OF HIS ENGLISH MISSION.

Crown Prince Rudolph's Suicide Raises a Crop of Imitations—The Rioting in Vienna Renewed.

LONDON, April 22.—It is asserted that the recent visit of Count Herbert Bismarck to England, which, although ostensibly in pursuit of a political mission, was really made for the purpose of fructifying his hopes of marrying a kinswoman of the Marquis of Londonderry, resulted in a complete failure, and that the engagement is off.

Accident to an M.P.

LONDON, April 22.—Mr. Cyril Flower, M.P. for Luton, was thrown from his horse while riding yesterday and severely injured. The accident was caused by a dog's snapping at the heels of his horse. Mr. Flower in endeavoring to control his mount lost his seat and fell to the ground. One of his feet caught in the stirrup, and he was dragged a considerable distance, being several times hit in the forehead by the heels of the horse.

The Paris Exposition.

LONDON, April 22.—The arrangements for the official opening of the Paris Exposition are now completed. The opening ceremonies will be very simple, but the decorations of the streets and buildings will be very elaborate. There will be a pleasing display of bunting and music galore, and the number of troops and officials in the procession promises to be enormous. The officials of the exhibition alone are a small army in themselves, and these personages will form a prominent feature of the pageant.

LONDON, April 22.—The Duke of Edinburgh, Commander-in-Chief on the Mediterranean station, is prostrate from fever and is returning to England on board the Alexandria.

Rudolph's Imitators.

LONDON, April 22.—Since the Crown Prince Rudolph died sensational suicides are on the increase. The second couple killed themselves last week. The girl lamented she would miss the best of the fun, as she would like to hear what people would say when the corpses were discovered. Another curious attempt at suicide was that of a girl of 18, who swallowed paraffine because of disappointed love to revenge herself on her rival by haunting her.

TRADE AND TRAFFIC.

Leading Features of the Grain and Produce Markets at Home and Abroad.

TORONTO, April 23.—During the past two weeks the prospects that any shipments of Canadian cattle would be made early in May have been slim. The large receipts in Chicago and the consequent low prices have not been particularly cheering to Toronto dealers, and they had begun to fear that they would be able to do nothing before the end of May, at the very earliest. A shipment with prices as low as they have been in Chicago meant that a Canadian dealer would be compelled to accept a price at from $10 to $15 per head below what is regarded as a fair remuneration. But the reports from Chicago yesterday indicate a slight improvement. Should this improvement continue, shipments may be made from Toronto early in May, but if not, there will probably be nothing done before the end of the month.

PRODUCE.

St. Lawrence market was flat yesterday. The supply was small, the demand poor and prices generally unchanged. New butter is beginning to come in slowly in pound rolls, but it is in very small quantities, and the price keeps up to 27 and 28 cents. Pound rolls of old butter sell at 24 and 25 cents. HAY AND GRAIN.

Receipts of hay and straw were small, the demand fair, and prices steady. Hay sold at $15 to $16. Straw was a little higher, at $11 to $12.50.

There was no grain offered on the street yesterday.

Trent Valley Canal Criticism.

Mr. Barron "Wades into" the Government—Mr. Stevenson Reasserts and Defends the Government's Trifling With the Work.

Mr. Barron, continuing, said:—

That is the opinion of the Conservative organ in the town of Peterborough, and I tell the Government that the people have very little confidence in this Commission; they believe it is nothing more or less than a subterfuge to enable the Government to get out of the pledges on which they carried riding after riding in the different elections. One objection made to the construction of this canal is that it will take a great deal of water. The reservoir for this canal is supposed to be Balsam Lake. There need be no apprehension with regard to the supply of water, because a considerable distance north of Balsam Lake is Kaliver Lake, the waters of which are almost immediately connected with the waters which flow down towards and into Balsam Lake, and not more than half a mile will need to be canalled or trenched in order to bring a plentiful supply of water down from the far north. The only argument I have heard against the construction of this canal is the possibility of there not being sufficient water. That difficulty can be easily removed, not only with benefit to the construction of the canal, but with a large advantage to the lumbermen and mill owners all along the Trent valley waters, because by this means they will be enabled to bring down logs and other forest produce from the far north, and also with the result of retaining along the Trent waters the different centres of business which are now there. I do not approach this subject in any party spirit at all. I recognize that the First Minister secured votes from both parties, as he knows very well, in the different elections, on the strength of his promise that this work was going on. Sir Charles Tupper at great expense to the country paid a visit to the different waters up there and I have no doubt created by his presence the impression on the minds of the people that this work was one of such magnitude that it was intended to carry it through. A great many people in both sides of politics hurried the political hatchet for the purpose of supporting the Government in the belief that they were going on with this work, and I warn them that they are in danger of losing the confidence of the people, who may transfer that confidence to some other gentleman who may be more likely to carry out their pledges.

Mr. Stevenson.—As the hon. gentleman has taken upon himself to bring my name into this matter, I want to say a word or two. The hon. gentleman, who is a well known unbeliever in this scheme, who ridicules it, who has stood up over and over again in public and said that it is clap-trap, and that the government never intended to do anything of the kind, comes now before this Committee and mirrors up things in this hang yarn style. As far as I am concerned, this thing never entered into the elections hardly at all, either the last or any other election, in fact it was the hon. gentlemen from the other side who made most of this question by saying it was all clap trap, that the Government would never build it, and would never commence to build it.

Mr. Barron.—I say that now.

Mr. Stevenson.—When they came to our part of the country to electioneer against me. Then this Commission the hon. gentleman never attended.

Mr. Barron.—Yes.

Mr. Stevenson.—Did he come near them when they were at Lindsay? Did he give any affidavit at all? No; but he comes to this House with this story now. During the election he referred to, I never mentioned public works at all in connection with this matter. Now, bring your paper if you like. If I mentioned a Minister at all, I mentioned one for whom I had a high respect and who is now no more. I say that the Government took the proper course in this matter of appointing a Commission—I suppose an independent commission. They appointed as chairman a gentleman from Peterborough, who himself was an advocate of the scheme all his life-time. There may be gentlemen opposed to it on the Commission, for all I know to the contrary, but I have to learn that yet. I believe the Commission is a fair one which will report what it finds to be correct. The hon. gentleman knows well that during the long debate on this subject, there were two or three engineers who differed very widely on the cost of the canal, more especially from Peterborough to Lakefield. One made an estimate of $1,000,508. It was a wise move for the Government to appoint a Commission to take evidence and ascertain the probable cost of that section of the canal. There are many difficulties of course in the way, and I can understand those difficulties. I do not propose to put the Government in any position other than what is honest and square, and I am quite satisfied the people of the County of Peterborough do not want anything but what is right. There are difficulties in the way. There is evidence to show that the depth of that canal, if built now, would not be what it was a few years ago, as much larger vessels are used now than formerly. On local grounds the canal ought to be built. That country is full of iron, which will come day find a market; I hope not across the line, but on our own side. I hope we will be in a position to manufacture our ore in Canada without going across the line. What I am saying is correct, and I am quite satisfied that the hon. gentleman spoke from a business point of view. He said he knew it was all frauds, that the Government never intended to build the canal; but he never attended a public meeting in my county that I am aware of. But privately he always said that the thing would never be built, and that surely I was not a believer in it. I have the firm belief that the canal will be built, because the demands of the country require it. People in the section from Peterborough to Lakefield will certainly benefit by it, and it will open up a very large additional area. The whole area from Hastings to Cameron Lake will be opened, and the canal will give immense water power to run any quantity of mills along the line. I did not intend saying anything to-night. But, as I am here, I may say that, as far as I know, the intention of the Government is to assist in the building of the canal. The chief engineer, I am quite satisfied, has been, by many, misconstrued in saying he was opposed to it, but rather the reverse. The hon. gentleman now wants to ascertain the actual state of matters. The Government are anxious to lay before the country, before they undertake a work which will inevitably involve a great amount of money, its true position, and I cannot see anything against any Government doing that. And I feel confident, from what I know of the Commission, they will rep rt favourably to the canal. I have been at several meetings of the Commission and I have heard evidence given before them, and, from what I know of their Commission, I believe the hon. gentleman will be satisfied that there is no clap-trap about it, but that it is intended to be a reality and a certainty, and that we will have that canal.

Mr. Barron.—I am glad to hear the paper from the hon. gentleman will find that I did not censure the Minister of Public Works of saying anything of the kind which had been stated.

Mr. Barron—I do not think that is the gentleman who has just sat down (Mr. Stevenson) and I are on for about nine all. I do not know that it is proper to rehash private conversation on the floor of the House, but I would be quite willing to have all my private conversation on the subject of the Trent Valley Canal rehashed here. I have said, and I say again, that the Government look upon the canal as so much trash, and that they do not intend to build it, and my friend (Mr. Stevenson) of that I am certain does I said, and I say again, that the Government at here taken advantage of this proposition by any of a party cry to get out of building this canal. If the Government were sincere and honest and earnest in this matter, they would not have selected one of the commissioners to go to the country, especially in view of the fact that the commissioners extend their labors many weeks since. If the hon. member for Peterborough (Mr. Stevenson) was as anxious as he professes to be in this matter, he would have told the Government that one of the commissioners was going to England, and he would have urged all the business on the Commission to be completed at once.

upon the commissioners reporting one way or another before they went away. But one of them had gone with the knowledge of the Government, and they have not reported, and it will be some time before they can report. The hon. member for Peterborough says he did not say what I charged him with saying in reference to the Minister of Public Works. I must, of course, accept his statement. No doubt he does not remember making that statement, but I know that he has an enormous faith in the Peterborough Review. He clings by that paper and that paper clings by him, and that paper does put lying words into the mouth of the hon. member for West Peterborough, as being used on the subject of the election:

"The Minister of Public Works had given him every assurance that the Trent Valley contract between Peterborough and Lakefield would be let during the coming summer. This was no electioneering dodge, because the election was all over."

Sir John A Macdonald.—The hon. gentleman knows that that must be a mistake on the part of the Review, in referring to the Minister of Public Works instead of the Minister of Railways and Canals. The Minister of Public Works had no more to do with it than I had.

Mr. Barron. I am not particular which member of the Government it was who made that promise, but it was stated that the promise was made. Then the hon. gentleman and I have always laughed at this canal. That is not so. The hon. gentlemen cannot mention any public occasion on which I have not spoken in favor of it. In our part of the country we are all deeply interested in it. If the hon. member for South Victoria (Mr. Hudspeth) were present he could speak of a meeting which was held in the town of Lindsay, where resolutions were unanimously passed in favor of the construction of this Canal. The county council of Victoria, the county council of Peterborough, and all the different councils of the counties through which the canal will run have petitioned for this canal. Now, the hon. gentleman says I did not attend a meeting of the commissioners in Lindsay. I do not remember the commissioners ever going to Lindsay. So little interest did they show in the matter that I do not think they ever went to Lindsay. I did attend a meeting in Lindsay where Mr. John Carnegie, a strong supporter of hon. gentlemen opposite was present and gave most valuable information on the subject. When the hon. member states that I spoke against this canal, he must accept my statement to the contrary, for it is not so. If I were in the position of the hon. member for Peterborough, I think I would bring my influence to bear a little more strongly on the Government in order to make them carry out their pledges. I am not now discussing whether this is a proper work or not, but the Government have, time after time, as it suited their purposes, assured the public that they were going on with this work from Lake Ontario to the Georgian Bay, but now they are backing out of it and are taking advantage of the Commission to let themselves down easily. The result, I believe, will prove the correctness of my statement that the Commission will report against the work, and that the Government will back out of their pledge.

Some hon. Members.—Carried.

Sir Richard Cartwright.—Silence admits that this statement is true.

THE NEW AGREEMENT.

Between the Government and the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Ottawa, April 22.—By the terms of the agreement made between the Government and the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, laid on the table of the House this afternoon, the Government covenants and agrees to build as direct a line of railway as the character of the country will permit between Harvey and Salisbury, and to issue the same to the Canadian Pacific Railway Company and their successors in perpetuity for the annual rental of $1 per year for twenty years and after that an annual rental of $23,625; to give the Canadian Pacific perpetual running powers over the present (or some other) bridge at Fredericton and also running powers over the Intercolonial from Salisbury to Moncton.

The Canadian Pacific Railway and the Intercolonial are to furnish cars, etc., for express service between Montreal and Halifax, as near as may be in proportion to their respective mileage.

The agreement and schedules attached thereto provide for the character of the line, curvature, width of cuttings, etc., and contain the provisions as to maintenance, etc.

The agreement is signed by Sir John on behalf of the Government and by Mr. Van Horne on behalf of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Mr. Wainwright, representing the Grand Trunk, has arrived in the city to interview the Government respecting the securing for that road running powers similar to those to be enjoyed by the Canadian Pacific over the road from Harvey to Salisbury. Equal running powers over the Intercolonial are also asked.

The Grand Trunk are not to be without their share of the good things distributed this session. It is understood that a resolution will be submitted subsidizing the St. Clair Tunnel project to the extent of 15 per cent. upon the $2,000,000, which that work is estimated to cost.

Two fast express trains per week with refrigerator accommodation are to be run this season over the Intercolonial for the purpose of supplying fresh fish from the Maritime Provinces to Montreal and the west.

As a result of their interview to-day with the Minister of Justice, Messrs. John Ross Robertson and D. A. Ross have left satisfied that it is not expedient to further press, on behalf of the Canadian Copyright Association, that the act now being put through the Senate should be made retroactive in the matter of permitting the reprinting of British works.

When we came to you as the Revolutionizers of the Clothing Trade, we promised you then that we would benefit the public, and now after a long trial have we kept our word? If so, let that be our best guarantee to the public, that we deal honestly and squarely with them in the future. We are not so egotistical as to believe that we please every one, (our Divine Master when on earth did not please everyone) still to those who we did not please, as well as those we did please, we sincerely return thanks for past patronage. As we are not infallible we are prone to make mistakes and our judgment like any human being's may err in buying. Still we try to avoid errors, as much as possible, and therefore it is our proud boast when anyone has a grievance we never refused to make it right when brought to our notice. This spring we are going to REDOUBLE OUR ENERGIES, and by keeping GOOD GOODS, NICE GOODS, SQUARE DEALING, and EXTREMELY LOW PRICES, we hope to merit a Continuance of your Generous Patronage.

THE CAPTURED OUTLAW.

Riverton Being Well Physically but Naturally Low-Spirited.

SHERBROOKE, April 22.—The escort arrived with Riverton in this city this morning about 4.30, and immediately proceeded to lodge him in the jail, after which a doctor was summoned to probe the wound. The flow of blood had caused Lemay reaching Sherbrooke. Dr. Austin's examination proves that the ball passed right through his body, having glanced to one side, but without breaking any bones. He is now doing well physically, but is naturally low-spirited at having been finally caught. The hour of his capture being so late, few people knew of it, so that the excitement at Riverton was not very great and no one in Sherbrooke knew of his arrival. He will be brought up for preliminary examination at as early a date as possible. The Montreal policemen and others are returning home to-day.

Window Glass Works Burnt.

FINDLAY, O., April 19.—About 11 o'clock this morning fire was discovered at one of the large frame buildings of the Canastota Glass Works at Bowling Green. A strong wind was blowing and the flames spread rapidly, consuming the entire plant including the big 20 pot house, packing houses, storage house and several loaded freight cars standing on the Toledo, Columbus and Southern siding. Bowling Green has no fire department and nothing could be done to save the factory, which was completely destroyed in an hour. The entire plant was valued at $200,000 and owned by Canastota (N. Y.) capitalists. The plant was a grand success from the start about a year ago, and at the present time was shipping an average of four car loads of window glass per day. A hundred and twenty-five boys are thrown out of employment. The loss is a severe one to Bowling Green, which gave a large donation of land to secure the enterprise. The amount of insurance cannot be learned now. It is reported that the company will immediately re-build and will be ready to commence operations next year. The Canastota was the largest window glass factory in Ohio and at one time contemplated locating in Findlay.

A Hotel Burned.

OTTAWA, April 19.—The notorious resort in Chaine-road known as Dube's Hotel was wiped out by fire last night. The hotel was the scene recently of great violence and disorder and the police had been closely watching it. The tenant was under a writ of ejectment for next Tuesday. Scarcely anything was saved. The hotel is a total loss, the stock and furniture nearly so. Values and insurance not known.

Smothered to Death.

NEW YORK, April 19.—Ferdinand Werner, aged 66, was smothered to death last night in a fire that did $15,000 damage at Nos. 81 to 85 Centre-street. Six girls and three men were burned to death in the building on Christmas Eve, 1872.

A Town Scorched.

CHESTER, W.T., April 19.—A large portion of the business part of this town was burned yesterday. The fire was evidently incendiary.

Lightning's Work.

PORT HOPE, April 20.—During the thunder storm last night (Friday) the barns of Mr. Thos. Cann, lot 11, 6th con. of Hope, were struck by lightning and set on fire. When the fire was discovered it had gained such headway that Mr. Cann only succeeded in saving his horses, sheep and two cows. Eight head of cattle and many fowl were burned. The stables, three barns, a quantity of grain, together with all the implements and machinery, were destroyed. The loss amounts to between $4000 and $5000, insured in the Royal of England for $3000. The residence of Mr. H. A. Walker, near Welcome, was also struck by lightning about the same time and the hired man knocked senseless. Miss Ella Walker also received a severe shock. One end of the building was shattered, but did not take fire. About $100 damage done, covered by insurance.

BRANTFORD, April 20.—The barn of Geo. Rawlinhimer, Burford Township, was struck by lightning during the severe storm of Friday and consumed, with its contents, including a team of horses and many implements. Another barn was struck and likewise destroyed, near Ranelagh, belonging to a farmer named Cronkwright.

Boulanger Forced to Leave Belgium.

BRUSSELS, April 20.—M. Bouree, the French ambassador, yesterday informed Prince de Chimay, Minister of Foreign Affairs, that the meeting of the Boulangist Committee in Brussels impressed the Paris Government unfavorably. The Cabinet therefore must an official to the hotel at which General Boulanger is stopping to warn the General that he must leave Belgium of his own accord, or the Government would expel him. After consulting with Rochefort General Boulanger consented to leave. The other Boulangist leaders in Brussels will accompany him. He will start for London on Wednesday next.

A Bloody Riot.

MINNEAPOLIS, April 21.—The trouble between the Minneapolis Street Railway Company and its 600 odd employes, who went out on strike ten days ago against a proposed reduction of wages, culminated to-day in a bloody riot, in which upwards of 20 persons, including 20 policemen, were more or less injured, two fatally.

The Bully Smash.

BEMIDJI, Ill., April 21.—As a mixed train on the Central Iowa Railroad last night was going over the bridge at Cedar Creek, a wheel broke and two cars were hurled into the creek and took fire, burning the bridge. Conductor Calvin was killed by the fall and the son of Section Foreman Savage, the only passenger, was drowned. Express Agent Rogers, Brakeman Reed and a mail clerk were probably fatally injured.

Survivors of the Samoan Disaster.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 20.—The steamer Umatilla arrived this morning from Honolulu, having on board Lieut. Luke Bixley and 23 other men of the United States steamer Trenton and Tuesday, who were left on a reef in by the steamship Nipsic, which arrived last week. They were transferred to the hospital at Mare Island. They Trent this afternoon.

Explosion of an Oil Tank.

LIMA, O., April 20.—One of the large iron tanks of the Standard refinery exploded this afternoon and scattered oil in every direction. The tank contained 40,000 barrels of distilled oil. The oil ran down and filled the ditches along the Chicago and Atlantic road, which made it necessary to back the fires of locomotives while passing the grounds to prevent a large conflagration. The loss will reach $40,000. No one was injured.

Standing Under Police Protection.

ST. PAUL, April 20.—During the afternoon a large number of street cars were kept going, one or two policemen being in charge of each. About 60 Kansas City men have arrived to take the places of strikers. Some of them claimed to have taken advantage of the free transportation offered to reach this city and did not go to work.

Our Vancouver Correspondent.

From Esquimalt, B. C., Mrs. A. B. Cameron writes that being very much troubled with dyspepsia she tried two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters, which gave great relief, and hopes that others may be induced to try it also and receive like benefits.

The Blood is the Life,

And on its purity largely depends the general health. No one is free from danger, and nine-tenths of humanity actually do suffer from one form or other of impure blood. No one remedy has such a wide range of curative power as has Burdock Blood Bitters—that best of all blood purifiers and tonics.

CONSTIPATION claims many victims. Ward off this dread disease by the use of small sugar-coated Burdock Pill when needed. dw

Less Half a Dollar.

"About eight years ago my feet and legs became poisoned, and came out in great sores as large as a half dollar, which ate in almost to the bone. After the failure of other remedies, the sores were completely healed by one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters." Joseph Gonyon, Tupperville, Ont. 2w17d

A Hallelujah Wedding at the Barracks—A Grand Parade of a Three Days' Special "Bar"—How the Ceremony was Performed—Coming Attractions at the Barracks.

The three days' special doings with the Salvation Army terminated at the barracks last night by a hallelujah wedding. This is the first attraction the local corps has had for several months, and the event drew a full house, three-fourths of the audience being women and girls, for whom a wedding in any class of life has subtle charms that never fail to attract them in large numbers. The excitement is increased when the parties to the marriage are kept secret until the last moment, as was done in this case.

There was also a grand rally of troops from all parts of the district, and the Lindsay band added color and music to the occasion. In the band marched two or three lassies who played horns. There was a large parade in the evening.

The usual preliminary exercises took place at the barracks. The meeting opened with singing and prayer, the band taking a prominent part in the former exercise, musicians apparently vieing with each other in order to see who could exhibit their religious fervor by producing the biggest sounds, and the man with the bass horn evidently doing his best to blow the lining out of it. The little red man from Lakefield, whose shop was burned Sunday while he was in Peterborough, was there in all the glory of his blazing red uniform, which, with his shining bald head and his demonstrative actions, made him conspicuous in spite of his diminutive figure. He would breathe a fervent prayer and then throw his hands up as if to waft the invocation to the very gates of heaven.

While this was going on the audience amused itself by "taking in" the sights on the platform. In front was seated Rev. G. H. Davis, who was to perform and on one side of him the groom and his "best man," and on the other the bride and bridesmaid. The latter were attired in regulation blue dresses, having only large white sashes over their shoulders to distinguish them from the others. The two contracting parties were Capt. Bates, of Bobcaygeon, and Capt. Noles, late of the Quebec division. The groomsman was Capt. Spencer, the boy preacher of Millbrook, and the bridesmaid Capt. Hines, the popular officer in charge of the Peterborough corps. To the left of the bridal party stood a red-covered table, on which rested the wedding cake, a three-story, tempting-looking piece of cookery, surrounded by some pot plants and flanked by a large calla lily. The visiting officers and band were seated on the rising platform behind the others.

D. O. Marshall led the meeting, but the audience seemed to do as it liked. The people laughed and chatted, passed comments freely, and seemed thoroughly to enjoy the occasion in their own way. However, when Rev. Mr. Davis began to pray a hush fell upon them, presumably out of respect to the cloth, and afterwards the Staff Captain in a brief prayer called upon the Lord to take the meeting into His own hands and conduct it for His glory.

The next thing on the programme was the singing of the Jubilee Singers, a band of five young lassies led by Capt. Grant. The three also nearly swamped the two sopranos and there was not a noticeable amount of melody; but then the songs were sung and with an earnestness and energy that did not brook the interference of rules of harmony. The Jubilee Singers gave satisfaction, for they were greeted with loud applause.

The audience appeared just then to be taken with a mania for applause, as during the remainder of the evening at frequent intervals there was round after round of it. This is a new feature in Salvation Army demonstrations. The rarer specials, so called because they gave their testimonies, were next introduced. Amongst the speakers were several old men, strangers, one of whom, Brother Wright the Staff-Captain called him, created a deal of amusement by his naive way of telling his experience. He said he was once engaged to a young woman and he had to promise her to become religious if she would marry him. He was so anxious to get her that he was ready to promise anything, so he did it. The Lord had taken her away since, but he (Brother Wright) had good luck and good courage and got another wife—(great applause)—a good Christian woman, too. And the old man spoke with the vim and vivacity of young people. Their hearts were evidently prompting them and their religious fervor became awakened.

A number of songs were sung, among them one often heard at the meetings lately held by Crossley and Hunter, entitled "It is Good to be Here."

Capt. Wood, who was introduced as an old friend, spoke a few words, and Capt. Cook, the lady cornetist, played on her silver instrument.

THE MARRIAGE BEGINS.

After Staff-Capt. Marshal had read a chapter from the Bible, and before the marriage ceremony was begun, he explained why it was that they made such a solemn and personal affair in public. He said the Salvation Army people believed in doing everything to the glory of God, even to weddings and funerals, and if in this they could by any means help along the cause they were only too glad to do it. These two young people had decided that they could do more for the glory of God as man and wife than single, and he believed God would bless them and make them of much use in the work.

The contracting parties then stepped forward and the D. O. read the marriage obligation of the Salvation Army. The ceremony proper was begun. Rev. Mr. Davis came forward, having on his right the groom and groomsman, and on his left the bride and bridesmaid. Over the heads of the party the flag of the Army floated, held by a stalwart soldier. The bride looked a trifle scared and nervous, while the groom was "cool as a cucumber," to use a familiar quotation. He was a pleasant-faced young man, dark complexioned with slight moustache, while the bride was fairer, not pretty, but healthy and robust in appearance. There was great tiptoeing and craning of necks as Rev. Mr. Davis began the ceremony, but just then a small baby in the front seats, with a voice out of all proportion to its little body, raised a terrific howl and proceedings had to be stopped till the troublesome youngster was removed.

THE SEAL OF WEDLOCK.

After the vows had been made the groom slipped a ring on the finger of the bride. The irreverent youths in the audience set up a loud smacking and when the final words were pronounced and more suggestive smacks came from the audience the husband took the hint and clasped his wife in his arms. He nearly missed fire, however, for the young woman very modestly turned her face away from the audience just as he was making ready to kiss her. However, he caught her somewhere in the region of the ear, and as the kiss resounded loudly through the barracks the spectators gave a wild cheer and tremendous applause. The band struck up a lively air, and the husband leading his wife over to a seat they sat down together and received the congratulations of their friends. When order was restored there were more long drawn-out smacks from the audience, but the wedding was over and things quieted down after a bit.

The proceedings were soon after brought to a close, but not before the newly married couple were given an opportunity to speak. Both stated that in taking this step they were not gratifying their own pleasure but felt that it was God's will, and they intended working the harder for the salvation of men.

Capt. Spence, the boy preacher from Millbrook, and Capt. Grant spoke, the latter also contributing a solo.

Afterwards a wedding feast was held in the room below the barracks. A really excellent table was spread, and the room could scarcely accommodate all those who remained behind to see how the bride would eat, as the Staff-Captain remarked.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

There will be no meeting at the barracks to-night.

Irvine Bernbrook, the Dummer farm mortgage forger, pleaded guilty, but sentence was deferred till morning.

The Esquimaux assault case occupied the attention of the court the balance of the day. The row occurred last January on the road leading to the Crees in Esquimaux. The defendant Young was driving along with another man, and the plaintiff Smith, with a brother and another friend, caught up and asked Young to drive to one side to allow them to pass, the younger Smith, it is alleged, using bad language. Young drove on until he came to the Sullivan farm, where he pulled up and, leaving his horses in charge of the man with him, ran across the field to his brother-in-law's house, returning presently with two of the Sullivans. They stopped the Smiths and their friends, and, according to all accounts, there was a pitched battle between the six men, in which the plaintiff was the only one badly used. He was cut about the face, and claims that he was laid up for several weeks by erysipelas resulting from his injuries. He claimed $1,000 damages. Sawers & Stone for plaintiff; Mr. J. Burnham for defendant. The jury deliberated till 2 o'clock in the morning, finally returning a verdict for $40 damages for plaintiff.

The Breach of Promise Suit Sent Out of Court—The Plaintiff Non-suited.

TUESDAY, April 24th.

The breach of promise case was begun this morning. Mrs. Sarah Reynolds sues Samuel Jamieson for $10,000 damages for breach of promise of marriage. Both parties live in Cavan, near Millbrook. The plaintiff gives her age at 47 years, and is the childless widow of the late Wm. Reynolds, who died seven years ago on the 13th of July. She appeared in court wearing a silk jacket, high bonnet and veil, and a perennial smile that never left her during the entire giving of her evidence. Her eye had a merry twinkle also, and altogether Mrs. Reynolds appears to be quite a charming widow for one of her age.

The defendant is 60 years old, with scanty grey hair on his head and a clean-shaven face that is ruddy with the hue of health despite his advanced years. He is quite spry, barring a lame knee which compels him to walk stiffly. Mr. Jamieson is altogether a fine looking old gentleman, and what enhances his value in his reputed fortune of $75,000 at the least. He made his fortune by farming, and is now living a retired life of ease and plenty with the wife he married last fall, in direct opposition to the vows he is alleged to have made to Mrs. Reynolds, the fair plaintiff in the case. The case was an interesting one, and afforded great amusement for the audience. The plaintiff's counsel were, Messrs. Edwards and Watson; the defendant's, Messrs. Carry and Osler.

The story of the courtship and betrothal told in court by Mrs. Reynolds is about as follows. She lives five miles from Millbrook, and before her husband's death Jamieson, who lived about five miles distant, often visited their house. His wife died about a year after her husband, and both of them were left childless. Mr. Jamieson, however, took into his house a girl named Clara Milligan, whom he brought up as his own daughter. Mrs. Reynolds knew little of Mr. Jamieson till the fall of 1885, when the courtship was begun through the mediatorial offices of Mrs. Widdis, a neighbor who first carried a message from Jamieson to Mrs. Reynolds, with the request that she marry him, he promising to leave her all his money but $6,000 dower for Clara, who intended getting married. Mrs. Reynolds declined, saying she did not want to marry at all. She saw him again as she was passing his house on the way home from the Millbrook fair, when he made the offer in person, telling Mrs. Reynolds he thought she had always been kind to her husband, and was a respectable, nice looking woman. The following week they met at Mrs. Widdis', defendant driving up in a buggy and Mrs. Widdis and Mr. Jamieson standing together inside the gate. The conversation first dwelt upon Clara's extravagance in using up the linen and silverware. Mrs. Reynolds told him if she was married to him she would want to dress well too. He replied that then she would be his own.

Mr. Watson.—His own dear? (Laughter.)

Then Mr. Jamieson asked her to get into the buggy with him, but she declined, and after Mrs. Widdis returned to the house they talked on, he telling her of his money affairs, of how many people owed him and that he was wealthy. Again he asked Mrs. Reynolds to marry him, telling her that all his money but Clara's $6,000 would be hers.

The pressure of other matter prevents the giving of the full report of the evidence in this issue. The evidence for the plaintiff was so unsatisfactory that the suit was dismissed without going to the jury.

Ashburnham Brevities.

Those who have not paid their taxes yet for 1888 had better make it a point to do so soon as it is intended to add ten per cent., after the first of May, to all taxes unpaid. There is no sensible reason why taxes should be allowed to run for eight or ten months after they are due and very often those who don't pay when they should are those who are best able to do so.

BISHOP-ELECT O'CONNOR.

Farewell Honors to Right Rev. R. A. O'Connor.

The Congregation of St. Mary's Church, Barrie, Present Their Departing Pastor with an Address—Affectionate Farewells Exchanged.

At the close of the Vesper services in St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, Barrie, on Sunday evening Messrs. Peter Kearns and John R. Kerr stepped forward and Mr. Kearns presented Rev. Father O'Connor with a purse of $600 as a parting gift and Mr. Kerr read a magnificently illuminated address, which referred to his elevation to the episcopacy as a "just recognition and shrewd appreciation of his undoubted merit, a fitting tribute to his worth and a suitable reward for his exemplary life," and also referred to his faithful services during his pastorate of eighteen years, and to the excellent executive work he had accomplished. The address concluded with assurances of devotion.

Rev. Father O'Connor made an impromptu reply as follows:

MY BELOVED BRETHREN,—I thank you most cordially and sincerely for the expressions of love and esteem which you bear towards one who has been your pastor for nearly a score of years.

I am aware of the high honor that has been conferred upon me, and I only regret that it should not have fallen upon more worthy shoulders. If I had had the choice myself, I should have preferred to remain here amongst the people of Barrie, from whom I have received so many marks of affection.

I accept with great pleasure your congratulations on my elevation to the dignity of a Bishop. You rster in glowing terms to the good works that have been accomplished since I came amongst you, but I must say that it is due to you yourselves, who have made so many sacrifices and who have exhibited so much generosity, that these works of good have been brought about. The pastor cannot alone carry out all good deeds, unless he is helped by the people, and I must ascribe the honour and success of what has been done here to your generous co-operation and the uniting together that I have always found among the people of this congregation and also those who differ from us in their religious belief, and I have to thank them also for the many acts of charity and the many ways in which they have aided us. If my days amongst you have been pleasant, if they have been years of quietness, years of pleasure, it is owing to the kindness that I have experienced, not alone from my own people, but from the people of every denomination in town, and I bear testimony to the great regard for each other's belief that has always been manifest in this town, and I hope such feelings may continue with greater force in the future. We are all here citizens of one common country, and it should be the duty of all citizens to prove all kindly feelings towards another, and I bear testimony to the people of many other towns that I have been acquainted with, that the people of this town have always worked in harmony; there have been no religious discords, and I may say that you are an example to the people of the whole Dominion, and I thank you now most sincerely for the generous purse with which you have presented me—two years ago when celebrating my silver jubilee, and now on the eve of my departure from among you. I may say that I shall never forget the kindness, good will and charity that I have experienced, not alone from my own people, but from the other congregations of Barrie as well, and you may be sure that I shall never forget you, and that I shall pray that God may bless you both spiritually and temporally, and, although separated from one another for the time, we shall all meet again at the last.

The scene was a most touching one. The pastor and people mingled their tears of regret on the occasion of the severance of the relations of nearly a score of years. The church was crowded, all denominations being represented in the vast congregation.

His Lordship-elect goes into retreat for a week, and will arrive in town, it is expected, on Tuesday, April 30th, and his consecration will take place on the following morning. It is expected that ten bishops will be present on the occasion.

Easter Vestry Meetings.

The Annual Vestry Meetings of St. John's and St. Luke's

The Easter Vestries of St. John's and St. Luke's churches were held Monday night.

The meeting of St. John's was held in the school room, and was not only largely attended but an unusual amount of interest was taken in the proceedings and the most pleasant harmony prevailed throughout the meeting.

The venerable Rector, Rev. Mr. Beck, occupied the chair and his presence was a most agreeable sight to those of the meeting who have for years been accustomed to his presence on such occasions, and who have for years sat under his faithful ministry. It is to be regretted however that his strength is not yet equal to any active work.

After routine, the following officials were elected the, Church wardens as a practical recognition of their efficient and faithful services, having been unanimously re-elected.

RECTOR'S CHURCHWARDEN—Dr. Burnham.

PEOPLE'S CHURCHWARDEN—Mr. C. H. Sheffield.

SIDESMEN—Messrs. H. Long, Jos. Mills, William English and H. T. Everett.

LAY DELEGATES TO SYNOD—Mr. Judge Weller, Dr. Halliday and Mr. J. E. Belcher.

FINANCE COMMITTEE — Messrs. Judge Weller, Dr. Boucher, G. A. Smith, R. A. Morrow, A. P. Poussette and Dr. Halliday.

At this stage the Rector vacated the chair, but previous to his doing so Mr. Judge Weller referred in touching terms to the Rector's past connection with St. John's and bore testimony to the evidence of the deep interest he (the Rector) had ever and still manifested in its welfare. Rev. Mr. Beck's emotions were too deeply touched to permit him to reply, and, as he retired, the meeting rose to its feet in token of respect.

Dr. Burnham took the chair, and

Rev. Mr. Clementi moved, seconded by Mr. Judge Weller,—That Rev. J. C. Davidson be engaged as curate-in-charge and Rev. C. B. Kenrick as assistant curate, the arrangement terminable at the end of any year, by six months' notice on either part. He referred, in warm terms of commendation, to the services of these reverend gentlemen and to their fitness for the position. He believed their services were not only well pleasing to the congregation, but also to the the great Head of the Church.

Mr. Judge Weller endorsed Mr. Clementi's remarks, and he felt that all the congregation would join him in the expression of the wish that they might remain. They were, he thought, doing a great deal of good and arousing in the church a degree of activity, not before apparent. The church, in all its interests, was advancing under the ministrations of these two devoted and energetic young men.

The resolution was carried unanimously.

Mr. W. H. Bedden moved, seconded by Dr. Halliday, that Mr. Seward, organist, be re-engaged at the same salary as he formerly received. The mover and several others bore cordial testimony to the excellent and satisfactory nature of Mr. Seward's services, and the motion was unanimously adopted, with applause.

Resolutions expressing the hearty thanks of the meeting were passed to Mr. James Stevenson, M.P., for the present of handsome gas standards for the new pulpit, and to Mr. T. G. Hazlitt for a rebate of interest, equivalent to a substantial contribution.

The meeting then adjourned for a fortnight, when the financial statement will be considered.

St. Luke's, Ashburnham.

The annual vestry meeting of St. Luke's church was held Monday evening in the Sunday school room. The attendance was very good and perfect unanimity characterized the whole proceedings. The Churchwardens read their annual report which showed a small deficit, but this was more than counterbalanced by the payment of some two or three amounts which should have been otherwise provided for; so that on the whole the financial showing was very satisfactory. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—

CHURCHWARDENS.—Messrs. John Burnham and H. T. Strickland.

ASSISTANT CHURCHWARDENS.—Messrs. H. C. Rogers and R. Meade.

SIDESMEN.—Messrs. W. G. Bale and F. Adams.

LAY DELEGATES TO SYNOD.—Messrs. H. T. Strickland, H. C. Rogers and R. Meade.

FINANCE COMMITTEE.—Messrs. E. A. Peak, R. Meade, J. J. Rooney, F. Adams, R. B. Hurt, G. W. Bale, R. B. Rogers, W. Muckleston, H. T. Strickland and John Burnham, Misses Burritt, Mills and Burnett, and Mrs. Jenkens, Mrs. Orde, Mrs. Macfarlane Wilson and Mrs. J. Heap, the first named to be chairman of committee.

Their Object.

The enterprising proprietors of the Peterborough Business College are determined to make this institution the most efficient in the Dominion. With this object in view, they have taken a lease of the roller rink from Mayor Stevenson and are having it fitted up in the most approved style. They are also adding to their staff a penman who has very few equals in his art, so that the staff will, without doubt, be more capable than that of any other Canadian College. Every young man and woman who wishes to get a thorough business training should take a course at this college and fit themselves for lucrative positions. dw

THE ATTRACTION AT TURNBULL'S.

MILLINERY.—No wonder flowers hold so high a place in Millinery Trimmings—as real to the eye as if raised by the hand of Nature. Everything, from the Daisy that joins the sod, to the Rose that blushes under glass. A gingle of Untrimmed Hats and Bonnets, stacks of Straws every shape you would think to eat for, and designs you would never dream of. Milans, Fancy Straws, Lace, both materials mixed, Chips, Leghorns. Novelties of all kinds; and this is a season of Novelties.

KID GLOVES—Have tumbled into a line of tan. Kid Gloves, stitched backs, we can sell for 35c. a pair; some people can buy them by the ½ doz. Come early if you want this Bargain. We are in a shape to sell a great number of women's Silk and Taffetas Gloves, in the next few days. Our Gloves always fit, so they say. Assortment, quality, price—the tandem team will give their go!

Such a range of Styles of Hosiery is scarcely ever seen in one place. Sizes to fit everybody.

SASH RIBBONS—In handsome Brocades, at 30c. a yard.

DRESS GOODS.—New shades of Henrietta Cloths to fill up the gap. The quick sales of the past few weeks have been making SMOKE GREY, like the silver sheen of the atmosphere of a light, grey day by the sea. SUEZ GREEN. Why Suez? Only that the oddity of the name may mentally fit the color—the color so beautiful in combination with other colors; OLD ROSE—the name suggests the fading leaf; lost beauty, expired fragrance—and yet it stands for a tinting shade of red so delicate that to call it red would be an insult. The colors are primary, of course. All told, we have about thirty-six good shades of Dress Goods to select from, in materials from 10c. to $1.00 a yard. New girdles and trimmings to match,

Fashion is always turning a new corner, and we with it. This spring is is f. ashionable for men to wear Striped Suitings. We have them in good variety, and will save you money in every suit you buy.

Fresh styles of New York Domestic Patterns to hand. Every lady can have a new Fashion Sheet that asks for it.

25 REASONS FOR DRINKING ROYAL DANDELION COFFEE

Some drink because they are hungry,
And some because they're dry,
Some drink to keep them in good health,
And some that they may thrive.

Some drink because they are too hot,
And some because they're too cold,
Some drink to strengthen them when young,
And some when they are old.

Some drink to keep them wide awake,
And some that they may sleep,
Some drink because they merry are,
And some because they weep.

Some drink when they do money gain,
And some because of loss;
Some drink when they are pleased,
And some when they are cross.

Some drink when they are hard at work,
And some when they do play;
Some think it right to drink at night,
While others drink by day.

Some drink for sake of company,
While others drink on the sly;
And many drink but never think,
About the reason why.

Some say they drink for pleasure,
And some they drink for pain,
Some say 'tis good, some very bad,
But never once refrain.

Yet all mustown the proverb true:
"When true's hot to strike it"—
I've just found out the reason why—
All drink because they like it!

"Oh that some power the gift would gie us,

Thus sighed old Scotia's Bard in vain,
For what he could not then attain.
But had he lived in this fair town
He had no cause to sigh or frown,
For if he walked on Hunter street,
An eager throng he'd surely meet,
With faces bright as summer light,
All coming from one-fifty-eight.
Where photos always are in view,
Which are to life so very true,
That each one who has seen them there,
Does to his comrades all declare,
"SPROULE is the very man can gie us,

FOSTER DISCHARGED

QUEEN vs. FOSTER, uttering a forged receipt, was next tried. The particulars of this case are well known to the readers of the EXAMINER, as it has been through the police court. Foster, it will be remembered, was an agent of the Singer Sewing Machine Company, and it was alleged forged or caused to be forged the name of Mrs Arthur Armstrong of Millbrook, a sister of the prisoner, to a receipt for a sewing machine. The evidence went to show that Jemima Mabbett, a particular female friend of Foster, had signed the name, and Foster had passed the receipt into the office, collecting commission therefor.

The same witnesses were examined as at the police court. Mr. Riddell, Q.C., and Mr. R. E. Wood, C.C.A., conducted the prosecution; Messrs. Donnistoun & Stevenson defended the prisoner.

The defence argued that no case had been made out under the indictment, and His Lordship agreeing the case was dismissed without going to the jury.

His LORDSHIP addressed the prisoner, saying that there was no doubt that he had uttered the forgery knowing it to be such, though he had not the hardihood to sign the paper himself, but got a woman whom he was very intimate with to do it for him. He, however, warned the prisoner that, but for the slight amount involved, he would permit the prosecution to arraign him on a charge of obtaining money under false pretences. But he did not think it worth while to stand the expense of another trial, and he hoped that the fact that he had been in the dock charged with such an offence would act as a warning against him ever doing anything of the kind.

THE MILBURN FORGERY CHARGE.

The details of this case and the preliminary evidence were so recently published in the EXAMINER that it is only necessary to state that Victor Millburn attempted to utter a cheque for $100 to which the name of T. Cavanagh had been forged. The trial resulted in a verdict of guilty, with a strong recommendation to mercy. Mr. Edwards defended the prisoner.

COONS VS. SCOLLARD.

An action of trespass with damages laid at $1,000. It appears that the plaintiff Coons got informal and unauthorized possession of a farm of defendant Scollard in Eanismore. He was summarily ejected and hence the suit, which resulted in a verdict for defendant with costs.

THE CARTER PIANO CASE

was called, and Charles Chapman was arraigned on three counts—with unlawfully removing a piano under lawful seizure; with having stolen a piano the property of Leon Potvin, and with stealing a piano the property of John Hall (the landlord). Mr. Riddell, Q.C., represented the Crown; and Mr. Poussette, Q.C., Mr. Hall, the private prosecutor; and Mr. E. B. Edwards, the accused. The case was dismissed by His Lordship.

Professional Detectives.

Detectives are oftener over than underrated. The detective business is like any other calling. It requires application and constant push and energy. It is not so much keenness as bull dog tenacity that goes far toward making the successful detective. The day has long since passed when a detective is regarded as a sort of supernatural being, with an all-seeing eye, from whom it is impossible for the culprit to escape. The fact of the matter is, that the commission of crime, nowadays, rarely goes unpunished owing in a great measure to the system employed in tracing criminals and the joint action of the authorities all over the country, or, one might say, the world. Crime generally leaves its stain somewhere, and give any faithful officer a clew and he will, in the majority of cases, get his man. Where there is nothing to start on it is different. But the chief requisite is industry and untiring effort to succeed. Genius can be utilized, but hard work accomplishes most.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Let the Water Circulate.

Many devices are suggested by plumbers for guarding against the danger of house traps being emptied by evaporation or siphonage while the houses are closed for the summer, and thus allowing the escape of noxious gases into the dwelling. Some go as far as to say that there is no safety short of disconnecting the fixtures and securely closing the ends of the pipes. Others recommend shutting the water off and filling the closets and traps with oil or glycerine, while still others favor an adjustment of the valves so that there will be a continual dripping of water. One of the most sensible suggestions we have seen is made by The American Artisan, which is that where a house is to remain closed for some time the best plan is to arrange for some one to go into the house once a week or so, let the water circulate throughout the house, and take a look around to see that all is right.—Boston Budget.

We Are the Saints.

Among a multitude of sage utterances of the Bible, this one deserves constant attention: "I say to every man that is among you, not to think more highly of himself than he ought to think." It is wonderful what a mighty agent self is, estimated by its own standard. It is the hero of every exploit, the center of every event, the oracle of all opinions. It interprets the purpose of the universe. We are reminded of the two resolutions the settlers in New England are said to have passed when they landed: "Resolved, first, that God gave the earth to the saints. Resolved, secondly, that we are the saints;" and they kicked out the Indians.

The chances are as a hundred to one that you are not half as great nor nearly as important as you think you are. Then reduce yourself to your proper dimensions. Don't leave that for others to do.—Clergyman in St. Louis Republic.

The Cat Joined In.

A cat was found in the organ during the services that were being held in the Masonic home at Broad street and Germantown avenue. Gen. Wagner presided at the organ, and while the hymns were being sung the pussy joined in with more vigor than harmony. When the music ceased the cat took a rest also. While the Scriptures were being read the cat broke forth again in a volley of music, her voice pitched in C sharp, and services had to be suspended while Gen. Wagner served a writ of ejectment on the feline. It was supposed to have been locked in the organ since Sunday last, and was very much emaciated.—Philadelphia Record.

Professor Henry says on the much vexed question of cooked, wet or dry feed for hogs: "In conducting experiments with cooked and uncooked feed, it was found that a hog would eat more uncooked feed than cooked, and in these experiments we note that he ate more wet feed than dry feed. Since we desire him to eat the maximum quantity per day, it would seem that in some cases at least wet feed is superior to cooked feed as the case [illegible] dry feed on the other. [illegible]

AT THE STAMP WINDOW.

QUEER STUDIES IN HUMAN NATURE AT THE POSTOFFICE.

Those Who Know What They Want and Those Who Don't—Requisites Which Belong Properly to the Depot—Bother Over the Special Delivery Stamp.

There is a broad and fertile field in the postoffice for those who are given to making character studies. A man has only to stand near one of the stamp windows for a few minutes to see more odd specimens of man perhaps than are to be found in any other one place in the city, and that means in the country. One has only to watch the hurrying, nervous, pushing line of people rushing in one door and out another to realize what a peculiar world this is. There is the dapper young lawyer's clerk. He knows what he wants and how to get it with the least trouble. He falls into line, impatiently tapping his foot until his turn comes. Then he puts down a dollar, says shortly "Fifty twos," snatches up his stamps and darts through the crowd. Behind him, perhaps, is an old, bent, gray haired man, dressed in a jumper and a pair of overalls. He asks for one stamp, and when this is laid down before him on the thick pane of glass, he goes down into his pocket and pulls forth a greasy, dilapidated looking leather wallet. He hunts around in this for a couple of pennies, and finally, when he has found them, takes his stamp and goes off to the side carefully to paste it on the letter.

FOOD FOR THE WOMAN HATER.

The office boy comes in like a flash, buys a great roll of the little green, hideous things, tears it rapidly into strips, and, skillfully running his tongue along the under side of them, slaps them on to a pile of letters, tearing each one from the strip with a quick, ripping sound. Some girl hovers on the outskirts of the crowd for a while, and then, watching for a clear field, goes up to the window. "When does the next train leave for Farmington?" she asks.

"Don't know; this is a stamp window."

She blushes and begins to stammer. "Couldn't you find out for me?"

"Time table over on the wall," gruffly; and she goes over to look at the schedule, which no living man could figure out. Meanwhile the short man, in a silk hat, with large glasses across his nose, has been snorting and fussing about "women." He makes his purchase, follows her over to the wall, and, casting a withering look at her, grunts out, "Hum!" He slams the door in a disgusted manner behind him, still muttering about "women."

In ten minutes the girl comes back to the window and says timidly: "I can't find Farmington."

"Well, that ain't my fault, is it?" says the man sharply, peering over the glass at her. She flees in dismay.

And so they come and go, men, women and children, not more than half of them knowing how to buy stamps, and one slow one delaying a dozen more business like and energetic people. The reporter asked the stamp clerk to tell him some of the more amusing experiences he went through in the course of a week.

AN ODD LITTLE MAN.

"A week," he said grimly; "I couldn't tell you all that happened in a day. Did you notice that little shuffling man, whose head scarcely comes up to the window? He never comes here less than six times a day and he never buys more than one stamp at a time. I asked him once why he did not get twenty or thirty in a lot. 'Oh,' he said, with a shrewd air, 'people like to borrow them too much.' He is the queerest one of all the queer ones who come here. His office is several blocks away from the postoffice, and yet he will hobble down here again and again in a day rather than take more than one stamp. I have tried to get him to buy more, but he won't think of such a thing. He always comes to my window. I have seen him go to the end of a line of ten or twenty before my window when there were not five at the next one. If I happen to be away at dinner or off duty when he wants a stamp, he goes out and comes in again every minute or two until I return. He is a queer one, he is.

"Then," he went on, "there is the special delivery stamp. That makes a good deal of trouble. Only one man in ten can remember the name of it. I have had it called the 'hurry up' stamp, the 'get there' stamp, the 'quick,' 'rush,' 'special,' 'extra' stamp, and a dozen other names, but seldom the right one, while about twenty times a day some funny man comes in and asks with a big grin for a 'P. D. Q.' stamp. I have got so tired of that stale old joke that I always pretend not to know what he means. I can stand anything but that. Oh, yes, this is a good place to see strange people, but it isn't worth your while to listen to me. Just stand here and watch them for yourself."—New York Tribune.

Returned for Their Tails.

The following story illustrates how much mice love their tails: In Norwich, Conn., the other night a young lady set a mouse trap in her parlor—a trap that was like a diminutive railroad round house, with arched doorways, and with a delicate little loop of steel under each doorsill to fly up and catch a mouse by the muzzle. The steel nooses snapped busily all night, and next morning the lady found five mice clinging in five of the inhospitable doorways, and, what was very mysterious to her, three long mouse tails hanging from the three other entrances. She puzzled her head long over the inscrutable problem. Why did three mice visit her trap over night and deliberately leave their tails behind them? But there was no answer to it. A very bright idea, however, flashed into her mind, and she set her trap again. Verily, the three tailless mice came back to recover their tails, and in the gray dawn of the following day the young lady found three tailless mice dangling from the trap.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

A Mountain in Motion.

A tremendous snow slide recently came down the northern face of Castle Peak, sweeping everything before it. Its track can be plainly seen from a point on Mount Scowden high enough to overlook the intervening ridge. Judging from the furrow on the side of the mountain it must have been a terrific affair. Starting near the summit, it multiplied in volume, taking rocks and earth to the depth of many feet. At the timber line it cut a swath a hundred yards wide, and left not a tree standing for half a mile along the base of the peak. Where it finally stopped a young mountain of huge bowlders, earth and shattered trunks of trees, many of them three and four feet in diameter, blocks a deep ravine.—Territorial Enterprise.

Future of the Engine.

The present efficiency of the best non-condensing engines is probably not greater than at the rate of two and a half pounds of coal an hour a horse power, and of a good condensing engine about two pounds of coal an hour a horse power, or not materially different from James Watt's engines of fifty years ago.

It is my opinion that with our present knowledge of machinery a steam engine can be built that will produce a horse power with three-quarters of a pound of coal an hour, if of sufficient size to reduce the percentage of loss by radiation to a minimum. Under those circumstances your fuel expenses would be less than one cent of what it now is.

Eating by the Alphabet.

"Have you got anything here beginning with 'h' that's good to eat?" inquired a new customer in a well known local delicacy market, last Tuesday.

"How will pickled kidneys answer?" replied the clerk, after a moment's thought.

"First rate. Give me a dozen cans. The kitten's life is saved," exclaimed the strange patron, with enthusiasm.

"I told my wife," he continued, "that if I failed to send home a kangaroo, dead or alive, before 2 o'clock, I should expect to find the kitten served up for supper in the latest Chinese style. But your happy thought saved her.

"You see we all got tired eating the same things day after day, and so last month we agreed that during December we would begin and eat up (or rather down) the alphabet, taking one letter a day, with bread, potatoes, tea and coffee thrown in as staples.

"So Dec. 1 we inaugurated the dietary system with a bill of fare consisting of apples in many forms, apricots pickled, asparagus, almonds and the staples. The next day's menu was beef, beets, beans, biscuits, buttermilk, bacon and bon bons.

"The following day we feasted on chicken, codfish balls, clams, celery, cucumbers (fifty cents each), crabs, cheese, cake, crackers, crullers, carrots, canned currants, canned cherries, citrons, cider, catsup and candy. And so it has gone on.

"The fifth day would have been a fast day had it not been for eggs, but we made an Easter of it. Yesterday we dined, breakfasted and supped chiefly on jellies. Today your kidney suggestion saves us from starvation, while to-morrow we will grow fat on liver, lamb, lobster, lettuce, etc.

"A queer thing about our new food departure is the number of things it has led us to put in our mouths which we never thought of before."—Buffalo Express.

Thread Spools.

Among the peculiar industries which flourish in western Maine is the making of thread spools. They are cut from smooth, white birch timber—a wood which works easily—by various kinds of improved machines. There are numerous mills throughout the lumbering region, where the birch is sawed into strips about four feet long and from one to two inches in width and thickness. These strips then go to the spool factories, to be converted into spools. The processes they are put through are numerous, and one of them, the method of polishing them, is quite interesting. A barrel is filled nearly full of them and then revolved by means of machinery and belting until the spools are worn smooth by rubbing one against another. Spool manufacturing is the most important industry in several of the villages of Oxford county, and will doubtless continue so until the supply of white birch timber is exhausted. The manufacture of shoe pegs is another peculiar Maine industry, though shared in to some extent by other New England states. These are cut from maple and white birch by machinery, and are worth at the factory from thirty-five to ninety-five cents a bushel. The compressing of sawdust is also a flourishing business in Bangor in that state. There is a firm there styling itself a "compress company," who convert sawdust and shavings into solid bales by compression, which finds ready sale in the large eastern cities.—Timberman.

Horsemanship of Mexican Boys.

One of the finest and most inspiriting sights of small town life in Mexico is the horsemanship of the boys from 8 to 17—perfect young Centaurs, as much at home in the saddle as Arabs. How they go thundering through the streets, what marvelously short turns they make, and how instantaneously they come to a short, sharp stop in a headlong gallop! These country towns of Mexico are the nurseries, so to speak, of the national cavalry, an arm of the service in which Mexico excels. The finest sight in the world, one on which the gods must look down approvingly, is a high spirited lad astride a good horse. A Mexican boy takes to the back of a horse as a Cape Cod boy does to a boat. At no age is a rider bolder than in that enchanted period of existence lying between childhood and manhood.

A Mexican lad, in default of a saddle, will enjoy himself hugely bareback. He early learns to use the rope or riata, and, beginning with lassoing dogs and pigs, he advances to mules and cows, and finally essays the roping of a lively bull. So expert do they become that in war they frequently drag their enemies from their saddles by a skillful cast of the rope. Some of my younger friends here seem to me to live on horseback. They come home at noontime to snatch a bite, as most boys will, but off they are again on their tireless horses. They have the good fortune to live in a country which enjoys a climate which makes out-of-door life possible all the year round, and the country lad, continually on horseback, grows up straight, robust and daring.—Boston Herald Mexican Letter.

Hunting Lobsters.

For a seaside sport the visitors to a Cuban watering place have devised the safe pursuit of lobsters. The author of "The Pearl of the Antilles" describes the chase:

For this sport a big barge is secured, and after having been furnished with carpets and rugs for the ladies' accommodation we proceed to navigate the shores and creeks of the harbor. Three or four black fishermen accompany us and bear long torches of wood, by the light of which the ground beneath the shallow water is visible.

Our prey is secured by throwing a net, in the meshes of which the lobster becomes entangled; but should this prove ineffectual a long pole forked at one end is thrust over the creature's back, and as he struggles to free himself from the pronged embrace a nimble negro dives into the water and captures him alive.

Great excitement prevails when a lobster comes on board and bounds among our crew and passengers.—Youth's Companion.

Novel Defense and Verdict.

An Alabama man, charged with stealing a calf, made the following statement: "I was always teached to be honest, an' most always have been, but when I seed that calf I caved. I never wanted a calf so bad in all my life, an' you all know that when a man wants a calf he wants him." The jury returned the following verdict: "We, this jury, air satisfied that Steve stole that calf, but, as the feller that owned the animal is considerable of a slouch, we agree to clear Steve an' make the owner pay the costs."—San Francisco Argonaut.

To Pacific by Rail.

The Russian government proposes to build the longest railroad in the world. It will extend from St. Petersburg to the Pacific ocean, a distance of 7,000 miles. About one-fourth of the line has already been constructed. It has been suggested that a road be built up the Alaska coast to meet it, and that Behring straits be bridged by means of the many islands it contains. Stranger things have happened, and we may yet go from New York to Paris by rail.—Leadville Democrat.

A Horse Problem.

Readers of The Chicago Journal are puzzling their head over this problem: A sells B a horse for $60, and afterward buys it back for $70, and then sells it to C for $100. How much does A make by the two sales? The original cost of the horse does not enter into the computation.

BREACH OF PROMISE CASE.

Continuation of the Evidence in an Interesting Case.

Following is the continuation of the evidence of Mrs. Reynolds in the breach of promise suit yesterday:—

Mr. Watson.—Did he use endearing terms when he asked you that?

Yes, he put out his arms and wanted to take me in his arms.

What did he say to you?

He said, "come to me my dear."

Mrs. Reynolds stayed right where she was, however, and the courtship went no further on that occasion. Next he called on Mrs. Reynolds at her own home, in one half of which live a family by the name of Veal, who work the farm. On that occasion he shook hands with Mrs. Reynolds and bent over to kiss her. She turned away, and he said if she did not care for him as much as his money it would not do. He talked with her about his affairs and wanted her to meet him at Peterborough. He stayed an hour or an hour and a half, but nothing was said about marriage. He next called a week or so afterwards, and again he talked about Clara, saying that one Hunter was going with her and he wanted them to be married so he could marry himself. The visits continued, some ten or eleven in all being made. In December Mrs. Reynolds at last agreed to marry Mr. Jamieson, and they gave Clara until spring to be married and get out of the way. She no longer resisted the kisses of her aged suitor, and allowed herself to be pulled down and sit on his knee with his arms about her. These little tokens of affection continued with every visit, but in March there was a quarrel. Mr. Jamieson said he did not think he could get married, as Clara was not to be married in the spring and he could not take a wife till she was disposed of. Mrs. Reynolds was vexed and declared that that was not their agreement, but he was to marry her anyway. He replied that he had never promised to marry her, nor ever asked her. He had kissed her as usual, but she got angry and ordered him out of the house. He pleaded to be allowed to come back, but she threatened to take the law for it. Finally they made up again in June, and agreed to get married after Clara was made happy with the man of her choice, but Mrs. Reynolds would not permit him to call on her in the meantime, as it might give rise to gossip; the understanding being that he was to call on her and marry her as soon as Clara was married. This occurred last fall, but the defendant never came around, and, instead, married Miss Argue, "an oldish maid," the plaintiff said. Mrs. Reynolds said she had become attached to him and felt very vexed over his fraud. She had made preparations for it by getting a new dress, and was informed that Mr. Jamieson had bought a new suit, which he was to have got made up in Peterborough for $7, but had it done elsewhere for $6.

SHE WANTED A ROFUS.

Mr Osler's cross-examination created much amusement. Mrs. Reynolds admitted that she had been a party in a breach of promise case before her marriage with her late husband, but it had never come to trial. She did not want to marry again, but she yielded to Mr. Jamieson's persuasions. The cross-examination as to the exact number of kisses and the number of times she sat on his knee, which Mr. Osler termed the invoice of courtship, was very amusing. Then to find out what discount she placed on her affianced husband, Mr. Osler asked her if she would take him as he was. If he was poor would she take him as a man? No. With $1000 thrown in? Just a thousand dollars, asked the witness? No she would not take him with $1,000 thrown in, nor with $2,000, $3,000 nor even $5,000. Then Mr. Osler asked her if $10,000 would do, remembering his age, his stiff knee and the fact that he only shaved once a week, which made kissing unpleasant. After hesitating, she said $10,000 would do. She liked no man better than him, but she would not take him without the money. In the examination she had stated that she was at liberty to refuse Jamieson until Clara got married; and until then she was under no binding engagement to marry him. Pressed for an answer, were these statements true or false, the witness said she may have said it but she didn't mean it; she expected to marry him; she couldn't say it was untrue; she supposed it was true; but she did not understand it when she said it, and no amount of cross-questioning could force her to say whether it was true or false. No letters passed between them until the day after Jamieson had married again, when she got a neighbor to write for her the following "love letter":—

CAVAN, Dec. 5, 1888.

MR. JAMIESON:

DEAR SIR,—I want you to come up to my house on Monday, Dec. 10th, and settle with me before I take further proceedings, as you came to my house on a fraud.

MRS. S. J. REYNOLDS.

Mrs. Reynolds said she had entered into the contract so as to get a comfortable home. There was a doubt as to when the engagement actually took place, whether in October, November or December of 1885. She said further that on his fourth or fifth visit Mr. Jamieson put his hand upon her knee, and she threatened to put him out. He said he would send a man with some money for her if he died before spring.

THE WIDOWER'S GARRULOUS GO-BETWEEN.

Mrs. Widdis, next called. Lived in Cavan; saw Mr. Jamieson at his own place; he showed me all through the house. Said he was lonely and had been thinking about Mrs. Reynolds; he had admired her while her former husband was living. Asked witness to go and ask her to marry him. This was about the latter part of September. Saw Mrs. Reynolds the same night; delivered the message. She said she had decided not to get married; I urged her to think of it. Saw Mr. Jamieson at show; he was looking for Mrs. Reynolds, and I helped him. The witness corroborated Mrs. Reynold's evidence as to the buggy interview. Mr. Jamieson said he would take Mrs. Reynolds to Peterborough and marry her.

To Mr. OSLER—Never had any unkindly feeling towards Mr. Jamieson; never threatened to Mr. Barr to scald him with hot water. He said out my father's farm, but I had no hard feelings. Never threatened to get Mrs. Reynolds to bring an action against defendant.

The court adjourned for lunch, and upon resuming Mrs. Agnes Leakey, mother of Mrs. Widdis, was first called. She said that the defendant Jamieson had come to her for advice, saying he believed he would marry Mrs. Reynolds, Miss. Leakey, however, refrained from giving any advice. In the cross-examination she denied that she had ever threatened to scald Mr. Jamieson, but had once picked up a stone. There had been trouble between them over a law-suit.

A KEY HOLE WITNESS.

Mrs. VEALS, who lived in the other part of Mrs. Reynolds' house, testified to the frequent visits of Mr. Jamieson to Mrs. Reynolds'. On one occasion in February or March of 1888 he told her he would have to marry Mrs. Reynolds; he would have to put Clara out and get "his own poor dear" home. She also saw Mr. Jamieson kissing Mrs. Reynolds several times. She was in her own kitchen at the time, and said she was suspicious of what she saw and heard, and out of curiosity peaked through the key-hole into Mrs. Reynolds' part and saw them kissing. He stayed there for the rest night and afterwards took her for a drive. The day after Jamieson was married witness saw him about the sale of some wood, and he said he would not dare come out there for the (meaning Mrs. Reynolds) would put him out, and said he was sorry he had made her angry.

Mr. Osler's cross-examination was about the kissing she saw through the key-hole, which she said was very loud once, of the explosive kind. She would see him embrace; could look through the key-hole. He kissed her three times on coming or going.

This concluded the evidence for the prosecution. Mr. Osler argued that no case had been made out, that the contract had been cancelled by Mrs. Reynolds' own action in ordering the defendant out of the house. His Lordship concurred in this view, and said there was no binding removal of the engagement, though there seemed to be an understanding to that effect on the part of the plaintiff. He held that the defendant had been constructed from all blame in the matter, and dismissed the case without letting it go to the jury.

PIMPLES TO SCROFULA

A Positive Cure for Every Skin, Scalp, and Blood Disease, Except Ichthyosis.

Fourteen 8 years—Blood, arms and breast a solid scab—Body covered with sores—Doctors and medicines fail—Cured by Cuticura Remedies at a cost of $5.75

I have used the CUTICURA REMEDIES with best results. I used 2 bottles of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, three boxes of CUTICURA, and one cake of CUTICURA SOAP, and am cured of a terrible skin and scalp disease known as psoriasis. I had it for 8 years. It would be better and worse at times. Sometimes my head would be a solid scab and was at the time I began the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. My arms were covered with scabs from my elbows to shoulders, my breast was almost covered with scab and my back covered with one. I suffered all of the time and could get no relief, and used many different medicines without effect. My case was hereditary, and I began to think incurable, but it began to heal from the first application of CUTICURA. ARCHER RUSSELL, Dresher, Ohio

Skin Disease 6 Years Cured.

I am thankful to say that I have used the CUTICURA REMEDIES for about eight months with great success and consider myself entirely cured of salt rheum, from which I have suffered for six years. I tried a number of medicines and two of the best down in the country, but found nothing that would effect a cure until I used your remedies.

During the past month our Store has been undergoing extensive alterations, and now with pardonable pride, we have much pleasure in announcing that the Store is one of the Finest in Canada. Our aim has been to clothe a man or boy from head to foot, and we have been adding department after department until we have reached the goal of our ambition. Our last Great Department, namely, HATS and CAPS, is now open, and we are showing the Latest Styles from London, New York and Paris. We will not enlarge on the prices these Goods will be sold at, suffice to say,—they will simply astonish our patrons. Remember our Great HAT and CAP DEPARTMENT is now open.

A WORD ABOUT OUR CLOTHING DEPARTMENT, THIS SPRING:

Never in the history of the trade has such an Array of Fine Clothing been placed before a buying public. Our Stock this Spring embraces all the LATEST DESIGNS and PATTERNS, and as they were made under our own special supervision, the workmanship is of a SUPERIOR quality. Notwithstanding all this our prices will be found LOWER than ever. When we came to you as the Revolutionizers of the Clothing Trade, we promised you then that we would benefit the public, and now after a long trial have we kept our word? If so, let that be our best guarantee to the public, that we deal honestly and squarely with them in the future. We are not so egotistical as to believe that we please every one, (our Divine Master when on earth did not please everyone) still to those who we did not please, as well as those we did please, we sincerely return thanks for past patronage. As we are not infallible we are prone to make mistakes and our judgment like any human being's may err in buying. Still we try to avoid errors, as much as possible, and therefore it is our proud boast when anyone has a greviance we never refused to make it right when brought to our notice. This spring we are going to REDOUBLE OUR ENERGIES, and by keeping GOOD GOODS, NICE GOODS, SQUARE DEALING, and EXTREMELY LOW PRICES, we hope to merit a Continuance of your Generous Patronage.

MUNCASTER'S

NEVADA ROAD AGENTS.

A STORY OF THE EARLY DAYS OF STAGING OUT WEST.

A Millionaire's Son Tipped by a Wheel Mark on an Overcoat—A Wild Ride with Bullets—Shipping Bullion in a Cask of Molasses for Safety.

"Stage robbing was almost a legitimate business in early days," said an old Comstocker.

"The express company lost a great deal of money in that way, and at last James Gannon was sent up to Virginia to break up the business. He was a shrewd man, and he devised more schemes for outwitting the road agents than you ever heard of. He sent treasure in sacks of potatoes, which were loaded on prairie schooners, and even the drivers never suspected that they were carrying anything more valuable than potatoes. I have known him to drop a bar of bullion into a cask of molasses and send it through safely, when he knew the agents were watching for it. It was Gannon who thought of sending shotgun messengers on the stages, and he made them carry their guns with the muzzles resting on their toes, so that they didn't dare to fall asleep. He broke up stage robbing as a branch of the general merchandise business by making it too risky.

A RECKLESS RIDE.

"While I was keeping a saloon in Virginia City, Clem Lee and three other fellows, whose names have slipped my memory, came into the camp and started a big faro game close to my place. They had $80,000 in the drawer, and I think they had got hold of the coin by holding up a stage. They did a big business and were making plenty of money.

"It was the custom then to close up the games at 12 o'clock on Sunday night. Clem and one of his partners came to me and asked me to mix them up two bottles of cocktails. He wanted them in champagne bottles and had the labels scratched off. I wondered what all that meant, and I found out later. I also noticed that Clem Lee had borrowed a light overcoat from Charlie Dexter.

"As soon as their place was closed, Clem and his partner mounted their horses on B street and rode out of town. Clem was riding a horse that he hired from the chief of police. All the animals were good, and as soon as they were out of town they had a chance to show their speed. The four horsemen spurred down the Geiger grade in the darkness at a terrific rate. If you have been over that road, you know what a gallop down the grade on a dark night means. It is a steep and winding road through the mountains. The turns are sharp and, where it runs through Dead Man's Gulch, a slip over the edge would send horse and rider to kingdom come in no time.

"The four gamblers flew over that road to Washoe faster than anybody ever went before, and made the thirty-four miles in less time than I would dare to tell. At Washoe they had four good horses staked out, and it did not take them long to shift saddles, try my cocktails, mount and start off again. They knew what they were after, and they did not miscalculate time or distance.

"In those days the stage companies had good stock, and when the Reno stage came along six horses were making it spin. Four men sprang into the road, and one of them shouted to the driver to stop. The driver could not pull up short, and the men had barely time to spring aside and avoid the wheels. Clem Lee leveled his revolver and fired, and one of the leaders fell dead. The other horses tumbled over the one that was down, and the stage was stopped, but not before a deputy sheriff on the box had pulled a gun and sent a ball through Clem's partner, Dick.

THE MARK ON CLEM'S COAT.

"The passengers were ordered out and ranged in line, the driver threw down the box, and while the plunder was being gathered up one of the robbers said to the disarmed deputy sheriff: 'I think we ought to kill you, my friend.' Clem Lee interfered and said: 'No; there's been enough bloodshed. Let him alone.' The stage was put to rights, everybody got aboard, and it was driven away, covered while in sight by the robbers' guns.

"The three gamblers buried their dead pal, but where they dug his grave nobody knows. Then they mounted their horses, rode at desperate speed back to Washoe, changed horses there and pushed on up the Geiger grade to Virginia City, where they arrived at 9 o'clock in the morning and immediately went to bed. They felt pretty safe, as nobody would suspect them of having made such a trip in so short a time. They could not have made it without a relay of horses, and even then they had to ride like devils.

"But there was one little circumstance that was insignificant in appearance and fatal in fact. When Clem Lee sprang aside to avoid the stage he raised his right arm and covered the driver with his pistol. The forward wheel of the coach grazed the under side of his arm and ground into the sleeve a streak of mud that nothing could wipe out. A lady in the coach was looking out of the window, and as the coach passed Lee she saw the mark made by the wheel on his coat sleeve.

"When she reached Virginia City, and, with the other passengers, was questioned by Gannon, she said: 'Look for a man with a wheel mark on the sleeve of his light overcoat. That mark was made by a rapidly turning wheel, and no brush ever was made that will take it out.'

"Gannon strolled up C street, and Charlie Dexter came along with his light overcoat on. Gannon glanced at his sleeve, saw the wheel mark and gathered him in. Of course, it didn't take Dexter long to remember who had his coat on the night of the robbery, and the three gamblers were captured and sent to prison. One of them (I shan't say which) was the son of a famous philanthropic millionaire of Washington."—New York Sun.

Our Vancouver Correspondent.

From Esquimault, B. C., Mrs. A. R. Cameron writes that being very much troubled with dyspepsia she tried two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters, which gave great relief, and hopes that others may be induced to try it also and receive like benefit.

The Blood is the Life.

And on its purity largely depends the general health. No one is free from danger, and nine-tenths of humanity actually do suffer from one form or other of impure blood. No one remedy has such a wide range of curative power as has Burdock Blood Bitters—that best of all blood purifiers and tonics.

Like Half a Dollar.

"About eight years ago my feet and legs became poisoned, and came out in great sores as large as a half dollar, which ate in almost to the bone. After the failure of other remedies, the sores were completely healed by one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters." Joseph Gosyon, Tupperville, Ont. 2w17d

For Five Years.

"For over five years we have used Hagyard's Yellow Oil in our family for coughs and colds, burns and sore throat, and our experience is so satisfactory that we would recommend the medicine to any person." Mrs. F. Sanderson, Bosworth, Ont. 2w17d

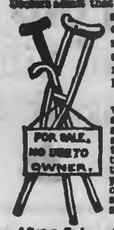
Rheumatism and Neuralgia

These twin diseases cause untold suffering. Doctors admit that they are difficult to cure—so do their patients. Paine's Celery Compound has permanently cured the worst cases of rheumatism and neuralgia—so say those who have used it.



"Having been troubled with rheumatism at the knee and foot for five years, I was almost unable to get around, and was very often confined to my bed for weeks at a time. I used only one bottle of Paine's Celery Compound, and was perfectly cured. I can now jump around, and feel as lively as a boy." FRANK CARGILL, Eureka, Nevada.

After suffering with chronic rheumatism for several years, I was induced to try Paine's Celery Compound, and after using two bottles found myself greatly improved. In fact, after using three bottles, have not felt any rheumatism. Can conscientiously recommend it. Yours very truly, Mrs. P. COWAN, Cowansville, P.Q.

Paine's Celery Compound

"I have been greatly afflicted with acute rheumatism, and could find no relief until I used Paine's Celery Compound. After using six bottles of this medicine I am now cured of rheumatic troubles."
SAMUEL HUTCHINSON, Sr. Cornish, N. H.

Effects Lasting Cures.

Paine's Celery Compound has performed many other cures as marvelous as these,—copies of letters sent to any address. Pleasant to take, does not disturb, but aids digestion, and entirely vegetable; a child can take it. What's the use of suffering longer with rheumatism or neuralgia?

Ye IDLERS AND STRANGERS

Of the George Street Church will Build a Tower.

And Already Over $1,200 of the Two Thousand Necessary Have Been Received—The Tea and Platform Meeting Last Night—Rev. Mr. Tovell's Original Rhyme—A Successful Entertainment.

The Idlers and Strangers of the George street church have inaugurated a movement that will it is confidently expected soon result in the erection of a handsome tower on the edifice. The tea and platform meeting Tuesday night was a gratifying success in every way. In the school room the tables were spread with a substantial supper that satisfied several hundred people. The room was gorgeously decorated, and illuminated by the soft glow of Chinese lanterns. The ladies are to be highly complimented upon the success of their department.

The platform meeting began shortly after eight o'clock in the body of the church. The executive committee in charge of this, as well as the general superintendence of the affairs, was composed of Rev. M. L. Pearson, pastor; Dr. Goldsmith, chairman; G. J. Early, secretary; Messrs. F. H. Dobbs, George McBurney, Ed. Green and E. E. Bowie. The Idlers and Strangers were so called because they consisted of those who had not previously taken an active part in church enterprises, and those who were comparative strangers in town. They are to be congratulated on the successful termination, or rather it might be said the commencement, of their labors.

THE PLATFORM MEETING.

The audience numbered about five hundred, and as they came up from the refreshment room below Messrs. Dingle and Miller played a duet, organ and cornet, which was rendered with spirit and precision. After an opening hymn, led by the choir, Rev. Mr. Davis offered up prayer. Rev. Mr. Pearson announced that their chairman, Mr. Geo. A. Cox, was unable to be present, but sent as an earnest of his regrets a check for $100 for the tower fund. Mr. Pearson further stated that he had received a telegram from Messrs. Crossley and Hunter, wishing the enterprise success and asking for the privilege of buying 20 bricks (50c. each) for the structure.

Mr. JAS. KENDRY was called to the chair, and in a few words explained the object of the meeting, which developed itself more fully later on. There were on the platform Rev. Messrs. I. Tovell, St. Catharines, formerly pastor of the George Street Church; Rev. Prof. Wallace, of Cobourg University, formerly of the Charlotte Street Church; Rev. Mr. Pearson and Rev. Mr. Davis.

Rev. Mr. DEWEY sang "The World is Growing Better," preluding the song with a few appropriate remarks. His solo was greeted with applause.

Rev. Prof. WALLACE was the next speaker. He stated the pleasure he felt at being able to stand in the edifice and rejoice with the people in their prosperity. He referred at length to the great revival which had just taken place, and from it drew the lesson that its results would be apparent in the increased conscientiousness of all classes of people—workingman and employer, business and professional men, statesmen and ministers alike. It would result, if the revival was genuine, in sweeping from the church everything that could not stand the test of absolute truth and purity. He hoped that within a year the tower would be built, a monument to the towering ambition, the aspiration of the people, as a consequence of the season of spiritual refreshing just over.

Mrs. Daly sang "Consider the Lilies" in her usual sweet voice, and Mrs. Saunders gave an admirable recitation.

Dr. Goldsmith then made a brief address, saying that he was not an idler though he was a stranger, and expressing his faith in the ultimate completion of the proposed tower.

Mr. Dewey then sang "Tell it over once Again," and Rev. Mr. Tovell began his address, which was composed of little pleasantries and complimentary allusions to those on the platform as well as the idlers and strangers. He said he would not make a speech, but would instead recite some original rhyme of his own, composed last Saturday in a "fit" of inspiration, absent the subject on which he had been asked to speak. He read the following:

The Tower of George Street Methodist Church.

A tower strong, of graceful form,
This sacred temple shall adorn;
A monument of toil and care,
And zeal, and love, and wisdom rare.

And sounding out o'er hill and dell,
May be the deep-toned, broad'ed bell;
Whose swinging shall the people wake,
From Auburn Mills to Little Lake.

Perchance there may from tower strong
Spring forth a tower, pointing long
To worlds above, where angels dwell—
The home of our Immanuel.

Within the tower there may be found
A space far up from dusty ground,
For praying bands whose hearts' desire
Shall wait the Pentecostal fire.

A winding way within shall be,
Where feet may climb, that man may see
The busy street and pleasant home,
And sweet retreats where lovers roam.

From summit high they'll cast fond eyes
On gardens, lawns and streams that rise,
On sweeping curves where steamers row,
And where the waters grandly flow.

And pleasant parks all dotted o'er
With trees well kept, that more and more
Their branches spreading, yield a shade
For playful child and watchful maid.

They'll look from lofty tower top
On fields romantic, whose golden crop
The farmers' barns with plenty swell,
And gladden urban homes as well.

They'll point with pride to where the poor
Are sheltered, fed and helped endure
Their sorrows keen, and taught to stand
By faith while on the border land.

Then northward turn to scan the ground
Where England's orphans may be found;
With prayer uplifted to the Son,
That God may bless each little one.

And on yet farther, near the shore,
Where broad Monabee doth pour
Her volume deep of waters blue,
The hospital stands forth to view.

Still northward, and the rattling wheel,
The curling smoke and flashing steel,
The rumbling sloops and stirring strife,
Reveal the factory's busy life.

A bird's eye view from off this tower
Will tell where centres real, of power
Hold wide dominion o'er the thought
Of those who would the truth be taught.

There stands St. John 'mid solemn pines,
Around whose walls the ivy twines;
An heir of all the faith of seers,
Lake Ridley and his brave compeers.

And there St. Paul's, a neighbor true,
Enriched by teaching "old and new,"
Her prayer upholding all who stand
For God, and home, and native land.

An i old St Andrew's, stately, bold;
Resisting unjust claims for gold,
With reverence for such men as Knox,
Who stood for right like mountain rocks.

And there on Murray street, a church
Where Baptists congregate to search
The Word that made a Carey shine
On India's shore, in light divine.

A younger sister farther south,
In beauty clad, and looking north
In friendship, smiles on rich and poor
Who pass within her open door.

Her banner, how it proudly floats
O'er silken robes and homespun coats:
Her music sweet, her discourse clear,
She chains the eager worshipper.

Fair Charlotte street, and George're street, one;
Your lights pour forth like morning sun;
And in the golden future share
The fruits of constant toil and care.

These pulpits and the printing press,
Heaven help them ever to impress
On every conscience, mind and heart,
The patriot's clear, consistent part.

The hour demands resistance great
To evils that beset the State;
The influence of the Papal See
Must not destroy our liberty.

The British flag, 'tis heaven's command,
Must float in honor o'er this land;
And as for one to reign supreme,
The patriot prays "God Save the Queen."

Nor must the Demon's bitter dregs,
Conveyed in barrels and kilderkins,
Exhaust the nation's proudest pulses,
Destroying chaos, and end famine.

The darkly maddening waves that roll,
Replenishing the drunkard's bowl,
On prohibition's rock shall break
When Zion strengthened, shall awake.

Let pulpit, press and parliament
Be one in use of armament;
Let moral forces thrust the foe,
And legislation end the woe.

From tower peak such thoughts as these
Start forth like pheasants from the trees;
And swift on anxious wing they fly,
Lost spirits to ask their votes to-day.

To wrestle God will enter here,
And tarnish a holy atmosphere.

Across its shadows, shaded light,
Fair ladies will step with sparkling bright,
And bridesmaids march with happiness thought,
And bless the man who ties the knot.

And mourners draped with sable hands,
(The saddest burns by gentle hands)
Through entrances wide will bitter meet,
Their tears to shed at Jesus' feet.

Great hosts will face these massive walls,
And throng these classic and sacred halls,
A witness long this tower shall be
Of those who loved to bow the knee.

The ground 'neath' will here be heard
From lips of fire inscribed by the Lord;
And hallelujahs fair with power
Through arches, aisles and lofty tower.

And now my rhyme is well nigh spun;
Just one word more—it is 'well done!'
Well done, my brother, friend of yore,
God speed you till your work is o'er.

Ye 'Idlers,' towers of strength are ye;
Ye 'Strangers,' citizens shall be.
All hail each workers hither sent,
We glory in your monument.

Ye shall be pillars in this place,
If tower ye raise, the house to grace;
And he as all our faith upholds,
That endless joy this trust may yield.

Mr. Tovell's poem was greeted with warm applause.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

Rev. Mr. Pearson then came forward and appealed for subscriptions to the tower fund. The tea and entertainment would not about $150, and they wanted at least $1,000 raised that night in behalf of this $2,000 tower. There was a liberal response from those present, the following donations being received:—

A Mystery Cleared Up.

The Disappearance of Mrs. Wm. Milburn at Last Accounted For—Found Drowned in the River.

About ten o'clock this forenoon Mr. Ernest Laplante appeared at the police station and stated that while paddling up the river, just opposite the foot of King street, he had found the dead body of a woman lying at the edge of the water on the Ashburnham side. The police accompanied him to the place, crossing the river in a canoe, and the body was brought over to the boat-house wharf, where it was identified as the remains of Mrs. Wm. Milburn, of Smith, who disappeared about two months ago. The unfortunate woman had evidently committed suicide, as the last trace of her that could be found at the time of her disappearance was her visit to the confectionery store of Mr. John Craig, where she stated that she was going to end her life. Mr. Craig reasoned with her, and, having no idea that the woman would really carry out her threat, allowed her to leave the store. A parcel of clothing belonging to her was never called for. That was the last seen of her alive, but the discovery this morning unravels the mystery of her disappearance. There were all sorts of conjectures at the time she was missed, mainly to the effect that she had gone to Toronto, Montreal or other places, but these theories have unfortunately been proven baseless.

The features were swollen and discolored almost beyond recognition, and but for the clothing it would have been almost impossible to have identified the body. Mr. John Craig first identified the body by the long black cloak of imitation Persian lamb material, with mitts to match. There was no hat on her head, however. Mr. Milburn shortly after the finding of the body also identified the remains as those of his wife. A large crowd gathered at the boat house to view the corpse as it lay on the wharf.

The dead woman was the mother of the young man "Vic" Milburn now in gaol awaiting sentence for forgery. The body must have been lodged where it was found during the night, as Mr. Laplante says he paddled over the same course last evening. The suicide had evidently been committed farther up the river, and the body was just brought down by the rising waters of the stream.

The remains were taken in charge by undertaker Clegg and buried in the Little Lake Cemetery, without any inquest being held.

Armstrong, son of Mr. John Armstrong, of Baillieboro, was the gold medallist, and he was highly complimented upon the way in which he has distinguished himself all through the course as a thorough student. Mr. Armstrong also read the valedictory on the occasion. He is to be congratulated upon his successful college career, which is a fair indication of the bright and prosperous professional life that awaits him.

Accident.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. William Ford, of the Wm. Hamilton Manufacturing Company, met with an ugly accident. The crank of a shaft which had just been put in flew back from the lathe at which he was working and struck him in the face, crushing his nose and cutting his lip. He will be around again probably in a few days, but the injury is a very troublesome one. Dr. Clarke is attending him.

Monday evening as Fred Poulette, who recently returned from the shanties, was passing over the railway bridge, he fell headlong about ten feet, striking a heap of sharp stones, inflicting a terrible scalp wound. He was carried to an adjacent house and his wounds attended to. He is doing well as could be expected.

A DREAM OF THE EAST.

The Entertainment Given by a Rich Worshipper of India.

Perhaps no race of people is less known or more interesting to the student and traveler than the Parsees or Fire Worshipers of India. They are delightful hosts, and as it was my good fortune to form the acquaintance of Sir Framgee Dunshaw Petit, who was knighted for a gift of $300,000 to an educational institution, I will endeavor to describe an entertainment I attended at his palace.

Sir Framgee lived in patriarchal magnificence, and when his whole family is seated at table they number fifty-five. We were received in the grand drawing room, as large as a fair sized church, and presented to the ladies. We found them pretty, intelligent and vivacious, and it is no exaggeration to say that they compared quite favorably with their American sisters.

The ladies were attired in graceful native costumes. The dress consisted of a waist, such as is worn by Europeans, with a long scarf of embroidered silk or crape, called a sarre, wrapped several times about the waist and falling in broad folds about the limbs in lieu of a skirt. One end of the sarre was brought over the head and dropped gracefully in front, constituting a very effective headdress.

Their jewels were magnificent. No crowned head of Europe possesses their equal, and such an array of diamonds, pearls, sapphires and emeralds can scarcely be imagined. One of the guests wore eight strings of pearls, which far excelled the celebrated necklace of Queen Marguerite of Italy.

The state costume of the men is white, but on ordinary occasions they appear attired in the conventional European evening dress. One peculiarity of their costume is not, however, to be met in a London drawing room. They never uncover their heads, and a high, conical Persian hat—or at meals a skull cap—always completes their dress.

On the occasion I am describing an orchestra played selections from Italian operas, and after conversing a while upon topics of universal interest, our host made a sign to the servants, who brought in baskets filled with large bouquets of eastern flowers.

Each lady selected one, sprinkled it with rose water from a tall silver vase, presented it to the gentleman who was to escort her to dinner, and then, taking his arm, showed the way to where a table was spread, overlooking the sea.

There we were regaled with tea, coffee, cakes, fruits, and twenty-two kinds of delicious native sweets, which had been collected in honor of our coming. It was an event not to be forgotten.

The waving palms and tropical flowers, the splash of the waves, mingling with the soft strains of music, beautiful women with flashing jewels and graceful dress, were typical of the languid, dreamy east, and carried one unconsciously back to the days of Haroun al Raschid.

When tea was over we were taken for a delightful drive in handsome European turnouts and then to dine at another Parsee house. The ceremony was long and stately, all the dishes were native, but the wines were European, and this dinner, with that exception, was representative of native manners before they had received the European touch.

The ladies whom we escorted gave us bouquets, as in the afternoon, and the host hung chaplets of white jasmines about our necks and wrists.

The menu cards bore gilded crests and they gave us bonbons wrapped in gold leaf to carry away. It was a dream of the east, but the perfectly appointed table, surrounded by intelligent men and graceful women, made it hard to believe that the members of this refined society were the fire worshipers we had been brought up to despise as heathen.—America.

Bismarck's Mail.

Every express train running between Berlin and Hamburg now carries a van fitted with the network apparatus which is used in English traveling postoffices, which apparatus throws out from the down trains a bag of letters or dispatches at Friedrichsruhe for Prince Bismarck, while a similar bag is taken in by the up trains as they rush through the little station on the Sachsenwald, which is within 200 yards of the Schloss.—London World.

A Pitch-In on the C.P.R.

The noon train on the C.P.R., was delayed several hours to-day by a pitch-in which occurred near Green river about ten o'clock this forenoon. A freight train broke in three parts and two of the pieces came into collision on a grade, the result being that nine cars were wrecked, some of them being completely telescoped. Work was at once begun upon clearing up the line, but up to the hour of going to press the delayed mail has not arrived.

COLD IN HEAD CATARRH THE 4 STAGES CONSUMPTION DEATH

There is positive danger to health and life in neglecting a case of Cold in the Head or Catarrh, and at this season with its changeable weather, unusual moisture and sudden changes from heat to cold, there is peculiar liability to cold in the head. A neglected case of Cold in the Head rapidly develops into Catarrh, and neglected Catarrh just as certainly develops into Consumption and leads to premature death. Medical testimony proves conclusively that a large percentage of all the deaths occurring from Consumption had their origin in a neglected cold, which by gradual stages, developed into Catarrh, and then into Consumption, that dread disease with which medical science is as yet unable to cope successfully. If you are suffering from Cold in the Head or any of the numerous symptoms of Catarrh, such as bad breath, dull oppressive headaches, droppings from the head into the throat, hawking and spitting, copious discharges from the nostrils, loosing sense of smell, or taste becoming dull hacking cough, or a general feeling of debility, husky voice, a wheezing or cracking sound in your chest when breathing, a feeling of dizziness particularly when stooping, a feeling of tiredness and indisposition to exertion, a feeling of nausea in the morning when attempting to dislodge accumulations in the throat, Do not neglect them. These are but few of the many symptoms of Catarrh, and if you experience any, BE WARNED IN TIME. Do not permit them to run under the mistaken impression that the disease will eventually wear away. It will not, but on the contrary will wear you away as it has thousands before. Procure at once a bottle of NASAL BALM, the only certain and speedy cure ever offered the public for Cold in the Head and Catarrh. This is no idle assertion, but an unquestioned fact, which is verified by the thousands of testimonials in our possession telling of marvellous cures. These testimonials we have received from all parts of the Dominion and we append a few, selected at random, as fair samples of the whole:

Mr. Alex. Burns, of Sudbury, Ont., says: Gents: I may state that I have been afflicted with catarrh for 7 or 8 years, and it was attended by consequent symptoms, such as foul breath, constant dropping into the throat, hawking and spitting, partial deafness, ringing in the ears, and sickening pain in the head directly over either eye. I have used powders and douches, but all to no effect, the only result arising from the use of such was temporary relief, followed by the usual symptoms in a more aggravated form. The results arising from the use of Nasal Balm are sweet breath, stoppage of the dropping into the throat (consequently less hawking and spitting), clearness of hearing and not once since I began its use have I had pain in the head—in fact it is my opinion that a careful and persistent use of the "Balm" will effect a cure in the worst case of catarrh.

Mr. John H. Adams, merchant, Brantford, Ont., says: I have used NASAL BALM for catarrh, and found it to be a CERTAIN CURE.

W. A. Doyle, Beulah, Man., writes:—As a family medicine to check Catarrhal affections, or cold in the head, NASAL BALM HAS NO EQUAL. We prize it highly.

Henrietta Blackwell, Parker, Ont., says:—Your NASAL BALM is the BEST REMEDY I have yet used for catarrh. I can breathe more freely than before and my breath has regained its sweetness. I consider NASAL BALM a boon to the suffering.

W. Chas. Hanley, Postmaster, Spry Bay, N. S., says:—I submit the following to the public that any who may be afflicted may be benefitted by the same remedy. Two bottles of your NASAL BALM has RESTORED to PERFECT HEALTH a four year old child of ours, suffering from Catarrh.

Alpha H. Dolan, Tarbert, Ont., writes:—Your NASAL BALM has made a new man of me. I have never used a remedy so satisfactory.

Miss Maggie M. Martin, Tearwood, Pa., says:—Through a friend in Canada I became acquainted with your NASAL BALM. I have suffered for years with Catarrh and it is the first remedy from which I have experienced relief, and I feel certain that it will cure me.

Miss Minnie McNairn, Mills Rochee, Ont., says:—Your bottle of NASAL BALM did me much good. The pain in my head disappeared before I had used the bottle, and I find myself receiving the greatest benefit. I am certain NASAL BALM will cure any case of Catarrh if its use is preserved in.

James H. McLeod, Mink River Road, N.S., says:—I have tried other remedies for Catarrh, but

MILLINERY.—No wonder flowers hold so high a place in Millinery Trimmings—as real to the eye as if raised by the hand of Nature. Everything, from the Daisy that loves the sea, to the Rose that blushes under dews. A gingle of Untrimmed Hats and Bonnets, stacks of Straws every shape you would think to suit for, and designs you would never dream of. Milans, Fancy Straws, Lace, both materials mixed, Chips, Leghorns. Novelties of all kinds; and this is a season of Novelties.

KID GLOVES—Have tumbled into a line of tan. Kid Gloves, stitched backs, we can sell for 35c. a pair; some people can buy them by the ½ doz. Come early if you want this Bargain. We are in a shape to sell a great number of women's Silk and Taffetas Gloves, in the next few days. Our Gloves always fit, so they say. Assortment, quality, price—the tandem team will give their say.

Such a range of Styles of Hosiery is scarcely ever seen in one place. Sizes to fit everybody.

SASH RIBBONS—In handsome Brocades, at 30c. a yard.

DRESS GOODS.—Now shades of Henriette Cloths to fill up the gap. The quick sales of the past few weeks have been making SMOKE GREY, like the silver sheen of the atmosphere of a light, grey day by the sea. SUEZ GREEN. Why Suez? Only that the oddity of the name may mentally fit the color—and the color is beautiful in combination with other colors; OLD ROSE—the same suggests the fading leaf; lost beauty, expired fragrance—and yet it sounds for a blushing shade of red or delicate that to call it red would be an insult. The colors are primary, of course. All told, we have about thirty-six good shades of Dress Goods to select from, in materials from 10c. to $1.00 a yard. New girdles and trimmings to match.

Fashion is always turning a new corner, and we with it. This spring is to fit chicanable for men to wear Striped Suitings. We have them in good variety, and will save you money in every suit you buy.

Fresh styles of New York Domestic Patterns to hand. Every lady can have a new Fashion Sheet that asks for it.

THE RAILWAY SUBSIDIES.

ROADS WHICH ARE TO BE AIDED WITH LANDS AND CASH.

The House Discussing the Supplementary Estimates — Sandfield Macdonald's Brain Still Thrown Out.

OTTAWA, April 24.—The House to-day spent the greater part of its two sittings in Committee of Supply, the supplementary estimates being under consideration. Business is being steadily pushed through with a view to prorogation at the earliest date possible.

In answer to an inquiry by Mr. Sutherland Sir John Macdonald said the cost of the Hervey and Salesbury line of railway would be about $14,000 a mile.

Hon. Edgar Dewdney announced that in view of the probability of a lengthy discussion on the bill consolidating the Northwest Territories Act and making certain amendments, it had been decided to withdraw the bill for this session.

The resolutions providing for a revote of certain lapsed subsidies to railways were considered in committee and adopted.

The House then went into Committee of Supply, taking into consideration the supplementary estimates for 1889. Mr. Mills, being taken to an item of $20000 additional salary to Collingwood Schreiber, Chief Engineer of Government Railways, for special services, Sir John Macdonald very highly eulogized that officer and stated that to his knowledge Mr. Schreiber had been offered and refused a position with much greater emoluments than he now received. He admitted that the promotion of the officer to the stipulated salaries of Government employes was objectionable, and in the particular case in question was only a change by increasing the regular salary.

After recess, the House being still in Committee of Supply, a discussion arose as to the Sunday traffic on the Welland Canal. Messrs. Somerville, Rykert, Rain of Wentworth, Boyle and others spoke against it continuance.

Sir John Macdonald said against the protests of the Sabbatarians the Government had to put the strong representations of the commercial interests in the form of petitions from Boards of Trade and others against any interruption in (the) traffic. The canal was closed on the Sabbath day from 6 a.m. to 9 p.m., vessels only being locked through by the steady manning of late as eight and there being no bar to attendance at church services. It must be remembered that we had to meet the competition of the Erie Canal, where Sunday traffic was allowed. In order that the House might fully understand the question he would explain that would lay upon the table all the correspondence received on both sides of the question.

The committee made good progress with the supplementary estimates and at 2 o'clock the House adjourned.

AGAIN REMANDED.

The Harvey Embezzlement Case Put Over for Another Week.

GUELPH, April 24.—The Harvey embezzlement case which has been remanded again and again came up this morning, another week was remanded once more for another week. The private prosecutor was ready to go on with the case, but Crown Attorney Drew was asked for the remand on the grounds that he could not see his way clear to try Harvey for the minor crime of embezzlement while the more serious one of murder was hanging over him, and that he would not take the responsibility of bringing Harvey out of prison to the Police Court without consulting the Attorney-General as to whether he would be in the position of justice to do so as matters at present stand.

His Worship Police Magistrate Saunders decided finally to remand and said that the case would not be proceeded with until the Attorney-General's decision was known.

Harvey was then remanded in custody for another week.

NEWS OF THE OLD WORLD.

LORD RANDOLPH CHURCHILL'S EPISTOLARY MASTERPIECE.

Boulanger's Advent Creates General Excitement in London—The Exile to Receive His Intentions in a Manifesto.

LONDON, April 24.—The Easter holidays have been enlivened by Lord Randolph Churchill's letter to "My dear Mr. Chamberlain," an epistle which will rank among the masterpieces of controversial literature. The people will dislike Chamberlain, indeed, I fear, a majority of the inhabitants of this kingdom, are enchanted at seeing him handled in this easy fashion. Chamberlain himself would, perhaps, say free and easy. Lord Randolph takes up his pen, he tells us, not for himself, but for the Birmingham Tories. Was there a compact by which Central Birmingham was to have Lord Randolph as a member? That is the question. "Well," says Lord Randolph coolly, "Mr. Rowlands, who knows, says there was. You, who ought to know, say there was not. Mr. Rowlands is incapable of telling an assertion contrary to facts within his own knowledge." I put it more bluntly than Lord Randolph does, but the meaning is the same. "You had your own way," he goes on. "You kept me out, no doubt, on public grounds. You might have been satisfied with that, but you now try to embroil me with my friends. You make a disingenuous attack upon them—on men to whom at this moment you owe everything, and without whom you would be politically annihilated. You seem to consider that you can catch Conservative votes with vinegar, that Conservatives ought to be glad and proud to be sworn Gideonites—bearers of wood and drawers of water to yourself and your friends, and that when they have fulfilled whatever tasks you devolve on them they are to be content to be told that they are unprofitable servants."

I fear that in my abridgement that savor of polite irony and of urbanity which favors Lord Randolph's essences disappears. But you will at least understand the Tory wrath at the last against Chamberlain, and that the Unionist alliance in Birmingham will not be much longer maintained unless Chamberlain accepts Lord Randolph's advice, modifies his pestiferous, suppresses what they think insults, and consents to conciliate instead of provoking the men on whose votes his own seat depends.

The opening of Jem. Boulanger does certainly create some interest, if not general enthusiasm, in London. Most of the papers have long articles on his expected arrival, and if they do not hail him with enthusiasm they treat him as a personage. Some of them are even prepared to interpret his movements. The prevailing note in all the discussions is one of pride that London should be the one inviolable asylum for political offenders in all Europe. John Bull does not seem to know much he likes a rebel or a conspirator, always provided that he is a foreigner and does not rebel or conspire against the Queen. It is publicly announced by telegraph that the general expects to be seaside while crossing the channel; therefore no reporters will be admitted on the steamer. Count Dillon, Rochefort and the black horse are all coming with him. He is to ride the black horse in Rotten Row. All the leo-hunters of London—their names in the legion—are looking forward with rapture to his arrival.

The Queen's visit to Sandringham is the first since the Prince of Wales had typhoid fever. "Alexii omen!" ejaculates the loyal Briton, who is more loyal than ever because Her Majesty gave up her projected journey yesterday, which would have deranged all the holiday traffic west of London.

Parnell did not get the freedom of Edinburgh without a struggle, which robs the honor of much of its freshness. Two public meetings of protest were held yesterday. "Why," asked one minister's speaker, "should one man be canonized for the sins of another? Why, because Pigott forged Parnell's name should Parnell be made a citizen of Edinburgh?" The list of his opponents included many names eminent in Scotland. The movement in his favor was mainly a popular movement. It was the masses not the classes who would canonize him.

The holidays—barring Lord Randolph's broadside—are passing off much as usual. The military manœuvres on the south coast are reckoned creditable to the volunteers. There are those who discover in them evidences of a better feeling than before between the regulars and the volunteers. Easter Monday in London is over, with little disorder. In fact the streets were seldom quieter than they were at midnight on Monday.

Stephenson & Collier's new comedy opera Doris came near being hooted off the stage of the Lyric last night. Doris has no story, nor any dialog that sparkles, or songs of a literary merit. It is not original or remarkable, but clever. The chorus was good, the band pretty good, the scenery good, the mounting and pantomime business too good or elaborate. The audience bore good-humoredly with two acts, but revolted in the third and groaned the authors and performers with undiscriminating impartiality.

G. W. SMALLEY.

CHAMBERLAIN CONFIDENT.

He Thinks the Government Will Win at the Next Elections.

LONDON, April 24.—Mr. Chamberlain, speaking at Birmingham to-night, said he was confident that the Government, before appealing to the country, would develop their Irish plans and they would doubtless obtain a favorable verdict at the polls.

Mr. White, secretary of the American legation, gave a dinner to Mr. Chamberlain this evening in honor of the commissioners to the Samoan Conference.

Despatches from West Africa say that a British exp-dition has destroyed the chief town of the Wendeh tribe on the Selyman River and released 2000 slaves.

The Vienna Carmen's Strike Over.

Three Brothers Convicted of Rape.

BELLEVILLE, April 25.—Albert Lloyd of Tyendinaga was placed on trial Tuesday on the charge of committing rape upon Annie Denton, a girl 14 years of age and a sister of his wife. The offence was committed on Aug. 23, 1887, when the girl was on a visit to her sister, the prisoner's wife. The girl also swore to being criminally assaulted by George and Herman Lloyd, brothers of prisoner. The case was yesterday morning given to the jury who in ten minutes returned a verdict of guilty. George and Herman Lloyd were then placed on trial for a similar offence. They were convicted.

The grand jury returned a true bill for perjury against George W. Sills and no bill in the case of Jones Phillips similarly charged.

Miss Ellen Tuttle, aged 16, only daughter of John Tuttle, Hungerford, took ill yesterday and died within an hour.

GOT AHEAD OF THE BOOMERS.

How the United States Marshals Captured the Chetco Rioter.

They secured the supposed choice lots with ease. When the train arrived about 1 o'clock Monday 2000 men threw 700 lots of born at work. The later comers were struck with amazement. They mentally walked over to the town site, took what the Government officials had left and went on and now make staking town lots. Water at Oklahoma is plenty and there is a lot of dirt sent. HIS WIFE GOT THE BOODLE

AND NOW REV. MR. TOMKINS WANTS SOME OF IT BACK.

A Cause Celebre from the Niagara Frontier Tried at the Wentworth Assizes—Why Mrs. Tomkins was Jealous.

HAMILTON, April 24.—The cause célebre of Tomkins v. Tomkins was tried by Judge Armour at the Assizes to-day. The evidence adduced was exceedingly spicy and a mass of its details of anything but a savory character. All the parties to the suit come from Niagara Falls South. The plaintiff, Rev. George Tomkins, brought the action against his wife, her father and uncle, charging conspiracy to obtain his property. The defendants, it was drew the charge of conspiracy and proceeded with the action as far as the retaining of certain property was concerned, when a settlement was made a year ago, but the reverend gentleman seized that the settlement be set aside.

The plaintiff is a short, gentlemanly looking Englishman with a close-cropped beard and a pair of pince nez glasses. Mrs. Tomkins is a young lady with a pale, delicate face and a graceful figure set off by a fine black silk dress. She is evidently of a keen and business-like disposition.

Briefly stated, the facts are as follows: Rev. George Tomkins came to Niagara Falls South about six years ago from England and became engaged to Miss Lizzie Redpath, daughter of a respected merchant in that town. Then he went home and divorced a former wife and returned to wed the Canadian beauty. He had a fortune of $40,000 in England, $20,000 of which he did not get, but he succeeded that his wife and her relatives bled him of the whole of his wealth and he came to him out with seven in his inside pocket. The wife claims that he made her a present of $40,000 of the sum.

The plaintiff, who was the first witness, told his story substantially as above stated. After the marriage he said they went on a bridal tour to Europe. He had $45,000, which his wife's father helped him to invest, and the investments were a dead loss. He belonged to the Baptist denomination but was at this time a life insurance agent, though he occasionally preached at various churches there.

Mr. Blackstock: "You carried on the business of a churchman, as well as that of a life insurance agent?"

Witness: "Yes, life and eternal life."

Counsel then questioned him with reference to his residence in Havannah, N.Y., where he admitted that he got into trouble. At Niagara Falls South a coloured woman named Mrs. Dent, whose husband was a Pullman car employe and away from home frequently for several days at a time, aroused his wife's jealousy. On one occasion as he was going along a lane to speak to Mrs. Dent and tell her not to let her children visit his wife's house, his wife came running after him. He took a hold of her and gave her a shaking, and she was carried back to the house in hysterics. She fell into the arms of her brother, "for whom," said the divine, "I have not a warrant against for committing a misdemeanor and no one with a pair of knuckle dusters. He denied that he had admitted to his wife that he had sinned with the coloured woman. His wife at that time attempted to shoot him and refused for several weeks to live with him.

Then the treaty was signed:

MY DEAR WIFE: In condition of your reconciliation to everything indignity and indecency I have inflicted upon you and your restoring me to my position (now after due consideration) you are broken I solemnly pledge myself: 1. To do all in my power to atone by the future of my misconduct with Mrs. Dett, July 15, 1887, or at any other time, caused you, and will manfully honor your tenderest sensibilities and rigidly guard you against any and every cause of same of our sorrow by pledging myself to live a pure life before God and man. 2. To never again visit, speak to, recognize or converse with the said Mrs. R. T. Dett personally or through a third party. 3. To cease from all base, slimy and other unfrequented places. 4. Never under any consideration will I directly or indirectly consult A. G. Bill, barrister, Niagara Falls, Ont., about our personal affairs, either in fiction, one letters or in our own names. 5. Not to in any way strike, harm, or threaten to strike or harm our child or yourself. 6. Not to buy, receive as a gift, or have in my possession a revolver. 7. To guard your sensitive nature from further shocks, and cherish your loving confidence and respect and to co-operate. 8. Knowing from former and experience your judgment of character, I will be guided by it in future. I will not speak to or associate with those whom you more kindly warn me against. Should any one of the above promises be broken I hereby promise to peaceably forfeit and surrender forever the care and custody of our child to your mother.

GEORGE TOMKINS.

The witness usually had some loaded revolvers with him. He brought two over when coming to "such a wild country as Canada." His wife objected to these weapons.

Mrs. Tomkins, looking white and cool, took the stand and swore that her husband had voluntarily promised to give her half of the $80,000 he expected from England. Before their marriage she told him she was worth nothing. On one occasion he had placed a loaded revolver to her head, and threatened to kill her if she would not give false evidence in a church trouble. She got $40,000 from her husband, which she has invested so judiciously that it is now worth $56,000. On cross-examination she said she became engaged to Rev. Mr. Tomkins on his second visit to Niagara. She knew at the time that he had a wife in England from whom he had not then been divorced. She did not tell him so, but told him that she had money, but it was in a joke. She said she was a speculator—also in a joke. The corroborative evidence of two witnesses to her husband written before marriage in which she referred to her money: "I appeal to God that He will punish me, and I fear my little money is lost in the wheat speculation." This was also written in a joke. Mr. Tomkins told her he thought speculation was wicked.

A number of witnesses were examined to show that the plaintiff had not previously claimed the property, and then Judge Armour dismissed the case against the defendants Mr. Redpath and Mr. Bender, and reserved judgment as against Mrs. Tomkins. He stated that he thought the previous settlement should be binding on Rev. Mr. Tomkins, and will likely hold in that way.

Norwood

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Having occasion to visit the village of Norwood during the Easter holidays, I heard much while there of the progress made by the Roman Catholic choir of that village and to test the truth of what I heard before leaving I attended service in that church on Easter Sunday, at high mass in the morning and Vespers in the evening. During the different celebrations, I was so struck with the excellence of the music and singing that I made inquiries about the choir and from the information obtained and my own ability to criticise (which I am vain enough to state is of no inferior quality,) I am pleased to make the following comments.

The choir which has been really organized but six months ago, was under the leadership of Miss Lillie Bagley of Peterborough. The mass sung on Easter Sunday was Peter's Celebrated Mass in D, which by the way is very difficult but very beautiful. The solos in the mass were rendered as follows:—Soprano by Mrs. O. A. Brennan, Alto by Miss T. McCarthy, Tenor by Mr. W. H. Mullins and Bass by Mr. J. A. McCarthy; and to remark favorably on the individual singing without including the whole, which time will not permit, would be injustice, as the singing of all was equally good. Mr. W. H. Mullin's grand solo, L'Eslair, by Halevy, at the offertory, was executed with marked excellence. This gentleman's knowledge of the fine art must make him a very beneficial acquisition to the choir. At the Communion, Ave Verum, by Millard, was rendered by Mrs. O. A. Brennan in such an excellent manner that it would demand applause from the most skilful critic of church singers. At Vespers during the Benediction, O Salutaris, by Bordese, was sung in a very creditable manner by Mr. J. A. McCarthy, whose powerful voice is a grand addition to the choir. Mrs. O. A. Brennan's rendition of Ave Maria, by Millard, was characterized by that sweetness and purity of tone which pervaded the solo sung by her in the morning, and was well worthy of commendation. Tantum Ergo, by Rossini, a quartrette, was sung in grand style by the whole choir. In the choruses and parts in which the whole choir sang, the time was excellent, and none of that discord noticeable which is so hateful, yet so common, in large choirs; the whole choir made a blending of voices which would do credit to any cathedral in the province. Now, in justice to the leader and organist, Miss Bagley, I must say that great attention must have been given to the teaching of the choir by her, to whose ability and painstaking efforts the remarkable success obtained by it is wholly due; and I have every reason to believe, from what I heard and saw, that her services are highly appreciated by the venerable pastor, Rev. P. Convay, and the respectable congregation I was enamated in church. In conclusion I must say, though it is out of my sphere of routine, that great credit is due the reverend pastor for the almost incredible amount of work accomplished in that parish since his coming there. The priest's house, which is adjacent to the church, is pronounced by men capable of judging in that respect, to be the best constructed, best laid out and most handsome, for the expense incurred in its construction, of any of the kind in Ontario. The interior and exterior of the church have been remodelled, the grounds are being neatly fitted up and many other things done which I have not time to mention. And his sermons at Vespers on Sunday evening satisfied me of his great ability to impart his knowledge; and from what I heard from some from some of his parishioners his consistency in the fulfilment of the duties towards his congregation is remarkable.

Operations will be renewed at the cheese factory on May 6th, with last year's cheese maker again in charge. The prospects for the factory are bright, quite a large number of new patrons having promised to send milk during the season.

The people of this vicinity are ever noted for enterprise, the latest display being that of Mr. D. Truscott in obtaining from Western Ontario a very fine Holstein bull. He has a distinguished pedigree, both of his parents being prize-winners in Holland and Canada.

An effort is being made to form a Women's Missionary Society in connection with the Methodist church here.

Our new bridge is not yet completed, but the prospects are that it will be opened for traffic in December or January next. So all we need is a little patience until that time. The only trouble is, we are not sure it will be an iron structure.

SOCIAL ENTERTAINMENT.—A social was held at the Temple, Lang, on Good Friday, under the auspices of the Good Templars of that village. The hall was well filled, and the following excellent programme was well rendered:—Opening chorus; speech by chairman; instrumental duet, Miss Shearer, organ, and Mr. Eason, violin; trio, "Sing on," by Mrs. Rennie, Miss Dancon and Mr. Overton; recitation, "The Ball of the Flakbee," Miss Leah Fife; duet, Mrs. Rennie and Miss Edwards; reading, "Barry on Shovelling Snow," by Mr. W. Steadman; song, "He is Gone Forever," by Miss L. Fife; trio, "The Fire Alarm," by Mrs. Rennie, Miss Dancon and Mr. Overton; recitation, "The Old Maid's Soliloquy," by Miss Kate Nelson; instrumental duet, by Miss Shearer and Mr. Eason; song, "Sailing," by Mr. Overton. After the concert, cakes and tea were passed around, and the closing chorus, sung by the Good Templars' choir, brought a delightful entertainment to a close.

BOODLERS MAY BEWARE

THE WELDON BILL PASSES THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

It Will Not Apply to Past Offences—The Copyright Act Amendment and Anti-Combines Bill Passed.

OTTAWA, April 23.—Three measures of importance and of general public interest passed through their final stages in the House today—the Copyright Act amendment, the Anti-Combines Bill and the Boodlers' Expulsion Bill. The latter lost its sting, however, for three members of the hostile brigade were disposing themselves to the Dominion, the moment it became law, arranged, and the act will apply only to offences committed after its passage.

On motion for the third reading of the bill to amend the Copyright Act Sir John Thompson explained in answer to questions that it was not intended to allow any publisher or property of the republication of a British work which he might obtain license to reissue in Canada. Requesting the limit of time within which a work copyrighted in Canada must be republished here after its publication in England, he did not think it would be fair to make that longer than one month, as in the meantime Canadian readers would be deprived of the opportunity of procuring the work.

He was opposed to allowing at all the importation of American reprints, as they would destroy the market for the Canadian publisher. He was assured that the general opinion of the trade was in favor of the provisions of the bill, and that the prices of many desirable works would be cheapened.

As to the proposition to make the provisions of the bill respective with respect to the republication of British copyrights, he thought to do so would raise such opposition in Great Britain on the ground of interference with vested rights that the whole bill would be seriously imperilled, especially as we will have in connection an important constitutional question to settle with the Colonial Office.

The bill was read a third time and passed.

The Anti-Combines Bill was read a third time and passed. Mr. Curran offered an amendment to allow an appeal against any conviction to the highest court of appeal for criminal matters in the province where such conviction shall have been made up on all questions of law and fact, but this amendment was declared lost.

On motion of Sir John Thompson the House went into committee on the bill introduced by Professor Weldon to amend the Extradition Act so as to permit the surrender by Canada of fugitives charged with certain criminal offences. Discussion on various proposed amendments arose and was continued after recess.

Strong opposition was made to the retroactive clause on the ground that under it the person who had many years ago committed punishable offences in the United States but had since led honest lives would be liable to be arrested, and much misery would thereby be brought upon their innocent wives and families long after the offence had been forgotten.

On division the committee adopted an amendment moved by Mr. Laverge and the bill will now apply only to offences committed subsequent to its passage. After other minor amendments the bill was reported by the committee and read a third time and passed.

Mr. Charlton, on Mr. Foster's motion to go into Committee of Supply, spoke at considerable length in condemnation of the recent increase in the export duty on logs. Though he believed the Government had last fall removed the duty at the request of the lumbermen these same lumbermen had seen from the hostility that the [illegible] had aroused in the United States that their own lumber markets there was likely to be injuriously affected by the increase of the import duties and they therefore wanted the duty reduced. He considered that the action of the American Congress at its next session would be such as to compel Canada to abolish this duty.

Hon. G. E. Foster said the increased export duty had been imposed in response to the almost unanimous request of the lumbermen. Now the same men wished the duty removed because of their fear of reciprocity legislation on the part of the United States. The request for a reduction of the duty was now under the consideration of the Government, and would be dealt with in the manner considered in the best interests of the country.

In amendment to the motion to go into supply Mr. Barron moved a [illegible] censuring the Government for the sale in 1886 of a certain timber limit on the Indian Reserve at Whitefish Lake, north of Georgian Bay. He claimed that this timber limit had been sold to Honore Robillard, subsequently elected a member of the Commons, and although the price paid was only $316 the limit had since been sold for nearly $60,000. He held that the Indians, for whom the land was held in trust by the Government, had been grievously wronged by the transaction and that it was done as a reward for Mr. Robillard's vote on the Riel matter in 1886 when a member of the Ontario Legislature.

Hon. Edgar Dewdney explained that the sale had been made in the usual course. The surrender from the Indians was obtained in the [illegible] manner. Though this particular limit had many years before been sold by the G[illegible] a considerable sum the title of the province had been disputed and the limit was never worked. The timber was being destroyed by fires, and it was recommended that unless the limits were taken up and worked the timber would soon be rendered valueless. The Government had therefore determined to sell. So far from the Indians receiving $31 as their share of the price of this limit the fact was that when the timber was all sold the Indians would have received between $2800 and $3000, being their percentage of the dues of $1 per thousand feet collected for all the timber cut.

Mr. Robillard explained that the limit had been awarded nominally to him, but really to Bignal & Co. of Ottawa, for whom he had made the application. They were Liberals and had asked him to use his influence to secure the berth for them. They were [illegible] friends of his and he exerted himself out of friendship, but not one dollar had ever passed to him on account of the transaction. [illegible] what had subsequently been realized for the limits because he had no interest.

After further discussion the House divided on the amendment, which was lost, 21 to 66. The House then went into committee of supply.

The House adjourned at 2.10 a.m.

LONDON, April 23.—Lord Salisbury delivered an address at Bristol to-day. He spoke of the growth of the Primrose League, which he said was marvellous. He hoped that so long the Government would settle the troubles which were menacing the internal peace of the nation. Lord Salisbury eulogized the agitation in favor of Home Rule in Ireland.

A SENSATION IN A QUIET SUBURB OF TORONTO.

Elopement of a Windermere Woman With a Young Lodger—Andy Maloney Again Lodged in Jail.

Toronto, April 24—Windermere has a sensation caused by the disappearance of Mrs. Barfield, who, it is alleged, has levanted with a male admirer scarcely half her age. Her husband, George Barfield, a respectable man, well-known in St. Alban's ward, is left to mourn the heartless departure of his better half, as well as make provision for a family of six small children.

Mrs. Barfield's new-found lover, as alleged, is William Fitz-Morris, better known at Windermere as "Bill," a rather cadaverous looking young Englishman, who for the past year or two ran a washer manufacturing machine at the Ontario Bolt Works, where George Barfield is also employed at present, on the construction of the branch railway line from West Toronto Junction to the Bolt Works and the noisy rolling mills. No one appeared to know much of young Fitz-Morris' antecedents, save that he came from London originally, and eight or nine months ago went to board at Barfield's house, which is situated on the rising ground near the Bolt Works and adjacent to a number of other bolt-idlers.

The story of the gradually formed intimacy between Mrs. Barfield and her lodger is most likely known only to themselves. With this the local people have nothing to do; their interest was wholly engrossed with the simultaneous disappearance of the two and conjectures as to their probable destination, of which no one is yet correctly informed. The elopement occurred on Thursday night last. Mr. Barfield, it is said, immediately consulted the Toronto detectives, and a warrant was sworn out for the arrest of Fitz-Morris, but the route he and Mrs. Barfield took could not be learned. Mr. Barfield is said to have been quite prostrated over the affair.

Mrs. Barfield is a buxom lady of pleasing manner and about 35 years of age, and Fitz-Morris a slim, sallow-faced, beardless youth of 19. It is needless to say that everybody is talking, and much sympathy is expressed for the deserted husband, who is using every endeavor to discover the guilty pair.

Andy Maloney Again in Durance Vile.

Montreal, April 23.—Andy Maloney, who has been out on bail ever since the first eight days after his arrest in connection with the $14,000 jewelry case, was re-arrested to-day when he came to court to attend at the enquete in the Phillips case. Judge Desnoyers has ordered him to bring new bail instead of that furnished by Harry Phillips, who is under arrest himself, and the delay brings up to-day Andy will again lodge with Father Payette. It is said some startling developments in the case are likely to come out within the next few days.

Murder Will Out.

Aylmer, April 23.—At an early hour this morning Provincial Detective Clayton and Coroner F. W. McLay were notified to investigate a case of supposed murder at Springfield, six miles from here. Some eighteen years ago Gifford Williams mysteriously disappeared. Evidence is forthcoming that he was foully murdered and his body thrown into a well. Since then a large brick hotel has been erected over the spot.

Winnipeg Wrecked.

Winnipeg, April 23.—A verdict of manslaughter was returned against Bob Heffer at the inquest on the body of Mary Hood this evening.

Gabriel Dumont is going to Montana to collect a party of halfbreeds and Indians who participated in the Riel rebellion to take with him to Paris.

Two Dwellings Consumed.

Esther Bridge, April 23.—Two dwellings and contents belonging to William Rodgers, farmer, of North Orillia, three miles from here, were destroyed by fire at noon to-day. Nothing was saved; loss about $1000; no insurance; cause, a defective stove-pipe.

ROBBED OF HER HAIR BY LIGHTNING.

But Otherwise She Was Uninjured—Miraculous Escape of a Workman.

Parkersburg, W. Va., April 24.—A strange electric freak occurred near Elizabeth, Wirt County, a day or two ago. A heavy thunder storm passed over the residence of Mr. S. P. Barnes. A terrible flash of lightning followed, striking the house and scattering the building in every direction. Mrs. Barnes was standing in the middle of the floor at the time with a glass jar of canned fruit in her hand. The jar was broken and scattered and the woman's hair burned close to her head; still neither Mrs. Barnes nor her two children, both of whom were present, were otherwise injured.

A Miraculous Escape.

New Britain, Conn., April 24.—Lightning struck the shop of Smith Bros., in Whigville, Saturday. Hoyt Smith, who was sitting at his lathe near the corner of the building where the belt came down, was paralyzed and knocked into the shavings, which were set on fire by the electric fluid. The lightning followed the main line of shafting, firing the oil on every bearing. The shop was on fire in six or eight places before the workmen were aware of what had happened. Mr. Smith lay unconscious in the flames when the situation was realized by his comrades. The hose from the stand pipes were turned on, and life and property saved. Mr. Smith was found to be badly burned, but recovered without serious results, after experiencing a feeling of numbness for some hours.

EMBEZZLER FOSTER IN MEXICO.

The New York Produce Exchange Gratuity Fund Defaulter Located.

New York, April 24.—The word was passed around yesterday among the brokers on the Produce Exchange that the whereabouts of William R. Foster, jr., the lawyer who swindled the gratuity fund of the Exchange out of nearly $200,000 by means of forged mortgages, has been learned at last. The news came from Foster himself, in a private letter addressed by him to an old acquaintance on the Exchange, and mailed in an obscure town in Mexico, where Foster has been since his memorable flight from this city.

It was last summer, it will be remembered, that the startling disclosure was made that he had been systematically robbing the gratuity fund, of which he was the attorney, and the very day on which the matter was made public he negotiated a loan of $10,000 with an uptown bank and disappeared. Until the receipt of this letter not a word had been heard of him and his hiding place was a mystery. Pinkerton's men have tried to find him; his photograph and personal description have been sent to every city in the civilized world; a large reward has been offered; every clew has been carefully followed, and yet until yesterday if one had the slightest idea where he was. When last seen he was on a train in Vermont, going in the direction of Canada, and how he got to Mexico is yet to be explained. It is not stated whether or not his adopted daughter shares his exile.

It Makes You Hungry

"I have used Paine's Celery Compound and it has had a salutary effect. It invigorated the system and I feel like a new man. It improves the appetite and facilitates digestion." J. T. Copeland, Primus, S. C.

Spring medicine means more now-a-days than it did ten years ago. The winter of 1888-89 has left the nerves all jagged out. The nerves must be strengthened, the blood purified, liver and bowels regulated. Paine's Celery Compound—the Spring medicine of to-day—does all this, as nothing else can. Prescribed by Physicians, Recommended by Druggists, Endorsed by Ministers, Guaranteed by the Manufacturers to be

The Best Spring Medicine.

"In the spring of 1887 I was all run down. I would get up in the morning with so tired a feeling, and was so weak that I could hardly get around. I bought a bottle of Paine's Celery Compound, and before I had taken it a week I felt very much better. I can cheerfully recommend it to all who need a building up and strengthening medicine." Mrs. B. A. Dow, Burlington, Vt.

Paine's Celery Compound

is a unique tonic and appetizer. Pleasant to the taste, quick in its action, and without any injurious effect, it gives that ragged health which makes everything taste good. It cures dyspepsia and kindred disorders. Physicians prescribe it. $1.00. Six for $5.00. Druggists.

Hymeneal.

Wednesday night the nuptials of Mr. W. F. Adamson and Miss Hattie Weber were celebrated at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. John Weber, Water street north. The marriage took place in the presence of only the most intimate relatives of the young couple. Miss Alma Brownscombe was bridesmaid, while the groom was assisted through the ceremony by his brother. The charming bride was the recipient of a large number of beautiful and useful gifts, while the groom also received handsome testimonials from the fire brigade, of which he was a member, and the staff of Mr. Adam Hall's shop, where he was an esteemed employee. The best wishes of a large circle of friends will follow them to their new home on Aylmer street.

An Insane Woman.

At noon to-day a demented young woman named Mary Howson was arrested at the G. T.R. station by P. C. Adams. She would not step off the track as the noon train was coming in, but had to be held by some persons on the platform. When the train came in she entered a car, but as she had several times during the winter boarded the train without any ticket, thus getting free rides between stations, she was known to the conductor and ordered off. She would not go, and the constable had quite a struggle in taking her away. She was locked up in the cells for the present. The young woman comes of a respectable family living on Smithtown hill, her deceased father at one time having been a prominent contractor in Peterborough. Her mind has been unsettled for several years.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

The Reception To-night—The Convention at Cobourg.

Elaborate preparations are being made for the reception at the rooms to-night. The hall is being gorgeously decorated, and the tea will be an excellent one. Mr. T. S. Cole, of Toronto, is in town for the purpose of attending. A good programme will be presented to-night after the tea.

On Sunday, Monday and Tuesday the Convention of the four counties was held in the Association building at Cobourg. There were some 18 delegates from the Association branches outside of Cobourg, Peterborough being represented by Messrs. Coiville, Bennett, Early, Miller and Bens. Mr. T. S. Cole, Travelling Secretary, and Mr. Thos. Ratcliffe, Secretary of the Railway Department, and Mr. Theodore Gibson, Toronto, were present.

Sunday morning there was a consecration meeting at 9 o'clock, at 4 o'clock meetings for both men and women exclusively, and at 8.30 an evangelistic meeting in the opera house, Mr. Cole presiding.

On Monday at 9.30 a.m. there was a prayer meeting, followed by order of business. A paper written by Mr. Wm. Gill, of Kingston, on "Committee work, its need and importance," was read by Mr. Ratcliffe. Mr. R. C. Brower, Port Hope, delivered an address on "The Y. M. C. A., its field, work and agencies." Mr. Jos. Henderson, of Cobourg, read a paper on the relations of the church and the Association. All these papers were fully discussed.

At 2.30 there was a Bible reading, after which Mr. J. W. Bennett of Peterborough read a paper on "Our duty to young men where there are no Associations." Mr. T.B. Utley, of Lindsay, followed with a paper on the duties of the General Secretary, and there ensued a conversation on women's help in Association work, presided over by Mr. Cole.

The night meeting opened with a praise service at 7.30, and at 8 Mr. McCullough began his address on the importance of personal work. Next several Cobourg men, Messrs. Bickle, Lawes, Ward and Hewson, spoke of why they supported the Association. Mr. Cole gave a short address on Association work, Mr. Bickle presiding.

On Tuesday evening a public social was held, at which Miss Burham, of Bolton, Ont., gave several recitations. There was excellent good singing, and Mr. Cole gave an address on the four-fold work of the Y.M.C.A.—Rev. J. C. Wilson presided.

The Convention was a decided success.

High Court of Justice.

Continuation of the Proceedings—The Grand Jury's Presentment—Report of the Crown Roads Will.

WEDNESDAY, April 24.

The Grand Jury presentment was made as follows:

The Grand Jurors of our Sovereign Lady the Queen, in making their presentment, beg to congratulate your Lordship on the occasion of your first judicial visit to Peterborough, and to thank you for the clear and full instructions, as expressed in your charge, of the duties devolving upon the grand jury, which they have found of great benefit in considering the various bills that have come before them.

The Grand Jury, having considered the subject of the replacement of the Grand Jury system, do not see their way clear to recommend any change, but, on the other hand, cannot see how the interests of justice would be better served by intrusting them to any single individual; and they do not see that, as a matter of economy, there would be any appreciable lessening of expense, to, at least, this county.

LEARY VS. ULLYOTT.—An action for damages for alleged non-fulfilment of conditions of a lease respecting a farm in the township of Otonabee. The defendant leased the farm of the late James Campbell for 6 years and agreed to do certain work, to leave the farm seeded down and build a certain fence. The farm came into the possession of the plaintiff from the executors, and he claimed that the defendant had not fulfilled the conditions of the covenant. Verdict for defendant. Messrs. Peuuette and Johnston for plaintiff; Messrs. Dumble and Leonard for defendant.

THURSDAY, April 25.

The court sat at 9.30 o'clock. The first case called was that of RODGERS VS. CANADIAN ORDER OF FORESTERS.—Messrs. O'Meara and Burnham and Mr. Wm. Laidlaw, Q.C., Toronto, appeared for the plaintiff, and Hon. A. S. Hardy, Q. C., Toronto, and Mr. Wilkes, a member of the firm, for the defendants. Several jurymen were challenged, the plaintiff's solicitors rejecting all members of the Order.

In this action, as outlined by the plaintiff's counsel in opening address, Margaret, widow of the late J. R. Rodgers, Lakefield, is plaintiff, and the Canadian Order of Foresters the defendants. The action was brought to recover the amount of an endowment of $1,000 in the Order. John R. Rodgers, a livery stable keeper at Lakefield, became a member of the Order in 1886, and he died on Jan. 25th, 1888. The main point of the case turned upon the habits of the late John R. Rodgers. One of the rules of the order as stated by the counsel for the plaintiff, was that a member whose death was traceable to the use of intoxicating drinks, forfeited all claims upon the endowment fund of the order. The counsel also pointed out that the rules required a member to be tried for irregular habits, and if found guilty he was liable to expulsion, and therefore to the loss of all benefits. The counsel stated that the order knowing all about the defendant's habits, accepted the payment of his dues up to and till after death, paid the widow the sick benefits due to a member in good standing, passed a resolution of condolence with the widow, and the local officers certified that the widow had a valid claim for the $1000 endowment. The counsel went into an elaborate history of the last illness of the plaintiff's husband.

THE EVIDENCE.

Mr. Margaret Rodgers testified to the death of her husband on Jan. 25th, 1888.

Cross-examined by Hon. Mr. Hardy—Mrs. Rodgers said that she was married eleven years ago and had two children living. Her husband drank whiskey occasionally. She had occasionally remonstrated with him for drinking. He sometimes kept whiskey in the house. In an altercation he received a blow on the temple and complained of it. He consulted no doctor. He was in the house about ten days before Dr. Bell was called. Members of the Order sat up with him. He had five convulsions on Monday, Jan. 23rd. Witness signed certificate of claim, under the doctor's certificate that the husband died of delirium tremens. Did not know what was stated as the cause of death at the time claim paper was signed. Dr. Fraser and Dr. Bell were all the medical attendance deceased had. Dr. Fraser prescribed a little liquor.

To MR. LAIDLAW—The officers of the local Court asked me to go to Mr. Sherin's to sign claim papers. The Court officers kept the papers. The financial secretary, Mr. McWilliams, paid $20 funeral benefit, less 65 cents for dues, after the signing of the papers. Her husband drank more in the village than on the farm. There was no increase in his drinking habits in later years.

The Grand Jury visited the jail and pleased to report that everything was found in good order, the premises clean and well kept and the prisoners, as well pleased as could be expected with persons in their position with their treatment.

All of which is respectfull submitted.

R. S. DAVIDSON
Foreman.

Peterborough April 24th, 1889.

HIS LORDSHIP briefly replied concurring in their views regarding the abolition of the Grand Jury system, and discharged the Jury from further attendance.

WM. ROSS ACQUITTED.

QUEEN VS. ROSS.—The prisoner Wm. Ross was arranign on a charge of feloniously uttering a forged order knowing the same to be forged with intent to defraud. The prisoner is alleged to have passed a forged order purporting to be signed by James Stevenson, mayor, upon Foot & McWhinnie in payment for goods a year ago last December. Three witnesses were examined, and after the address of prisoner's counsel, Mr. W. A. Stratton, the jury retired and in a short time returned a verdict of not guilty. Ross was not discharged, he being "wanted" in Hamilton, where a true bill was returned against him on a charge of forgery. He was taken from Peterborough to Hamilton on warrant; he pleaded not guilty and was not ready for trial. He will at once be removed to Hamilton to stand his trial for forgery at the assizes now in progress in that city.

THE LIBEL SUIT SETTLED.

CLANCY VS. CURRAN & SON, publishers of the Orillia News-Letter, newspaper. An action for damages for libel, consisting in defamatory publication against Wm. Clancy, in connection with entering a horse at the Orillia winter races. The defendants having published a retraction after the suit was entered, a compromise was effected, the defendants paying their own costs and $50 of the plaintiffs' costs. The case consequently did not go to the jury. Messrs. Dumble & Leonard for plaintiffs; McCosh & Gunn, of Orillia, for defendants.

News Nuggets.

—The Woodstock Standard says both the evangelists, Messrs. Crossley and Hunter are expert bicycle riders. They say they have won young men for Christ by being wheelers.

—The new Snowden hotel has been supplied with a complete set of handsome awnings by Turner. Each bedroom is also supplied with a life-line in case of fire.

—The cigar and billiard rooms of Dolan & Fairen, have been treated to a coat of paint on the outside, and new window blinds and signs, evidences of the prosperity with which the young firm is meeting.

—The movement of freight over the G.J. R., just now, the Star says, is very heavy. There are some 1,000 carloads of timber to pass down, which, together with the other traffic, will make business lively on the rail for some time.

—The Omemee Herald says:—"On Sunday morning last, on going to his stable in Emily, Mr. Robt. Adams found his four year old grey mare in the manger dead. What caused her death is a mystery. We should say that the squeezing process necessary to stow away an average sized horse in an ordinary manger would be a sufficient cause of death.

Personal.

Dr. E. A. Spilsbury, of Toronto, will be at the Grand Central Hotel, Peterborough, on Monday, May 6th, for consultation. See card. dw

THE COTTON "COMBINE."

COLORED GOODS MEN IN COUNCIL AT MONTREAL.

The Trade of the Country Increasing—"Honest" Canadian Goods—A New "Association" Formed.

MONTREAL, April 24.—A meeting of the Colored Goods Association was held this forenoon at the Windsor. Mr. A. F. Gault was unanimously elected chairman and there was present a full representation of the mills. The following are the names of those present and the mills they represent: Mr. D. Morrice, St. Croix Cotton Company; Mr. Wilkinson, Gibson Cotton Company; Mr. John M. Parks, W. Parks and Son; Mr. A. F. Gault, Stormont Cotton Company; Mr. R. R. Stevenson, Montreal Cotton Company; Mr. Lang, Merriston Cotton Company; Messrs. Tilden and Murray, Ontario Cotton Company; Mr. J. M. Young, Hamilton Cotton Company; Mr. Birkett, Dundas Cotton Company; Mr. D. Mackay, the representative of the Lobster Cotton Company was unable to be present, but expressed his views on the different subjects by letter.

Upon comparison of stocks on hand and orders it was found that the mills were in excellent shape, stocks being extremely light and of the most reasonable goods and the orders well spread over every variety of goods. It was evident from the different reports that the trade of the country is increasing, not so much from the continually increasing population as from the fact that the people are in a better position to resort to manufactured goods instead of the old home spun articles made by the farmers' wives themselves.

During the last two years the mills have found numbers of lines for their machinery which were never thought of before. Each new line stopped the importation of foreign goods and suiting the country quite as well, if not better. All Canadian manufactured goods are "honest," or free from dressing.

The meeting was continued in the afternoon and after some routine business had been transacted the association was formed with a few changes from the old methods.

THROUGH BY DAYLIGHT.

The C.P.R. to Inaugurate a Fast Service Between Toronto and Montreal.

MONTREAL, April 24.—The Canadian Pacific Railway are discussing the advisability of an eight-hour day service between Montreal and Toronto, and with this end in view have constructed two magnificent new passenger engines on an entirely new model. The designer is Mr. F. R. Brown, the mechanical engineer of the company.

They are a new departure in passenger locomotives and reflect no small amount of credit upon their inventor. The engine has ten wheels instead of six. Six wheels are driving wheels with a four-wheel truck in front. These driving wheels are 78-inch. Cylinders 20x22.

Special attention has been paid to abate the smoke and cinder nuisance and an appliance has been fitted to each engine that will almost entirely abate this inconvenience and will make traveling cleaner than ever. Another thing is the, the rounded cab for the engineer, the first of its kind. It is arranged so that it can be kept perfectly warm during winter.

The length of the engine is 65 feet and weight about 167,000 pounds.

The designer of these engines has solved the problem of a much higher rate of speed coupled with increased hauling capacity. One of these engines made its trial trip to-day and is to be placed on the regular run between here and Toronto this week.

WOODSTOCK JOTTINGS.

A Set Back for the Local Opera Company—An Oxford County Morrison.

WOODSTOCK, April 24.—After practising for about six months at Pinafore the Woodstock Opera Company have received word from D'Oyly Carte, agent for Gilbert & Sullivan in America, that legal action will be taken should they attempt to put it on the stage.

In June of last year, James Kennedy, hotelkeeper of Woodstock, was convicted of a third offence against the Scott Act. The decision was appealed against, but the conviction was sustained. Several attempts have been made to arrest him but without avail, Kennedy always fleeing to the woods, where it is stated he has spent several days and nights. Yesterday Constable Tisdale made another attempt and chased him a long way through the country, but he again succeeded in hiding in the swamp.

The Oxford Spring Assizes opened here this afternoon, Hon Mr. Justice Street presiding. The docket is unusually light. The criminal docket consists of charges of forgery, rioting, indecent assault on a little boy and shooting with intent to kill. The most important case on the civil docket is one in which the wife of a man who is supposed to have been murdered sues the A.O.U.W. for $2000 beneficiary. The first case was Hurd v. Clinton, an action for damages for seduction. Verdict for plaintiff for $300.

At the meeting of the Town Council last night a resolution was unanimously adopted extending an invitation to the Royal Grenadiers of Toronto to visit this town on the occasion of the celebration of the Woodstock Amateur Athletic Association on May 24.

Hotelkeeper McCartney of Thamesford was to-day convicted of a first offence against the Scott Act, and fined $50 and costs.

THE CHECK RACKET.

Grand Rapids Citizens Swindled by a Slick Young Canadian.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., April 25.—Richard P. Cloane, a natty young man from Canada, came here some two months ago and boarded at the Warwick, an upper ten family hotel. Last Saturday night going into Tulip & Scott's shoe store where he had previously been introduced he presented a check for $25 signed by Bishop Richter. One of the proprietors refused to cash it, but Cloane coming back a second time got the other member of the firm to give him the money. The same night he presented another check for $30 signed by Bishop Richter to F. L. Reichtal, proprietor of the Morton House barber shop, and got the money. Both were on the Fourth National Bank. The checks were soon found to be forgeries, but when the police tried to find Cloane he had skipped and is supposed to have gone to Detroit. It is said he got other checks which are proven to be forgeries cashed at Warwick and Saveal's hotel.

It is pretty conclusively proven that Cloane is a slick worker. The police have written to London and Toronto to find out something about him. It is said his mother lives at London and other relatives in Toronto. He has spent a great deal of his time while in this city consorting with gamblers, but has got on a good footing with a good class of people at the same time. It is said he has worked a large number of business men for cash, who refuse to reveal their losses. It is not known whether he has had anything to do with bogus checks which are coming into the banks from abroad to be cashed to the extent of nearly $1000.

DRESS GOODS.—New shades of Henriette Cloths to fill up the gap. The quick sales of the past few weeks have been making SMOKE GREY, like the silver sheen of the atmosphere of a light, grey day by the sea. SUEZ GREEN. Why Suez? Only that the oddity of the name may mentally fit the color—the color so beautiful in combination with other colors; OLD ROSE—the name suggests the fading leaf; lost beauty, expired fragrance—and yet it stands for a tinting shade of red so delicate that to call it red would be an insult. The colors are primary, of course. All told, we have about thirty-six good shades of Dress Goods to select from, in materials from 10c. to $1.00 a yard. New girdles and trimmings to match.

Fashion is always turning a new corner, and we with it. This spring is in fashionable for men to wear Striped Suitings. We have them in good variety, and will save you money in every suit you buy.

"Oh that some power the gift would gie us,
To see ourselves as others see us."
Thus sighed old Scotia's Bard in vain,
For what he could not then attain.
But had he lived in this fair town
He had no cause to sigh or frown,
For if he walked on Hunter street,
An eager throng he'd surely meet,
Where photos always are in view,
Which are to life so very true,
That each one who has seen them there,
Does to his comrades all declare,
"SPROULE is the very man can gie us,
The power to see as others see us."

THE

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

ADMINISTRATION OF THE MILITIA DEPARTMENT.

Mr. Mulock Says a Few Hard to Hooked at His Hand—Sir Adolphe Caron Defends His Conduct of Affairs.

OTTAWA, April 25.—There was a lively passage-at-arms in the House to-day. Mr. Mulock sharply attacked the Minister of Militia and Sir Adolph defended his administration of the department with fearlessness and vigor. Before this discussion arose a lot of routine was transacted.

In answer to Mr. Barron, who asked what disposition the Government intended to make of the fines collected under the Canada Temperance Act, now lying unexpended in the county treasuries, Sir John Thompson said these fines were fully disposed of by Order-in-Council of Nov. 15, 1886.

Sir John Macdonald gave notice of motion that the House should sit on Saturday, meeting at 3 o'clock.

The resolution reported from the Committee of the Whole respecting the revote of several lapsed subsidies to railways was read a first and second time and adopted.

The Senate amendments to the bill to amend the Summary Convictions Act were concurred in.

The bill to amend the Callers Act was read a second time and adopted in committee.

The bill from the Senate to amend the Dominion Lands Act was also read a second time and adopted in committee.

Mr. Mulock, speaking upon Hon. Mr. Foster's motion that the House go into Committee of Supply, arraigned the management of the Militia Department during the incumbency of the present Minister of Militia. In that period of eight years he said the expenditure had increased a hundred per cent, while the efficiency had not increased in anything like that proportion. He claimed to speak on behalf of the volunteers of Toronto and district and declared that they were unanimously in favor of a change in the head of the department.

It had been charged against the Minister that he had made improvident contracts, that he had degraded the service, that he had introduced political considerations in the discharge of his office, and he held that these charges had been fully proved before the Public Accounts Committee. He instanced the award of a contract in 1887 to Sanford & Co. of Hamilton, at a price much higher than a tender then in possession of the department from Webb & Co., an English firm. Since 1886 the public had not been called upon to compete for contracts offered by the Militia Department. Adding the cost of freight to the English tender he claimed that the prices thus compared:

	Webb's tender.	Sanford's contract.
Cavalry tunics, 12th Hussar's pattern	$5 00	$7 64
Cavalry tunics, 6th Dragoons pattern	$ 00	$ 00
Artillery tunics	$ 00	$ 00
Infantry tunics, scarlet	$ 00	$ 00
Rifle tunics, green	$ 00	$ 00

He further claimed that in 1887, without even going through the form of sending a circular to the trade, the Minister had awarded a contract to James O'Brien & Co. of Montreal for a large quantity of great coats at the same price as in 1884, notwithstanding the fact that in the meantime the prices of the cloth had much decreased.

After recess Mr. Mulock quoted from the evidence taken before the Public Accounts Committee and also before various military boards to show the dissatisfaction with the clothing issued by the Militia Department, and dwelt especially upon the complaints from the Queen's Own Rifles. He declared that the present minister had no experience as a volunteer and should give place to some member of the force who would sympathize with it. He moved that the administration of the Department of Militia is unsatisfactory to the militia force in Canada and does not command public confidence.

Sir Adolph Caron made a spirited reply, first taking exception to what he termed the discourteous tone of Mr. Mulock's attack and declaring that that gentleman does not show the amount of insolence outside the House that he does in it. He did not believe that Mr. Mulock spoke the opinion of the militia. He expressed the orders of only one battalion—the Queen's Own Rifles. As to the statement that he had had no experience as a volunteer the Minister said he could point to his service under De Salaberry during the time of the Trent affair.

In the matter of the contracts he was not ashamed that he had transferred to Canada the execution of the contracts for the clothing for the militia which heretofore had been made in England. He had thus kept in the country some $200,000 a year which formerly went out of it for uniforms. True, there had been some trouble in the first attempts at manufacture, but it was admitted that trouble had since been overcome.

The House had been told that a swell regiment in Toronto, composed of gentlemen occupying prominent positions in banks and commercial institutions, had preferred to send their measure to a London tailor. These gentlemen added to their patriotism a love of style and wished to be dressed up in the most elegant fashion. He appreciated their good taste and desire for elegance as a battalion, but he could not be expected to serve out such tunics as their witness had shown to the committee as what they desired. Fancy Her Majesty having her army's uniform made by Poole!

He held that in all other respects, as in that now dealt with, the administration of the department was in the best interests of the country and such as to command the public confidence.

A lively discussion followed, participated in by Hon. A. G. Jones, Mr. Kenny, Mr. Yeo, Mr. Hesson, Dr. Hickey, Lieut.-Col. Tyrwhitt, Col. Denison and Col. Pfiser.

The House then divided on Mr. Mulock's amendment, which was lost, 96 to 54.

Clarke Wallace and Clemon (Conservatives) voted for the resolution and Chouinard (Liberal) voted against it. Otherwise the vote was a party one.

The House then went into Committee of Supply and having passed a few miscellaneous items in the supplementary estimates for 1888-'90 the House adjourned at 2.20 a.m.

Suicide in New York's Big Park.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Oliver Perry Lewis, aged 21, drowned himself to-day in Central Park reservoir, dressed in a claw hammer coat, white tie and under habiliments of full dress. Before drowning himself he fixed the day and hour of his funeral and sent out notices to friends asking them to attend it. The notes were on heavy black-bordered paper in envelopes to match.

The Second Lynching at That Spot.

DANVILLE, April 25.—Scott Bailey, colored, made a desperate but unsuccessful attempt yesterday to assault a prominent young lady. The attempt was made in the daytime at the lady's home in the village. Bailey was caught soon afterwards, confessed his crime and was lynched about midnight. He was hanged from the same tree from which Young, a companion of Sam Hose, was lynched a year ago.

A PROTESTANT PROTEST.

ANTI-JESUIT MEETING AT MONTREAL LAST NIGHT.

A Grave Thought to be at Hand—A Series of Strong Resolutions Carried Amid the Greatest Enthusiasm.

MONTREAL, April 25.—The Queen's Hall was packed to its utmost capacity to-night on the occasion of the anti-Jesuit mass meeting. J. R. Dougall occupied the chair, and among the speakers were W. H. Howland of Toronto, John Charlton, M.P., Col. O'Brien, M.P., L. H. Davidson, J. J. MacLaren, Q.C., Rev. Principal Macvicar, Robert Sellar, editor of The Huntingdon Gleaner; G. W. Stephens, Rev. Dr. Antliff, Rev. James Fleck, Mayor E. L. Bond, Archdeacon Evans, Rev. Dr. Douglas, Rev. S. Bond and Walter Paul. The resolutions, five in number, were carried amidst the greatest enthusiasm. They were to the following effect:

Disapproving of the act incorporating the Jesuits and the act for the settlement of the Jesuits' estates as calculated to endanger the peace and wellbeing of the Dominion, and particularly of this province, by giving legal status to a society which in the past has proven itself an enemy of civil and religious liberty and by endowing a religious body contrary to the recognized principle of perfect equality of all churches; that the position accorded the Pope of Rome in the act, the claims he has advanced in his brief distributing the $400,000 placed at his disposal, the doubtful constitutionality of the act, the violation of guaranteed rights of the Protestant minority in this province and its essentially mischievous character, all demand its disallowance.

Protesting against any interpretation of the British North America Act by which the Governor-in-Council and the Dominion Parliament are relieved of the obligation of protecting the rights of Protestant or Roman Catholic minorities in any province as guaranteed by sec. 93 of said act.

Appointing a committee to give effect to the resolutions and to take such measures as may be deemed necessary to secure disallowance of the Jesuits Estates Act; to test the constitutionality of said act and of the act of incorporation of the Jesuit order; and to this end to co-operate with other similar committees throughout the Dominion.

That the meeting regards with indignation [illegible] sections of the act, by which the [illegible] for superior education is virtually abolished, withholding of the full amount of taxes paid by Protestants on their shares in incorporated companies, in striking contrast to the justice accorded Roman Catholics in Ontario, and the degradation of degrees conferred by Protestant universities. Each of these we regard as an invasion of our rights as guaranteed by the British North America Act.

That the meeting expresses strong displeasure at the law of compulsory tithing, at the law by which parishes exist and can be erected for civil purposes, at the priority of the church's claims over all other creditors, at those provisions of the marriage laws which give financial, civil and religious advantages to the Roman Catholic Church which are denied to Protestants. We regard these and all other provisions of the law by which a connection between the State and the Roman Catholic Church exists as creating inequalities and imposing disadvantages on the Protestant minority which no subject of Her Majesty in this Dominion should be called upon to endure. We further protest against any acceptance of the doctrine of the supremacy of the Church over the State and the practice of giving equality of position on state occasions to the chief officer of the Roman Catholic Church with Her Majesty's representative in the Province.

The meeting lasted till midnight. The whole question was considered in all its bearings and the action of the Dominion Government as well as the Provincial Legislature was commented upon freely and fearlessly. The impression seemed to be that a crisis was at hand and that it became Anglo-Saxons in Canada to be up and doing and prepare for a blow, which it was felt must come.

Mr. John Charlton, M.P., said he had every respect for French-Canadians, but the hope of preserving intact the French language and institutions was a hopeless case. If the present state of affairs continued the Church of Rome would soon possess two-thirds of the estate of the Province. He also referred to how countries like the State of Ohio progressed as compared with the Province of Quebec, whose progress was being retarded by the Church of Rome.

THE JESUITS V. THE MAIL.

An Objection to be Made to Test the Status of the Order in Canada.

MONTREAL, April 25.—The writ in the case of the Jesuits v. The Mail was returned in court to-day and an appearance filed by Messrs. McLaren, Leet & Smith. Mr. McLaren has retained Hon. Mr. Laflamme, Q.C., Minister of Justice under the Mackenzie regime, and another prominent Q.C. of this city.

The first proceeding on the part of the defence will be an exception to form, attacking the Jesuit incorporation — holding that the statute under which the Jesuits were incorporated is illegal and ultra vires, inasmuch as it is beyond the power of the Quebec Legislature under the British North America Act to enact such legislation.

Furthermore, that by the said incorporation the Local Legislature has recognized the authority of the Pope—a foreign potentate—to interfere in the legislation of the province and in counter authority to that of Her Majesty the Queen.

Other important issues of a similar nature will be raised. The object of this exception of form is understood to be for the purpose of widening the issues in the case, as by the declaration the defence is tied down to the issue as to whether the oath published by The Mail is that taken by the Jesuits or not. By exception of form the whole constitutionality and status of the Jesuits in Canada will be raised.

It is thought probable that under French law and before a French court the exception may be thrown out, in which case an appeal will immediately be instituted and taken to the Privy Council for final decision.

Death of Mayor Bickford of Dundas.

HAMILTON, April 25.—Henry Bickford, Mayor of Dundas, died at 9.50 last night from congestion of the lungs. Mr. Bickford was born in London, Eng., March 2, 1842, educated at Newton Abbott in the County of Devon, came to Canada in 1867 and in 1869 became head bookkeeper and manager for the firm of N. & F. Rooney & Co. of Toronto, where he continued until the dissolution of that firm in 1879. He then became a partner in the firm of S. Lennard & Sons, now S. Lennard, Sons & Bickford, proprietors of the Dundas Knitting Mills. Mr. Bickford was elected Mayor of Dundas in January, 1886, after having served a term as reeve. He was a member of St. James' Church and of the Masonic order.

The Deadly Cigaret.

ROCKLAND, Me., April 24.—Willie F. Welch, aged 12, died yesterday from immoderate cigaret smoking affecting his brain and nerves. For two years he averaged a dozen cigarets daily.

Jumped From the Brooklyn Bridge.

NEW YORK, April 24.—Last evening Patrick Carroll, a shoemaker 28 years old, jumped from the south roadway of the Brooklyn bridge into the East River. He jumped at a point a little beyond the New York tower. He was picked up by a tug. The tug landed Carroll on the New York shore and turned him over to an officer. He was taken to the hospital. Carroll said he came from Connecticut.

A Grave Premonition.

LONDON, April 24.—In a speech last evening Lord Salisbury said the Government had not added to the cost of defence without reflection. In the event of a variance with European countries an enemy might come from the coast line between Salisbury and France. It was a grave thing for any man to propose to add the coast of Ireland to England's responsibility of defence by giving Ireland independence.

THEY ARE DIRTY AND DRY

THE PLIGHT OF "PROMINENT CITIZENS" OF GUTHRIE.

In Oklahoma is Neither Water to Wash With or Whisky to Drink—The First "Natural" Bunch.

KANSAS CITY, April 25.—A Star special from Guthrie via rail to Arkansas City says: The facilities for getting news here are no better than two days ago. All matter has to be sent by messenger to Arkansas City. The corps of surveyors was yesterday increased to four and work began in the afternoon. All attention is paid to the work, as on it depends every lot owner's claim. Provisions continue scarce. One man yesterday sold thirty barrels of bread, 5-cent loaves selling at 15 cents each, or two for a quarter. The supply ran out, and while people were willing to pay the exorbitant price, bread could not be had at all. Crackers found ready sale at $1.50 per pound. The inconveniences caused by the blockade of freight is beyond computation. The freight, express and baggage increase with each train and lack of help prevents prompt distribution. The water question continues a serious one. Before the end of the week wells will be sunk.

Despite the fact that every train takes out large numbers of dissatisfied settlers every train brings in as many more. The order here is phenomenal. No whisky can be bought. A gentleman who is now speculating in lots has the promise of the agency of one eastern brewer for the entire territory and he is banking on great profits. The sun is very hot and where the sod has been spaded or plowed up the soil is mealy and blows in every direction. Prominent citizens are dirty and the scarcity of water prevents cleanliness. Citizens' meetings are held three times per day.

Died With His Boots On.

ARKANSAS CITY, April 25.—The first natural death in Oklahoma occurred at Oklahoma City yesterday. Thomas O'Neill, a young married man from Marshall, Mo., died of a congestive chill brought on by exertion and exposure. Many cases of pneumonia are reported.

Failed to Get a Claim.

WINFIELD, Kan., April 25.—Silas B. Kennedy of Rama, Ills., startled pedestrians here to-day by drawing a razor across his throat inflicting a slight gash. Later he shot himself through the head and died this evening. Two men said they accompanied Kennedy from St. Louis to Guthrie and all three failed to get claims. It is supposed Kennedy's mind was deranged by his failure.

Merely as a Precaution.

KANSAS CITY, April 25.—A Times special from Kingfisher says: Three more companies of infantry have been ordered here. There is no disorder and the troops are sent merely as a precaution.

INEWS OF THE OLD WORLD.

The Spanish Government Made Uneasy by Utterances at the Catholic Congress.

MADRID, April 25.—At the session of the Catholic Congress here to-day Prof. Sanchez Castro denounced Italy's treatment of the Papacy. His speech has caused the Spanish Government considerable uneasiness. Before the opening of the Congress the prelates promised the Government here that nothing would be said or done that might irritate King Humbert.

VIENNA, April 25.—The Abena Post officially protests against the slanderous reports of the foreign press in regard to the health of Empress Elizabeth. It asserts that she has not suffered seriously although deeply affected at the untimely death of the late Crown Prince Rudolph. She had a severe attack of neuralgia, but the trouble is abating.

Conceded the Demand.

VIENNA, April 25.—The tramway company conceded the strikers' demand of 12 hours per day and has promised to regulate wages as soon as possible.

The Scott Act Buried in Leeds and Grenville by About 1000 Majority.

BROCKVILLE, April 25.—Leeds and Grenville voted on the question of repeal of the Scott Act to-day and the result was a big majority for repeal. Only three municipalities report majorities for the act.

When the act was adopted on Dec. 18, 1884, there were 5058 votes cast for the act and 4384 against, a majority for the act of 674.

Following are the majorities in to-day's election:

GUARDING THE JAIL.

Alleged Plot to Rescue Donald Morrison, the Megantic Outlaw.

SHERBROOKE, April 25.—This morning two of the Provincial Government Police were found on guard at the jail here. Enquiry as to the object of their presence there received the reply that the Quebec Government had yesterday received telegraphic information that reports were current that an attempt would be made to release Donald Morrison from the custody of the jail. No one in Sherbrooke had any knowledge of such rumors and it is considered here in the light of a hoax.

In any event Morrison's friends are probably aware by this time, although he is progressing favorably he is certainly not in a condition to be moved by legal release, much less in the manner intimated.

Was It Revenge?

MONTREAL, April 25.—Pete Lavoyer's house on the shores of Lake Megantic, about 18 miles from Marsden, was burnt down early Tuesday morning. Pete stated to-day that this was evidently from a spirit of revenge for his share in the capture of Morrison. Lavoyer received $25 from Judge Dugas to-day to take him back to his family, who have gone to Henrysburg near Lacolle. He seems to have little fear of going back to the scene of the arrest, though he says he expects to find much animosity against him there.

Mr. Sydney Fisher Will Run in the Conservative Interest in Compton.

SHERBROOKE, April 25.—The Liberal-Conservative meeting in Cookshire to-day for the purpose of nominating a successor to the late Hon. J. H. Pope, Minister of Railways and representative for Compton County, was attended by delegates from every municipality in that very large county. After passing a vote of condolence to the family of the deceased minister it was decided that his son, Mr. Rufus Pope, be chosen as the Conservative nominee for the county. Mr. Pope rejected his claims to the convention. Mr. Sydney Fisher

THE ATTRACTION AT TURNBULL'S.

MILLINERY.—No wonder flowers hold so high a place in Millinery Trimmings—so real to the eye as if raised by the hand of Nature. Everything, from the Daisy that jeans the sod, to the Rose that blushes under glass. A gingle of Untrimmed Hats and Bonnets, stacks of Straws every shape you would think to ask for, and designs you would never dream of. Milans, Fancy Straws, Lace, both materials mixed, Chips, Leghorns. Novelties of all kinds; and this is a season of Novelties.

KID GLOVES—Have tumbled into a line of ten. Kid Gloves, stitched backs, we can sell for 25c. a pair; some people can buy them by the ½ doz. Come early if you want this Bargain. We are in a shape to sell a great number of women's Silk and Taffetas Gloves, in the next few days. Our Gloves always fit, so they say. Assortment, quality, price—the tandem team will give their go!

Such a range of Styles of Hosiery is scarcely ever seen in one place. Sizes to fit everybody.

SASH RIBBONS—In handsome Brocades, at 20c. a yard.

DRESS GOODS.—New shades of Henrietta Cloths to fill up the gap. The quick sales of the past few weeks have been making SMOKE GREY, like the silver sheen of the atmosphere of a light, grey day by the sea. SUEZ GREEN. Why Suez? Only that the oddity of the name may mentally fit the color—the color so beautiful in combination with other colors; OLD ROSE—the name suggests the fading leaf; lost beauty, expired fragrance—and yet it stands for a tinting shade of red so delicate that to call it red would be an insult. The colors are primary, of course. All told, we have about thirty-six good shades of Dress Goods to select from, in materials from 10c. to $1.60 a yard. New girdles and trimmings to match.

Fashion is always turning a new corner, and we with it. This spring is to fashionable for men to wear Striped Suitings. We have them in good variety, and will save you money in every suit you buy.

Fresh styles of New York Domestic Patterns to hand. Every lady can have a new Fashion Sheet that asks for it.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

ADMINISTRATION OF THE MILITIA DEPARTMENT.

Mr. Mulock Says a New Man is Needed at the Head—Sir Adolphe Caron Defends His Conduct of Affairs.

OTTAWA, April 25.—There was a lively passage-at-arms in the House to-day. Mr. Mulock sharply attacked the Minister of Militia and Sir Adolph defended his administration of the department with lustiveness and vigor. Before this discussion arose a lot of routine was transacted.

In answer to Mr. Barron, who asked what disposition the Government intended to make of the fines collected under the Canada Temperance Act, now lying unexpended in the county treasuries, Sir John Thompson said these fines were fully disposed of by Order-in-Council of Nov. 15, 1886.

Sir John Macdonald gave notice of motion that the House should sit on Saturday, meeting at 3 o'clock.

The resolution reported from the Committee of the Whole respecting the revote of several lapsed subsidies to railways was read a first and second time and adopted.

The Senate amendments to the bill to amend the Summary Convictions Act were concurred in.

The bill to amend the Cullers Act was read a second time and adopted in committee.

The bill from the Senate to amend the Dominion Lands Act was also read a second time and adopted in committee.

Mr. Mulock, speaking upon Hon. Mr. Foster's motion that the House go into Committee of Supply, arraigned the management of the Militia Department during the incumbency of the present Minister of Militia. In that period of eight years he said the expenditure had increased a hundred per cent. while the efficiency had not increased in anything like that proportion. He claimed to speak on behalf of the volunteers of Toronto and district and declared that they were unanimously in favor of a change in the head of the department.

It had been charged against the Minister that he had made improvident contracts, that he had degraded the service, that he had introduced political considerations in the discharge of his office, and he held that these charges had been fully proved before the Public Accounts Committee. He instanced the award of a contract in 1887 to Sanford & Co. of Hamilton, at a price much higher than a tender then in possession of the department from Webb & Co., an English firm. Since 1886 the public had not been called upon to compete for contracts offered by the Militia Department. Adding the cost of freight to the English tender he claimed that the prices thus compared:

	Webb's tender.	Sanford's contract.
Cavalry tunics, 12th Hussar's pattern	$6 00	$7 64
Cavalry tunics, 6th Dragoon pattern	5 32	6 00
Artillery tunics	5 84	6 04
Infantry tunics, scarlet	5 21	6 00
Rifle tunics, green	5 00	5 64

He further claimed that in 1887, without even going through the form of sending a circular to the trade, the Minister had awarded a contract to James O'Brien & Co. of Montreal for a large quantity of great coats at the same price as in 1884, notwithstanding the fact that in the meantime the prices of the cloth had much decreased.

After reading Mr. Mulock quoted from the evidence taken before the Public Accounts Committee and also before various military boards to show the dissatisfaction with the clothing issued by the Militia Department, and dwelt especially upon the complaints from the Queen's Own Rifles. He declared that the present minister had no experience as a volunteer and should give place to some member of the force who would sympathize with it. He moved that the administration of the Department of Militia is unsatisfactory to the militia force in Canada and does not command public confidence.

Sir Adolph Caron made a spirited reply, first taking exception to what he termed the discourteous tone of Mr. Mulock's attack and declaring that that gentleman does not show the amount of insolence outside the House that he does in it. He did not believe that Mr. Mulock spoke the opinion of the militia. He expressed the orders of only one battalion—the Queen's Own Rifles. As to the statement that he had had no experience as a volunteer the Minister said he could point to his service under De Salaberry during the time of the Trent affair.

In the matter of the contracts he was not ashamed that he had transferred to Canada the execution of the contracts for the clothing for the militia which heretofore had been made in England. He had thus kept in the country some $200,000 a year which formerly went out of it for uniforms. True, there had been some trouble in the first attempts at manufacture, but it was admitted that trouble had since been overcome.

The House had been told that a swell regiment in Toronto, composed of gentlemen occupying prominent positions in banks and commercial institutions, had preferred to send their measure to a London tailor. These gentlemen added to their patriotism a love of style and wished to be dressed up in the most elegant fashion. He appreciated their good taste and desire for elegance as a battalion, but he could not be expected to serve out such tunics as their witness had shewn to the committee as what they desired. Fancy Her Majesty having her army's uniform made by Poole!

He held that in all other respects, as in that now dealt with, the administration of the department was in the best interests of the country and such as to command the public confidence.

A lively discussion followed, participated in by Hon. A. G. Jones, Mr. Kenny, Mr. Lister, Mr. Hesson, Dr. Hickey, Lieut.-Col. Tyrwhitt, Col. Denison and Col. Pfior.

The House then divided on Mr. Mulock's amendment, which was lost, 96 to 54.

Clarke Wallace and Cimon (Conservatives) voted for the resolution and Chouinard (Liberal) voted against it. Otherwise the vote was a party one.

The House then went into Committee of Supply and having passed a few miscellaneous items in the supplementary estimates for 1888-'90 the House adjourned at 2.20 a.m.

NEW YORK, April 25.—Oliver Perry Lewis, aged 21, drowned himself to-day in Central Park reservoir, dressed in a clawhammer coat, white tie and under habiliments of full dress. He was hanged from the same place from which [illegible] was hanged less than a year ago.

A Strangulation Epidemic.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 24.—One of the heaviest rain and hail storms ever known here occurred this afternoon. It was a veritable cloud burst. When the storm burst a wall fell killing Fireman Leach and Howell and injuring several others. The Ivy-street mission building was [illegible] Loss $200,000.

A PROTESTANT PROTEST.

ANTI-JESUIT MEETING AT MONTREAL LAST NIGHT.

A Crisis Thought to be at Hand—A Series of Strong Resolutions Carried Amid the Greatest Enthusiasm.

MONTREAL, April 25.—The Queen's Hall was packed to its utmost capacity to-night on the occasion of the anti-Jesuit mass meeting. J. E. Dougall occupied the chair, and among the speakers were W. H. Howland of Toronto, John Charlton, M.P., Col. O'Brien, M.P., L. H. Davidson, J. J. MacLaren, Q.C., Rev. Principal Macvicar, Robert Sellar, editor of The Huntingdon Gleaner; G. W. Stephens, Rev. Dr. Antliff, Rev. James Fleck, Mayor E. L. Bond, Archdeacon Evans, Rev. Dr. Douglas, Rev. S. Bond and Walter Paul. The resolutions, five in number, were carried amidst the greatest enthusiasm. They were to the following effect:

Disapproving of the act incorporating the Jesuits and the act for the settlement of the Jesuits' estates as calculated to endanger the peace and wellbeing of the Dominion, and particularly of this province, by giving legal status to a society which in the past has proven itself an enemy of civil and religious liberty and by endowing a religious body contrary to the recognized principle of perfect equality of all churches; that the position accorded the Pope of Rome in the act, the claims he has advanced in his brief distributing the $400,000 placed at his disposal, the doubtful constitutionality of the act, the violation of guaranteed rights of the Protestant minority in this province and its essentially mischievous character, all demand its disallowance.

Protesting against any interpretation of the British North America Act by which the Governor-in-Council and the Dominion Parliament are relieved of the obligation of protecting the rights of Protestant or Roman Catholic minorities in any province as guaranteed by sec. 93 of said act.

Appointing a committee to give effect to the resolutions and to take such measures as may be deemed necessary to secure the allowance of the Jesuits Estates Act; to test the constitutionality of said act and of the act of incorporation of the Jesuit order; and to this end to co-operate with other similar committees throughout the Dominion.

That the meeting regards with indignation the provisions of the act, by which the fund for superior education is virtually abolished, withholding of the full amount of taxes paid by Protestants on their shares in incorporated companies, in striking contrast to the justice accorded Roman Catholics in Ontario, and the degradation of degrees conferred by Protestant universities. Each of these we regard as an invasion of our rights as guaranteed by the British North America Act.

That the meeting expresses strong displeasure at the law of compulsory tithing, at the law by which parishes exist and can be erected for civil purposes, at the priority of the church's claims over all other creditors, at those provisions of the marriage laws which give financial, civil and religious advantages to the Roman Catholic Church which are denied to Protestants. We regard these and all other provisions of the law by which a connection between the State and the Roman Catholic Church exists as creating inequalities and imposing disadvantages on the Protestant minority which no subject of Her Majesty in this Dominion should be called upon to endure. We further protest against any acceptance of the doctrine of the supremacy of the Church over the State and the practice of giving equality of position on state occasions to the chief officer of the Roman Catholic Church with Her Majesty's representative in the Province.

The meeting lasted till midnight. The whole question was considered in all its bearings and the action of the Dominion Government as well as the Provincial Legislature was commented upon freely and fearlessly. The impression seemed to be that a crisis was at hand and that it became Anglo-Saxons in Canada to be up and doing and prepare for a blow, which it was felt must come.

Mr. John Charlton, M.P., said he had every respect for French-Canadians, but the hope of preserving intact the French language and institutions was a hopeless case. If the present state of affairs continued the Church of Rome would soon possess two-thirds of the estate of the Province. He also referred to how countries like the State of Ohio progressed as compared with the Province of Quebec, whose progress was being retarded by the Church of Rome.

THE JESUITS V. THE MAIL.

An Objection to be Made to Test the Status of the Order in Canada.

MONTREAL, April 25.—The writ in the case of the Jesuits v. The Mail was returned in court to-day and an appearance filed by Messrs. McLaren, Leet & Smith. Mr. McLaren has retained Hon. Mr. Lafamme, Q.C., Minister of Justice under the Mackenzie regime, and another prominent Q.C. of this city.

The first proceeding on the part of the defence will be an exception to form, attacking the Jesuit incorporation—holding that the statute under which the Jesuits were incorporated is illegal and ultra vires, inasmuch as it is beyond the power of the Quebec Legislature under the British North America Act to enact such legislation.

Furthermore, that by the said incorporation the Local Legislature has recognized the authority of the Pope—a foreign potentate—to interfere in the legislation of the province and in counter authority to that of Her Majesty the Queen.

Other important issues of a similar nature will be raised. The object of this exception of form is understood to be for the purpose of widening the issues in the case, as by the declaration the defence is tied down to the issue as to whether the oath published by The Mail is that taken by the Jesuits or not. By exception of form the whole constitutionality and status of the Jesuits in Canada will be raised.

It is thought probable that under French law and before a French court the exception may be thrown out, in which case an appeal will immediately be instituted and taken to the Privy Council for final decision.

Death of Mayor Bickford of Dundas.

HAMILTON, April 25.—Henry Bickford, Mayor of Dundas, died at 2.50 last night from congestion of the lungs. Mr. Bickford was born in London, Eng., March 2, 1842, educated at Newton Abbott in the County of Devon, came to Canada in 1857 and in 1869 became head bookkeeper and manager for the firm of N. & F. Rooney & Co. of Toronto, where he continued until the dissolution of that firm in 1879. He then became a partner in the firm of S. Leonard & Sons, now S. Leonard, Sons & Bickford, proprietors of the Dundas Knitting Mills. Mr. Bickford was elected Mayor of Dundas in January, 1888, after having served a term as reeve. He was a member of St. James' Church and of the Masonic order.

The Deadly Cigaret.

ROCKLAND, Me., April 24.—Willie F. Welch, aged 12, died yesterday from immoderate cigaret smoking affecting his brain and nerves. For two years he averaged a dozen cigarets daily.

Jumped From the Brooklyn Bridge.

NEW YORK, April 24.—Last evening Patrick Carroll, a shoemaker 26 years old, jumped from the south roadway of the Brooklyn bridge into the East River. He jumped at a point a little beyond the New York tower. He was picked up by a tug. The tug hailed Carroll on the New York shore and turned him over to an officer. He was taken to the hospital. Carroll said he came from Connecticut.

A Grave Proposition.

LONDON, April 24.—In a speech last evening Lord Salisbury said the Government had not added to the cost of defence without reflection. In the event of a variance with European questions an enemy might come from the coast line between Schleswig and France. It was a grave thing for any man to propose to add the coast of Ireland to England's responsibility of defence by giving Ireland independence.

In Oklahoma in Neither Water to Wash With or Whisky to Drink—The First "Natural" Death.

KANSAS CITY, April 25.—A Star special from Guthrie via rail to Arkansas City says: The facilities for getting news here are no better than two days ago. All matter has to be sent by messenger to Arkansas City. The corps of surveyors was yesterday increased to four and work began in the afternoon. All attention is paid to the work, as on it depends every lot owner's claim. Provisions continue scarce. One man yesterday sold thirty barrels of bread, 5-cent loaves selling at 15 cents each, or two for a quarter. The supply ran out, and while people were willing to pay the exorbitant price, bread could not be had at all. Crackers found ready sale at $1.50 per pound. The inconvenience caused by the blockade of freight is beyond computation. The freight, express and baggage increase with each train and lack of help prevents prompt distribution. The water question continues a serious one. Before the end of the week wells will be sunk.

Despite the fact that every train takes out large numbers of dissatisfied settlers every train brings in as many more. The order here is phenomenal. No whisky can be bought. A gentleman who is now speculating in lots has the promise of the agency of one eastern brewer for the entire territory and he is banking on great profits. The sun is very hot and where the sod has been spaded or plowed up the soil is mealy and blows in every direction. Prominent citizens are dirty and the scarcity of water prevents cleanliness. Citizens' meetings are held three times per day.

Blood With Him Needs Oil.

ARKANSAS CITY, April 25.—The first natural death in Oklahoma occurred at Oklahoma City yesterday. Thomas O'Neill, a young married man from Marshall, Mo., died of a congestive chill brought on by exertion and exposure. Many cases of pneumonia are reported.

Failed to Get a Claim.

WINFIELD, Kan., April 25.—Silas B. Kennedy of Rama, Ills., startled pedestrians here to-day by drawing a razor across his throat inflicting a slight gash. Later he shot himself through the head and died this evening. Two men said they accompanied Kennedy from St. Louis to Guthrie and all three failed to get claims. It is supposed Kennedy's mind was deranged by his failure.

Merely as a Precaution.

KANSAS CITY, April 25.—A Times special from Kingfisher says: Three more companies of infantry have been ordered here. There is no disorder and the troops are sent merely as a precaution.

The Spanish Government Made Uneasy by Utterance at the Catholic Congress.

MADRID, April 25.—At the session of the Catholic Congress here to-day Prof. Sanchez Castro denounced Italy's treatment of the Papacy. His speech has caused the Spanish Government considerable uneasiness. Before the opening of the Congress the prelates promised the Government here that nothing would be said or done that might irritate King Humbert.

VIENNA, April 25.—The Abend Post officially protests against the slanderous reports of the foreign press in regard to the health of Empress Elizabeth. It asserts that she has not suffered seriously although deeply affected at the untimely death of the late Crown Prince Rudolph. She had a severe attack of neuralgia, but the trouble is abating.

The Scott Act Buried in Leeds and Grenville by About 1000 Majority.

BROCKVILLE, April 25.—Leeds and Grenville voted on the question of repeal of the Scott Act to-day and the result was a big majority for repeal. Only three municipalities report majorities for the act.

When the act was adopted on Dec. 18, 1884, there were 5058 votes cast for the act and 4384 against, a majority for the act of 674.

Following are the majorities in to-day's election:

GUARDING THE JAIL.

Alleged Plot to Rescue Donald Morrison, the Megantic Outlaw.

SHERBROOKE, April 25.—This morning two of the Provincial Government Police were found on guard at the jail here. Enquiry as to the object of their presence there received the reply that the Quebec Government had yesterday received telegraphic information that reports were current that an attempt would be made to release Donald Morrison from the custody of the jail. No one in Sherbrooke had any knowledge of such rumors and it is considered here in the light of a hoax

BENEFIT SOCIETIES.

The recent trial of the case of Rodgers vs. Canadian Order of Foresters has, it appears, a special suggestion to subordinate lodges or courts of benefit societies generally. The case in point shows that it is the intention of the grand lodge to reach the aims of the Order of Foresters with a due regard to the protection of all the interests involved. And this is the proper position to take. The members of the Order, or any similar benefit order, enter the organization with the expectation of receiving what may briefly be called insurance and other incidental benefits at the lowest possible rates. This involves the reduction of the risk to a minimum, and this, of course, calls for the application of safeguards, provided in the constitution, against the admission of members whose habits of living tend to shorten their days, and it is also expressly provided that indulgence in the intemperate use of intoxicants deprives a member of all claims upon the endowment funds of the order. It is the duty of the subordinate courts or lodges to see that their membership is purged of those persons whose habits of life unfit them for membership in good standing, and the retention, till death, of a member by the subordinate lodge or court is, or should be, prima facie evidence to the Grand Lodge or High Court that the heirs of a deceased member have a valid claim in respect of endowment. The fact of the acceptance of dues or fees from an unworthy member up to the time of his death, and sometimes after, commits the local branch to a recognition of the claim, and that the High Court or Grand Lodge is compelled to resist the claim is solely due to the neglect of duty of the subordinate organization. And the higher body is perfectly justifiable in exercising the greatest caution. No blame can be attached to superior officers, who refuse to honour a claim for endowment, accompanied by a certificate of the cause of death whose nature shows that the constitution has been violated. In duty to those members who lead correct lives and are legitimate claimants upon the endowment funds, no other course would be a proper one. The subordinate branches of benefit organizations should lay the matter to heart, and see that the great body of members is protected from the claims of those members who have violated their obligations and forfeited their claim. We do not know of a single benefit organization that does not number in its ranks persons whose habits demand either expulsion or a change of their mode of living. A strict application of the principles of the constitution will not only not injure any good member, but it will, on the other hand, render him that degree of protection from unjust claims, which the constitution and regulations of the order to which he belongs, provide.

The "Soo."

To the Editor of the Examiner :—

DEAR EXAMINER,—I thought perhaps you would like to hear a word or two from an old friend. Your paper comes regularly to me and I can tell you I enjoy it. There is an old familiar quotation, "Westward the star of Empire takes it way," and it is true. This young city, for it is almost a city, is a greater marvel than ever Winnipeg was. The chief men of the place are a clever lot, and they have worked well on A1 raw material. I do not think if I travelled the wide world over I should pick out any more likely place than this. Imagine a place rising easily from the river's edge till in a mile the height of land is 160 feet then sloping back imperceptibly for any distance. Across the river, which is a mile wide, you see the busy American Soo, and then turning a little to the right the magnificent rapids gleam in the sun. Above the rapids the C.P.R. bridge spans the river and it is a noble structure. The ceaseless stream of vessels that pass up and down is the wonder of all visitors. Through the canal more tonnage goes than through the Suez Canal by one-sixth. The material progress of this place is great. Houses are building in immense numbers, and wait they might, when one thinks that in 1886 the population was 300, and now it is 9,000, not including the myriads of labourers just arrived to work on the Canadian ship and water power canals. Land that three years ago brought $120 an acre is now selling for $60 a foot. The property on the main streets has risen from $30 a foot to $250 a foot. What do you think of that? And it is no boom, either! A pulp mill, two flour mills, factories, etc., etc., have bought space on the water power canal, and will be in full blast as soon as capital and energy can bring them to it. We have hotels here that beat anything in Canada outside of the best in Toronto and Montreal. A finer hotel than the Algonquin, just above the large Government docks, you couldn't wish to see, and the International is a superb summer hotel. People are sceptical of every new place because Winnipeg went to smash, but this is no haylork affair; it is a genuine triumph of Canadian push and energy. The C.P.R. have 12 tracks side by side in their yards here, 20 acres in extent. A dog-train carried the mail three years ago, but it comes in now in the palace trains of the C.P.R. The Canadian Bank of Commerce and the Imperial Bank have both opened offices and are building fine places of business for themselves. Oh! I tell you the "Soo" is a great place. And the climate! But I must stop—I'll tell you about our lovely weather and bracing air next time.

Yours truly,

SIDNEY.

A Query.

What "Subscriber" Would Like to Know

We have recently received a letter from one of our well-known subscribers upon a subject which we prefer to publish for the perusal of our readers, anticipating that in so doing some one will relieve us of the responsibility of answering "Subscriber's" questions. Here is the the letter :—

"My Dear Sister :—For several years past I have been the recipient of several pamphlets issued from time to time by Messrs. H. H. Warner & Co., of Rochester, N. Y., which, in addition to containing an extensive treatise upon kidney disease, its origin, usual symptoms and effects, also includes numerous testimonials from patients whose complaints and sufferings are sketched therein, evidently the statements that they have been thoroughly relieved by the use of Warner's Safe Cure, which is prepared by the above firm, for the use of persons so afflicted. Now, Mr. Editor, I would like to know if the statements made by those parties who testify to the great good which Warner's Safe Cure has done them, can be relied upon. They seem honest enough from the way they read. "Warner's Safe Cure saved my life after the doctors had given me up," says Jean Doherty, 133 N. Main street, Concord, N.H. "I was given up by doctors with Bright's Disease of the kidneys. The doctors said they could do nothing for me. A friend advised me to take Warner's Safe Cure, and my family consider me as given back from the grave," says Mrs. Carrie A. Fye, of Westboro, Kan. Dr. L. B. Rice, of Hanover C. H., Va., says that Warner's Safe Cure cured him of Bright's Disease."

It strikes me that there is a good deal of cases in the above which, taken across the land the doctors are treating too many persons for nothing serious, and that afflictioned people are victimized for unnecessary medicines, and nervous affections, when they are suffering from kidney disease which should be stopped, as they say, by the use of Warner's Safe Cure, and so much other misery in the form of nervousness, that, which is recommended by eminent physicians, will overcome. Many of my neighbors tell me that this remedy has done much good for them—more good than their doctors. If kidney disease is the real cause of so many other diseases, why, Mr. Editor, don't the people who are afflicted with sickness, insist upon a more careful remedy being made, in order that the true cause may be ascertained, and the proper medicine given?

Salvation Army Circles Rocked—Serious Allegations Made Against a Husband.

TORONTO, April 25.—There is quite a ripple in Salvation Army circles over a matter which will create no little scandal if the leading spirits are successful in their effort to hush things up. Some time ago ex-editor Sumner, of The War Cry, who had left the field, wrote a book of sixty-four pages, entitled, "The New Regime; or, Behind the Scenes in the Salvation Army," which was duly printed and 5000 copies delivered to a Yonge-street bookseller. Hardly had this been done when Commissioner Coombs heard of it, and, backed by a wealthy local sympathizer of the Army, proceeded to the bookseller and bought up the entire edition, with the exception of two or three copies, which had been sold, and then went to the printer and purchased the plates and matrices and later in the day made a bonfire of the lot. The revelations published are said to be highly spiced, and deal with the mode of raising and disposing of money in the Army. Sumner, it is said, has also been escorted and shipped to England, whence he came.

As the morning passenger train on the Canadian Pacific Railway which left the Union Station at 8.45 yesterday for Montreal was going up the grade about two miles east of Green River, six or eight cars of a freight train ahead broke loose and came thundering down the grade. The engineer of the passenger train promptly reversed his engine, and his presence of mind averted what would otherwise have been a most serious mishap. As it was the passenger engine was badly raked and one of the freight cars completely wrecked, while the others were more or less damaged. No one was injured.

Miss Simpson, the young lady at whose instance Thos. A. Miles, a well-known veterinary surgeon, was charged with ratchel months some time ago, complains that when the case came before the Grand Jury her evidence clearly made out a prima facie case, but the jury threw out the bill and sent her a purse containing $5 in token of their sympathy. The girl returned the money indignantly and is now taking steps for a new trial.

The well-known Walker restaurateur, Mr. Peter Brown of York-street, laments the disappearance of his steward Charlie and his waiter Harry, who have gone with a whole 24 hours' receipts.

The action of Brennan v. Brennan, which has been on the peremptory list for some days past, was commenced yesterday afternoon in the Civil Assize Court. The plaintiff is Susannah Elizabeth Brennan, and the defendant, Joseph Scott Brennan, is her husband. The suit is for alimony and the custody of a child. The statement of claim sets out that the plaintiff married the defendant in Hamilton on April 17, 1883, and lived with him as his wife until April, 1888. During this time one child was born. The plaintiff ceased to live with the defendant because of his "many acts of unkindness, indecency, unfaithfulness, gross misconduct, and cruelty," the instances of which are enumerated as follows: In August, 1884, the defendant committed adultery with a young lady named Hannaford, engaged as a servant in their house at Hamilton; the same night he dragged the plaintiff out of bed and terrorized her in many ways; on other numerous occasions he is charged with "coarse, violent, lewd, obscene, blasphemous and filthy language." In February, 1884, the defendant ill-used the plaintiff, spraining her arm. He is also charged with attempting to rape one Abbie Addy, a cousin of the plaintiff, in March last, when she was in a room alone, and she was compelled to escape to avoid him. On the following morning the defendant pulled Mrs. Brennan's hair and used violence to the child. In February, 1887, the defendant is alleged to have attempted to rape a young lady named Ellen Jeffrey, and when the injured one threatened to bring Brennan to the Hamilton Police Court he desired the plaintiff to perjure herself by swearing that the young lady was not in the house when the offence was alleged to have occurred. The husband, the plaintiff claims, is not a proper custodian of the child, and she seeks to obtain it and support for it and herself.

Brennan, in his defence, claims that he conducted and provided a home properly for his wife, and was not addicted to intoxicating drink. His wife, he alleges, was ambitious for social position, and was dissatisfied that he was a mechanic. In her aspirations and dissatisfaction, he alleges, she was encouraged by one John Earls, of Toronto, and left home not because of any misconduct on his part, only because she desired to move in the circles of society in Toronto in which Mr. John Earls moves. It is also claimed by the defendant that his wife was slightly intimate with one John McCoy, of Hamilton, in the early part of 1888 during the absence of the defendant at Brennan's mills at Huntsville. The defendant is a member of the wealthy lumber firm of M. Brennan & Sons, Hamilton, who have mills and lumber woods in Simcoe and Muskoka. Mrs. Brennan is a sister of Mrs. John Earls, wife of the well-known Grand Trunk Railway freight agent, Toronto, who resides at 180 Spadina-avenue.

Ringworm Rotten.

KINGSTON, April 25.—While B. Harris and J. G. Meagher were passing near a drain in Ontario-street built by the corporation, a blast was let off. A large piece of rock alighted on Mr. Harris' breast and rolled up to the side of his face, cutting a deep wound in it.

Forger Hardie Sent Back.

HALIFAX, April 25.—Among the passengers on the steamer Halifax for Boston yesterday were Mr. Somers and Detective McAulay of New York and Henry Hardie the extradited forger. The papers arrived from Ottawa on Monday evening and the preliminaries for the immediate removal of Hardie to New York were completed Tuesday. The money which was found in Hardie's possession when arrested and which the city marshal banked for safety was drawn and handed over to Detective McAulay.

NOVA SCOTIA NEWS.

Suicide at Lawrencetown—Terrible Tragedy at Bogue Hill.

HALIFAX, April 24.—Word was received from Lawrencetown yesterday afternoon that a man named Norman Hill had committed suicide there by hanging himself. He fastened the end of a rope to his neck and the other to a rafter in the barn.

John Schofield of Bogue Hill, about three miles from Amherst, shot his child dead and killed himself by hanging on Sunday night. Schofield was seemingly overcome by remorse for the night when they were startled by a sudden crash as though the house had fallen. Immediately following the shock a [illegible] through the room and Schofield was knocked senseless. Just then the whole side of the house fell in, one of the beams falling on a 12-year-old child and injuring it to such an extent that it died a short time afterwards. Monday morning some neighbors happened to pass Schofield's house and noticed its dilapidated appearance. On entering the building a shocking sight was presented. Schofield was lying stretched upon the floor of the front room with his mouth out and a black streak extending from the mouth down to his knee, which indicated the course the electric fluid had taken. Immediately beneath the dead man was a hole in the floor where the current had gone through to the ground beneath. The sight presented was a most ghastly one. Schofield's eyes were protruding from the sockets, his tongue was burned and his whole body was colored purple. His little child was lying close beside him with its head crushed in by the falling timber. In one corner of the room Mrs. Schofield and three children were huddled together almost scared out of their senses. They were removed to a house in the vicinity.

Attempted Bank Robbery.

VENTURA, Cal., April 23.—To-day at noon one McCarthy, recently discharged from the county hospital, entered Collins & Sears' bank. The cashier had gone to lunch, leaving Jack Morrison alone. McCarthy said his poverty and desperation caused him to think of suicide. He laid a package on the counter which he said was dynamite, drew a six-shooter and demanded $30,000. Morrison dodged behind the counter and ran out of the door. The robber seized $4000 and walked into the street. Morrison gave the alarm and a crowd gathered, but no one was armed. The thief had a horse hitched near by and was making for that. The sheriff, who was at hand, stepped into a hardware store and seized a shot gun, when the robber surrendered. The money was all recovered except $30, which was probably lost on the street.

Britain's Trade with the U. S.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Consul-General Waller of London reports a general revival of the trade and commerce of the United Kingdom. The improvement in business is especially noticeable in the shipbuilding industry. The value of goods imported into the United Kingdom from the United States in 1887 was $415,945,370 and exports thereto $201,200,780, an increase of $7,244,385 in imports and of $13,161,725 in exports over the previous year. Mr. Waller reports a continuous decrease in the kingdom in the number of persons committed for trial during the last decade. In 1878 the number was 1 for every 1446 of the population, and in 1887, 1 for every 2025. The diminution in crime is ascribed to the spread of education.

Through Rims 12 People Were Killed.

BIRKENHEAD, Ala., April 24.—The trial of Dick Hawes, who is charged with having murdered his wife and two little daughters, was called yesterday. The day the bodies were found in a lake near here Hawes was married to a highly respected young lady of Jackson, Miss. He was arrested while on his bridal tour and placed in jail here. A mob stormed the jail and twelve of them were killed by the sheriff's deputies. The day was consumed in arguing a motion for a change of venue.

A Tar and a Swelling Burnt.

CHATHAM, April 23.—The report comes from Warren that the fishing tug Ethel of Collingwood has been burned and sunk. She left here a few days ago for Squaw Island. Valued at $2000, insured in Royal Canadian for $1000.

A dwelling house and part of the contents owned by David Water, situated in East Ward, was totally destroyed by fire this afternoon.

Fatal Boiler Explosion.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 24.—A boiler exploded at the Bessemer Rolling Mills killed Dave Ballew and one Davis, both colored firemen.

Our Vancouver Correspondent.

From Esquimault, B. C., Mrs. A. B. Cameron writes that being very much troubled with dyspepsia she tried two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters, which gave great relief, and hopes that others may be induced to try it also and receive like benefits.

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulcerations, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Lyman, Sons & Co., Montreal, Wholesale Agents. dw

The Blood is the Life.

And on its purity largely depends the general health. No one is free from danger, and nine-tenths of humanity actually do suffer from one form or other of impure blood. No one remedy has such a wide range of curative power as has Burdock Blood Bitters—that best of all blood purifiers and tonics.

Like Half a Dollar.

"About eight years ago my feet and legs became poisoned, and came out in great sores as large as a half dollar, which ate in almost to the bone. After the failure of other remedies, the sores were completely healed by one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters." Joseph Gonyon, Tupperville, Ont. 2w17d

For Five Years.

"For over five years we have used Hagyard's Yellow Oil in our family for coughs and colds, burns and sore throat, and our experience is so satisfactory that we would recommend the medicine to any person." Mrs. F. Sanderson, Bosworth, Ont. 2w17d

INDIGESTION can be effectually cured by the use of Dyer's Quinine and Iron Wine. This admirable tonic is invaluable in cases of Appetite and General Debility. W. A. Dyer & Co., Montreal. 6d93

It Made

Mother Strong

"My mother has been using PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND for nervous prostration, accompanied by melancholia, etc., and it has done her a world of good. It is the only medicine that strengthens the nerves." G. H. BROWN, Orbisonia, Pa.

"I am in my 66th year. Have been afflicted in several ways—could not sleep, had no appetite, no courage, low spirits. I commenced using Paine's Celery Compound, and felt relief from the third day after using it. I now have a good appetite and can sleep well. My spirits and courage are almost like those of a young man." S. C. KINKAID, D. D., Gonzales, La.

Paine's Celery Compound

Strengthens and builds up the old, and cures their infirmities. Rheumatism, indigestion and nervousness yield quickly to the curative power of Paine's Celery Compound.

A Perfect Tonic and Invigorator, it GIVES NEW LIFE.

"I am now 63 years old and have tried several remedies, but none had any effect until I used Paine's Celery Compound. I feel entirely different for the short time I have used it. I can walk nearly straight, sleep sound and well, and feel as though there was new life and energy coming into my whole system." H. MYLIUS, Cleveland, Tenn.

Paine's Celery Compound is of unequaled value to women. It strengthens the nerves, regulates the kidneys, and has wonderful power in curing the painful diseases with which women so often silently suffer.

The fact cannot be too forcibly impressed upon the minds of all users of paint, that good results can be produced only by the use of good materials. The main expense in painting is not in the cost of the paint, but in the cost of LABOR and OIL, and it requires more labor and more oil to apply inferior paint than to apply the best that can be obtained.

The above Brands are the acknowledged standard by which all other paints in the market may be judged.

It was decided to honor the day in a proper fashion, but the manner of celebration was left in the hands of a committee consisting of Captains Edwards and Brennan and Lieut. Lee. Another meeting is to be held Tuesday evening next, after battalion drill.

Appreciated Commendation.

A letter has been received from Rev. Canon Dansville, in which he speaks in terms of warm commendation of the report published in THE EXAMINER of his address on "The Church Service Outlined." It was one of the best and most accurate reports ever received.—THE EXAMINER did him better justice than he would have received from the Toronto papers. In acknowledging the Rev. Canon's kind remarks, THE EXAMINER has only to say the address was eminently worthy of a good report.

The ladies connected with the South Ward St. John's) Mission school, held a successful apron sale and tea in the restaurant premises on George street, known as Chamberlain's, Thursday evening. Tea was served from five to eight o'clock, and meanwhile the sale of aprons went on flourishingly. All the articles offered were sold at good prices, while the five tables were also well patronized by friends of the church to which the proceeds were devoted. A handsome sum was netted on the result of the enterprise of the ladies, chief among whom were Mrs. Buller, Mrs. Rutledge, Mrs. Archer, Mrs. Mills, Mrs. Salisbury, Mrs. Halliday, Mrs. Seward, Miss Chamberlain, the Misses Barlee, the Misses Rutledge, Miss Rash, Miss Stapleton, the Misses White, and Miss Claringbold. These ladies are to be congratulated upon the success they achieved solely by their own efforts.

The Crops.

The city papers publish reports from twenty-six counties in Ontario concerning the crops. They are almost unanimous to the effect that the fall wheat wintered well, that the meadows are in excellent condition, that the spring crops have been got in two or three weeks earlier than usual, that the fruit prospect is good, and the general outlook bright. Following is the report from Peterborough:—The farming operations in the Peterborough district are further advanced than is usual at this time of the year. The fine spring weather, which came earlier than usual, has been taken advantage of by the farmers generally, and spring operations have been pushed along without any interference from frost or severe weather. Fall wheat, from all reports that are to hand, gives promise of being a good crop, and if Jack Frost does not visit this district this is assured.

Bishop Dowling's Reception.

The final meeting of the general committee appointed to make arrangements for the reception of His Lordship Bishop Dowling at Hamilton on May 2nd, the Hamilton Times says, was held Tuesday evening. The committee appointed to draft an address handed in their report, which was read by the secretary and unanimously adopted by the meeting. The address will be gotten up in album form, each paragraph of the address being engrossed on a leaf of Bristol board. The outside cover will be bound with plush. When completed it will have a very neat appearance. The address will be read in the church. A subscription list was opened to defray the expense of the same. The committee on arrangements in connection with the reception reported that they had arranged that a special car will be attached to the Toronto morning train for the accommodation of any persons desirous of going to meet His Lordship. The car will be detached at Oakville and remain there until the train arrives conveying the Bishop, when the deputation will again be brought back to the city. The reception on the arrival of His Lordship at the station will be free from any party or society demonstrations. All are expected to turn out as private citizens to give the Bishop a hearty welcome. The cabs for the accommodation of His Lordship and the visiting clergy will be engaged and supervised by the authorities at the palace. The committee considered, as far as cabs for private citizens were concerned, it would be better for all that intended to go in the procession to club together in fours to engage cabs for their own accommodation, being personally responsible for the same.

TO-NIGHT.

T. GRANGER STEWART, M.D., F.R.S.E., Ordinary Physician to H.M. the Queen in Scotland, Professor of Practice of Physic in the University of Edinburgh, in an article on Bright's disease, says, "Dyspnœa (difficult breathing) is frequently met with in the inflammatory and cirrhotic forms of the disease and may be independent of any local lesion, being probably a result of uræmic poisoning." And it is well known that uræmic poisoning arises from kidney disease. So much known, it remains to recognize the fact that, to remedy an effect the cause must be removed, and it is universally acknowledged that Warner's Safe Cure is the only reliable remedy for kidney disease.

HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE.

The Rodgers-Forresters' Case Settled.

The Widow Gets $750 and the Costs—Divided Sentences Passed on Hornbrook and Millburn—Civil Cases Continued.

THURSDAY, April 25.

After adjournment the court resumed sitting, and Irwin Hornbrook, who pleaded guilty to forging a mortgage on the farm of Robert Gardiner, Dummer, was brought up for sentence to the penitentiary for two and a-half years. The Judge, in passing sentence, said the prisoner's age (over 60 years), was the only circumstance that prevented his sentencing the prisoner to seven years. He referred to the large number of forgery cases at the present assizes and said society must be protected.

Victor Millburn, convicted of uttering a forged cheque, was, after a paternal lecture from his lordship, who thought he had better be sent where he could learn a trade, sentenced to the penitentiary for four years. Neither Hornbrook nor Millburn were much moved by their sentences.

The prisoners were removed and the Forresters' case resumed.

THE FORESTERS CASE.

Mrs. Rodgers was the only witness called for the plaintiff.

Dr. Bell, physician to Court Lakefield, No. 43, C.O.F., and who attended the late John E. Rodgers in his last illness, testified that during the last year of Rodgers' life he had been consulted by him professionally four times. On two of these occasions the illness was caused by over-indulgence in intoxicating drink. That over indulgence in drink was the cause of his last illness, and that delerium tremens was the direct cause of death.

After adjournment for dinner the Foresters case was resumed, Dr. Bell's examination being continued.

To Mr. Hardy—he stated that the conclusions referred to were the consequence of liquor.

To Mr. Laidlaw.—The first occasion on which he observed delerium was on Tuesday evening when there were present Leonard, Dinwoodie and others Rodgers showed fear and other peculiar symptoms. Had no feeling against Mrs. Rodgers. The date in which Mrs. Rodgers came to witness complaining of her husband was some ten days or a fortnight before Jan. 19th. The copy of prescription produced was not similar to that agreed upon by witness and Dr. Fraser on Tuesday evening. If continued in the then condition of the patient it would in time result fatally. If the patient had received a blow on the temple immediately before his illness, it might have had an important bearing. Had heard that Rodgers had been struck but so indefinitely that he did not consider it in his treatment. Witness described the actions peculiar to delerium tremens. The symptoms, of the patient's malady, were inconsistent with any other thing than the existence of delerium tremens. The case settled.

At this point the solicitors and several parties to the suit retired for a few minutes from the court, and returning Hon. Mr Hardy counsel for the defendants announced, that a settlement had been agreed upon. The defendant agreeing to allow Mrs. Rodgers $750 of her claim of $1000, and a compromise being made as to the costs of the suit.

Fifth Day—Friday.

The court resumed at 9.30 o'clock. The petit jurors were discharged from further attendance, except those drawn for the case.

SHARP VS. LAKEFIELD LUMBER COMPANY. —An action of trespass. The plaintiff, Wm. Sharp, obtained a patent for lot 4, 15th concession of Burleigh in Nov. The defendants were licensees (from May 1888 to the 30th April, 1889) and cut pine and some other timber on the lot last winter. The jury found that pine timber had been cut to the value of $418, ash to the value of $12, and that the damage incident to lumbering operations was $100. This was the finding of the jury, and His Lordship reserved decision as to whether the patent or the licenses should take precedence. Mr. Edwards, for plaintiff; Mr. Poussette, Q.C., for defendants.

MOORE VS. KENNEDY.—An action of ejectment under mortgage. Judgment was given referring the matter to the master at Peterborough to take the usual proceedings for sale and for possession on sale being made. Mr. Poussette Q. C. for plaintiff; Mr. Leonard for defendant.

The Young Men's Reception.

A Successful Social Gathering at the Y. M. C. A. Hall—Mr. Colville to Be Permanent Secretary.

The reception to young men in the Association rooms last night was a gratifying success from every point of view. The rooms were crowded with young men, many of them hitherto strangers to the place, and quite a number converts of the recent Crossley and Hunter meetings. If the attendance could be taken as an evidence of their interest in the Association, prospects are brighter than ever for a most successful labor of love amongst the young men of the town through the Y.M.C.A. The reception was public, no admission fee being charged, and all visitors were accorded a hearty welcome and made feel at home by a reception committee of young men appointed for the purpose. In addition ample refreshments were served by the ladies from seven to eight o'clock in the dining room. Their guests were not slow to appreciate the good things set before them. The ladies who so kindly contributed the tea were Miss Rogers, Mrs. Griffin, Mrs. Goldsmith, Mrs. Grundy, Mrs. J. R. Stratton, Misses Gilmour, Maggie Dixon, Ella Stratton and Annie Prowse.

The hall was very handsomely decorated with flags and bunting, kindly loaned by Mr. J. J. Turner and others, and the piano used was procured from Mr. Jackson, who with the others was tendered a vote of thanks for the same at the close of the meeting. On the walls were hung paddles and lacrosse sticks, trophies of the athletic department of the Association. The hall was filled to overflowing with an audience composed almost entirely of young men.

THE ENTERTAINMENT.

Shortly after eight o'clock the entertainment began, Mr. G. M. Roger, President of the Association, in the chair. The opening number was a selection by the band, a musical organization that has quite recently sprung into existence, and prominence, in Association work. The instruments are all brass, with snare and bass drums, but by steady practice the band boys are able to furnish really good music. The band is composed of Messrs. Jno. Miller, leader; M. Bowman, R. Shelton, H. Holland, A. Miller, W. Mann, H. Allen, F. Follis, R. Beach, C. Kindred.

Rev. Mr. Parker followed with prayer, after which the chairman made a few remarks anent the Association. Then a chorus was rendered by Messrs. Jno. and Alf. Miller, McCallum, Bowman, Mann, and Allen. Rev. E. F. Torrance and Mr. J. J. Hartley followed with short addresses, expressive of their deep interest in the work and encouraging young men to appreciate the advantages which the Association holds out to them. Mr. W. H. Dingle performed "The Norwegian Bridal Procession" on the piano with skill and expression, and Rev. Mr. Parker was called upon to say a few words, in which he impressed upon young men the necessity of Bible study in order to maintain their Christian spirit. Mr. W. J. Herbison, late secretary of the Peterborough Association, also spoke briefly of his interest in the work and giving young men some good advice.

THE NEW SECRETARY.

It was announced that Mr. R. J. Colville of Toronto, who has been looking after the work here for a few weeks back, had accepted the position of general secretary. The announcement was received with unanimous approval. Mr. Colville is a young man of earnest, industrious and whole-souled nature, the embodiment of geniality, and with a pleasing personality that invites confidence and wins warm friends for him on every side. He has shown himself also quite capable of fulfilling the position, and altogether the appointment is a most satisfactory one, augering well for the future progress of the Association.

The chorus next sang "Like Men that Wait," after which Mr. Colville spoke briefly of his hopes regarding the future, saying that he had been induced to come here permanently by the kind sympathy and support he received on every hand, and that he intended to give himself entirely to the work for young men.

Next Mr. Utley, the pleasant and genial general secretary of the Lindsay branch, which was organized through the efforts of the Peterborough Association at the time Mr. Williams was secretary, made a brief address. Mr. Utley urged the young men not to shirk their duties in connection with the Association, but rally round their secretary and support him. He invited them to Lindsay on the 14th of May, when a farewell reception was to be tendered their President, who was, he regretted to say, leaving their town.

Mr. Wm. Morton contributed a smooth organ solo, with piano accompaniment, after which Rev. J. C. Davidson made a short address, the burden of which was that young men should not think that because they were apparently singled out of the community as special so to speak, as was shown to be the case by the many means that were being used to lead them to Christ, that on that account they were supposed to be guilty of a greater share of sin than others and therefore more effort was required on their behalf; it was rather an evidence that the people realized what grand possibilities there were before young men, and because the work among them was more full of hope, promise and profit than amongst any other class.

Mr. T. S. Cole, the Travelling Secretary of the Association, was the next speaker. He enlarged upon the wonderful progress the Young Men's Christian Association had made in the world. Forty years ago it was started in London, Eng. To-day there were in America alone over 1,300 Associations, 47 of which were located in Ontario and Quebec. There were now in the two provinces some 55 Association buildings, and between 40 and 50 more on the way. There were Associations in every part of the world—Japan China, Australia, Turkey, Jerusalem and other cities of holy memory in Palestine. He pointed out what benefit a membership in such an extended brotherhood might be to a young man, and spoke also of the Secretary and his work, appealing for their support and financial aid, and urging them to exercise a little self-denial in order to help along the cause.

After a solo by Mr. Utley, "Ashamed of Jesus," Mr. H. S. Griffin made a few remarks upon the financial aspect of the work, and pointed out the necessity there existed for funds to pay the annual expense of $1,400 incurred in running the Association. He wanted the young men to come in and take hold of the finances.

In conclusion he moved, seconded by Mr. G. J. Early, a vote of thanks to the ladies who had provided the supper, to Mr. Jackson and the others who had loaned their articles for the occasion. Mr. Roger also referred to the kindly and practical interest which the ladies had taken in the Association from the very start, and said he had found them always ready to assist in any way they could in behalf of the Association. Rev. M. L. Pearson pronounced the benediction and thus the reception terminated. It is expected there will be a large increase in the membership of the Association as a result of the invitation that was pressed upon young men to join in the work.

Brute Humanity.

Once in the city of Vienna there was a dread of hydrophobia, and orders were given to massacre all the dogs which were found unclaimed or uncollared in the city or suburbs. Men were employed for this purpose, and they generally carried a short stick, which they flung at the poor proscribed animal with such certain aim as either to kill, or maim it mortally, at one blow.

It happened one day that, close to the edge of the river, near the Ferdinand's-Brucke, one of these men flung his stick at a wretched dog, but with such bad aim that it fell into the river. The poor animal, following his instinct, or his teaching, immediately plunged in, redeemed the stick, and laid it at the feet of its owner, who, snatching it up, dashed out the creature's brains.

Which was the brute?

There are men in whom is no spark of gratitude or generosity. There are others who appreciate benefits received and are happy in making grateful acknowledgment.

Rev. J. W. Asheman, one of the most eloquent divines of Detroit, Mich., writes, March 26, 1888: "In 1884 I visited Chatham, Ont., to lecture and preach. I was in agonizing pain (the result of kidney disorders, and unable to dine with my host. I explained to Judge Woods what was the matter. He asked me if I was too prejudiced by my medical education to try Warner's Safe Cure, adding, although I have never tried it, I can take you to a gentleman whom it has helped wonderfully.

"I used 25 bottles of Warner's Safe Cure and was in better health than for twenty-five years. I have everything to lose and nothing to gain by making this statement, save the approval of a good conscience."

There are tens of thousands of people in this country who have gained the approval of a good conscience in a like manner, and are not too bigoted to do good.

THE ATTRACTION AT TURNBULL'S.

MILLINERY.—No wonder flowers hold so high a place in Millinery Trimmings—as real to the eye as if raised by the hand of Nature. Everything, from the Daisy that jeans the sod, to the Rose that blushes under glass. A gingle of Untrimmed Hats and Bonnets, stacks of Straws every shape you would think to ask for, and designs you would never dream of. Milans, Fancy Straws, Lace, both materials mixed, Chips, Leghorns. Novelties of all kinds; and this is a season of Novelties.

KID GLOVES—Have tumbled into a line of tan. Kid Gloves, stitched backs, we can sell for 25c. a pair; some people can buy them by the ½ doz. Come early if you want this Bargain. We are in a shape to sell a great number of women's Silk and Taffetas Gloves, in the next few days. Our Gloves always fit, so they say. Assortment, quality, price—the tandem team will give their go?

Such a range of Styles of Hosiery is scarcely ever seen in one place. Sizes to fit everybody.

SASH RIBBONS—In handsome Brocades, at 30c. a yard.

DRESS GOODS.—New shades of Henriette Cloths to fill up the gap. The quick sales of the past few weeks have been making SMOKE GREY, like the silver sheen of the atmosphere of a light, grey day by the sea. SUEZ GREEN. Why Suez? Only that the oddity of the name may mentally fit the color—the color an beautiful in combination with other colors; OLD ROSE—the name suggests the fading leaf; lost beauty, expired fragrance—and yet it stands for a tinting shade of red so delicate that to call it red would be an insult. The colors are primary, of course. All told, we have about thirty-six good shades of Dress Goods to select from, in materials from 10c. to $1.00 a yard. New girdles and trimmings to match.

Fashion is always turning a new corner, and we with it. This spring is fashionable for men to wear Striped Suitings. We have them in good variety, and will save you money in every suit you buy.

Fresh styles of New York Domestic Patterns to hand. Every lady can have a new Fashion Sheet that asks for it.

"Oh that some power the gift would gie us,
To see ourselves as others see us."
Thus sighed old Scotia's Bard in vain,
For what he could not then attain.
But had he lived in this fair town
He had no cause to sigh or frown,
For if he walked on Hunter street,
An eager throng he'd surely meet,
With faces bright as summer light,
All coming from one-fifty-eight.
Where photos always are in view,
Which are to life so very true,
That each one who has seen them there,
Does to his comrades all declare,
"SPROULE is the very man can give us,
The power to see as others see us."

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

THE EXPORT DUTY ON LOGS OCCASIONS A DEBATE.

A Motion Expressing Regret at the Increase in Duty Lost on Division—The Behring Sea Seizures.

OTTAWA, April 26.—After routine business in the House this afternoon Col. Prior brought up the question of the seizure of Canadian and other vessels for alleged infraction of law in Behring Sea. He thought the Government should actively press for compensation to the owners of these vessels and to secure immunity from interference in the future. He thought the American claim of exclusive jurisdiction in these waters could not be justified by any pretence and that it was made simply on account of the influence exercised by the Alaska Seal Company.

Mr. Davies followed, claiming that Canada was hampered in securing justice from the United States by reason of having no direct communication with the Government of that country.

Sir Richard Cartwright spoke in the same strain, complaining of the circumlocution of the present system of communicating through the Colonial Office.

Sir John Macdonald did not see what effect the presence of a Canadian Ambassador at Washington would have had upon this matter, seeing that not only Canadian citizens but Americans as well had had their property illegally seized for trespass in Behring Sea. It must be remembered that this was not only a Canadian question, but one affecting the whole maritime world. England as a maritime power had pressed and was pressing for a settlement of it. The newly appointed British minister at Washington, Sir Julian Pauncefote, was, from his long connection with the Foreign Office, admirably adapted to carry on negotiations on the subject.

Canada had not been at all neglectful of the interests of her people and he felt confident that compensation must some day be given for the wrongs that had been done. The late Governor-General, Lord Lansdowne, had taken a very deep personal interest in these questions of the fisheries and he had promised to personally interview the authorities in England before proceeding to India and to make plain the position of affairs so far as Canada is concerned. Sir John was confident that Sir Julian Pauncefote had come out charged to bring the matter to as speedy and satisfactory a conclusion as possible.

Mr. Barnard called the attention of the Government to the desirability of the free admission of machinery for the development of the mines of British Columbia.

Mr. Barron re-introduced the question of the increased export duty on logs, which he condemned as calculated to arouse a hostility in the United States which would lessen the export of our sawn lumber. He moved as an amendment to the motion to go into supply a resolution expressing regret that the Government should have increased the export duty.

Mr. Charlton reminded the House that he had brought this question up a few days ago and, speaking for the Canadian Lumbermen's Association, he had asked that the increase be taken off. He had not asked for a vote on the subject, as he knew the matter was being considered by the Government and he did not wish to embarrass them in their actions. He considered Mr. Barron's motion to be ill-advised in the extreme, and to be made by one who had not consulted the interests of those affected and who spoke contrary to their desires and resolutions. He asked that the motion be withdrawn and declared that were it not withdrawn there was a large business interest in the country that would resent it.

Mr. O'Brien said this was a question in which not only the lumbermen but the whole people of the country were interested, and in the interests of the people he hoped that the Government would not do anything to facilitate the export of our lumber. It would come to an end soon enough as it was. It was well known that at every sale of limits made by the Ontario Government for years the largest purchasers were Michigan lumbermen, whose aim it was to take the logs out of the country and manufacture them in the United States. The imposition of the export duty had prevented millions of feet being so taken out.

Hon. David Mills contended that any member of the House was justified in introducing a resolution dealing with such a subject, no matter what any class in the country thought should be done.

Sir John Macdonald explained the reason which had induced the Government to accede to the wishes of the lumbermen to increase the export duty to the present figure. He declared Mr. Barron's resolution to be most inexpedient and a motion made by that gentleman in the interests of what he thinks party more than anything else.

Mr. Perley, speaking as a lumberman, said the facts of the case were just as stated by the Premier. The deputation who had waited upon the Government to ask for the increase from $2 to $3 had considered and urged that an export duty of $3 per thousand feet on the logs was no more than equal to the import duty of $2 imposed by the United States on our lumber. From the standpoint of the public interest he had approved of the increase even though some of his partners urged that it was against the interests of the lumbermen. He would be sorry to think that the people of the States, his native country, would sink to a policy of retaliation, but in any event he was confident that we had nothing to fear. The home consumption increased so rapidly that the United States market became year by year of less importance. He saw no reason why the export duty should be taken off or decreased, at least until the United States had agreed to take a similar course with respect to lumber.

After further discussion the House rejected Mr. Barron's resolution on division by a vote of 54 to 90.

The House then went into Supply. Items in the last submitted supplementary estimates were passed and the House then went into concurrence.

On the appropriation for contingencies of the Senate Sir Richard Cartwright inquired what progress had been made by the joint committee of both Houses appointed with intent to reduce the contingent expenses.

Sir Hector Langevin said the committee had agreed upon a report which would shortly be ready for presentation. They would recommend considerable reductions in salaries for the future, to go into effect whenever vacancies occur. It was the intention to reduce the number of officers. Three at present in office will not be disturbed, the changes being made as vacancies occur. A reduction in the expenses for stationery is recommended and a change, to go into effect this year if agreed to, is recommended with respect to certain officers whose residences are in the building.

Having made considerable progress in concurrence the House adjourned at 12.10 until 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

NEARING ITS END.

The Maloney-Phillips Case Expected to End in a Committal.

MONTREAL, April 26.—The Phillips-Maloney enquete is finally drawing to a close. The case will probably be argued to-morrow and it is expected will end in a committal to the Court of Queen's Bench. The cards found in Maloney's safe are all cut at the edges that it appears to be an easy matter to draw whatever card may be required for the game. The missing goods have not yet been found. The enquete was continued this afternoon and formal evidence was heard.

West Through a Trestle.

BUTLER, Pa., April 26.—An engine and eight cars, one of them an oil tank filled with oil, went through a trestle on the P. V. & C. road, near Petrolia, this morning. The engine and seven cars and the engine were wrecked. John Bruton, the engineer, and James Maloney, a brakeman, were injured internally. The trestling had caught from a fire lighted by some fishermen and one section had been burned. A farmer says he saw the fire but made no effort to extinguish it, excepting he had just cut a path so the flames would pass that path had been made.

A FATHER'S AWFUL CRIME.

TERRIBLE TRIPLE TRAGEDY IN MANITOBA.

Farmer McLeod of High Bluff Kills His Two Children With an Axe and Then Cuts His Own Throat.

WINNIPEG, April 26.—A horrible murder and suicide was committed near High Bluff station last night.

A farmer named McLeod, who was last seen about dark on, was found by a neighbor in his house this afternoon with his throat cut.

Two children were discovered in a bedroom off the kitchen: the girl, about 8 years of age, stone dead with a deep cut by an axe inflicted on her head. The boy, about 12, was still living although there were four wounds on the head, but he cannot possibly recover.

The razor with which McLeod ended his own life was found in the cellar, from which place to where he lay were tracks of blood.

Near his belly was the bloody axe with which he struck his little ones.

Financial difficulties were doubtless the cause of the crime.

Mrs. McLeod died six years ago.

THE WASHINGTON CENTENNIAL.

New York Talks of Nothing Else—Another Committee Row.

NEW YORK, April 26.—The whole city with another city of strangers is talking of nothing but the coming great celebration. The commonest thing about the city is the portrait of Washington draped in bunting, which adorns the windows of thousands of buildings. Tens of thousands of dollars damage was done to decorations by the storm. Daily numbers of crooks are being arrested and locked up. Mayor Grant has been asked to preside at the banquet on the evening of the 30th. He sent a reply which could not be had. It looks like another row the Centennial committee have gotten themselves into. Secretary Bowen of the centennial committee stated to-day that all the diplomatic corps had accepted the invitation to attend the banquet in their official capacity. Seats of honor near the President have been provided for them.

Birds of Prey Gathering at Gotham.

NEW YORK, April 26.—It is said that the low resorts on Coney Island are crowded with out-of-town thieves and malefactors who are waiting until the centennial opens to sweep down on the city and reap a harvest. The authorities will probably make a raid on them and arrest as many as possible.

CABLE NEWS.

Boulanger's Evanescent Boom—The General Ditched by Lord Randolph.

LONDON, April 26.—Competent judges express belief that the Boulanger boom in London will "peter out" within a fortnight. In spite of the fact that the General has been the recipient of a number of invitations to dinners and receptions, it is a significant fact that not one of them has come from a social or political leader, nor has a single person of social or political distinction visited him at his hotel. The bulk of his callers and would-be entertainers are of the class denominated "tuft-hunters," who see in their entertainment by, or of, the General, the possibility of achieving notoriety. Besides this it is stated that an account of the matter of the expulsion of the Orleans Prince from France while Boulanger was Minister of War, wherein Boulanger's own letters to the Due D'Aumale proved him to be both ungrateful and untruthful, is to be republished in some of the London papers. Such a course on the part of his enemies can but have the effect to exclude him from a great many of the clubs as well as to close the doors of most of the best houses against him. Elaborate preparations are making at Richmond for the celebration of the silver wedding of the Comte de Paris, which will take place on May 20. A great many of the leading Orleanists will be present, but it is not believed that Boulanger will attend if indeed he is fortunate enough to receive an invitation.

PARIS, April 26.—A Havas agency states that an official of the British Foreign Office has waited upon Gen. Boulanger to acquaint him with the conditions upon which he will be permitted to stay in London.

Smalley's Gossip.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Mr. Smalley cables The Tribune: London cannot be said to lack subjects of conversation. The Queen at Sandringham, Lord Salisbury at Bristol, John Morley at Newcastle, Parnell at Edinburgh (where, in spite of strong opposition, the council has voted him the freedom of the city), Chamberlain and Lord Derby at Birmingham, Pinero at the new Garrick theatre, Gen. Boulanger in Burlington Garden—all these are topics of the day. I do not name them in the order of their importance, if there be any such order, but at haphazard. Among the people or subjects I have enumerated it is the politicians and statesmen who fill the largest space in the papers, and the less, perhaps, in the public mind.

None of the long speeches of the last few days contain aught of political novelty. All the orators are marking time, waiting to see what step is next to be taken in advance. The Unionists seem to think that things are on the whole going well in Ireland. Balfour, who rules that country, rules it from Fellixstowe on the east coast of England in the interests of the golf matches, in which he has won second prize. He does not even contemplate going to Dublin. Were there anything serious in the situation he would have to sacrifice his favorite pastime and cross the Irish Channel to look into Irish matters for himself on the spot.

Irish agrarian disputes are being settled right and left. The Vandeleur estate is in quiet under Sir Charles Russell's arbitration. The Massereene estate is to be colonized with Ulster Orangemen by another Russell less in favor with the Home Rulers, who cry out against what they call this outrage. Worse still, the landlord influence is looking up in Tipperary itself, where guardians have been elected whom the landlords supported. "Irishmen capable of so voting are," cries O'Brien's editorial substitute, "creatures who hug their chains and wallow in their enslavement." Chamberlain, to whom I am indebted for this quotation, appears to like to see them wallow, and Balfour deems the movement propitious for paying a visit to his uncle at Hatfield.

If Chamberlain finds consolation in Tipperary, he needs it, for in his controversy with Lord Randolph Churchill he has had to climb down from a too lofty position which he too rashly took up. His answer to Lord Randolph Churchill is a soft answer, while to Lord Randolph's supporters in Birmingham, who met Chamberlain's resounding challenge with explicit, clear and positive proof of their own charges, he returns no answer at all. He has distinctly had the worst of this encounter, but as he has for the present kept Lord Randolph out of Birmingham, he may, for aught I know, be content with the general condemnation of his conduct.

Chamberlain is Caustic.

LONDON, April 26.—Mr. Chamberlain, in a speech at Birmingham this evening, said the Gladstonians were bastard sons of the Liberal party and that the Liberal-Unionists were the true heirs of the party.

Abolished Its Pension Fund.

LONDON, April 26.—The Northwestern Railway Company has abolished its pension fund, established for the benefit of aged and disabled employes, and will distribute the accumulated money, amounting to £100,000, among the members of the company and prospective beneficiaries. The company, however, will retain its own contribution to the fund, the sum of £13,000.

A Mail Robbery.

MOLLIE MATCHES CAGED.

A BIG AMERICAN CROOK BEHIND TORONTO PRISON BARS.

Clever Arrest Last Night—John Larney and Joe Dubuque Caught Working Trains at the Depot.

TORONTO, April 27.—John Larney, alias "Mollie Matches," one of the greatest of America's burglars, bank workers and pickpockets, with the little less notorious Joe Dubuque are prisoners at Headquarters, and the chances are that they will only leave the city to join Carson, Ned Rice and one or two other of their chums already doing time in Kingston.

About 7 last evening E. M. Bell, a guest at the Pamler House, reported to the detectives that his pocket had been picked of $140 at the Union Depot at 5.30 when on board the G.T.R. train for the west. Sergeant Reburn at once posted to the depot, rightly surmising that the men who had worked Bell might be still engaged in working the other trains. The G.T.R. 5.30 express for Montreal was the first he boarded, and he was not long in spotting three men whose actions seemed suspicious. They would crowd up as the passengers entered the car and in the squeeze try to extract their wallets.

Reburn kept in the background and allowed the party to leave the car. The three crossed over to the C.P.R. express and were in the midst of their operations when Reburn proceeded to arrest them. He seized hold of one while Policeman Mitchell, who followed his superior officer, succeeded in capturing a second. The third man, who appeared somewhat elderly in his general make up, got away. When the prisoners were brought up to Headquarters they expressed the highest indignation at being arrested. One gave his name as J. Bennett, and the other after much pressing as John J. Danmark.

Inspector Stark and Sergeant Reburn took a good look at Danmark, and the more they looked the more convinced they became that they knew him. It suddenly flashed across them that he was the notorious John Larney, alias Mollie Matches, and a rapid examination of several peculiar marks on his face, hands and right arm convinced them that they were correct. Thus cornered Mollie acknowledged that they were correct, but stoutly denied that he had been concerned in any crooked work in Toronto. His companion proved to be Joe Dubuque, a man who though never convicted is known to be a slick thief of no ordinary capabilities. They were sent to the cells for the night after being searched. No trace of Lee's money was found on either.

Mollie Matches has had an eventful history. He got his nickname from going around when a lad dressed as a girl, selling matches as a blind and picking pockets as a livelihood. He has been concerned in some of the daring robberies of the day, and is now but six months out of Joliet Penitentiary, Ill., where he had been sentenced in 1881 for robbing the Galesburg, Ill., Mechanics' Savings Bank of some $12,000. In appearance, Mollie would pass as a respectable business man.

His age is 40, and he sports a large flowing beard. His dress when on the road is neat, almost to foppery, and he neither drinks nor smokes. He is worth, as the result of his stealings, some $140,000, and he votes in Toronto under the name of Dolan, holding property here worth $35,000.

Anniversary Celebration.

The Seventieth Anniversary of the "Odds" Commemorated by a Concert Under Canton Auspices.

The Canton concert last night in the rooms of Otonabee lodge of Oddfellows was a success both in points of attendance and the highly satisfactory programme that was presented. The spacious hall was well filled with an audience that was not slow to appreciate the generally excellent programme and encore the best numbers. The Canton members were there in uniform to receive their visitors. The chair was occupied by Capt. D. H. Moore, who made a few remarks in opening, stating that this was the seventieth anniversary of the Oddfellows in America, an Order of which he was proud to be a member. Deputy Grand Master R. W. Bell's address dealt with the rapid progress of Oddfellowship since its inception in 1819 to its present magnitude, when there were over half a million members in good standing on the continent. He also drew attention to the beneficiary advantages of the Order, pointing out the large sums that had been given for the relief of sick members or for the maintenance of their families after death. He commended the Order as one of practical benefit to mankind.

Prof. Doucet's orchestra began both parts of the programme with well rendered selections. Bro. R. M. Roy's stereopticon views, many of them scenes in town taken by himself, were greatly admired and applauded. Mr. Roy is in himself a whole programme, and can entertain the most critical audience for an entire evening with his different lines of amusement, Bro. T.O. Monaghan, of Port Hope, delighted the people with several of his inimitable comic character songs. His every appearance was the signal for an encore. Mr. W. Bardock's performances on the mouth organ were also deservedly encored. Miss Saunders recited in her usual able manner. This young lady evinces more and more a marked histrionic ability.

The musical favorites, Messrs. T. Dunn and Alex. Elliott, contributed a couple of duets, entitled, "Hasta, Crimean Maria," and "The Sailor Signs." Both were loudly applauded. The singing of these two gentlemen is always received with special favor and they were both in good voice Friday night, which is a sufficient guarantee that their numbers were among the best on the programme. Bro. H. Strike, of Ambersham, recited "Asleep at the Switch" in an impressive manner and won his share of applause. The performances of Miss Moyse on the violin are too well known in Peterborough to need any further complimentary comment. She was as usual accompanied on the piano by Miss Champion. The chairman announced that owing to some misunderstanding Miss Sophie Cameron and Mr. J. S. Parker were not present to fill their numbers, and in consequence the audience was considerably disappointed. However, he expressed the thanks of the Canton to Mrs. T. Dunn, who had so effectively furnished the accompaniments for the occasion, a service which was especially appreciated under the circumstances. Taken altogether, the concert was a creditable affair, and the Canton is to be congratulated upon having scored another success. It was a fit and proper method of celebrating the seventieth anniversary of the Order. The following gentlemen who composed the committee, and with whom the entire Canton co-operated, deserve great credit for the success achieved:—Messrs. John Franz, John Mein, Wm. Savigny, T. Emmerson and T. Workman.

After the company had sung the National Anthem they dispersed, a number of young people, however, remaining behind and enjoying a number of dances to the music of the orchestra, a privilege for which they were very thankful to the management.

"Subscriber's" Query Causes Comment.

As our readers will remember, a letter was published in our columns a few days ago, signed "Subscriber," which dwelt at some length upon a subject of general interest, and which contained several inquiries which will be found answered in the following:—

To the Editor,—Several days ago I noticed a communication in your paper from "Subscriber," in which considerable comment was indulged in concerning the pamphlets which are widely distributed by Messrs. H. H. Warner & Co., of Rochester, N. Y. These pamphlets are published in order that the public may become conversant with the symptoms and growth of disease peculiar to the kidneys, and which is, it must be admitted, the predisposing cause, in a majority of instances, of other organic disorders. The publishers of these pamphlets are also the discoverers and manufacturers of the noted Warner's Safe Cure, which is known to be the only means for the prevention and cure of kidney disease, as can be testified to in every community. In the pamphlets referred to there appear a number of testimonials from parties who speak in the highest terms of how they have in many instances been restored to health by Warner's Safe Cure, after having been given up by doctors to die, and attached to these statements are the fac simile signatures of the parties themselves.

I am personally aware that all the testimonials published by this firm are genuine, and are the voluntary statements of persons who are anxious to manifest their gratitude for the unexpected return of health and vigor which Warner's Safe Cure has brought them. To make assurance doubly sure, it can be added that Messrs. H.H. Warner & Co., have for years published a standing offer of $5,000 to anyone who will prove to an impartial referee that any testimonial published by them is not, so far as they know, bona fide and absolutely true. What more does "Subscriber" desire to convince him, in addition to his own statement, that his neighbors all tell him that Warner's Safe Cure has done more good for them than they have received from the doctors.

In view, Mr. Editor, of the many persons who are meubbed daily to the bigotry and ignorance of physicians who prescribe tronbing patients for symptoms, called consumption, apoplexy, brain troubles, and nervous disorders, when the real cause is disease of the kidneys—which should be detected and quickly eradicated by the use of Warner's Safe Cure—I maintain that the value of these pamphlets, which place in the hands of the public the means of knowing the truth, cannot be over-estimated. CROFTER EMIGRATION.

Report of Secretary Colmer of the Colonization Board.

LONDON, April 27.—The Scotch office has received a report from Mr. Colmer, secretary of the Crofter Colonization Board, respecting this season's crofter emigration under the State-aided scheme. Last year £54 out of the £130 loan was spent in transit for each family, leaving only £66 to invest in the Northwest. This year £66 was spent in transit, leaving £26, while several have private means. The report expresses the belief that the money will be paid in accordance with the terms of the scheme. It is also noted that colonization is growing in favor in Scotland. The board are receiving many demands to assist further crofter parties to settle in the North-west. The Government is pledged, however, to refrain from further emigration until the success of the present scheme is assured.

Latest reports from Liverpool take a more hopeful view of the season's emigration to Canada. A marked feature of recent sailings was the large number emigrated by the Self Help and other societies. This emigration is regarded with favor because more care is bestowed on the selection here for settlement in Canada than is possible with isolated emigrants.

A PRETTY TYPEWRITER.

Who Asks $50,000 as Balm for a Broken Heart—Ambitious City Notes.

HAMILTON, April 26.—The trial of the celebrated $50,000 breach of promise suit was commenced at the Assizes to-day. This is a claim brought by Miss Myra Harrell, a pretty typewriter boarding in Gore-street, in this city, against Thos. O'Callaghan, wealthy gentleman of London, for damages to her affections caused by a failure to fulfil a promise of marriage. Geo. L. Staunton, with whom is associated B. B. Osler, Q.C., appeared for the fair and slighted damsel, and J. W. Nesbitt defended the alleged heartless trifler with woman's best affections. Mr. Staunton made an eloquent speech in opening, and was expatiating on the accomplishments, beauty and superior mental training of the plaintiff when she came into court and took a seat at the counsel's table. She is a lady of the blonde persuasion, with a good figure and well-based claims to be considered good-looking. As she sat down she tried to catch the defendant's eye with a look that was surcharged with the concentrated essence of scorn, defiance and, rather inconsistently, reproach. The defendant is a stout, handsome man of 43, with black hair, mustache and Galloway whiskers. He is reputed to be worth $80,000. There are not many letters in the case, but the plaintiff's counsel hopes to establish a case by showing the long and assiduous course of "keeping company," and that the proposition of marriage did take place. In his speech to the jury Mr. Staunton stated that the courtship dated back to 1881 and continued until a short time ago, when O'Callaghan came to her, put on a poor mouth, cried, said he had been ruined by a long course of law suits and wanted to beg off. She nobly replied that she was willing to take him cash or no cash, but he did not appreciate this generosity, and his attentions gradually terminated.

EXPORTS AND IMPORTS.

The Anti-Combines Bill Passes its Second Reading in the Senate.

OTTAWA, April 26.—The monthly statement to appear in The Canada Gazette to-morrow shows that the exports from the Dominion in March amounted to $8,767,704, exclusive of coin and bullion, of which latter $1,321,644 was exported.

The imports entered for consumption during the month amounted to $9,746,222, including $67,442 coin and bullion and $2,479,609 free goods, leaving $7,199,171 dutiable goods, on which the duty paid was $2,256,055.

The nine months of the present fiscal year thus compared with the same period of last year:

	1887-8.	1888-9.
Value of imports	$73,044,443	$73,246,119
Duty	15,957,753	17,151,022

The Anti-Combines Bill got its second reading in the Senate to-day without opposition. It will probably be read a third time on Monday.

PREVENTION of disease is both rational and scientific. If one knows the causes of most diseases, and can remove that cause, the disease must disappear. Prof. Wm. H. Thompson of the University of the City of New York, says:—"More adults are carried off in this country by chronic kidney disease than by any other one malady except consumption." The majority per cent. of all diseases are caused by unexpected kidney poisoned blood. The late Dr. Dio Lewis, in speaking of Warner's Safe Cure, said over his signature:—"If I found myself the victim of a serious kidney trouble, I would use Warner's Safe Cure."

Psoriasis 6 years—Head, arms and breast a solid scab—Body covered with scales—Best doctors and medicines fail—Cured by Cuticura Remedies at a cost of $6.75

I have used the CUTICURA REMEDIES with best results. I used 7 bottles of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, three boxes of CUTICURA, and one cake of CUTICURA SOAP, and am cured of a terrible skin and scalp disease known as psoriasis. I had it for 6 years. It would be better and worse at times. Sometimes my head would be a solid scab and was at the time I began the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. My arms would be covered with scales from my elbows to shoulders, my breast was almost one solid scab and my back covered with scales varying in size from a penny to a dollar. I had doctored with all the best doctors with no relief, and used many different medicines without effect. My case was hereditary, and I began to think incurable, but it began to heal from the first application of CUTICURA. ARCHER RUSSELL, Dunkler, Ohio

Skin Diseases 6 Years Cured.

I am thankful to say that I have used the CUTICURA REMEDIES for about eight months with great success and consider myself entirely cured of salt rheum, from which I have suffered for six years. I tried a number of medicines and two of the best doctors in the country, but found nothing that would effect a cure until I used your remedies. Mrs. A. MCCLAFLIN, Moretto, Mo

We have been selling your CUTICURA REMEDIES for years, and have the first complaint yet to receive from a purchaser. One of the worst cases of Scrofula I ever saw was cured by the use of five bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP. TAYLOR & TAYLOR, Druggists, Frankfort, Kan.

GOUGHS' GREAT HAT and CAP DEPARTMENT

During the past month our Store has been undergoing extensive alterations, and now with pardonable pride, we have much pleasure in announcing that the Store is one of the Finest in Canada. Our aim has been to clothe a man or boy from head to foot, and we have been adding department after department until we have reached the goal of our ambition. Our last Great Department, namely, HATS and CAPS, is now open, and we are showing the Latest Styles from London, New York and Paris. We will not enlarge on the prices these Goods will be sold at, suffice to say,—they will simply astonish our patrons. Remember our Great HAT and CAP DEPARTMENT is now open.

A WORD ABOUT OUR CLOTHING DEPARTMENT, THIS SPRING:

Never in the history of the trade has such an Array of Fine Clothing been placed before a buying public. Our Stock this Spring embraces all the LATEST DESIGNS and PATTERNS, and as they were made under our own special supervision, the workmanship is of a SUPERIOR quality. Notwithstanding all this our prices will be found LOWER than ever. When we came to you as the Revolutionizers of the Clothing Trade, we promised you then that we would benefit the public, and now after a long trial have we kept our word? If so, let that be our best guarantee to the public, that we deal honestly and squarely with them in the future. We are not so egotistical as to believe that we please every one, (our Divine Master when on earth did not please everyone) still to these we did not please, as well as these we did please, we sincerely return thanks for past patronage. As we are not infallible we are prone to make mistakes and our judgment like any human being's may err in buying. Still we try to avoid errors, as much as possible, and therefore it is our proud boast when anyone has a greviance we never refused to make it right when brought to our notice. This spring we are going to REDOUBLE OUR ENERGIES, and by keeping GOOD GOODS, NICE GOODS, SQUARE DEALING, and EXTREMELY LOW PRICES, we hope to merit a Continuance of your Generous Patronage.

TORONTO TOPICS.

The Christian Unity Conference — The Queen City's Population.

TORONTO, April 26.—The Christian unity conference which began Wednesday was concluded yesterday, representatives from the Methodist, Anglican and Presbyterian churches being present. Rev. Dr. McMullen, moderator of the General Assembly, occupied the chair. The committee appointed on Wednesday prescribe these subjects for discussion: (1) Corporate unity, (2) unity in doctrine, worship and mode of action between the three bodies, (3) Holy Scriptures, (4) creeds, (5) one condition of administration of the sacrament, (6) the historic episcopate. The committee also stated: "That in our best judgment the objects of the gathering will be more effectually furthered after disposing of the subject of corporate unity by taking up in the first instance the second topic. The publication of these points of agreement will have the effect of turning the minds of the church to this matter and will have the effect of fostering a desire for unity, also strengthening the faith in the ultimate accomplishment of unity according to the mind of Christ. In the cordial growth of this desire and this faith our hope of a happy ultimate issue can only depend." At the evening session a resolution was passed, trusting that similar conferences may continue to be held from time to time, undertaking to recommend to the several churches the appointment of delegations for that purpose.

An official census of St. Alban's ward (Parkdale) taken yesterday shows the population of the flowery annex to be 5651, which added to the population of the other twelve wards as shown by the census of Dec. 15 makes the total population of Toronto 172,460.

After the hearing of considerable evidence in the cause celebre of Brennan v. Brennan, mention of which was made in this correspondence yesterday, it was arranged out of court that the parties should live apart, that Mrs. Brennan should maintain herself and have the custody of the child; and that she be allowed $3 a week for the maintenance of the child till it is ten years of age, and $4 a week after that.

THE MANITOBA RAILROAD.

Sir George Stephen and Sir Donald Smith Elected Directors.

NEW YORK, April 25.—At a meeting of the Manitoba Railroad directors here today, Sir George Stephen and Sir Donald Smith were elected directors. At the office of the company much secrecy was observed and the names of the retiring directors were refused. It is stated, however, that the $8,000,000 of Manitoba stock, which was bought by interests identified with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy two years ago, has been resold to its original holders. The two new directors were in the Manitoba board when the sale of this stock occurred, but retired to make room for the representatives of the purchasers in August 1887.

Northern Pacific Meeting.

NEW YORK, April 25.—At the special meeting of the Northern Pacific Railway directors to-day the resolution agreeing to the arbitration contract for the control and harmonious operation of the roads in the Pacific Northwest was rescinded. This ends the scheme to obtain a guarantee of the dividend on the Oregon Navigation stock from the Northern Pacific jointly with the Union Pacific, and throws the burden of the lease on the Union Pacific. The proposition to operate the Wisconsin Central on a percentage of earnings was discussed, and three forms of proposed contracts were presented. Only one was read, after which the board adjourned to meet again next Thursday. After the adjournment it was announced that Brayton Ives, one of the most active members of the Northern Pacific board, resigned his office of Vice-President of the Oregon Transcontinental Company, to take effect May 1. This is understood to indicate that the relations of the old Northern Pacific directors with Villard have been severed and it is expected that the representative of the Oregon Transcontinental will withdraw from the Northern Pacific directors.

A CHLOROFORM CASE.

John Dean of Waterford Suing for Damages Because of the Death of His Wife.

HAMILTON, April 25.—At the Assizes today the trial of the chloroform case, Dean v. Rose, was commenced. It is likely to last several days. The facts are briefly as follows: John Dean is a young liverymans, residing at Waterford, a village on the Canada Southern railway, southwest of Brantford. On January 25 last his wife, a young lady about 23 years of age, went to W. J. Chambers, a dentist in the village, to get some teeth pulled. It became necessary for her to take chloroform, and Dr. Rose, the defendant, was called in. Chloroform was administered in the usual way and as a result Mrs. Dean died, despite all efforts to resuscitate her. The plaintiff's counsel tried to show that chloroform was administered by the defendant after another physician had advised her not to take it, but to take a stimulant; that he gave it improperly, and that after she showed signs of death by a livid countenance, etc., they went on giving her the anaesthetic; also that they had not the proper appliances ready to resuscitate her.

Yesterday nineteen tavern and saloon keepers were notified by letter that their licenses would not be renewed.

Said a prominent gentleman to-day: "I have it on excellent authority that the Grand Trunk is going to take over the Niagara Central Railway, and is at present buying timber to be used in constructing the balance of the road from Thorold to the beach."

E. B. Kent died suddenly yesterday afternoon. He was well known in business circles, having started the Burlington Glassworks and the Canada Glasshouse. Deceased was 61 years of age.

Stanbridge Fire at Stanbridge—Two Roads Destroyed—A $25,000 Loss.

ST. ALBAN'S, Vt., April 25.—Stanbridge, P.Q., just across the Canadian line, was visited by a disastrous fire about 2.30 this morning, resulting in the destruction of the Canadian Pacific Railroad depot, freight house, engine house, one engine, two passenger cars and eight freight cars, most of which were loaded. Senegar's large general store, two hotels and several houses were also burned. The fire originated in the railroad woodshed, and as the village is without a fire department, the buildings were at the mercy of the flames. Loss probably $25,000. Senegar's store was a new one, and insured for $6000. The insurance on both hotels is $7000.

The Ounce of Prevention.

Under the above heading the New York World of Feb 10th, contains an editorial, of which the following are a few extracts:

"Physicians and unprofessional men of sense agree that if people would take a little of the pains to prevent disease that they do to have it cured that the civilized world would be much less like a vast hospital than it is now. * * * * But the idea of a regular and stated physical examination, even of persons that are apparently well, is an excellent one. The approaches of pulmonary complaints, kidney troubles, and many of the other ills that flesh is heir to are so insidious as not to be apparent to their victim. * * * * In nothing is it truer than in disease that 'an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.'"

There is a great deal of wisdom in what the World remarks. Individuals, as a rule, do not give their physical welfare attention, and it is only when alarmed by the presence of disease itself—the consciousness of failing strength—that attention is given to such matters.

Much has been said and written in recent years concerning the extreme and oftentimes fatal danger which results from delay in the treatment of kidney disease.

Physicians admit that they cannot control advanced disease in these organs, and it is doubtful whether they can control it in any stage without the assistance of Warner's Safe Cure, which is established as the only known means which will reliably prevent and cure this class of disease.

Besides, it has been definitely ascertained that kidney disease is the real cause of ill health in most cases where consumption, heart, brain or nervous disorders are supposed to exist, and in consequence of such belief many fatal mistakes have been committed by our best physicians in treating such disorders, which are but the symptoms of the disease, whilst they have allowed the real disease—disease of the kidneys, to escape their notice until too late.

There is no safer or surer way by which health can be preserved and disease averted than the occasional use of Warner's Safe Cure, which will benefit the "engines of life,"—the kidneys, even if they are in a normally healthy state; while good that will result in case disease is threatened, or is already present, cannot be over estimated.

Our Vancouver Correspondent.

COLD IN HEAD — CATARRH — CONSUMPTION

THE 4 STAGES DEATH

There is positive danger to health and life in neglecting a case of Cold in the Head or Catarrh, and at this season with its changeable weather, unusual moisture and sudden changes from heat to cold, there is peculiar liability, to cold in the head. As neglected cases of Cold in the Head rapidly develops into Catarrh, and neglected Catarrh just as certainly develops into Consumption and results in [illegible] proves conclusively that a large percentage of all the deaths occurring from Consumption had their origin in a neglected cold, which by gradual stages, developed into Catarrh, and then into Consumption, that dread disease with which medical science is as yet unable to cope successfully. If you are suffering from Cold in the Head or any of the numerous symptoms of Catarrh, such as bad breath, dull oppressive headaches, droppings from the head into the throat, hawking and spitting, copious discharges from the nostrils, loosing sense of smell, or taste becoming dull, hacking cough, or a general feeling of debility, husky voice, a wheezing or cracking sound in your chest when breathing, a feeling of dizziness particularly when stooping, a feeling of tiredness and indisposition to exertion, a [illegible] accumulations in the throat. Do not neglect them. These are but a few of the many symptoms of Catarrh, and if you experience any, BE WARNED IN TIME. Do not permit them to run under the mistaken impression that the disease will eventually wear away. It will not, but on the contrary will wear you away as it has thousands before. [illegible] are at once a bottle of NASAL BALM, the only certain and speedy cure ever offered the public for Cold in the Head and Catarrh. This is no idle assertion, but an unquestioned fact, which is verified by the thousands of testimonials in our possession telling of marvellous cures. These testimonials we have received from all parts of the Dominion and we append a few, selected at random, as fair samples of the whole:

Mr. Alex. Burns, of Sudbury, Ont., says: Gents I may state that I have been afflicted with catarrh for 7 or 8 years, and it was attended by consequent symptoms, such as foul breath, constant dropping into the throat, hawking and spitting, partial deafness ringing in the ears, and sickening pain in the head directly over either eye. I have used powders and douches, but all to no effect, the only result arising from the use of such was temporary relief, followed by the usual symptoms in a more aggravated form. The results of one bottle of NASAL BALM are sweet breath, stoppage of the dropping into the throat (consequently less hawking and spitting), clearness of hearing, and not one pain since I began to use it. I have found relief in the head—in fact it is my opinion that a careful and persistent use of the "Balm" will effect a cure in the worst case of catarrh.

Mr. John H. Adams, merchant, Brantford, Ont., says: I have used NASAL BALM for catarrh, and found it to be a CERTAIN CURE.

W. A. Doyle, Beulah, Man., writes:—As a family medicine to check Catarrhal affections, or cold in the head, NASAL BALM HAS NO EQUAL. We prize it highly.

Henrietta Blackwell Parker, Ont., says:—Your NASAL BALM is the BEST REMEDY I have yet used for catarrh. I can breathe more freely than before and my breath has regained its sweetness. I consider NASAL BALM a boon to the suffering.

W. Chas. Hanley, Postmaster, Spry Bay, N. S., says:—I submit the following to the public that one bottle of NASAL BALM has benefited me more than any remedy. Two bottles of your NASAL BALM has RESTORED to PERFECT HEALTH [illegible] of nine years standing.

Alpha H. Dales, Tarbert, Ont., writes:—Your NASAL BALM has made a new man of me. I have never used a remedy so satisfactory.

Miss Maggie M. Martin, Tesswood, Pa., says:—Through a friend in Canada I became acquainted with your NASAL BALM. I have suffered for years with catarrh and it is the first remedy from which I have received relief, and I feel certain that it will cure me.

Miss Minnie McNairn, Mills Roches, Ont., says:—Your bottle of NASAL BALM did me much good. The pain in my head disappeared before I had used the bottle, and I find myself rapidly on the road to health. I am certain NASAL BALM will cure any case of Catarrh if its use is persevered in.

James H. McLeod, Mink River Road, N.S., says:—I have tried other remedies for Catarrh, but received little or no good from them. Your NASAL BALM is certainly the BEST REMEDY I have ever tried, and all you claim for it. The fact that it is [illegible] and convenient to use adds greatly to its value, but its chief worth lies in being a CERTAIN CURE for that unpleasant disease—Catarrh.

Mr. Schlesing, Toronto, says:—For a number of years my wife has been badly troubled with Catarrh. Dr. [illegible] recommended to cure her, but after using his remedy for six months she became worse and weaker than before, and I feared that I had spent $25 for medical treatment that did no good. My wife then began to use your NASAL BALM and has improved wonderfully, and she is better and stronger than for years. Your remedy is the best in the market and you can use this as testimony.

Emile Pelletier, Granville, says:—I can recommend your remedy to all and will buy nothing but NASAL BALM. Its effects in my case have been wonderful.

A CAUTION.—Beware of imitations. If your druggist does not keep NASAL BALM do not be put off by his telling you he has something just as good, but send direct to us. Price, including inhaler, which is necessary for its successful application, $1.00. Sold by druggists everywhere, or sent by mail on receipt of price—50 cents and $1 a bottle. dw

LICENSES, LICENSERS AND LICENSEES.

In the matter of the traffic in intoxicating liquors the county of Peterborough comes under a new regime on Wednesday, May 1st. The occasion is an important one, both to the general public and those concerned and engaged in the business. At the foregoing date the most stringent and effective license law existent in any country, will be in force, and the regulations adopted by the commissioners indicate the intention on their part of exacting strict compliance with the requirements of the law. In the first place, the resolutions, adopted at the meeting of the License Commissioners, show that all applicants, to be successful, must be fit persons to conduct taverns, shops, or saloons. This has an important bearing on the observance of the law. There are hotel-keepers and hotel-keepers. There are some, who have much at stake, excellent premises, and whose interest and desire it is to observe the law and keep respectable houses; these will, within proper numerical limits, receive licenses. There are others of an opposite character, with detective premises, and a disregard for respectability and law observance. These, it is needless to say, will not receive licenses. The Commissioners, again, are determined to stop Sunday drinking. This is eminently proper and their decision that a person convicted of Sunday selling shall forfeit all chance of securing a license will have a wholesome effect. Liquor selling under license is a legalized business, and those engaged in it must submit to the same conditions that are imposed upon all other branches of trade. A man that is convicted twice of illegal selling, other than on Sunday, shall forfeit a right to secure a license. The Commissioners reasonably expect that they shall receive the co-operation of the police authorities in their attempts to enforce the Crooks Act to the letter, and they should also receive the countenance of all lovers of law and order, and licensees should also find it to their interest to assist in seeing that the law is observed. It is both their duty and interest to do so. It has been said that if hotel-keepers in the past had strictly observed the provisions of the liquor license act there would have been no Scott Act. Public opinion has decidedly pronounced in favor of the license law, and the Commissioners, backed by the power of the law, by the effective machinery, for enforcement, of the license act itself and by public opinion, will feel they can, as they are determined to do, secure a rigid enforcement of its provisions. The law, with the recent amendments, is stringent, and secures, to the fullest extent compatible with the nature of the traffic, the protection of the interests of the public and the fullest measure of protection to licensees. A most important resolution adopted by the commissioners was that, calling special attention to the provision of the Act making guilty of a breach of the Act any person who buys or obtains or attempts to buy or obtain intoxicating liquor during prohibited hours. This is just and fair. Both of the parties necessary to a breach of the law should be made liable to the penalty attached to that breach. The commissioners show a commendable spirit in entering upon their duties, and, doubtless, under their administration there will be a strict and satisfactory enforcement of the law.

Valedictory Addresses.

Friday night was an interesting hour was spent at the convent when addresses were presented by the school children and the sisters to Bishop Dowling and Rev. Father McEvay, on the occasion of their departure from the diocese. All the Cathedral clergy, as well as Vicar-General Laurent, Lindsay, were present. After some musical selections, capitally rendered by the pupils, the addresses, full of duty, loyalty and pious wishes were presented and both the Rev. Bishop and the Rev. Father made suitable and affecting replies. Very Rev. Father Rooney made a few remarks, particularly referring to the music given by the pupils. A very pleasant hour, whose brightness was dimmed only by the thought of imminent separation, was enjoyed by all present.

High Opinions.

Referring to the organ recital in Lindsay last Good Friday, the Warder says:—"Mr. Parker, the talented organist of St. Paul's Presbyterian church, Peterborough, handled the organ in a masterly manner, and showed both the capabilities of the instrument and the player to perfection. Miss Vair, a pupil to Professor Parker, has a rich and sweet voice, and sang several selections with great expression and acceptability." The Post has the following:—"The audience represented the best musical taste and culture in the town, and all were delighted by the ability and care with which the selections were rendered. Mr. Parker is a master of his art, and brought from the organ tones and combinations which astonished all who heard them. His pedalling is marvellous, and his sudden transitions from the thunder of the full organ to the almost voiceless sweetness of a single stop thrilled his hearers. His selections were good, and brought out the capabilities both of the player and his instrument. Miss Vair, soprano soloist of St. Paul's choir, Peterborough, a pupil of Prof. Parker, sang four solos with great sweetness and fullness of voice. She was repeatedly applauded and encored, as she deserved to be. We are pleased to be able to state that in response to the earnest request of the people here Professor Parker has consented to give another recital in the same church, with an entirely new programme, on Monday evening, May 20th."

RT.-REV. R. A. O'CONNOR,
Bishop-Elect of the Diocese of Peterborough.

Rt.-Rev. R. A. O'Connor.

Preparations for the Consecration of the Bishop-Elect of Peterborough on Wednesday, May 1st—A Large Number of Priests and Prelates to be present.

On Wednesday morning next, Rt.-Rev. R. A. O'Connor, of Barrie, bishop-elect of the diocese of Peterborough, whose portrait is above presented, will be consecrated. Richard Alphonsus O'Connor was born in Listowel, Kerry, England, on the 15th of April, 1838. Coming out to this country, he attended St. Michael's College from 1852 to 1856, receiving there his classical and part of his theological education. His theological studies were completed at the Grand Seminary, Montreal. The various minor orders were conferred upon him by Bishop Bourget, and the sub-deaconship, deaconship and priesthood, by Archbishop Lynch. After his ordination as a priest in 1861, he did duty in the core of Toronto as curate to Rev. Father Mulligan, whom he succeeded in 1862. He afterwards was parish priest of Niagara Falls and of Adjala, and on October 20, 1870, he was appointed to succeed Father Northgraves in Barrie. He has been working till the present time, and has built there a fine church and convent. He is regarded as fully worthy of his new honor, especially because of his capacity for administration, and in a new diocese like that of Peterborough, he will find ample scope for the exercise of those talents, which have contributed so largely to his success in his past ecclesiastical career. The bishop-elect is expected to arrive in town on Monday or Tuesday, and the ceremony of consecration will take place at St. Peter's Cathedral beginning at 10 o'clock on Wednesday next. Rt. Rev. Bishop Cleary, of the diocese of Kingston, will be consecrator, and he will be assisted by a distinguished fraternity of episcopal dignitaries. There are expected to be present ten archbishops and bishops on the occasion, including Archbishops Fabre and Duhamel, of Montreal and Ottawa, respectively—and at least 100 visiting clergy. The episcopal party will arrive from Toronto on Wednesday morning, leaving that city by special train at 7 o'clock. After the ceremony of consecration, addresses of welcome will be presented to the new bishop by both clergy and people, and dinner will be subsequently taken at the rooms of the Murray street Separate School. Admission to the ceremony of consecration will be by ticket, and a portion of these—to pew holders—will be distributed at the church to-morrow, when the full programme of the consecration ceremonies will be read. The occasion will be a memorable and important one, especially to the flock of the future Bishop of Peterborough.

Address and Presentation.

Mr. M.A. Jamieson, of the Prentice Boys, Made the Recipient of a Farewell Address and Tokens of Remembrance.

Last night the members of Jubilee lodge of Prentice Boys assembled at the residence of Mr. M. A. Jamieson, their immediate Past Master, and presented him with the accompaning address. Mr. Jamieson leaves on Tuesday for Hespeler, where he will continue in the employment of Mr. Brodie, and the Prentice Boys expressed the regret they felt at his departure by the following:—

To M. A. Jamieson, Esq., I. P. M., Jubilee Lodge, No. 6, 'Prentice Boys.

DEAR SIR AND BRO.—Having learned that you are about to sever the chord that has bound us together in brotherly meeting for the last two years as 'Prentice Boys, as well as the many pleasant years of social intercourse, by taking your departure to a distant part of this province with your employer, we cannot allow you to leave us without attempting to show in some feeble way our appreciation of your moral and social worth.

Therefore we have assembled on the eve of your departure to tender you this address as a token of our estimation of you as a citizen, as well as our appreciation of your ever ready and kind advice as a brother, and it affords us the greatest pleasure to express our feelings of gratitude to you as being the principal factor in establishing our lodge on its present solid basis, for we are certain that had it not been for your untiring efforts, we should not have been in such a prosperous condition as we to-night occupy. These words would fail to convey the sentiments we would express and gifts could not say the debt we owe you in this particular.

As a citizen most of us have known and watched your unspotted career from boyhood to the present, and in losing you we lose a friend and companion whose place cannot be filled, and whose social qualities will be greatly missed, and we know you have not arrived at your conclusion without mature consideration, and therefore trust the move will result in your financial benefit.

As a token of our friendship and appreciation, we ask you to accept for yourself this clock, and also this hanging lamp for your estimable wife, and we trust that each tick of this clock will leave you enjoying at each moment the fullest blessings of peace, good will and prosperity; and as this lamp is an article of light, may the darkness of the hours of sickness, trouble or despair be alighted with the brightness of prosperity.

And finally, when the wheels of time have carried you to the end of a prosperous career, may the light of the lamp and God shed its brilliant rays around you and light you and us over the dark Jordan of death and bring us safely into the everlasting presence of the Great Grand Master above, where we only can be admitted through the universal great password, Jesus Christ, our Redeemer.

Signed by the Committee on behalf of the Lodge,

W. A. MARSHALL, W.M.
W. J. SLOAN,
B. M. WYLIE.

Peterborough, April 26th, 1889.

The address was read by Mr. B.M. Wylie. The gifts accompanying the address were a handsome clock for Mr. Jamieson, a valuable hanging lamp for Mrs. Jamieson, and also a purse of money.

Mr. Jamieson was taken quite by surprise, but briefly expressed his thanks and said he would reply more fully at the next meeting of the lodge, on Thursday evening, when he hoped to be with them.

As You Pass Along George St.

Stop at our Gents' Furnishings Goods' window, and see the new goods bought specially for this and the coming season. If there is nothing there that suits your fancy step inside, there are hundreds more—we may safely say thousands of other styles.

The "ECLAT SHIRT," is the latest novelty in Gents' Shirts and the "Court Shirt" is the newest and best for dress purposes. Our small space would not suffice to show the several advantages of these two lines.

The COLLARS we have in stock are the newest and of the best quality. We have a novelty in Cuffs, a Combination in fact—which can be used with links, and by reversing use the ordinary cuff button.

Seven Lots of Fancy Bordered HANDKERCHIEFS, in a variety of 35 different Styles and Designs, the large majority of which are 25c Hdkfs. Many of the identical have been sold by us at that price; our prices to-day are 15c. and 18c.

A beautiful Assortment in all our lines. We have not said much about our KID GLOVES lately, but we are now putting them out at $1 a pair, and will continue to do so for thirty days. These gloves were sold by us and others at $1.50—mark the reduction, and secure one of the best Gloves made at a reasonable price. All the New Shades, Tans, etc.

When in our store ask to see the Bargains in CASHMERE HOSE and ENGLISH MERINO. Say 25c, buys a pair of Cashmere Hose that have been sold at 35c. Splendid value in finer lines. Ask for them, buy them and if you ever get a pair that stains, or the color washes out, bring them back and get your money.

The people of Peterborough and vicinity are all aware of the business change which took place in the CITY CLOTHING STORE on the first day of February last. The new firm beg leave to make their first bow to the public through the columns of the EXAMINER, and to request a careful perusal of the following Spring and Summer circular:—

THE CITY CLOTHING STORE

THE ATTRACTION AT TURNBULL'S.

MILLINERY.—No wonder flowers hold so high a place in Millinery Trimmings—as real to the eye as if raised by the hand of Nature. Everything, from the Daisy that joins the sod, to the Rose that blushes under glass. A gingle of Untrimmed Hats and Bonnets, stacks of Straws every shape you would think to ask for, and designs you would never dream of. Milans, Fancy Straws, Lace, both materials mixed, Chips, Leghorns. Novelties of all kinds; and this is a season of Novelties.

KID GLOVES—Have tumbled into a line of ten. Kid Gloves, stitched backs, we can sell for 25c. a pair; some people can buy them by the ½ doz. Come early if you want this Bargain. We are in a shape to sell a great number of women's Silk and Taffetas Gloves, in the next few days. Our Gloves always fit, so they say. Assortment, quality, price—the tandem team will give their go!

Such a range of Styles of Hosiery is scarcely ever seen in one place. Sizes to fit everybody.

SASH RIBBONS—In handsome Brocades, at 30c. a yard.

DRESS GOODS.—New shades of Henrietta Cloths to fill up the gap. The quick sales of the past few weeks have been making SMOKE GREY, like the silver sheen of the atmosphere of a light, grey day by the sea. SUEZ GREEN. Why Suez? Only that the oddity of the name may mentally fit the color—the color so beautiful in combination with other colors; OLD ROSE—the name suggests the fading leaf; lost beauty, expired fragrance—and yet it stands for a tinting shade of red so delicate that to call it red would be an insult. The colors are primary, of course. All told, we have about thirty-six good shades of Dress Goods to select from, in materials from 10c. to $1.00 a yard. New girdles and trimmings to match.

Fashion is always turning a new corner, and we with it. This spring is in fashionable for men to wear Striped Suitings. We have them in good variety, and will save you money in every suit you buy.

Fresh styles of New York Domestic Patterns to hand. Every lady can have a new Fashion Sheet that asks for it.

AWFUL HORROR AT THE Y.

A TRAIN EXPRESS JUMPS THE TRACK NEAR HAMILTON.

More Than a Score of Passengers Killed—Flames Consume the Bodies of the Victims—The Dead Unrecognizable.

HAMILTON, April 28.—The ill-fated and ill-starred Great Western division of the Grand Trunk Railway scored another horror this morning that has no equal since the awful Desjardins Canal mishap of some thirty years ago. And this morning's terrible calamity happened less than 1000 yards from that greatest of modern Canadian railway horrors.

About twenty scorched, charred an incinerated human remains were pulled on of the blackened smoking debris of the smashup, thrown into rough pine boxes and carried to the morgue at the General Hospital in this city, where they now are. Two young men, killed and mangled beyond recognition, lie in the same charnel house.

A dozen men, wounded and groaning, are in the Accident Ward.

Perhaps a dozen others were so badly burned that not even their ashes can be recognized.

And all these, the dead and dying, are chiefly American citizens. None of the dead at present are known, which adds to the horror of the catastrophe. They were all through passengers, many of whom were on route from the west to the New York centennial.

SUDDEN AND AWFUL

The short space of time which it took to work the awful destruction struck sudden awe into the hearts of old railroad men and railroad officials. It just seemed to be a case of "One, two, three, and down to death." Nearly twenty of the killed were cut off so suddenly that they never knew what killed them. Then their smashed bodies were cremated and charred to a crisp—an awful sight for the wreckers and reporters who were gathered on the ground during the day. The destruction was chiefly confined to two coaches: a smoker and an ordinary first-class carriage—but seven coaches in all, including two Wagner sleepers, were burned to their trucks, not a vestige of the handsome and valuable rolling stock being left but the twisted iron-work. It is estimated that the main part of the destruction was over within a brief and short minute.

THE ILL-FATED ST. LOUIS EXPRESS.

It was the St. Louis express, from the west, due in this city at 6.55 this morning, that was so completely wrecked and left such an awful track of carnage. The accident happened just about 7 o'clock, although it might have been five minutes one way or the other. The scene was just about one and a half miles west of the Hamilton railway station, and on the base of the triangle that forms the famous and ill-fated "cut" or "Y," commonly called the Junction Cut. The train was a remarkably heavy one, her eight passenger cars being well filled with people. Some of the cars were even crowded. The train was made up as follows:

Engine No. 788 (formerly No. 289), in charge of Engineer Joseph Watson and Fireman Edwin Chapman, both of London.

A boxed baggage car.

A way baggage and express car, in charge of Express Messenger F. W. Dumas of Suspension Bridge and Baggageman James Welch, also of the Bridge.

A smoking car.

Two first-class G.T. passenger coaches.

The Wagner car "Fitchburg."

A through first-class Chicago and Grand Trunk passenger coach from Chicago to Buffalo.

The Wagner car "Messina."

The Pullman car "Etolus."

The Wagner car "Montpelier."

In all 10 cars and an engine.

The train was in charge of Conductor William Poole of Suspension Bridge, and as stated before she carried a heavy load of passengers.

DEATH AT THE TANK.

The train was moving along at the rate of about 25 miles an hour when the accident happened. Just what gave way or caused the awful destruction is somewhat of a mystery, but like the St. George horror of two months ago it seems to be a case of track-jumping. By some it is said the smash was caused by a defective switch, but leading officials of the road who were at the wreck throughout the day stoutly deny this, and claim that the switch in question was in perfect safety at the time. The switch is situated just 195 feet east of the water tank, into which the engine ran with full force and demolished the tank so successfully that not a chip of it was left. The tank had a capacity of 46,000 gallons of water and was nearly full at the time of its demolition by the engine. The switch in question is used to let trains into the "cut" that are bound to Toronto. The two tracks run eastward from the switch quite closely together until just about the water tank is reached, when the "cut" tracks turn sharply off and join the Toronto tracks on the other side of the big sand and gravel hill. The water tank is thus in the frog. The tank overlooks the Dundas Marsh on the south, from which it is supplied by means of water forced up by an engine at the foot of the hill, which is 50 or 60 feet high. On the north side of the tracks is an outlet of the marsh, but strange to say the only part of the wreckage that rolled down either embankment was the cab of the engine.

THE FIRST WARNING.

The first intimation that Engineer Watson had that something was wrong was just after the train had passed the switch. She began to jolt violently. Like a flash he applied the air brakes, but did not reverse. In a second he and his fireman saw that the engine had left the track and they jumped, they know not how or where. The engineer was badly shaken up, but was not seriously injured. The fireman was badly scalded, and is now in the hospital. The express messenger and baggageman in the car behind also escaped with but a few bruises.

The engine at last made a violent jump to the north side of the tracks and made a dash into the tank. This, with the previous application of the air brakes, brought the train to a standstill all except the bonded baggage car, which in some way or other shot past the engine for a distance of 250 feet, minus her trucks, from which she jumped. The baggage in this car was all saved. It is through baggage, and passes through Canada in bond.

Just what happened in the smoking car and the first coach behind it will probably never be known, but it was in these two carriages where the great loss of life occurred. Some twenty persons in them were killed outright and then burned to a crisp. Not a soul in any of the sleepers on the other two first-class carriages are known to have been killed or even injured. Of course this is merely surmise, but a careful survey of the situation would indicate this theory. The engine, after striking the tank, turned over on her side, and nearly buried herself in the sand. The tender jumped 10 feet away from the main portion and the cab rolled down the north bank into the marsh. The engine was twisted and dismembered as if it were wire. The only articles about her that were not twisted out of sight were the two big figures, "22," her train number, which she carried on her headlight.

NOT A SOUND FROM THE SMOKER.

Of course the greatest consternation among the passengers followed the sudden stoppage of the train. Those who had not been injured at once left the cars. Not a sound was heard from the supposed vicinity of the smoker or the car immediately behind it. This shows that all the passengers therein were killed outright and then burned. The occupants of the third passenger car all escaped, it is thought. The rear end of this coach was knocked clean out by some means and the passengers left it by this egress. The way-baggage car, it is thought, was thrown right on to the engine and at once took fire. The smoker and the car behind are thought to have been stove clean through each other and it is known that some of the passengers in the smoker were hurled into the way-baggage car. The smoker is of open construction, and the passengers in it were probably thrown out of their seats and into the aisle. The baggage car, which was filling fast, and the affrighted passengers who had left the rear cars ran about in dismay. They did not know how serious the catastrophe was. The baggage car, the smoker, the two passengers, the "Fitchburg," the car behind it and the "Montreal" were soon all the flames were being devoured within. The "Etolus" and "Messina" were only saved by being uncoupled and shoved back safe out of danger.

THE WORST NEWS COMES LATE.

It was long after noon before it was known that the loss of life was very great. Up to that time it was believed that only two men had been killed and a dozen wounded. It was not until the wreckers began to dive into the debris of the smoker and the car behind that the awful truth was realized. Then it was seen how terrible the destruction was. The wreckers were not long in separating the blackened remains of seventeen human beings, three of them being females. These 17 were put into wooden boxes and sent to the hospital morgue. Subsequently what was supposed to be the remains of four more were taken out. This with the seventeen and the two dead already in the hospital would make a total of 23. However, there may have been several more who were incinerated out of all recognition.

And up to the time of writing the names of but two of these unfortunates are known. These are supposed to be L. S. Gurney of Brooklyn, N.Y., traveler for a cutlery firm, and Rudolph Ederw, address unknown, but supposed to represent a printing press agency. Further identifications are eagerly looked for. All that is anyway certain is that they were through passengers, principally Americans, many of them en route from the west to the New York centennial. An envelope was picked up beside one of the blackened trunks. Faintly could be read the address: "Harry Evarts, Kohl & Middleton's Museum, Chicago." The envelope, it is supposed, contained some kind of an owner's insurance policy. All the papers and valuables on the charred bodies were consumed in the fierce flames. The remains of the three females were equally charred. One was recognized by a pair of corsets. These unfortunates must have been in the car just behind the smoker. Here and there a blackened coin or a piece of jewelry was fished out. A pocket-book or two were unearthed, but their contents were sadly mutilated or scorched.

The flames devoured the cars so fiercely that, notwithstanding the falling rain and the arrival at about 8.30 of 25 men of the Hamilton brigade with Chief A. Acheson at their head and a good supply of hose, inside of three hours the seven coaches were burned to their trucks.

FULL LIST OF THE WOUNDED.

The full list of the wounded is as follows:

HAMILTON CLARKE, 147 West Ohio-street, Chicago, leg broken, badly injured.

ANTHONY MAHR, an Italian, head cut.

EDWARD CHAPMAN, the fireman, badly scalded about the body.

EDGAR KEITOR of No. 9 Mincing-lane, London, Eng., several ribs broken and otherwise internally injured.

C. G. ARNELL, Edwardsport, Ind., cuts and bruised.

WILLIAM LINSEY, Chicago, ankle sprained.

A. L. DOWST, Dunnville, Ill., slightly bruised.

J. A. PALMER, Ilion, N.Y., head badly cut.

GEORGE WHITE, Union Hill, N.J., head cut.

ANDREW CARPENTER, Yankton, Da., several bad cuts on head.

S. E. YOUNG, 294 North-avenue, Chicago, head badly cut.

JOSEPH MORRIS, Clarke's Island, Maine, head cut.

Messrs. Carpenter and Palmer left the hospital shortly after their wounds were dressed and went home this evening.

Dr. Beamer, Medical Superintendent at the Hospital, said at 5.30 this evening that he did not anticipate that the wounds of any of the injured would result fatally. He had the utmost confidence in their speedy recovery.

DELAY IN SENDING MEDICAL AID.

Conductor Poole at about 7.15 ran to the telegraph office in the cut and sent the news of the disaster to Hamilton and London and wrecking crews were sent on at once. There was a great deal of unfavorable comment about the delay of sending medical aid from Hamilton. The first wrecking train from the Ambitious City brought no doctors, and some of the men on the relief said that a number of the Hamilton doctors had been telephoned to, but it being Sunday morning none of them would respond to the call. Drs. A. Mackalean and Philp came out on the second relief train at about 9.30. Ex-Ald. David Walker, who was on his way home from San Francisco to Toronto, did noble work among the wounded, and ministered to them as tenderly as a hospital nurse. Fortunately the ex-alderman, who is an old railroader, had a good big flask in his pocket, the contents of which was of particular service to the wounded. I saw one American strike Mr. Walker on the shoulder and say: "Damn it, you are better than a dozen doctors. You're a regular trump in an emergency like this."

As soon as possible nearly all the prominent officials of the road who could be summoned were on the scene. Mr. S. Barker went out from Hamilton. Division Superintendent Larmour got there from Stratford. T. Reston, signal inspector, was on hand. Chief Engineer Hobson, Mr. Joseph Wallace, Superintendent Swift's private secretary, the latter being in New York, Road-master P. Neilson and other officials were at the scene of the disaster and did all they could for the wounded. The removals to the hospital were under the direction of Mr. Wallace, and he ordered that every attention be shown the wounded. They were taken to the foot of Victoria-avenue on a special car and from thence to the hospital. It was 5 o'clock this afternoon before the charred remains from the smoker reached the hospital. Dr. A. Wolverton will hold an inquest to-morrow.

HOW DID IT HAPPEN?

The officials named above spent hours on the wreck and not one of them would venture an opinion as to the real cause of the accident. Some of them said they were positive that the switch was all right when the train passed. As the forward trucks of the engine could not be got at up to this evening it could not be ascertained. The rails were spread and twisted a great deal after the Hamilton brigade had succeeded in subduing the flames. This of course was quite natural on account of the intense heat of the flames, an idea of which may be gained from the fact that telegraph poles 50 feet from the tracks were badly scorched. All of the officials admitted that it was the worst and most complete piece of destruction that they had ever witnessed in the annals of railroad horror. In view of the many other serious accidents on the Great Western of late a most searching investigation is to be made into the cause. The strangest thing noticeable about the wreck was that among all the railroad men around the wreck throughout the day not one of them would give a definite opinion as to what caused the terrible affair. Many of them would shake their heads ominously and mutter something about the switch being wrong or the trucks of the engine having suddenly mounted the rails and then as suddenly jumped the tracks altogether. Like many other horrors the real cause of it may probably never be known, and it will continue to be a deep, dark and bloody mystery.

ONE OF THE INJURED TALKS.

Mr. A. Palmer of Ilion, N.Y., was able to leave the hospital about two hours after having his wounds dressed. To a reporter in the station, just before his departure for the east this evening, he gave a graphic account of the accident. He said: "I was sitting in the forward part of the smoker talking to a fellow passenger. I think there were about 20 persons in all in the smoker. I was just about to lie down on the seat when there came a terribly violent and sudden crash, and I was thrown I did not know where. First I thought I went forward and then I came backward. As soon as I recovered my feet I saw that the head of the man whom I had just been talking to was cut clean off, as if with a knife but I do not know how it was done. I looked around me in a dazed condition and the whole car seemed to be shoving backwards, forwards and sideways. There is seemed as if it were crushed through from end to the other and I landed out through a window, I thought, underneath a pile of rubbish. I smelt smoke and fire and felt the heat. I was pulled out of the pile by a gentleman whom I afterwards heard was Mr. Walker of Toronto. My wounds were not so bad as I first supposed. I am employed as a machinist in the works of the Wabash Railway at Butler, Ind., and I was on my way home to Ilion, N.Y., to visit my mother, who is dying. I intended to give them a surprise as my sudden arrival, but I think the surprise will be on me now."

THE MISSING.

Robert Watson was seen at the Hamilton station this afternoon. Mr. Watson could give no definite account of how the accident occurred. He said that, in accordance with the regulations of the road, he "slowed-up" before entering the curve which runs through the Y. The curve is about one mile long. While passing the switch I did not notice anything wrong, but before we had gone very far the wheel of the engine appeared to have mounted the rail. I then saw that something serious was about to happen and I immediately applied the air brake. This in a great measure assisted in causing the rear cars of the train to come to a sudden stop. Finally, the engine left the rails altogether and crashed into the tank. Myself and the fireman crawled out, but I hardly knew how we got out of where we landed."

E. A. Gelles, the keeper of the switch and the engine which runs the tank and his assistant Charles Hull, both say that the switch was all right when the trains passed them. They think the engine mounted the rail and then jumped the track just before reaching the water tank. The opinion was very generally expressed among those working around the wreck.

HOW THE TRAIN WAS MADE UP.

The St. Louis express this morning was a very heavy train. She left Windsor at 1.40, being then composed of the engine, baggage car, smoking car, two passenger cars and the "Fitchburg." At London the Wabash and Chicago and Grand Trunk connections were taken on, together with a bonded baggage car. This increased the strength of the train to ten cars in all. It is understood that there were 100 through and 4 local passengers, making a total of 113 on the train. 65 of these were in the coaches and 48 in the sleepers.

There was considerable excitement when the train reached here this evening among the baseball men of the city, as it was thought that Phillips, the first baseman of the Hamilton club, was on board, and was numbered among the missing; but it was afterwards learned that there were no passengers on the train holding tickets for Hamilton. Phillips is expected here to-morrow.

The St. Louis express, being one of the fastest and best trains over the Great Western road, always is equipped with the best of rolling stock. Her locomotive, which was one of the finest passenger ones on the road, is valued at about $9000. She was built at Kingston about 7 years ago and was afterwards rebuilt at Hamilton. Her passenger cars were worth about $7000 each and her sleeping cars from $12,000 to $15,000. The smoking car, which is very comfortable, is the size of an ordinary passenger car, and is fitted up with reclining chairs and seats. This car is worth about $6000.

The track is all clear this evening, and traffic will not be interrupted further.

ECHOES OF THE HORROR.

Some Brief Sayings About the Great Disaster at the Y.

HAMILTON, April 28.—Chief G. T. Detective Day came up from Toronto on the 12.20 train to-day to see that thieves did not get in their work as they did at the St. George accident. However, when the officer reached the scene, there was nothing left but the trucks of the cars and a pile of smouldering ruins.

The Hamilton firemen, under Chief Acheson, worked nobly and bravely in subduing the flames. They found the engine that supplied the tank from the marsh of the greatest convenience in their efforts.

It kept the railway police and the city police who went out to the wreck very busy in controlling the crowd and keeping them away back on the sand hills overlooking the Y.

The baggageman said that he thinks nearly a dozen of the passengers in the smoker were thrown into his car.

The express messenger jumped from his car with no boots on. Notwithstanding this lack of bootwear he worked like a Trojan in the work of rescue.

Engineer Watson also worked very hard, notwithstanding that he was more or less injured and badly shaken up.

Fireman Chapman was the only train hand who was seriously hurt. He is pretty badly scalded.

Conductor Poole is said to have cut his way out of the roof of one of the sleepers and to have pulled three passengers out after him.

The two sleepers that were not destroyed were sent back to Paris and around to Buffalo via the Buffalo and Lake Huron road.

A special was made up in Hamilton at 11 o'clock this morning and all the passengers that were able to go were sent on.

The flames prevented thieves getting in their work.

Unlucky St. Louis express, fated Y!

The sensation of the wreck was the great leap of 200 feet that the bonded baggage car took. Some of the train men assert that she jumped clean over the derailed engine. It is likely, however, that when the engine left the track she broke clean loose from the rest of the train and the bonded car shot past her. The trucks of the bonded car, it is also likely, helped to block further progress of the cars behind her and some of them were thrown up on the derailed engine.

There was great consternation among the passengers least the boiler would burst. Several persons shouted out that it certainly would. But it didn't.

A peculiar feature of the accident was that no part of the wreck rolled down the steep embankments on either side of the tracks. The wreck, all but the engine, was almost in a straight line with the tracks.

Gurney and Ederer were killed instantly. They were jammed between two cars, but their remains were not away before the flames reached them. Gurney was completely decapitated.

Nearly all of the baggage in the way car was destroyed.

AN UNFORTUNATE PIECE OF ROAD.

The Scene of Many a Calamity—Scene of the Great Horrors.

That part of the Great Western that lies west of Hamilton—from Dundurn to Dundas on the main line, and from the Toronto junction to where the old trestle work crossed the old canal—forms the most expensive portion of the road, costing immense sums for construction. The work is either through or on the side of gravel cliffs and up the mountain. A great many accidents have occurred on this part of the system notwithstanding care is always exercised. Within this small area, say of three miles, occurred the Desjardins canal accident; the catastrophe of yesterday; the accident of last year, by which Peden and Archibald were killed, and the big collision of 1883 between the cut and Dundas.

THE MASON-DOUGLAS ACCIDENT.

On February 15, 1883, a collision occurred on the Great Western about a mile or less west of where the accident of yesterday occurred, that is between the cut and Dundas. The collision was between the Pacific express (10 coaches) and an east bound train of three passenger coaches. Both engines and most of the cars were badly damaged. Engineer Mason of the Pacific express and Thos. S. Douglas of Guelph were killed and seven of the passengers injured.

THE DESJARDINS CANAL ACCIDENT.

The year 1857 was one long to be remembered in this country. It was signalized by the first terrible railway accident that ever occurred in the Province—a calamity which carried desolation to many a Canadian home. On the 12th of March a Great Western Railway passenger train proceeding from Toronto to Hamilton crashed through the trestle spanning the Desjardins Canal in the immediate neighborhood of Hamilton and caused the loss of about seventy lives.

THE PEDEN-ARCHIBALD ACCIDENT.

On the 16th of February, 1888, within 150 yards of a mile from where yesterday's awful accident occurred, two men were killed in a railway collision. As two o'clock in the afternoon a freight train from Petas Edward and the Pac Anniversary Sermons.

The Royal Templars and the Oddfellows Spoken to From the Pulpit.

Sunday morning a sermon to the Royal Templars of Temperance was preached at George street church by the pastor, Rev. M. L. Pearson. The drenching rain prevented a large congregation from being present.

Rev. Mr. Pearson took for his text Daniel, vi, 3 :—

"Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and princes, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole people."

Instead of dealing specifically with the organization, which had a branch in this town, whose principles were based on truth, Mr. Pearson said, he would analyze this grand Bible character, whose guiding principles were embodied in the order, to which he referred, in order to see if Daniel's character could not be accomplished by us to-day. Mr. Pearson then eminently reviewed the chief events in Daniel's career, laying bare the prime motive which actuated his whole life, a love of God that swallowed up every impulse and base desire, and enabled him to over-rule all difficulties. The reverend speaker pointed the moral that such men as Daniel were needed to-day, prime ministers and statesmen of his God-fearing and pure moral character.

The Oddfellows

Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the Oddfellows of the town attended divine worship in St. John's church in commemoration of the seventieth Anniversary of the Order. The brethren assembled at Peterborough lodge rooms and marched in a body to the church. The procession, numbering about 150 men, was headed by the Canton in uniform, and included, besides the members of Otonabee lodge No. 12, Peterborough No. 111, Mount Hebron Encampment No. 56 and Hiawatha Encampment No. 65.

The church was filled by the brethren and a large congregation of their friends. The Union Jack floated from the tower in token of the occasion, while the Master floral decorations, which had been left undisturbed, gave the interior a delightful appearance. Printed orders of service were distributed amongst the brethren, which enabled all those not familiar with the service to join in the worship, which they generally and heartily did do.

THE SERMON

was preached by Rev. J. C. Davidson, M.A., who took for his text, I Samuel, xx, 16 :—

So Jonathan may take covenant with the house of David."

Everyone could see the necessity and importance of covenants in all departments of life, said Rev. Mr. Davidson; in commerce, society and religion. To Oddfellows, however, the covenant between was of peculiar importance. It was a covenant not only for mutual protection, but also one of sincere friendship and love. And for similar purpose and with similar views have men been covenanting together in later days under the name of Oddfellows, and their organization has grown to half a million members in extent, while their charities and benefits, the outcome of their covenant, were enormous. Therefore an Order with such good objects was to be congratulated upon its progress in the past seventy years of its existence, and the reverend speaker said he hoped would it would continue to prosper. They provide for the relief of poverty and distress, thus following out the Divine injunction. Rev. Mr. Davidson also recognized that the duties and were akin to those of Christianity. The benevolence of Christ upon earth was well known to them all, and they also knew that Christ was never too weary to attend to the cries of the needy. This duty of benevolence belonged to all Christian people, and sprang out of covenant with God. They as Oddfellows recognized the beauties and importance of those duties exemplified in Christ, and have covenanted together to have them carried out systematically. As a result a vast amount of misery had been obviated through their ministrations. But while allowing all the good that the covenant of Oddfellowship had done, yet it was merely a covenant and would not suffice for eternity. They should make a covenant with God which would stand them in avail not only through this life, but also on the great judgment day. Everyone could have this covenant, he said, which was set forth in the 55th chapter of Isaiah, and he urged them to not be blinded by the Christian deeds which they practised. A Christ like life without real connection with Christ's society, the church, would not itself make them Christians any more than the imitation of Oddfellow principles would make a man an Oddfellow. They must covenant with the great Jehovah and draw their strength to hold fast to their covenants from Him. He pointed out that the higher covenant did not allow of any selfish feelings, for, while as Oddfellows, they aimed to love one another, they should follow Christ's example and love all mankind—love not only those who love them, but love their enemies as Christ taught them; and they, who had entered this covenant with God, would know when their duty was. David, their great ancestor, did not rest satisfied with making covenant with man alone, but also made an everlasting covenant with his God. In conclusion Mr. Davidson said :—

BETWEEN MAN AND MAN

"Members of the Oddfellows in Peterborough, you have entered into the first covenant and know its benefits and look forward to still greater benefits. As God's minister, I invite you that you have entered into this second covenant, and in His great name I assure you that from now until eternity you will reap the benefits of that covenant."

The collection which was taken was divided, after the expenses in connection with the service were deducted, between the church and the Protestant Home.

The congregation sang the national anthem after the remembered hymn.

The hymns and anthems were chosen with special appropriateness to the occasion, as was also Bible reading, and the prelude were particularly appropriate.

VISITS OF THANKS.

Upon returning to the rooms of Otonabee lodge, the following resolutions were passed :—Moved by Bro. W. F. Green, the presiding N.G.:—

Moved by Bro. Hartley, P.G., of Peterborough lodge, seconded by Bro. Hurley, P. G. of Otonabee lodge, that the thanks of the Oddfellows of Peterborough be tendered to Rev. J. C. Davidson, M.A., of St. John's Church, for his highly practical and appropriate sermon this afternoon; also to the Rector, church officials and officers for having placed the church at the disposal of the Order; and to the organist and members of the choir for their kindness in rendering us the services.

The resolution was ordered to be printed in the Examiner papers and sent to the Dominion Oddfellow.

Afterwards a number of the brethren spoke, all extolling the principles and aims of the Order, Bro. Davidson and the practical application of the sermon preached to them this afternoon. The idea of the committee in having the guided service was also commended.

A Fifth Element.

It is only a few years ago, the Selenographic Astronomical says, that Mr. Parker Davis, of Sandy Creek, had the misfortune to lose his house by fire, and on Wednesday night he was again visited by misfortune, and his stable and harness shop was destroyed. The old was a good one, well supplied with machinery, in fact having most machinery when not in actual required, a variety which was useful. The property was valued at between five and six thousand dollars, and was insured for $2,500.

Consumption claims many victims. Ward off this dread disease by the use of timely administered Burdock Pill when needed. dw

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Ashburnham Brevities.

Mr. Will Smith was in Belleville Friday attending the anniversary of the Independent Order of Oddfellows.

Inspector Craig has nearly completed the work of housenumbering Ashburnham street, and the work has been done in the most tasty and systematic manner. The residents of this street will, no doubt, feel very much gratified. A numbering-out on this street to keep down dust will make a real paradise to live in.

Work on St. Joseph's hospital is being steadily pushed ahead.

The Gaffer Hays is being treated to a fresh coat of paint which will make her look like new. In its repaired state will be ready for regular trips in about two weeks.

The following orders which have been issued by the town Council of Berlin, would not be amiss if enforced in this village. It would be well for the boys, both physically and morally. The orders are these:—"That all boys of twelve years or under, found upon the streets after nine o'clock at night are to be arrested by the police and imprisoned for the night." The girls are not especially mentioned but it is presumed they will take a hint.

Mr. D. Costello, proprietor of the Albion hotel, is confined to his room. He is very low but this morning he was feeling somewhat stronger.

Mr. G. W. Lobb, of Trinity College, Toronto, conducted the services morning and evening in St. Luke's, Sunday.

Mr. John Connor has purchased the Albion hotel block.

THE MANITOBA TRAGEDY.

Further Particulars of the Triple Crime at High Bluff.

WINNIPEG, April 28.—Later details of the High Bluff horror show that the terrible crime was committed just after breakfast Friday, or perhaps during that meal, as the partly eaten dishes still remained on the table, at which were set three chairs. The supposition is that McLeod, who is thought to have been a little cracked, first attacked the boy and Isabella, the daughter, ran for shelter to her bedroom. Her shoes were covered with blood as if she had stepped in her brother's gore. A deep gash in her head from which the brains oozed showed that death must have been almost instantaneous.

After placing the bodies of the children on the bed, McLeod evidently cut his own throat at the bedside with a blunt table knife, which fell from his grasp through a crack in the floor to the cellar, where it was found. He must have lain there some time and then crawled to the outer room, where, covered with blood he expired.

The boy is still alive but can only live a short time.

McLeod had two other children at school at Portage la Prairie and had talked of sending for them with the probable murderous intention of slaying them all. Ever since the death of their mother two years ago, McLeod's children have been sadly neglected and the neighbors sent two to school. This rankled in the father's mind and he always feared that they would starve on account of his misfortune. Financial difficulties at last overtook him, and then followed the horrible crime, demoniac desperation when the unfortunate man was temporarily insane.

An 8-Year-Old Murderer.

MALVERN, Q., April 27.—Two rounded Charlie Dickman and his 8-year-old cousin Johnny Hetzmer quarrelled to-day over a playing ground. Hetzmer seized a gun, shot and killed Dickman. Hetzmer was knocked down and seriously injured by the firing of the gun.

BLEW OUT HIS BRAINS.

Suicide of a Jilted Bootmaker at Winnipeg—A Bequest to His Enemorata.

WINNIPEG, April 26.—Julius Jonasson's girl jilted him and he went out to Nicholas Gerand last night and placing the muzzle of his gun to his head blew the top of the man off. Part of the skull and one eye were found 40 yards off. Deceased, who was an Icelander, was despondent over his unrequited love affair and left his insurance to $50 to his mill.

Gabriel Dumont is here and intends going to Montreal to purchase horses for exhibition at the Paris Exposition. He denies he tried to incite the people of Batoche to rebellion during his recent visit, but intimates that he could easily have done so.

Sir Charles Tupper was presented with an address to-day by St. Patrick's Society in which he was asked to promote Irish emigration to Canada. In an eloquent reply Sir Charles promised to do all he could in the matter.

Col. Bachus's reported hundred thousand windfall from ex-convict Monro turns out to be only a few thousand.

To-day 730 immigrants arrived from the east.

He Was a Great Footplayer.

NEW YORK, April 25.—Albert M. Frey, who died to-day, has held the pool-playing championship for three years. He defeated the champions of every country where pool is played. He was born in this city 29 years ago. He began playing when 14 years old and was beaten only a few times. He was the winner in the recent championship tournament. He was the author of the popular game of continuous pool by which pool contests are now decided. He was the proprietor of a well-known resort on Broadway.

Willing to Take a Wife to Get a License—A Pugilistic Bill Rotten.

Toronto, April 24.—The Board of License Commissioners are meeting daily to hear deputations in opposition to the granting of licenses and to receive applications. When James Cusack, a well-known elderly gentleman who wants a license for the Montreal House, 140 King-street west, presented a duly-signed petition yesterday Commissioner Ryan asked: "Are you married?" "No, sir," he said, "but I've a great desire to be." It was explained to Mr. Cusack that the board has strong inclinations against granting licenses to unmarried men, whereupon the applicant promised if the license were granted to get married within six months but declined to say whether he had selected the fair lady yet, that being a matter, as he explained, "between me an' meself."

Yesterday's 11.30 G. T. R. train from the east brought two cars of immigrants and between sixty and seventy young girls sent out by Miss Rye. They were passengers on the Sardinian. The children went on to the home at Niagara Falls, and the immigrants will distribute through Western Ontario and Manitoba.

Samuel Trepe, a lad employed in the Kemp Manufacturing Company's works, had three of his fingers jammed in a press. They were amputated at the hospital.

The body of an infant, enclosed in a small wooden box, was found yesterday morning in a drain on Macpherson-avenue. It was taken to the morgue. A coroner's jury rendered a verdict of still-born.

While adjusting a belt on a pulley in Dunsmore & Norton's planing mill in Stafford-street yesterday morning a man named Moore, who lives in Argyle-street, received a severe wound. The belt slipped and struck him on the head just above his right eye.

The police were alive to the fact of a contemplated row at the mill last night, and carefully watched the Kingston-road, where a little beyond the Woodbine was a house, in a large room of which the arena had been prepared. At 2 a.m. the detectives rushed the place and found a number of local sports there, but no apparent evidence of a fight. It transpired subsequently that the select gathering were aware that they were watched.

The Kilmer' over which there has been so much speculation and anticipation, opened yesterday afternoon in the Pavilion in a blaze of glory. It will last all week.

FIGHTING FOR A CORPSE.

Religious Differences Make Trouble for a Husband Over His Wife's Burial.

Dedham, Mass., April 24.—About a week ago Mary Carpenter, a handsome brunette, 26 years of age, died of consumption. She resided with her husband, Oscar Carpenter, in her mother's home. The deceased was a Catholic and her husband is a Protestant. Mrs. Hand, her mother, secured a lawyer when she was aware that her daughter was to die, and had her make a will directing that her body be given to her mother, who was to have charge of her burial.

When Carpenter heard of this he became incensed and claimed that he had been told that the ground in which his wife was buried was not consecrated ground, for if it was he could not be buried beside her, because he is a Protestant. Carpenter said last night that he would claim the body of his wife and have her buried where he pleased, using force if necessary. His mother-in-law will fight him and a lively time will be the result.

The Vienna Riots.

Vienna, April 24.—The strike of carmen is nearly ended. Rioting, however, continues in the Favoriten and Hernals quarters. The mob yesterday stoned the cavalry and reinforcements of infantry were required. Many rioters were wounded and a large number were arrested.

GOSSIP FROM WOODSTOCK.

A Singular Accident—Knox Church to Build a New Temple.

Woodstock, April 25.—On Wednesday afternoon during the heavy gale a young man was driving his team along a highway in West Oxford, over which a spread an immense ash tree. At the instant he arrived there a violent gust of wind blew the tree down across the team and pinned the horses to the ground. The young man was also caught by the branches, but managed to relieve himself. The team was only slightly injured.

The attention of the Assizes has been occupied for nearly a whole day with the case of Gleeson v. Kennedy. The plaintiff alleges that while driving along a public highway defendant deliberately drove his horse into that of plaintiff, in consequence of which he was thrown out and has since been incapacitated for work. Suit was brought for $5000 damages. Verdict for $600 for plaintiff.

The brickhotel at the Canadian Pacific Railway station was purchased to-day by A. L. Dent for $2300.

At a meeting of Knox Church congregation last night the Board of Trustees presented a report recommending the building of a new church. The report was unanimously adopted. The new building will cost about $30,000.

At the autumn Crown Attorney Ball stated that it was expected to have the new court house under way by July 1. This building will cost about $60,000.

John Monaghan of Woodstock was arrested at Lindsay last night on a charge of stealing several articles from a commercial traveler, who was stopping at the O'Neill House.

CAPTAIN MURRELL RECEIVES.

Over 4000 Philadelphians Shake Hands With the Missouri's Chief Officer.

Philadelphia, April 25.—The dock of the steamer Missouri prior to her departure for Baltimore this afternoon presented a scene of gaiety and commotion. Captain Murrell, as an expression of his thanks for the honors conferred upon him since his arrival in this city, tendered a reception to the public aboard the steamer between 9 and 12 o'clock. Long before 9 o'clock the streets leading to the wharf where the Missouri lay were packed with people and in the three hours devoted to the reception an unbroken line of men, women and children passed by the captain, who heartily grasped the hand of each. Many and ardent were the expressions of praise and good will by those who grasped the hero's hand. Captain Murrell and the officers of the Missouri contributed their entire share of the testimonial fund raised for them to the rescued passengers of the Denmark, who lost nearly all they had in the world on the stalking steamer. The portion which the crew was to have received will be distributed to them. The captain presented the women and girls with miniature bouquets. He shook hands with over 4,000 persons, including twenty-five Indian girls from the Lincoln Institute. The latter gave him two pairs of moccasins. Thousands were unable to greet the captain. After her cargo was discharged the Missouri, amid cheers and the waving of handkerchiefs, steamed away for Baltimore.

The Blood is the Life,

And on its purity largely depends the question of health. Hence it is that so many and wide-spread are the troubles arising from impurity of the blood. Suffer from one form or other of impure blood. No one remedy has such a wide range of curative power as has Burdock Blood Bitters—this hint of all blood purifiers and tonics.

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

Symptoms—Moisture, intense itching and stinging, most at night, worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. Said to be Splendid.

For Five Years.

"For over five years we have used Hagyard's Yellow Oil in our family for coughs and colds, burns and sore throat, and our experience is so satisfactory that we would recommend the medicine to any person." Mrs. F. Sanderson, Bosworth, Ont. 2w17d

Our Vancouver Correspondent.

From Enquimault, B. C., Mrs. A. B. Cameron writes that being very much troubled with dyspepsia she tried two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters, which gave great relief, and hopes that others may be induced to try it also and receive like benefits.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Rheumatism and Neuralgia

These twin diseases cause untold suffering. Doctors admit that they are difficult to cure—so do their patients. Paine's Celery Compound has permanently cured the worst cases of rheumatism and neuralgia—so say those who have used it.

"Having been troubled with rheumatism at the knee and foot for five years, I was almost unable to get around, and was very often confined to my bed for weeks at a time. I used only one bottle of Paine's Celery Compound, and was perfectly cured. I can now jump around, and feel as lively as a boy." Frank Camoz, Eureka, Nevada.

After suffering with chronic rheumatism for several years, I was induced to try Paine's Celery Compound, and after using two bottles found myself greatly improved. In fact, after using three bottles, have not felt any rheumatism. Can conscientiously recommend it. Yours very truly, Mrs. F. Cowan, Cowansville, P.Q.

Paine's Celery Compound

"I have been greatly afflicted with acute rheumatism, and could find no relief until I used Paine's Celery Compound. After using six bottles of this medicine I am now cured of rheumatic troubles." Samuel Hutchinson, Sr. Cornish, N. H.

Effects Lasting Cures.

Paine's Celery Compound has performed many other cures as marvelous as these,—copies of letters sent on application. Pleasant to take, does not disturb, but aids digestion, and entirely vegetable; a child can take it. What's the use of suffering longer with rheumatism or kindred ills?

Circumstances have prevented Mrs. James Duncan from thanking the Foresters of Court Peterborough, as she now desires to do, for the great kindness they showed during the illness of her late husband, and for their turning out in a body to attend his funeral. She is deeply grateful and wishes to them publicly acknowledge it.

An Honest Farmer.

Saturday afternoon a farmer brought Chief Ressel the money for a bag of potatoes which he had sold to someone on the market, whom he could not afterwards find to deliver the "murphies." He handed the money over to the chief, who will refund it to the man who paid for his potatoes but didn't receive them.

Sudden Sudden Death.

The public generally, as well as the numerous friends of Mr. A. Ernest Sherwood, of the firm of Sherwood Bros., commission merchants, will be deeply pained to learn of the death of his wife, which took place about noon to-day with appalling suddenness. What makes the circumstances of Mrs. Sherwood's death, in addition to its unexpected nature, is the fact that the deceased lady was but the bride of a year—lacking one day. She was the only daughter of Norman Barnhart, Esq., of Bobcaygeon, and she leaves behind her an infant son of a very tender age. She was a lady of most estimable character, and during her brief residence in Peterborough had attracted to herself a large circle of warm friends. The EXAMINER desires to join the friends of the bereaved husband and family in extending the most hearty sympathy and condolence to them in their exceedingly sad bereavement. The funeral takes place Wednesday from 111 Weller street at three o'clock.

FAREWELL TO THE PARISH

Bishop Dowling and Father McEvay Say Good-bye

Presented With Complimentary Addresses by the Congregation—Feeling Replies From the Recipients—A Purse For Father McEvay.

The people of St. Peter's Cathedral said good-bye to their Bishop and pastor Sunday night after Vespers. There was a large congregation present. Rev. Father Kloepfer, of Berlin, sat with the other priests inside the altar railing.

The addresses appended speak for themselves. They voiced the sentiments of the parishioners, and, together with the replies, proclaim the warm attachment that existed between priests, priest and people, and the general regret that is felt at the severance of the ties which bound the parochial trinity together.

The addresses which were handsomely engrossed, the work of the Sisters of St. Joseph, Toronto, were presented by the committee whose names are attached. After Vespers they proceeded to the front of the church and facing the Bishop on his throne and Rev. Father McEvay by his side, the following was read to his Lordship by Mr. Thos. Kelly:—

TO THE BISHOP.

To His Lordship, the Right Rev. Thomas Joseph Dowling, D.D., Bishop of Hamilton.

May it please your Lordship. It is with feeling of the greatest regret that we approach your Lordship on behalf of the congregation of St. Peter's Cathedral, to bid you farewell.

Two short years ago your Lordship came amongst us to assume, for the first time the sacred duties of a Bishop of the Church of God, and though a stranger to us personally your reputation for piety, zeal and learning had preceded you, and in the very sanctuary we welcomed you as a worthy successor of the saintly prelate whom but a short time previously God had called to his eternal reward. From the first we have regarded your Lordship with feelings of respect, and veneration, and as time went on our knowledge of your benevolent and self-sacrificing character increased, and so won our love and esteem, that when the rumor reached us that the Holy See proposed to translate you to another Diocese, we earnestly prayed that it might be the will of God that you should remain with us, and continue to devote your untiring zeal and your distinguished learning and abilities, for the benefit of God's holy church in the Diocese of Peterborough. But it was not to be, and though our sorrow is great, we reverently submit to the will of Him whose untiring hand has placed you in a more important sphere, where you will best serve his interests.

Our parish had benefitted in many ways since your Lordship's residence in our midst. It has benefitted not only by the constant example of the beauty and humility of your daily life, by your learned and eloquent instructions, but also by the good works you will leave behind you as evidences of your thoughtful love and regard for the Catholics of Peterborough. In your anxiety for the health and comfort of the cathedral clergy, you have removed the old and dilapidated parochial house which had done service in days gone by, and purchased a home for the priests more in harmony with their wants and numbers, and with the dignity of the cathedral parish. We also congratulate you on the purchase of a suitable episcopal residence, which is an [illegible] town, supplying a want long felt for the convenience of a bishop, and for the accommodation of all the diocesan clergy on the occasion of retreats and conferences.

We learned with gratitude from the late financial statement of the chancellor, that by the generosity of your clergy throughout the diocese and their respective flocks, and other personal benefactors, you were enabled to pay for the bishop's house without imposing any additional burden on the cathedral parish of Peterborough. The two beautiful and commodious houses, with their furniture and surroundings, are now and for all future time, thanks to your zeal, the property of the diocese.

Among the many good and noble works of your Lordship in the administration of the affairs of this diocese, there is one in particular which will serve to illustrate that feeling of charity and good will towards all men that characterizes the priests of our holy religion, and that is so happily exemplified in your Lordship. We allude to the founding of St. Joseph's hospital, a charitable institution intended for the relief of the poor and infirm of every creed. Your Lordship's memory will always be enshrined in the hearts of those present, and we hope that, when this generation shall have passed away, St. Joseph's hospital will stand for generations to come as a monument to the zeal and piety of its founder.

And now it becomes our sad duty to say farewell. May God spare you long to rule over the people of the Diocese of Hamilton, and that the reward of your labors may be eternal joy in His heavenly kingdom, will always be the sincere and heartfelt prayer of the congregation of St. Peter's.

Signed on behalf of the congregation,

THE BISHOP'S REPLY.

His Lordship replied as follows:—

MY DEAR FRIENDS AND PARISHIONERS,—It has been often said by friends, who, perhaps, thought too kindly of my sermons, that it was no trouble for me to speak; that I had no difficulty in finding words to express my thoughts. Well, let me assure you that whatever may be said of the past, I find that difficulty to-night. I am at a loss to know how to begin. It is so hard to bring oneself to say that sad word good-bye. And, yet, it should not be a sad word, for it is only another way of saying, in English, "God be with you." For a long time past I have shared in that sorrow of which you speak in your kind address, our mutual sorrow at the very thought of separation. There is a loneliness that it is very hard to suppress in parting from persons and places that we love. God has been pleased to implant in the hearts of the young love for home and kindred, and the same God has implanted in the heart of a true priest a supernatural love for the souls committed to his care. Three times in my life I have realized the pangs and pain of separation. First, when as a student I left my father's home; secondly, when as a priest I had to part with my first parish, and now, finally, when I have, as a Bishop, to say farewell to the flock of St. Peter's Cathedral, which was the first to receive me as their chief pastor and to bid me an affectionate and hearty welcome on the day of my entrance into the diocese. The joy and enthusiasm with which you received me that day were more than ample compensation for any sacrifices I may have made in severing my connection with my late parish. Strange as I was personally to you, I may of you as St. Paul said of his people that you received me as an angel of God, "For Christ," says the Apostle, "we are ambassadors," and unworthy as I am of the dignity, I came amongst you simply to do the work of God, and for all the acts of kindness and generosity done for me personally and officially from the first day I came amongst you, I now beg of you to accept my most sincere and heartfelt thanks.

In your kindly estimate of your Bishop you are pleased to ascribe to him many talents and many virtues which I know I do not possess; but whatever may be my efforts my heart was always in my work. My people always as my thoughts, and my constant endeavor has been to promote, as well as I knew how, the glory of God, the good of the parish, the prosperity of the diocese and the sanctification of the souls of priests and people committed to my spiritual charge.

Whatever good may have been effected, whatever [illegible] progress may have been attained, I take no credit to myself, but attribute all first to the goodness of God, who has been pleased to bless my humble efforts, for unless the Lord build the house they labor in vain who build; secondly, under God, this prosperity is due to the faithful co-operation of the exemplary priests of the diocese, and, lastly, to the constant zeal and generosity of the faithful of the diocese.

The longer I lived in this diocese the more learned to love it. I loved the people for their piety, the place for its beauty, the clergy for their fidelity, and the works in which I was engaged for the pleasure of promoting them as well as for the sacred purposes to which they were to be devoted. What the Royal Prophet said of the temple, I may say of your cathedral: "Lord, I have loved the beauty of thy house." It is a pleasure to me to [illegible] that nothing was done during my administration to beautify both the interior and the surroundings of St. Peter's Cathedral, and that in the erection of St. Joseph's hospital I have been to some extent instrumental in leaving in your midst a monument that for all future time will proclaim the heaven-born charity of the children of the Catholic church. In the [illegible] of being allowed to live and labor in this diocese for the rest of my days, I laid all these reasons before the Holy Father. His answer was that he regretted to remove me, since in sympathizes with your feelings and with mine, and that he would send you a chief pastor in the person of his Rev. Dr. Cleaver, who would walk in my footsteps and keep me always in your memory. Rome has spoken, it remains for us only to obey the voice of the vicar of Jesus Christ. Thank God that in the person of Dr. O'Connor you will have a bishop after God's own heart, and one who has been a life-long friend of mine. His presence here as chief pastor will serve as another reason, please God, to bring me back often to see you and to speak to you, and to visit those educational and charitable institutions which are a credit to your piety, to the parish and to the town.

Meantime I ask a daily remembrance in your prayers and promise often to remember you at the holy sacrifice.

May the blessing of Almighty God, Father, Son and Holy Ghost, descend upon you and remain with you forever.

ADDRESS TO THE PASTOR.

The address to the Rev. Father McEvay was read by Mr. F. H. Brennan. It was accompanied by a substantial purse of money. —$300. It read as follows:—

To the Reverend F. P. McEvay, P. P., Rector of the Cathedral and Chancellor of the Diocese of Peterborough:

REVEREND AND DEAR FATHER,—Among the many duties we owe to our pastor, the saddest is, perhaps, that which devolves upon us this evening, of bidding you, in the name of your parishioners and of your many warm friends in Peterborough, a most affectionate farewell.

We have met for the threefold purpose of giving expression to the esteem and love we have for your person, to our gratitude and appreciation of your valuable services to the parish, and to assure you of our heartfelt sorrow at the thought of separating from a pastor so devoted and so dear to us, and one who, in the short space of two years, has accomplished so much for the glory of God and the spiritual and temporal interests of the congregation committed to your pastoral charge. The grief we feel in parting with our Bishop is, indeed, very great, but it is now intensified when we realize that we have also to part with you.

To your enterprise and zeal and self-sacrifice, rev. and dear father, under the guidance of His Lordship, we know that we are largely indebted for the many improvements that have been made in the cathedral and its surroundings. Under your wise and prudent administration as rector of the cathedral, we have enjoyed many spiritual and temporal advantages. Your daily attendance to our spiritual wants, your frequent and fervent exhortations, and your constant zeal for the education of youth, have borne visible fruit among us, and will never be forgotten by your parishioners. Your whole life indeed has been one of self-sacrifice, as exemplified by the many years devoted to your studies, by your untiring and successful energy in the difficult and scattered missions confided to your care, and by the readiness with which you gave up your home and parish at the request of your good Bishop, to assume the heavy burden that awaited you here. We thank God, however, that your obedience, self-sacrifice and zeal have been abundantly blessed. Our cathedral and parish property are now in good order, and our parochial debt reduced to comparatively small proportions, thanks to your untiring zeal, whilst to your admirable tact and administrative ability we are largely indebted for most of the funds on hand for the foundation and construction of St. Joseph's hospital, a monument of true Christian charity, with which the names of Bishop Dowling and of Chancellor McEvay will be forever inseparably associated.

While sincerely sorry to part with you, we humbly submit to the desire and decision of the bishop, and we heartily rejoice to know that your future lot will be associated with that of a prelate who loves you so well and who is so deeply interested in your welfare. We pray God to grant you strength and grace, and many years of health and happiness, to labor as successfully for His glory and the good of the church of Hamilton as you have done in the Diocese of Peterborough.

We hope in conclusion to often have the pleasure of a visit from you, promising you a frequent remembrance in our prayers, trusting that you in return will often remember us at the Altar, and humbly ask Dear Father your acceptance of this small souvenir as a token and pledge of the esteem, love and gratitude entertained for you by your spiritual children of the Cathedral and your many true and devoted friends of the town of Peterborough.

Signed on behalf of the congregation,

M. Reilly,	J. J. Sheehy,
Thos. Dolan,	J. P. Dunn,
B. Morrow,	Wm. Radkins.

FATHER M'EVAY'S REPLY.

Rev. Father McEvay replied as follows:—

MY DEAR FRIENDS,—I scarcely know how to begin to answer your very beautiful and your very flattering address. Your own goodness depicted what I ought to be rather than what I am. To tell you the truth, I was somewhat alarmed when His Lordship told me that he would take charge of this large and important parish, but a priest's duty is to obey his Bishop, and I came trusting on the one hand to your own good dispositions, and on the other to the advice, and direction, and encouragement I knew I would receive from so kind and so able a prelate; and anything that has been done during my short stay here must be attributed to his zeal and wisdom and to your own generous co-operation with his views. For when the people work with the priests and the priests with the Bishop, them a chain is formed sufficiently strong to remove all obstacles.

If, in the discharge of my duties, I have said anything too severe I take this opportunity to apologize to those who may have been wounded by my remarks.

I take this occasion also to thank His Lordship for the many acts of kindness I have received from him since I came to Peterborough. I feel grateful to the priests, and especially to my successor in office, for the valuable assistance they have rendered me at all times; and I thank you, my friends, most sincerely both for your exceedingly generous purse, and particularly for the good will and encouragement and generosity which you have shown in every undertaking since I came amongst you.

And in conclusion I ask a fond remembrance in your prayers, and in return will promise to remember frequently both you and your children at God's holy altar. I now bid you an affectionate farewell. May God bless you all

The choir of the George street church was very large yesterday, several new members being in their places. The morning anthem "Holy Holy," and the Praise the Father," were rendered in splendid style. Mr. Dingle the organist, seems determined to have first class music rendered in first class style in George street church.

The ladies of the George street church give a reception to the young people of the church to-morrow (Tuesday) evening. All the young people of the congregation are expected, when he calls for them.

On account of the unpleasant weather the reception service in the Charlotte street church Sunday evening was postponed till next Sunday forenoon.

Members of the Riverside Lacrosse Club or all those wishing to join are reminded of the meeting at the Phelan House, Monday evening at 8 o'clock. A large attendance is requested at this very important meeting.

The bicycle club meets to-night in the old post office block.

The strong probabilities are that a baseball club will be organized in connection with the P.A.A.A. There is some good material among the members, which if brought out could be formed into a team that would be able to cope with any in the district. Dr. Brennan has already received challenges from Cobourg, Lindsay and other places, and it behooves the boys to soon organize and begin practice if there is to be any club this year.

The New Party.

Don't forget the mass meeting to-night in the Opera House. Rev. Dr. Sutherland will champion the cause of "Canada's New Party." Its principles and platform will be discussed and defended with the zeal and ability which always characterizes the Doctor's platform utterances. We anticipate a good time. The ladies will also be among his auditors. Special invitations have been extended to the M.Ps. and M.P.Ps. of the East and West Ridings of this county. The committee of management will ask for a silvers collection to defray expenses. Chair to be taken at 8 o'clock.

Obituary.

It is with feelings of deep regret, the Herald says, that we chronicle the death on Wednesday morning of Mrs. Mary Ann, widow of the late Mr. James English. Deceased was born in County Cavan, Ireland, and came to the township of Emily in the year 1818, from which it will be seen she was one of the first settlers in this section, and saw Emily and Omemee when they were nothing more than a dense forest, and in later years saw the forest give way to fine farms in the township and the pretty village of Omemee spring up. Deceased was mother of twelve children, six boys and six girls, ten of whom survive her—Robert and Samuel, of Omemee, John James, of Maple Creek, N. W.T.; Wm. H., of Carberry; Mrs. McKinley, Mrs. James Balfour, Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. Clarke, of Omemee, Mrs. Hodge, township of King, and Mrs. J. Harding, of Lindsay. Isaac and George died some years ago. The deceased lady was highly respected by all, and the family have the sympathy of the whole community in their great loss. The funeral on Thursday was largely attended by sorrowing friends and acquaintances.

Reckless Driving.

It was paid by his friends and the lad saved from a 20 days term in gaol.

DRESS GOODS.—New shades of Henriette Cloths to fill up the gap. The quick sales of the past few weeks have been making SMOKE GREY, like the silver sheen of the atmosphere of a light, grey day by the sea. SUEZ GREEN. Why Suez? Only that the oddity of the name may mentally fit the color—the color so beautiful in combination with other colors; OLD ROSE—the name suggests the fading leaf; lost beauty, expired fragrance—and yet it stands for a tinting shade of red so delicate that to call it red would be an insult. The colors are primary, of course. All told, we have about thirty-six good shades of Dress Goods to select from, in materials from 10c. to $1.00 a yard. New girdles and trimmings to match.

Fashion is always turning a new corner, and we with it. This spring is is fashionable for men to wear Striped Suitings. We have them in good variety, and will save you money in every suit you buy.

Thus sighed old Scotia's Bard in vain,
For what he could not then attain.

For if he walked on Hunter street,
An eager throng he'd surely meet,

All coming from one fifty-eight.

A BROKEN AXLE DID IT.

THE CAUSE OF THE TERRIBLE CALAMITY AT THE "Y."

The Rumored Discovery of More Victims in the Ruins Unfounded—No New Identifications—An Inquest Opened.

HAMILTON, April 29.—The cause of the lamentable calamity at the "Y" yesterday was in all probability made out this afternoon. The wreckers were at work endeavoring to give the coroner's jury who visited the scene a distinct idea of the layout of the tracks. One of the axles of the engine was found to be broken. The axle head after the disaster been pitched into mud and water and had also been somewhat burned so that it was impossible to tell by examining the broken ends whether or not the axle had had a flaw in the steel, but from the position in which the engine lay after the plunge into the water tank it is certain that the axle was not broken by being struck by anything either at the time of or immediately after the first crash. The tender of the engine was thrown to one side and it was that which got the full weight of the cars behind and caused them to pitch up into a heap. The jury seemed to be of opinion that the broken axle caused the accident, but in order to get more light upon the subject Mr. W. A. Robinson, a prominent manufacturer of this city and an expert in iron and steel working as well as in locomotive engineering, was appointed to make an inspection in order that he might have time to inspect and report.

A rumor was circulated around the city this morning that a lot more bodies, variously estimated at from five to ten, had been found in the ruins. Mr. P. Nelson, the track foreman, was seen in reference to the rumor. He said: "There can be no truth in the report. I was out there yesterday until both tracks were cleared up completely. There could have been no more bodies in the wreck, I think, for all the debris under which a body could be hidden had been sifted in the cleaning up operations."

Other of the railway officials were interviewed and all were of the same opinion.

THE SOLE TOPIC OF THE TOWN.

Nothing Else But the Accident Talked About—At the Undertakers.

HAMILTON, April 29.—Of course there was nothing else talked about in these parts to-day but the appalling railway calamity at the "Y" yesterday morning. It will be many days before the shudder which that awful smash caused will have passed away. The fact that some of the ill-fated travelers are known in this city robs the catastrophe of some of its interest, although the citizens shudder just the same as though the dead were their own kin. It may take days or weeks to identify the killed, and many of them will no doubt go down to unknown graves. It is not thought, from what has been gathered from survivers that any of those in the ill-starred smoking car were persons that would likely be well known, and this fact may delay their identification.

The remnants of the burned victims were taken to Blachford's undertaking establishment to-day, and are now laid out there. So far as can be ascertained at present the remains of seventeen persons, and possibly eighteen. There is no doubt that three of them are the remains of women, and one is a child of 6 years, but whether a boy or girl it is impossible to say.

The headless body of Edever and that of Gurney are also at Blachford's. There is now no doubt of Edever's identity. The initials "R. J. E." are on his shirt. A careful examination of his scalp—to which a portion of the skin of the face is attached—reveals that Edever's hair was brown, and that he wore it short and cut pompadour; that he had a full beard and mustache, reddish brown and close-cropped. He was a man about 5 feet 10 inches high. Gurney had no mark on his clothing or anything in his pockets to identify him. A small sum of money—$8.15 in all—was found in one of his pockets to-day. There was $7 in bills and the remainder in American silver, which was in an envelope bearing the name and address of the Leland House, Chicago.

Mr. E. R. Saxton arrived here to-day to take charge of the remains of L. S. Gurney of New York. The remains of Edever and Gurney are the only ones who have thus far been identified.

OPENING AN INQUEST.

The Jury Views the Scene of the Calamity—Evidence About the St. Louis Express.

HAMILTON, April 29.—Dr. A. Woolverton opened an inquest at the City Hospital this morning. The jurors were sworn in: John Hoodless (foreman), Samuel McKay, George Magill, B. Winnifrith, Thomas Littlehales, C. R. Smith, George Laxton, Charles Bird, John Alexander, Samuel Thorne, John A. Barr, John A. Bruce, Henry Arland, Charles Black, Wm. Somerville, Wm. Mewport, J. K. Applegath and Rudolph Riesman.

In his opening remarks Coroner Woolverton said that the frequent occurrence of these accidents made it necessary that a searching investigation should be made in the interest of the public. He was glad to see such an intelligent and representative jury empanelled, and he hoped that no pains would be spared to sift the affair to the bottom, and determine on whom lay the blame.

Mr. Hoodless suggested that a detective should be placed at the disposal of the jury and the coroner said this could be done.

Chief Clerk Wallace Testifies.

Joseph Wallace, chief clerk to Superintendent Stiff, was sworn: The wrecked train was No. 52 limited express from Detroit to Suspension Bridge via Sarnia. At London the composition of the train takes place, sections coming over the Wabash from Detroit and the other over the Chicago and Grand Trunk via Sarnia. A sleeper and coach are taken on at Detroit and the train leaves Windsor at 1.40 daily. It is due at Dundas at 6.44. The accident occurred 44 miles east of Dundas and it would take about eight minutes to run that distance. The train was due to leave London at 4.45, but left on Sunday at 4.55. The following is the due time and actual time along from that point: Paris 6.08, 6.19; Harrisburg 6.23, 6.39; Copestown 6.36, 6.52; Dundas 6.44, 7.00. The wheels were examined in Paris, three minutes being occupied in doing so. Since the St. George accident the engineers have had orders not to make up lost time by fast running.

Mr. Magill—Is it true that the St. Louis express felt a bad jar at that point on Saturday evening previous and had to run back?

Witness had not heard anything of that sort. The running time of the limited express is 43 miles an hour. The St. Louis expresses east and west are timed for 45 miles and 49 miles an hour. Trains should slow down to 25 miles an hour at the point where the accident occurred.

The Grand Trunk authorities put two cars at the disposal of the coroner, and they were run up to the Victoria-avenue crossing, where the jurors embarked, accompanied by the coroner, Mr. Wallace, Mr. Barker, Mr. Hobson and Mr. Armstrong.

When the wreck was reached it was at once apparent that the large gang of men had been industrious during the night. The track was rebuilt, and all the wreck removed except the upturned engine and a nest of wheels and debris in the hole between the tracks. The jurors made a thorough examination of the surroundings and were facilitated in every way in the investigation. The only trace of the run off on the rails removed from the wreck was on the outside rail immediately east of the switch, where there was a deep nick in the end as if the rail just before it had spread and allowed the flange of the engine wheel to light on the end of the rail. While the jury was looking over the ruins the wreckers spared no time in getting the tracks clear, and at 4.30 p.m. the first train passed over the new track. The train was driven very slowly, though it might have run at full speed, while others complained that the engine keeping headlong like the hole between the tracks might have caused the break by lighting on the front wheels.

After returning from the wreck Coroner Woolverton adjourned the inquest until Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at No. 3 station.

ONLY TWO EYE-WITNESSES.

Little Hannah Boyd Tells How the Engine Dashed Up and Down.

HAMILTON, April 29.—So far as could be found only two persons witnessed the accident. Little Hannah Boyd, the 14-year-old daughter of the junction gatekeeper, was standing at the window of their house across the railway when the express came along. "I saw it come out of the curve all right," she said, "but just as it got about half way across the high embankment the engine began to bump up and down and went straight for the bank. The roof and planks flew into the air; then I heard an awful noise and a cloud of steam rose up and in the middle of it the cars were tumbling about. I ran to wake my sister and then we saw the fire begin to blaze up. The train was running very fast at the time I saw it first and the whole thing was over quick."

The reporter encountered a nice lively old man named Dan'l Young, who keeps a small dairy on the hill south of the wreck. "Yes, I used the smash-up," he admitted, when a slight impediment in his hearing was overcome. "I was just goin' towards the cow stable when the express come along an' I need her go off the rails an' bang up agin the bank. The roof of the bank went shyin' off and the engine turned on its back an' the cars went scooting past an' jumped over every think."

"I suppose you immediately started up to see what help you could give?"

"Wa-l, no—not just then. After I had milked the cows an' done a few chores I went up and had a look at it, an' when I come down an' had breakfast, I tell you what, young feller, if them men up there had just worked anyways-like they could hev saved two more of them cars 'a easy enough."

Valentine Flood, the night switchman at the junction, was seen. It was alleged at one time that the switch had been left unlocked, but Mr. Hobson satisfied himself that such was not the case. "I closed and locked the switch thirty-five minutes before the accident," he said, "and had got down to the operator's office when we heard a heavy exhaust of steam and saw some of the trainmen running down. It was 7.05 when the wreck occurred."

BILL PHILLIPS ALL RIGHT.

Hamilton's First Bunco Man Was Not in the Wreck—Other Notes of the Smash.

HAMILTON, April 29.—This morning Manager Swartwood received a telegram from Bill Phillips stating that he had not left Chicago yet, but would leave this afternoon. He will go direct from there to Syracuse. The reason Phillips did not leave sooner was because he did not receive the letter sent to him by Secretary McKay. It is fortunate that Phillips did not get the letter earlier, as he would most likely have been a passenger on the wrecked train.

Amongst the baggage recovered from the wreck was a trunk addressed "Dan Ferguson, joiner, Boston, Mass." As it has not been claimed it is probable that he was killed.

Among the debris were found two note-books belonging to "E. Simons, Pueblo, Colorado." The owner was evidently a foreigner from Poland, and arrived in America on October 8, 1886. An arithmetic with the name Edmond Johnson was also found.

A. L. Dealy, one of the injured at the hospital, has a railway accident policy which he took out before leaving Danville, Ill., and he feels joyful over it. It is said that this gentleman when the accident occurred, though badly hurt, caught up a flag and ran back round the curve to protect the train from any that should follow it.

William Lipsey and Hamilton Clark of Chicago, two of the wounded passengers, are members of the Guiding Star L. O. L. 169, Chicago. The former is secretary and Clark is chaplain of the lodge. When W. Nicholson heard that they were Orangemen he visited them at the hospital and explained that the local brethren would give them any assistance they required. The travelers were on their way to the Washington centennial.

It is likely that W. A. Robinson, formerly mechanical superintendent of the Great Western Railway, will be employed by the jury as an expert in the case.

The engine on the train had been in use for six years. Four years ago it was converted from a small wheel to a large wheel locomotive, especially for speeding purposes.

The injured at the hospital are all doing well except Hamilton Clark, who is rather in a bad way.

The major portion of the mails from Chicago east were consumed in the baggage car. There is usually a great quantity of mail on this train. All the bags for Hamilton are so far missing.

A WOMAN SURVIVOR.

The Only Lady in Her Coach Who Came Out Alive.

BUFFALO, April 29.—Mrs. H. Benjamin was at Tucker's hotel last evening and claimed that she was the only lady in her coach that came out alive. She said: "I was sitting on the left-hand side of the coach looking out at the beautiful little hamlet in a sort of ravine below us. A gentleman had been standing near me talking about the picturesque view, and had started for the smoker. Just as he reached the door there came a terrific crash, a whirl of dust and stars (it seemed to me), and then everything was dark. In the next instant I came to my senses and found that I was lying on my back wedged in so tight that I could not stir. Near me I could hear a man crying: 'My God! my arms; get me out of here!' His cries were something terrible, and somehow hearing them made me struggle.

"I can remember," said she, "six women and seven men in our car that I have not seen since, and I think they must be lost. I think I am the only woman alive out of our car, and how I ever succeeded in throwing the timbers off of me I do not know. I feel bruised about my body, and it makes me shiver and tremble when I think of that man crying: 'Pull me out! Pull me out!' The flames came near catching my clothes."

She was loud in her praise of the employes of the road for the good work they did. "They did nobly," said she, "and I will never cease praising them."

The Detroit Infantry Men Safe.

NEW YORK, April 29.—The officers of the Detroit Light Infantry here received a telegram which stated: "In a wreck; all safe." This referred to four members of the corps who escaped uninjured.

The St. George Viaduct Question.

WOODSTOCK, April 29.—The recent accident near Hamilton has caused a revival of talk concerning the St. George viaduct disaster. The responsibility of railways for accidents seems to rest on the fact as to whether every means possible has been taken to avoid such accident. A syndicate of the sufferers by the St. George accident, acting on legal advice, are about to test the question against the Grand Trunk. It is understood that the claimants depend upon what they allege to be a well-known fact, that every old-timer on the Great Western Railway has had at different times expressed his horror and fear of the particular spot, among them W. K. Muir and F. Broughton, ex-managers of the road.

THE CENTENNIAL OPENED.

New York Arrayed in Bunting and Thronged with Multitudes.

NEW YORK, April 30.—To-day began the joyous celebration of the centennial festivities. Never before in the history of the country has there been such a display of flags and bunting as that which greeted the citizens this morning. The arrangements for the naval parade were carried out to the letter. The spectacle along the river front was a beautiful one, the long procession of steamers being impressive. Following the example of the illustrious Washington, President Harrison was passed ashore in a barge. As he stepped on the land the Presidential salute of 21 guns was given. The Presidents was received by Governor Hill, Mayor Grant, Hamilton Fish, President of the Centennial Committee, and Gen. Horace Porter, Chairman of the Citizens' Committee. The President and his party were then escorted to the Equitable building, where they were received by Chief Justice Fuller, Vice-President Morton, Justice Field, Justice Harlan, Justice Blatchford, Justice Gray, Justice Brewer, Justice Lamar, Justice Miller, Justice Bradley, and from there to the City Hall via Broadway.

When the President and his party reached the Broadway entrance to the Equitable building the guard of troops under Major MacCrea moved into the grand escort of the builders, followed by the New York commandery of the Loyal Legion under Col. Parsons and the G.A.R. veterans under Gen. Wilcox. Upon the appearance of the President the cannon announced that the Still effigie of Trinity Church, led by Dr. Mouffat, descended the main staircase, which had been laid with a velvet carpet. The hymn "Before the Lord We Bow" was chanted and followed by the doxology, accompanied by a full corps of trumpeters. The President and his party then ascended by the elevators to the suite of rooms occupied by the Lawyers' Club on the fifth floor. Mr. Hamilton introduced President Harrison to the President of the club, W. Allen Butler, jr., and others. Mr. Butler conducted the President to his seat on the dais in the reception room and Secretary Borrowe followed with Vice-President Morton.

The Floor Committee conducted the governors of the states and territories, in the order of admission to the Union or formation, to places on each side of the President's position. The Floor Committee was presented to the President in a body and then the guests of the club entered two by two, passed through the reception room bowing to the President and out to the dining room. There was no handshaking, and the dignity and formality of Colonial receptions were observed. The President and his party were then conducted to the private dining hall of the Cafe Savarin on the third floor. Here exquisite taste had been displayed in the decorations of the table. As the President entered the lights flashed brightly, presenting a fairy-like scene of beauty. Covers were laid for 50 guests. The other guests were served with luncheon in the Club dining-room and as a huge buffet.

When the party were seated, Wm. G. Hamilton, the great-grandson of Alexander Hamilton, addressed President Harrison in a neat speech. President Harrison merely bowed in recognition of the remarks. The reception and lunch at the Equitable building were concluded to and at 2.30 p.m., and ten minutes later to the air "Hail to the Chief" by Capper' band, President Harrison emerged from the massive granite portals and again entered his carriage for the journey to the City Hall. As the various organizations arrived at the City Hall they drew up in line before it. From the foot of the marble stairs leading to the municipal building and stretching away into the rotunda was a double line of white clad public school and normal college girls, each with a basket of flowers from which they strewed the path of the distinguished personages. There were fully 200 scholars, among them being two colored girls. Arrived at the top of the stairs President Harrison was tendered an address of welcome delivered by Miss Anna Abrahams, at the conclusion of which he was given a monster bouquet of LaFrance roses.

President Harrison, arm in arm with Mayor Grant, Governor Hill with Hamilton Fish, Vice-President Morton and Commodore Gerry and three members of the Plan and Scope Committee then entered the City Hall. The distinguished party were escorted to the Governor's room, where the President began receiving the visitors. He stood on a slightly raised platform, which was decked with a brass railing and in the rear of which was the President's chair. Beside this was Washington's writing desk. President Harrison took his position on the right hand side with Vice-President Morton, Governor Hil and Mayor Grant beside him to the left in the order named.

The throng of people was at once admitted and came on in a steadily moving body for nearly an hour. President Harrison bowed to each couple that passed. The throng was largely made up of strangers in the city.

PROROGATION TO TAKE PLACE TO-MORROW.

Three Government Measures Withdrawn—The Railway Resolutions Adopted—The Short Line Agreement.

OTTAWA, April 29.—In the House this afternoon Mr. Davin enquired whether the attention of the Government had been called to the episode occurring in the English House of Commons, and the English press notices respecting the action of the Manitoba Legislature in passing an act on March 2, 1889, repudiating a statutory guarantee of interest on the bonds of the Hudson Bay Railway Company.

Sir John Macdonald said the Government's attention had been called to the matter and as soon as an authentic copy of the Provincial act mentioned was received it would be taken into consideration.

Sir John Macdonald announced that it was the desire of His Excellency the Governor-General to prorogue Parliament on Wednesday if the state of the public business would permit.

Sir John Thompson said, in deference to the desire expressed in the House, he wished to withdraw the bill relating to bills of exchange, checks and promissory notes, which he would again introduce early next session.

On behalf of Hon. Mr. Dewdney Sir John Macdonald announced the withdrawal of the bill amending the act respecting the Rocky Mountain Park.

Sir Adolphe Caron said that since he had introduced his bill amending the Militia Act he had received some very valuable suggestions from officers in various parts of the country, and in order that consideration might be given to these suggestions he would hold over the bill until next session.

Sir John Macdonald said these were all the bills it was at present proposed to drop.

The bill relating to the ocean steamship subsidies agreed to by resolution last week was read a second time on a division.

The House then went into committee on the railway resolutions. These were agreed to:

For a line from Sicamous on the Canadian Pacific Railway in British Columbia to Lake Okanagan, $160,000.

Cornwallis Valley Railway Company, $2000 Lake Temiscamingue Colonization Railway Company, $48,000.

Maskinonge and Nipissing Railway, $48,000.

Kingston, Smith's Falls and Ottawa Railway, $64,000.

South Ontario Pacific Railway Company, $128,000.

For a line from St. Cesaire to St. Paul de Abbotsford, Que., $32,000.

Great Eastern Railway Company of Quebec, $64,000.

Drummond County Railway Company, $16,000.

St. Catharines and Niagara Central Railway Company, $64,000.

Quebec and Lake St. John Railway, $64,000.

Grand Trunk, Georgian Bay and Lake Erie Railway Company, $48,000.

Hereford Railway Company, $48,000.

Massawippi Junction Railway Company $48,000.

Brockville, Westport and Sault Ste. Marie Railway Company, $64,000.

After recess these subsidies were also agreed to by the committee:

Thousand Island Railway Company, $64,000.

For a line from Cape Tormente to Murray Bay, $64,000.

Amherstburg and Lake Shore Railway Company, $64,000.

A resolution providing for a rearrangement of the subsidy to the Baie des Chaleur Railway received considerable opposition on the ground that the subsidy was too large. The resolution was adopted in committee on a division of 43 to 23 and concurred in by the House on a division of 66 to 35.

On concurrence in the resolution granting the new cash subsidies, Sir Richard Cartwright moved that the amount of $30,000 for the Fredericton bridge be struck out. This was lost on a division of 65 to 33, and the resolutions were adopted.

Sir John Macdonald moved that the House go into committee on the resolution respecting the settlement of the westerly, northerly and easterly boundaries of Ontario.

After addresses by Messrs. Mills, Dawson and Desjardins the resolution was considered in committee and agreed to.

Sir John Macdonald then moved the House into committee on the resolution providing for the construction as a Government work of the portion of the short line between Harvey and Salsbury. In committee he gave a history of this enterprise, showing that this link was originally to have been constructed by the Atlantic and North western Railway Company for an annual subsidy of $96,000 for 20 years, but they proved unable to go on with the work. The Canadian Pacific Company were pressed to undertake it, but refused. The Government, feeling that they were pledged to have the road built, determined to go on with it as a Government work. It would cost, it was estimated, $16,000 a mile and its length was calculated at 113 miles. An arrangement had been made with the Canadian Pacific Company that they should operate this road as part of their short line, keeping it in repair at a nominal rental for 20 years and after that to pay a rental of $75,000 a year in perpetuity. Incidentally Sir John stated that the Canadian Pacific Railway were not to have under this agreement running power over the Intercolonial except from Salsbury to Moncton and that in his opinion the Intercolonial must be maintained for the use of Government needs.

Sir Richard Cartwright condemned this arrangement and said taking as the most favorable, most absurd and most dishonest ever submitted to Parliament.

Mr. Weldon of St. John also condemned it and entered a protest against by this means diverting trade from St. John.

After further discussion the committee reported the resolution, and the House adjourned to meet at 1.30 in the afternoon.

The Commissioners and the License Law.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—The License Commissioners for West Peterborough in passing the resolutions which appeared in yours of the 27th inst., have certainly made a good beginning. The stand which they have taken can be commended by every law-abiding citizen and every true lover of temperance.

In granting a license to sell intoxicating liquor only to those who are fit persons to conduct a tavern, shop or saloon, much is accomplished to take away the baneful effect of the liquor traffic, and a wholesome influence will, without doubt, be exercised over the liquor dealers, by refusing to grant anyone a license who has been convicted once for selling intoxicating liquor on Sunday, or who has been convicted twice for violating the liquor license act on any other day of the week. A salutary effect will also be produced by rigidly carrying out the resolution to prosecute all those who tempt the liquor dealers to violate the law by buying or obtaining or attempting to buy or obtain intoxicating liquor during prohibited hours. By a vigorous enforcement of these resolutions and of the provisions of the License Act, Sunday drinking and midnight carousing will almost if not entirely cease. If this is accomplished, as no doubt it will be, then the advocates of the Scott Act can consider its repeal, a blessing in disguise, for under its regime no such state of things was ever or could ever be obtained.

It is the respect to which the large majority of the people have for law and order which keeps them from violating the law and not the fear of the penalty which is inflicted for violating it. For instance, by far the largest majority of people do not murder nor steal nor commit other crimes, because they respect the laws and customs of society and not because of the punishment which would be inflicted for violating them. The punishment is only imposed to protect society from the crimes of the straggling few, who disrespect law and order. If this be so, then how could any good be accomplished by the Scott Act? It was disrespected by a large portion of the community; it was bitterly opposed by others; public opinion did not support it; its violation was winked at; it was broken with impunity, and the machinery for enforcing it was singularly defective. In fact, its advocates sought to achieve too much by it. They tried to chew what they could not bite; they tried to carry what they could not lift, and hence the Scott Act had not the support of that public sentiment and respect, which a salutary law commands.

The Liquor License Act occupies quite a different position. Though in the van of the cause of temperance, it seeks to achieve no more than public opinion will support, and it has the necessary machinery to ensure its enforcement. It is the duty of those to whom licenses are granted to abide by the law, and it is to their interest to see that it is enforced. Every advocate of temperance must be gratified that the commissioners and the inspectors have taken such a resolute stand, and it must have pleased many when they read your very favorable editorial comments on the resolutions of the commissioners.

RESTITUTION OFFERED.

Andy Maloney Willing to Surrender Phillips & Co.'s Jewelry if Released.

MONTREAL, April 29.—The Maloney-Phillips jewelry case was continued to-day. Andy Maloney was asked by a reporter "Is it not true that you have offered to give back all the jewelry if the case be dropped?"

"I have offered to give back what jewelry I had, as it does not belong to Von Reinhein," replied Maloney.

Von Reinhein's cross-examination was concluded. He said that Miss Maloney was only a spectator at the big gamble. The only person that witness had anything to do with in connection with the gamble for jewelry was Phillips.

Incriminating evidence of compromising discoveries affecting the chiefs of the secret police, Plehve, the head of that department, and several high officers have been dismissed.

A Horrible Confession.

LONDON, April 29.—A man named Barry, hanged at Dundee on Wednesday for wife murder, left a written confession which should furnish material for Zola. Barry and his wife went to Dundee from London, spent the woman's fortune in drink, and found themselves on the verge of starvation. The woman proposed to earn money by immoral means, which so upset the finely strung nerves of her husband that in a frenzy of rage he strangled her. Then he spent his last shilling in whisky, went to bed drunk, and passed the night within a few feet of the corpse. He awoke sober to meet the glassy glare of his murdered wife's eyes. Barry, in an access of maddened fear, seized a big knife and absolved and hacked at the corpse for hours. When at length he recovered his self-possession, he proceeded more methodically to work, the idea being to dismember the body and throw the remains piecemeal into the river. But he soon became deadly sick, lost his nerve, and was unable to finish the ghastly task. Finally he wedged the mutilated remains into a big trunk, and night after night for a whole week sat up with the fearsome thing alone, save for the gibbering fiends with which his terrified imagination peopled the room. At the end of the week he surrendered to the police.

THE VACANT PORTFOLIO.

It is Believed Hon. J. J. C. Abbott Will Succeed Mr. Pope in the Cabinet.

MONTREAL, April 29.—Last week there were circulated through the county of Argenteuil copies of Sir JOHN ABBOTT'S recent deliverance on the fiscal policy of the Dominion. This is taken as indicative of an intention to elevate Mr. J. C. Wilson, M.P., to the Senate and give Hon. Mr. Abbott a portfolio with a seat in the Commons. The death of Hon. J. H. Pope and the impossibility of re-electing Mr. Colby for Compton are facts which have enervated the name of Mr. Abbott with the portfolio of Railways, which, in view of the heavy railway subsidies granted at the present session, confers it advisable should be given without delay.

However Mr. Wm. Owens, M.P.P., who is understood to have been opposed to Mr. Wilson's nomination for the Commons, is now absent from the county in Manitoba and is therefore not here to object.

It is thought that the County of Argenteuil as one of the bannerbearers of Protestantism is an excellent field in which to open the political campaign on the Jesuits estates question.

25 REASONS

FOR DRINKING

ROYAL DANDELION COFFEE

Some drink because they are hungry,
And some because they're dry,
Some drink to keep them in good health,
And some that they may thrive.

Some drink because they are too hot,
And some because they're too cold,
Some drink to strengthen them when young,
And some when they are old.

Some drink to keep them wide awake,
And some that they may sleep,
Some drink because they merry are,
And some because they weep.

Some drink when they do money gain,
And some because of loss;
Some drink when they are pleased,
And some when they are cross.

Some drink when they are hard at work,
And some when they do play;
Some think it right to drink at night,
While others drink by day.

Some drink for sake of company,
While others drink on the sly;
And many drink but never think,
About the reason why.

Some say they drink for pleasure,
And some they drink for pain,
Some say 'tis good, some very bad,
But never once refrain.

Yet all must own the proverb true:
"When iron's hot to strike it"—
I've just found out the reason why—
All drink because they like it!

THREE TORONTO MEN ON BOARD.

Two of Them Ex-Aldermen—What They Had to Say.

TORONTO, April 29.—There were three well-known Torontonians on the express at the time of the calamity. They were ex-Ald. David Walker, en route home from San Francisco; ex-Ald. Wm. Hall and A. H. Dixon. Mr. Dixon and Mr. Hall were traveling companions from Detroit, and they were not aware of Mr. Walker's presence on the train until after the smashup. They then met quite unexpectedly beside the burning cars. None of them were at all hurt.

CAPTAIN HALL'S NARRATIVE.

Captain Wm. Hall was seen at his residence, No. 1 Windsor-street last evening seated in the cosy dining-room with Mrs. Hall and two of his children. He was a passenger from Detroit on the ill-fated train, and spent the night in the Wagner car "Pittsburg."

"The first I knew of the accident," said he, "was the shock felt when the engine struck the wrecker tank, and then followed a series of thumps, communicated to the sleeper by the cars ahead, which were off the track. When our car came to a full stop all the passengers were thrown over the seats but no one seriously injured in the car in which I was. I had two superficial cut about the face and head, but the wounds were only surface ones. Immediately the car was stopped I got up, and after looking hastily around, made quite to the telegraph office, a few yards off at the end of the cut, to wire for aid. At that time we assumed that there were only two persons killed. When I returned the cars were in flames, and in about two hours there was not a vestige remaining of the wood work of the seven cars that were between the first [illegible]. Amongst the killed there were three women. I don't know who they were or where they were destined, but think they were in one of the cars that came from Detroit. I saw one of the women with one leg protruding through a window of the car, and there were a couple of men trying to release her. Her head and body were inside the car and she seemed to be jammed between the seats. While they were endeavoring to get her out she was screaming and crying but just then the fire burst out, and it seemed as if the whole inside of the car were ablaze in a moment. The flames were so strong that the men were forced back and the poor woman was burned to a crisp.

"I don't know how it was that the fire first got started. Some say it was the coals from the demolished locomotive, or it may have been the fire from the stove, which was broken in the telescoping of the car. As soon as we were able to get away, I went on to Hamilton and everything that could be done to alleviate the sufferings of the injured and wounded was done. Mrs. Hall did not know I was coming on this train until I telephoned her after the accident that I was uninjured, and consequently did not suffer from the anxiety she would have had she known of the accident, and thus I was on the train, before she heard I was safe."

The strangest part of Capt. Hall's story was the presentiment that he had the night before while lying in his berth. He feared the train was rather to meet with an accident, and he rose early in the morning before 6 and was all dressed a long before the accident.

Neither Capt. Hall nor Mr. A. H. Dixon, who left Detroit together Saturday night, could get a berth in the sleeper until they had bribed the porter of the "Pittsburg" with a dollar note. When they were at once provided with one. Capt. Hall reached home at 8.45 last night from Hamilton. He lost all his baggage. Capt. Hall was formerly bridge inspector on the very section of road on which the accident happened.

MR. WALKER'S ACCOUNT.

Mr. Walker was on his way home from San Francisco, having been absent from Toronto since Feb. 8. Mr. Walker had a berth in the Wagner car, "Montpelier," which was the last car of the train. Mr. Walker's account of the wreck is as follows: "At about 6.30 a.m. I was talking to one of the brakemen. I asked him when the train was due in Hamilton and he said at 6.50. I looked at my watch and found it was past that time then. Suddenly I saw the brakeman leave the car and the next moment there was a grinding and rending sound ahead of me. Then the train came to a sudden standstill. I told a party of Californians who were in the car with me that I thought something had happened forward. I looked out and saw it was raining very hard.

"I grabbed my overcoat and walked to the front of the train. My first impression was that there had been a land slide and that the engine was about to slide down the hill, as I could hear the great rush of water. This was the water which had evidently been in the bank into which the engine ran. I saw a car with her trucks partly displaced and I could hear steam escaping from beneath it. We pulled out two of three men from underneath this car and we carried them to a safe distance. I then went back to the end of the train and with the aid of several passengers and train men succeeded in detaching the last two sleepers and shoving them back two or three car-lengths dead beat. Had this not been done they would certainly have been burnt with the rest. Then I ran into several of the cars which had not been caught by the flames and shouted out that the train was on fire.

"I got no answer and though by this time many of the passengers had got out. I was very much astonished at the delay in the arrival of medical help from Hamilton, it being so near the scene of the accident. I was also astonished at the number of people who stood down on the road at the foot of the embankment quietly looking at the burning train and not offering to give the least bit of assistance. I worked around the wreck giving assistance to the wounded for several hours; I do not know how long. Then I went to the city. When I left the scene of the accident six or seven of the cars had been burnt to the trucks. We were all under the impression at that hour that the number of killed was only two and that the wounded was about a dozen. I was very much astonished when I learned afterwards that so many bodies were taken out of the debris. I think they must all have been in the smoker and the passenger car immediately behind it. When the flames got through with their work I think it was the worst looking railway wreck I ever saw in my life."

MR. A. H. DIXON'S STORY.

Mr. A. H. Dixon of King-street west traveled from Detroit on the [illegible] train. He was one of those who escaped the scene of horror unscathed, and was able last night to tell a reporter all about his thrilling experience. "As far as I can judge," he said, "it was 10 minutes to 7 when the accident occurred. I was in the first sleeper and felt a slight shock. This was followed by a kind of grinding motion, which afterwards turned out to have been caused by the cars jumping the rail and grazing the outside flange. I think it took me just 10 seconds to reach the rear door of the coach and open it. I was followed by Captain Hall, who had come down with me from Detroit. At first it was difficult to get off, as soon as your foot would touch the ground it would strike against a tie. It was not until the car had almost stopped that we found it safe to get off. When we finally found ourselves safe we saw the passengers getting out of the other cars ahead as if nothing particular had happened. As we reached the first part of the train we met two dead men lifted out of the first passenger coach, and this with the exception of the wounded, who were believed to be in a great [illegible] the two bodies which had been taken out. All the passenger coaches, which had telescoped the smoker were [illegible] flames. This drove the rescuers away from both cars, and the railroad men and passengers turned their attention to the wounded. Ex-Ald. Walker, who was in the last sleeper and one of the first cars, worked like a hero, and did good work among the wounded. It was not until 12 o'clock that even the railroad people knew the extent of the disaster. And it was only forced upon them by their finding in the burning wreck of the smoker and first passenger car fragments of human bodies, a head here, a leg there, and in one instance a human body.

Accompanying the gift was an address signed by all the priests of the archdiocese, and handsomely illuminated, in which was set forth the sorrow at his brother priests in losing his companionship, and, at the same time, their joy and satisfaction at his elevation to the episcopacy. Rt. Rev. Dean O'Connor made a graceful acknowledgement of the honor done him.

THE NEW PARTY PLATFORM

Dr. Sutherland's Masterly Exposition of its Principles.

A Large and Important Meeting at the Opera House—Members of Parliament and Clergymen Express their Views—The Aims and Objects of Canada's New Party Fully Explained.

The public meeting in the Opera House last night was attended at its close with all the excitement of a red-hot political campaign. There was a large audience present, including a sprinkling of ladies, and if the interest manifested in last night's proceedings can be taken as an augury, the new party will take on a considerable boom in Peterborough. The addresses of the political representatives were the cause of a vast amount of enthusiasm and applause.

The hall was ornamented with a number of large mottoes delineating the different planks in the platform of the new party, while on the walls were hung a number of cartoons by Grip's artist illustrative of the present political situation as seen from the standpoint of the new party advocates. The mottoes read:—

"Equal rights to all; exclusive privileges to none."
"A vote to women."
"Retrenchment in public expenditure."
"Righteousness and truth in public affairs."
"An elective Senate."
"Prohibition of the liquor traffic."
"A national sentiment—our country first."
"Civil service reform."
"Manhood suffrage."

Mr. Geo. Hilliard, ex-M.P., presided, and in his opening remarks said he could see nothing objectionable in the platform as laid down, though he was not sufficiently well acquainted with it to form a decided opinion. He, however, felt that some great reform was needed, for the rivalry and strife that at present existed between the two parties jeopardized the interests of the country.

There were on the platform Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., Mr. Jas. Stevenson, M.P., Mr. John Carnegie, ex-M.P.P., and Rev. Messrs. Pearson, Shorey, Huff and Wilson. The Y. M. C. A. band furnished music at the beginning and close of the meeting. Rev. Mr. Huff opened with prayer.

THE LEADER'S ADDRESS.

REV. DR. SUTHERLAND was greeted with loud applause as he took his seat, and his masterly address was one that a condensed report cannot do justice to. It was replete with telling points, apt illustrations and witty sarcasms. He said that no doubt he would tread on some people's political corns in the remarks he would make, but in treating a subject of this nature it was impossible to do otherwise. A meeting such as this was fraught with much importance, for it meant that a great movement was being inaugurated which would extend all over the country; it meant that the people were becoming alive to the fact that a danger was looming up to our civil and religious, and even national welfare, owing to the condition of the present political parties, which had to be faced. (Applause) Referring to the stand taken by the clergy in this matter, he said he could see no reason why ministers should not exercise their rights as citizens and proclaim for the right. This question had been raised chiefly by the fact that there was in this Dominion a class of men who in the strict and proper sense of the term were not citizens—that is, men whose chief allegience is not to the constituted authority of the land but to a foreign ecclesiastical power. But in discussing it they must look at the question dispassionately and without any of the excitement of party preferences. The speaker said he hoped the agitation would not drop through at that the people would take it up and settle the matter in a manner which would make it stay settled, and not allow their minds to be diverted by side issues. (Applause.)

THEY'RE BOTH BAD.

In public affairs generally, Dr. Sutherland said, there was nothing to be gained by a change of party—it was like jumping out of the frying pan into the fire. (Laughter.) It was like the case of the man who ordered a boiled egg for breakfast, and was brought in two by the waiter, who said:—"There's not a good egg sir, so I brought you two rotten ones; you can have your choice." (Laughter.) This being the condition of affairs in politics, it seemed reasonable that someone should rise to a point of order and offer this country at least one fresh egg. (Loud applause.) No doubt people will say there is not room for three parties, but they were arriving to-day in Canada at the same state of affairs which has existed many a time in English affairs, which demand a fusion of the two political parties, a re-adjustment of our political forces on new lines.

The question was asked, where is the need of a New Party? The general answer was, the present attitude of the existing parties towards important public affairs is unsatisfactory to the great majority of the people of the Dominion. The speaker held that the opinions of a few political leaders did not reflect the opinion of the majority of Canadians. The New Party had grown out of the conviction that the only hope of having these important questions properly handled was by organization of another party, and it was not organized within a few weeks as the outcome of the Jesuits Estate discussion. It was organized more than a year ago at Toronto, and they first of all did what neither of the other parties did, formulate and publish a distinct platform of its own, so that the public would know right where to find it every time. (applause.)

CAUSES FOR DISSATISFACTION.

Passing on to the questions which he had referred to as being overlooked by the parties of the day, Dr. Sutherland first mentioned prohibition, and dealt with the objections to it—that it was an outrageous measure which restricted the personal liberties of the people, and that the people were not educated to receive it. He pointed out the absurdity of these arguments, and said that both parties trifled with the question, and the Dominion government had not fulfilled its promises to enact prohibition if it saw the people favored the Scott Act. The New Party recognized that the liquor traffic was a great evil which should be suppressed for the good of the land. The law was the best educator of the people there was, and was it not better to restrict the appetites of the few to protect the many?

Another reason for being dissatisfied was the way they treated that essential principle of equal rights to all classes and creeds. The attitudes of both parties towards this fundamental principle of a free people was not satisfactory, and the people should express themselves in a manner not to be misunderstood. People say, what a pity to call up sectarian strife on this issue. Exactly so; but who responsible for it? In the history of more countries than this, sinister powers and influences have twined themselves around the people's rights, and yet people sounding a warning against them have been termed alarmists. Anything was better than to have our rights trampled under foot, and the sooner the conflict comes (for it would likely be a conflict before they got through with it) the more would they be able to save of what is valuable in our country and its institutions. (Applause.) The speaker referred to the Jesuit question, and said this strife was not between Catholics and Protestants. But they objected to the government of Quebec, and afterwards the Dominion government, incorporating and magnificently endowing a society which for three hundred years and in every country where it has had a footing has been a foe to civil liberty and an enemy to free government. (Applause.) If similar privileges were about to be conferred on his own Methodist church he would fight against it—(applause)—and he held that this province had a right to feel interested in the matter, for in this close confederacy what affected one member of the body politic affected all the others. If such acts as these were allowed to go on there would be no safeguard for our free institutions and public liberty. He held that the Jesuit endowment was but one step on the programme towards securing that state of affairs in which the church was to completely dominate the state and all matters under or public should be subordinate to matters which are ecclesiastical or religious. Both parties evinced a disposition to shirk responsibility and thrust it off on side issues; but they had to be told to get down off the fence or the fence would be pulled down and they with it. (Applause.)

Still another cause for dissatisfaction was the present political parties' standing with regard to Canada's political destiny. There were many schemes afloat, but it was a difficult matter to understand what they meant. The speaker instanced Imperial Federation, which its advocates cannot explain. They say the people are not ready for it yet, but its a grand thing, and hurrah for it. So with the others. But the new party's motto was "A national sentiment—our country first."

Dr. Sutherland made a patriotic reference to the glory of the Dominion, but said people were being kept away and the country prevented from developing by the very uncertainty of our destiny.

THE NEW PARTY.

Then the speaker proceeded to enunciate the platform of the new party, which were briefly outlined on the mottoes published above. He combatted the report that they had changed their platform in order to meet the new emergency arising out of the Jesuit question. The platform stood just as it was adopted; the agitation simply meant that the acts of the Quebec and Dominion governments conflicted with the plank demanding equal rights, and they were standing by their platform. The speaker also touched on woman suffrage, and called attention to the fact that while the government had passed an act of manhood suffrage whereby the lowest whiskey seller had a right to vote, the women were deprived of the privilege of protecting their homes. As to the elective Senate, he personally preferred that, though some may abolish it altogether. He left the matter with his hearers for their own decision. Referring to Civil Service reform, he said that as things now stand the powers vested in the governments as regards the civil service is the mightiest engine of corruption that is in their hands to-day. The new party demanded that the appointing power be taken out of the hands of Cabinet Ministers and be vested in commissioners who will select the men who are fit for the position.

ITS ADVANTAGES.

What advantages had this new party? First it had a clean start, and was not handicapped with dead issues as those stepping into power in the present parties found themselves, with the result that they either had to fall into line or resign. Then the new party will provide a refuge for a multitude of troubled political consciences—men who cannot conscientiously vote for either party will be able to adopt their platform and vote for it. Again, it offers a means to utter a protest against wrong in any shape. By voting with the new party all that was corrupt and evil was condemned. Lastly, it gave the country a hope for the future—that is, in organizing the elements of the electorate of our country on principles of truth and righteousness. It, therefore, remained for those who had fallen in with the new party to organize and agitate. The movement was sweeping over the country with unexampled rapidity. What might they not accomplish? For his part he cared little what party it was carried out the principles laid down, and he saw no reason why upright Conservatives and Liberals should not unite in this agitation. People say, "Your platform is good, but where is your leader?" That was just where the mistake had been made all along, in following party leaders instead of standing by principles. (Applause.) In conclusion Dr. Sutherland invited the co-operation of every man who loved his country and believed in principle more than expediency, and would do what he could to carry out this policy. The doctor's last words were some highly appropriate lines, the refrain of which was, "Men of thought and men of action, clear the way." He resumed his seat amidst loud and prolonged applause.

The band played another selection while the silver collection was being taken up.

THE LOCAL MEMBER.

Mr. J. R. STRATTON, M.P.P., was called on, and after expressing the pleasure he felt at being present, though not expecting to be asked to speak, said he was glad to hear the able and eloquent address of Dr. Sutherland, which enhanced his previous reputation as a public speaker. He agreed heartily in most of the Doctor's remarks, and in the main with the platform of the third party. For instance, he had always supported woman suffrage, and in the House had the pleasure of voting for it, as he would always do on all occasions when opportunity offered. With regard to the policy of retrenchment in public affairs, he also heartily concurred. A great many people thought the Ontario government too economical already. He believed in the complete abolition of the Senate; it was a useless concern, not returning the quid pro quo for the expense of keeping it. He was also a supporter of manhood suffrage, and the government to which he adhered had adopted it, and at the next provincial election all men 21 years of age would have a vote. As to the educational qualification, he did not think it fair that those who had not, perhaps, been able to receive an education in years back should be deprived of voting honestly and intelligently, as they were capable of doing. There was no doubt that a great reform was necessary in the civil service, and Mr. Stratton said he could also encourage the growth of a national spirit. Referring to the prohibition plank, he said he had never recorded a vote which was not in strict accordance with that sentiment. The motto regarding equal rights to all and exclusive privileges to none also had his hearty approval. The platform of the New Party was one which he believed would meet with the approbation of the general public.

THE DOMINION REPRESENTATIVE.

Mr. JAS. STEVENSON, M.P., also disclaimed all previous purpose of speaking, and referring to the platform of the New Party, said he was satisfied that if he had all the political leaders here there was not a motto they would not subscribe to. (Loud laughter.) The mottoes were all right, but it was another thing to carry them out. A man might carry them to parliament, but no two men hold the same views, and there is a canons held and the opinions of the majority decide the policy of the Minister. He maintained that the New Party—or First Party, as it had been called—if it did succeed would be on one side and both the other parties on the other. There would only be two parties at Ottawa.

A voice—There was only one party at Ottawa the other day.

Mr. Stevenson—Oh, well, never you mind—(Loud laughter).

Continuing, he repeated his statement, explaining that there must be a majority to rule and a minority to oppose—two parties only struggling for power. As to prohibition, he said there were fifty men who would vote for prohibition to-morrow if they could see their way clear. The great question was, what would they do for revenue? No one would vote for it faster than himself, but for this question of revenue; but it was made an open question in the House and both sides voted against it. He also recognized the need of civil service reform, but the government was so bothered with office-seekers who were right there all the time, and what could the ministers do? Dr. Sutherland, he said, knew well the difficulties at Ottawa, and for a man to go there and say he will be a party in himself, he is nowhere in the race at all. As far as he was concerned, he was heartily sick of it all and would sooner be at home attending to his business. He worked hard there from Monday morning till Saturday night, and it was the biggest nuisance to have to listen to the speeches all night long. (Laughter.) He said he was sent there to do the bidding—to help and support the Government and he had done so. It was no use for a man to say he would go there and support his own opinions. The government says it is a matter of policy with us and we must have you; and if the member deserts his government, when he comes back to the people they want to know what he went back on his colors for. (Laughter.) Mr. Stevenson sat down with the words:—"I say he is no man who will desert his chief." (Loud applause and laughter)

AN EX-MEMBER.

MR. JOHN CARNEGIE followed, saying that he was in a peculiar position, for the last time he stood on that platform at a political meeting it was shoulder to shoulder with Mr. Stevenson; but he was not there now. Mr. Carnegie said if he had been at Ottawa he would have made the glorious 13 number 14. No doubt he would have been charged with deserting his leader; but he had found in his twenty years experience that it was not necessary to go it blind and be a politico! Jesuit. He believed the 13 were right at Ottawa the other day. He endorsed the motto overhead and said that though neither party had done the right thing he did not blame Mr. Stevenson or the others alone; it was the fault of the electors themselves, who should go to the polls and vote as Protestant citizens.

A VOTE OF THANKS.

Rev. M. L. PEARSON, in rising to move a vote of thanks to Dr. Sutherland, referred to the revenue question in its connection with prohibition, replying in the words of Sir Leonard Tilley: "It takes 20 million dollars to collect the 8 million of a revenue"; and with Gladstone, "Give me an honest, sober and industrious people and I'll look after the revenue." He stated that this country was to day being ruled by the liquor sellers and a certain form of ecclesiasticism to which reference had been made and unless this people soon rise in their might they will have gone too far down in Jesuitism and whiskeyism to ever recover. If true to the principles of the new party a grand destiny awaited Canada.

Mr. STEVENSON seconded the motion.

Rev. S. J. SHOREY, sparkling thereto, made some pleasant references to his former ministrations in the city of Toronto to Dr. Sutherland, and to the fact that he numbered the members of parliament of this riding in his congregation, hoping that he would be able to set them right in this matter. It seemed to him that the only difference of opinion amongst the speakers was as to the means of carrying out the principles of the new party, which he heartily endorsed.

THEY SHOULD BE PLEDGED.

Rev. Mr. HUFF thought the platform above criticism, and said that if both the parliamentary representatives had endorsed it they had made good progress in carrying it out, especially as regarded prohibition. He wanted a party pledged to these principles, no matter of them were, for while government supporters individually endorsed it at such meetings as these, they would vote against it in the Houses of parliament. The parties could be made to pledge themselves to it. It had been stated by one speaker that it was impossible for more than two political parties to exist in any country. He denied that, and pointed to Germany with its five or six parties. All great reforms, he said, have been brought about by a party outside the ruling parties of the day.

The vote of thanks was carried with tremendous applause, and after Dr. Sutherland had made a suitable acknowledgement the meeting broke up with the singing of the National Anthem.

A Day of Weddings.

Four at St. Peter's Cathedral and Two at St. John's.

There was a rush of weddings to-day, the lovers who were to be made happy being apparently anxious to get married before the advent of the month of May, which is supposed to be an unlucky one in matrimonial affairs. The weddings began at half past six in St. Peter's Cathedral and continued till half past nine. The edifice was filled with ladies, a number of whom rose at an unusually early hour and went without their breakfasts in order to take them all in.

Two weddings were also announced to take place at St. John's church this afternoon.

The first wedding at St. Peter's this morning was that of Mr. Joseph White and Miss Catherine Flynn, at which Rev Father Redkins officiated. Then Mr. Patrick Mahoney, of Lindsay, was united in the holy wedlock to Miss Hemorah Waters, of Peterborough, Rev. Father Cotey tying the nuptial knot. The third ceremony was performed by Rev. Father McEvay, who married Mr. Jeremiah Carew, of the Carew House, to Miss Maria O'Donoghue.

Coughlin—Hurley.

At 8.30 o'clock the nuptials of Mr. Richard Coughlin, M. D., of Hastings, and Miss Teresa, eldest daughter of Mr. T. Hurley, real estate agent, were celebrated at the Cathedral by Rev. Father Tiernan, Chancellor of the Diocese of London, an intimate friend of the bride, assisted by Rev. Father McEvay. Miss Minnie Hurley, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Dr. Chas. Coughlin, of Hastings, fulfilled the office of groomsman. The bride was married in a handsome travelling dress. After the ceremony the bridal party and guests, only the most intimate relatives and friends of the contracting parties, repaired to the residence of Mr. Hurley on Brock street, where an elaborate dejeuner was partaken of, the happy young couple afterwards leaving on the 11.30 train for an extended tour to Ottawa and other places in the East. The bride was the recipient of an unusually large number of beautiful presents, testifying to the general appreciation of her charms of person, and many admirable womanly qualities. On the return of Mr. and Mrs. Coughlin, they will take up residence at Hastings, where the doctor has a lucrative practice.

Bishop O'Connor's Consecration.

Rt. Rev. Dean O'Connor, Bishop elect of Peterborough, arrived in town last evening, and is stopping at the Palace. The ceremonies in connection with his consecration and installation begin at 10 o'clock to-morrow at the Cathedral. Admission to the church will be by ticket, and none but those holding tickets can enter. Special trains from Barrie and Toronto will reach town about nine o'clock. Already a large number of the clergy who are to assist have arrived. The occasion will be one of unusual magnificence and eclat.

Personal.

Mr. H. Best starts to-morrow for the "Soo." He is on a prospecting tour and will be absent three or four days.

Mr. Lester B. Smith, advertising manager for the World's Dispensary Association of Buffalo, is in town pushing the interests of the Association.

News Nuggets.

—The first battalion drill of the season takes place at the drill shed to-night, to be followed by an officers' meeting.

—Work has been begun on the Court House Park, planting flowers and getting it ready for summer.

—We learn from the Rev. M. L. Pearson that Messrs. Crossley and Hunter are meeting with good success in Woodstock. Mr. Hunter writes that a boy evangelist has arrived at his home in St. Thomas, weighing from 10 to 12 pounds and possessing a rich and full voice.

—An owner for the money in the hands of Chief Roussel, left with him by a farmer Saturday for a bag of potatoes which had been paid for, but not delivered, appeared in the person of Mrs. John Rabidge, Charlotte street, who said she saw the item in the paper.

The Bicycle Club.

A meeting of wheelmen was held in the office of Mr. R. B. Rogers last night for the purpose of organizing the Bicycle Club for the season. The following officers were elected:—

D W Dumble	Honorable President
R B Rogers	President
W R Greatrix	Vice-President
J E Dolan	Sec-Treasurer
Alex Gibson	Captain
Fred Mighton	1st Lieutenant
Frank Matthews	2nd Lieutenant
W J Herbison / W C Springer / W A Carr	Standard Bearers
	Bugler

Judging from the great number of wheels that have been sold this year in town the Bicycle Club will make a strong turn-out. Wheeling will be better in Peterborough this year than ever before.

Attempted Suicide.

Tuesday afternoon Albert Tuoski, a young English lad who about four weeks left Peterborough to seek his fortune in Toronto, shot himself at Parkdale station. He was standing alone on the platform of the G. T. R. station at Parkdale, about three o'clock, and pulling a revolver put it to his head and discharged the weapon. Tuoski when picked up was perfectly conscious, and when asked why he did it said he was tired of life. The young fellow was taken to the hospital and will soon recover from the effects of the badly aimed bullet, which glanced off just above the right eye. Tuoski is about 20 years of age, and for over a year was clerk in Mr. W. J. Green's gents' furnishing store, which he left about four weeks ago. He is of Swiss extraction, and his parents live in London, Eng. He has no other friends in this country.

The Queen's Birthday.

There will be a celebration in Peterborough the coming Queen's Birthday. Our people are far too loyal to allow their usual custom of holding a demonstration on the 24th to fall through this year. The sports committee of the P.A.A.A. were, at a meeting of the directors yesterday, appointed to confer with the officers of the 57th Battalion to arrange for a joint celebration. It was the intention of the Battalion to go to Port Hope on that day to attend the ceremony of the unveiling of Col. Williams' monument, but this event having been postponed till the first of July, the battalion will remain at home. The officers meet to-night after drill to consider the question of a fitting celebration on the 24th.

Police Court.

TUESDAY, April 30th.

About a dozen small boys, pupils of the public school, were before the magistrate this morning for "slinging" and swearing at people who passed the school grounds. They were severely reprimanded by the magistrate and dismissed with a warning not to repeat the offence.

Laurance Smith charged Martin Potter with assault. The plaintiff appeared in court with an eye bandaged up and badly discolored. His evidence was that the assault occurred last night at the corner of Stewart and Edinburgh street. They had words about some brick work Potter had done for Smith, and the former hit him three times. Potter's story was that Smith called him hard names and shoved him aside, and then he "let 'im have it." He struck a second and third time when Smith came back at him.

The case was enlarged till to-morrow to have more witnesses subpœnaed. Mr. A. Stevenson conducted the defence.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Wilson, having decided to remove from town, offers for sale her residence on the corner of London and Harvey streets. This is a most desirable property, being so centrally located, and will be sold very reasonable. Apply at house, 39 Harvey street, or to Wilson & Morrison, insurance office, Hunter street. 3d98

An Old Landmark Gone.

In the usual place in this issue is to be found a notice of the death of Mr. Anthony Dubois, one of the most familiar citizens of the town, one of its oldest residents, and one of the pioneers of the French element of our population. For time out of mind he has kept a boarding house, and his place was ever known as the haven of rest to the Frenchman in distress. He was almost a nonagenarian—88 years of age. Two or three years ago he lost his wife by death, and thus deprived of an earthly companion and support, his health began to decline, and he passed away to his rest on Tuesday. The funeral takes place from No. 7 Louis street, on Wednesday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock.

"A Spring Message"

FROM THE NEW FIRM OF

H. LeBRUN & Co.

Sign of the Golden Horse-shoe

in past years, by long experience in business, by buying always for spot cash, by importing direct from the principal houses of the old country and the leading manufacturers of this country, and by strict economy in conducting its business, has always been able to force prices down to an exceedingly fine point. The members of which the new firm is composed will form a still stronger "combine," by which the CITY CLOTHING STORE will be even better prepared to procure for its customers a continuation of those superior inducements in the future for which it has been noted in the past.

MEN'S CLOTHING.

The magnitude of our stock and lowness of prices gives us a great advantage over all other competitors in the trade. We carry in stock all the fast selling lines, styles and patterns, and can fit the tall, the short, the fat and the lean.

MORE SUITS, BETTER FABRICS, FINER STYLES than were ever handled before.

Special values in Fine SPRING OVERCOATS, and Fine Spring and SUMMER SUITS. Don't fail to see them. The superb styles, workmanship, and the beautiful fabrics and patterns that we offer will surprise you.

BOYS AND YOUTHS CLOTHING.

Clothing for the little ones—boys and children—has always been a specialty with us. We have always sought to give great values in this department, and to provide a larger and finer variety of goods for parents to select from than they could find elsewhere.

This means that we are showing a large assortment of BOYS' and CHILDREN'S SUITS, BOYS' and CHILDREN'S BLOUSES, SHIRT WAISTS, PANTS, &c.

This spring there are an unusual number of new and nobby styles and an enlarged variety of fabrics and patterns. Be sure and see our stock.

THE ATTRACTION AT TURNBULL'S.

MILLINERY.—No wonder flowers hold so high a place in Millinery Trimmings—as real to the eye as if raised by the hand of Nature. Everything, from the Daisy that joins the sod, to the Rose that blushes under glass. A gingle of Untrimmed Hats and Bonnets, stacks of Straws every shape you would think to ask for, and designs you would never dream of. Milans, Fancy Straws, Lace, both materials mixed, Chips, Leghorns. Novelties of all kinds; and this is a season of Novelties.

KID GLOVES—Have tumbled into a line of tan. Kid Gloves, stitched backs, we can sell for 25c. a pair; some people can buy them by the ½ doz. Come early if you want this Bargain. We are in a shape to sell a great number of women's Silk and Taffeten Gloves, in the next few days. Our Gloves always fit, so they say. Assortment, quality, price—the tandem team will give their go!

Such a range of Styles of Hosiery is scarcely ever seen in one place. Sizes to fit everybody.

SASH RIBBONS—In handsome Brocades, at 20c. a yard.

DRESS GOODS.—New shades of Henriette Cloths to fill up the gap. The quick sales of the past few weeks have been making SMOKE GREY, like the silver sheen of the atmosphere of a light, grey day by the sea. SUEZ GREEN. Why Suez? Only that the oddity of the name may mentally fit the color—the color so beautiful in combination with other colors; OLD ROSE—the name suggests the fading leaf; lost beauty, expired fragrance—and yet it stands for a tinting shade of red so delicate that to call it red would be an insult. The colors are primary, of course. All told, we have about thirty-six good shades of Dress Goods to select from, in materials from 10c. to $1.00 a yard. New girdles and trimmings to match.

Fashion is always turning a new corner, and we with it. This spring is is fashionable for men to wear Striped Saitings. We have them in good variety, and will save you money in every suit you buy.

Fresh styles of New York Domestic Patterns to hand. Every lady can have a new Fashion Sheet that asks for it.

CHARLTON'S LAST CHANCE

HE FAILS TO GET HIS JESUIT MOTION BEFORE THE HOUSE.

Winding Up the Business of the Session—The Senate Amendments to the Anti-Combines Bill Concurred In.

OTTAWA, April 30.—Contrary to the general expectation yesterday afternoon will not take place to-morrow. There will be a meeting sitting to-morrow and then it is anticipated that the business remaining to be passed will be got through so that it may be considered by the Senate in time to permit of prorogation on Thursday afternoon. There were some lively discussions to-day and a good deal of business was put through.

On motion of Sir John Macdonald, the House went into committee on the proposed resolution providing for the construction of the railway from Harvey to Salisbury.

Mr. Weldon of St. John, on motion to adopt the report of the committee, moved an amendment declaring it inexpedient to sanction the construction of the road until proper surveys have been made, and also because it has not been shown that an adequate communication with Halifax does not now exist. This was lost on division 70 to 34.

Another amendment by Mr. Richard Cartwright, providing that the Grand Trunk shall have over the proposed road running powers equal to those granted to the Canadian Pacific Railway, was declared lost on a division.

The bill founded upon the resolutions was then introduced and read a first time. A discussion, in which the chief speakers were Mr. Cartwright, Mr. Blake and Sir Charles Tupper, followed upon the motion for the bill to be read a second time. The former contended that the Canadian Pacific Railway for this large grant of money had not been granted fair consideration, and Sir John Macdonald pointed out that the House was not duly being asked to ratify the agreement and would not until next session, by which time it would be printed and fully understood. The agreement had to be ratified by the shareholders of the company and by Parliament.

Other reasons the bill providing for the railway condition was not complete by resolution, was urged after considerable discussion.

The act relating to bills of lading was read a second and third time and passed.

The Senate amendments to the Anti-Combines Bill were considered in, Mr. Wallace stating that he would not oppose the amendments because he believed that were the bill sent again to the Senate it might not get through this session.

Hon. G. E. Foster then moved the House into Committee of Supply, Mr. Rose, Mr. Tupper and Mr. Charlton rose simultaneously to address the Speaker, or rather the Deputy-Speaker, for Mr. Colby was in the chair. Mr. Rose proceeded directly with his speech and when Mr. Charlton appealing for a decision, both of their respective claims to the floor, Mr. Colby awarded it to Mr. Rose. Mr. Rose after a few words of explanation of his complaint moved an amendment:

That this House regrets that no proposal for a land subsidy in aid of the Manitoba and Southeastern Railway Company has been laid before Parliament.

Mr. Charlton followed. He said that yesterday he had spoken to the Speaker and had been promised that he would receive recognition if he rose to move an amendment to the motion to go into Committee of Supply. He had spoken to-day to the Deputy Speaker and had been told that the member for Yale had already spoken for recognition. Now he found that not that member but another rose and claimed the floor, and as an amendment had been moved he could not follow it with that of which he had privately given notice to the Government. He would, however, now read what he had intended to move. This was:

That the House is of the opinion that the Government of Canada should without delay obtain the opinion of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council on the constitutionality of the Jesuit Estates Act.

He held the Government responsible for burking this resolution and declared that in his experience in Parliament he never saw such a dodge before.

Sir John Macdonald said the dodge was on Mr. Charlton's side. The right to address the Speaker could not be pre-empted by any member, but belonged to whoever caught the Speaker's eye.

Mr. Charlton: "I caught his look, his eye was turned in the other direction."

Sir John, continuing, said it seemed that Mr. Charlton had been running around to the Speaker and Deputy Speaker so as to prevent any independent member of Parliament catching the eye of the Speaker so as to bring before the House any subject to which he wished to direct attention. He thought it was a piece of presumption on his part to suppose that everybody should stand aside and do him reverence. As to the amendment offered by Mr. Rose, the application on behalf of the road mentioned had been made too late to enable it to be considered in time for action at this Parliament and he therefore hoped the resolution proposed would not carry.

Mr. Charlton: "Perhaps the hon. Premier will answer a question?"

Sir John Macdonald: "No, I won't answer any question. He has no right to put any question in this manner. There is a proper way, which should be followed."

After observations from Mr. McMullen, Mr. Scriver and Sir Richard Cartwright sympathising with Mr. Carlton in his loss of opportunity the House went into Committee of Supply. On the appropriation of $13,500 for the purchase of a house for the commandant of the Royal Military College, Hon. Peter Mitchell denounced the college as an institution for the education of the sons of rich men only.

On the vote of $6000 in aid of the reception of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, to meet at Toronto this year, Mr. Somerville objected that such grants should be made while the convention of the Knights of Labor and other organizations of workingmen were not so assisted.

Mr. Cockburn and Mr. Mulock defended the grant and pointed out the advantages derivable by the country from the advertising which such a meeting gave it.

The vote of $60,000 for steamship service between Halifax and the West Indies was adopted after brief discussion, and the committee having reported the passage of the above items they were concurred in.

The House then went into committee to consider the resolutions respecting a contract proposed to be entered into with the Qu'Appelle, Long Lake, and Saskatchewan Railway and Steamboat Co. A bill founded on the resolutions was passed.

The bill amending the Northwest Mounted Police Act was passed.

Before adjournment Sir John said, in answer to a question, that there would be no tariff changes this session and no business of any kind proposed save that now on the order paper.

The House adjourned at 2 o'clock.

PARNELL ON THE STAND.

THE IRISH LEADER DENIES ALL THE CHARGES AGAINST HIM.

He Never Suggested Revolution but Had Urged Reporting Under Certain Conditions—General Cable News.

LONDON, April 30.—The Parnell Commission resumed its sittings to-day. Mr. Parnell took the stand, and gave his testimony in a clear voice and in a deliberate manner. He testified that he did not know Fenny Dwyer nor was connected with the Mallon detectives. He had never heard of Dwyer's having been made an Justice Lawson's title. He was never a member of a secret society. Mr. Dwyer was a Fenian until 1877. He advised Mr. Dwyer to resign his seat in Parliament, but Mr. Dwyer refused.

Mr. Parnell said he did not communicate with Fenian or Fenian convicts in America, neither did he meet them there. He was a friend of the Clan-na-Gael in America. He doubted that the convention at Queenstown advocated the destruction of the link between England and Ireland, which was opposed to the sentiment. He did not approve his interests in America in the hands of Ford and Feeney, but in the hands of Mr. Dillon and a body representing the party supporting in America with a party in Ireland. He had several boys staying under certain conditions that never intimidation. Mr. Barnard found the original interview with Le Caron in 1881. He said it was here composed.

He had not said he believed that only force would reclaim Ireland. He did not despise by constitutional agitation. Any action the Irish leaders would take to prevent coercion against a revolution they believed to be wrong by which a revolution could be effected. He had not been asked to authorize the payment of $30,000 to "reserve" cases. He had never mentioned outrages. He did not know of payments for the perpetual of outrages. He did not approve of a deputation by Mr. Egan that Earl Cowper, Mr. Foster, Under Secretary Burke, Judge Lawson and many others be "removed." He could not have approved of such a suggestion. Mr. Egan never having made it. He had never heard of proposals from any quarter for the "removal" (meaning murder) of Earl Cowper, Mr. Foster and others.

He did not know of the existence of the Invincible conspiracy until after his arrest in 1882, when he was liberated from the Kilmainham Jail on parole to attend the funeral of his mother in Paris. He met in Paris Mr. Justin McCarthy and Messrs. Quinn and Byrne. He did not know that Byrne had been a Fenian. He did not communicate with Mr. Egan directly or indirectly when he was in Paris, thinking that his private professional communications with any of his political friends. He had always regarded the Phœnix Park murders as the greatest possible calamity to Ireland. He had never been able to obtain the slightest evidence connecting the League with those murders excepting unreliable statements made by the informer Carey. He did not believe the stories about Mr. Byrne supplying the Invincibles from the League funds. The payment of £100 to Mr. Byrne was made in response to a letter asking for an advance for the purposes of the Land and Labor League and not for the purpose of enabling him to make his escape. He had not the slightest suspicion that Mr. Byrne was engaged in any conspiracy.

BERLIN, April 30.—It is understood a subcommittee of the Samoan conference will undertake the settlement of the details of the controversy. Count Herbert Bismarck, at the session yesterday, disavowed on behalf of Germany any idea of aggrandizement inconsistent with existing treaties. Count Herbert spoke in French. Sir Edward Malet and Mr. Kasson followed in a similar strain. Mr. Kasson hinted that the United States Government hoped the question would be settled on such a basis as would preserve the autonomy of the Samoan Island. On Mr. Kasson's proposal it was agreed to hold the discussions in English. Count Herbert Bismarck has invited the members of the conference to dine with him on Friday. Emperor William received a personal report of the sitting. At the next meeting he will receive the report of the sub-committee. All the delegates appeared to be satisfied with the proceedings thus far.

The Berlin Tagblatt states that at the Samoan conference yesterday Mr. Kasson asked whether a secret treaty existed between England and Germany to partition between them the Tonga and Samoa islands. Sir Edward Malet, the British Ambassador, and Prince Bismarck categorically denied that such a treaty existed.

THE PRIESTS' FAREWELL.

To His Lordship Bishop Dowling and Chancellor McEvay.

The Priests of the Peterborough Diocese Present Their Address and Handsome Testimonials.

Last evening in the vestry of St. Peter's Cathedral the priests of this diocese paid a farewell tribute to their late beloved Bishop and Chancellor. There were present: Vicar-General Laurent, Lindsay; Very-Rev. Father Brown, of Port Hope; Rev. Fathers McCloskey, Brighton; Casey, Campbellford; T. O'Connor and Jas. O'Connor, Victoria Road; Flannery, St. Thomas; Sweeney, Barnby; Conway, Norwood; Quirk, Hastings; Kloepfer, Berlin; Rev. Father Bonetti and others.

Vicar-General Laurent read the address to the Bishop, which was handsomely engrossed and accompanied by a golden communion chalice. The address was as follows:—

To Rt. Rev. T. J. Dowling, D. D., Bishop of Hamilton, from the clergy of the Diocese of Peterborough, on the occasion of his translation.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR LORDSHIP.—Two years ago, on the occasion of your Lordship's installation, we, the priests of the diocese of Peterborough, assembled in this cathedral to welcome you to your episcopal city. Our hearts were then full of joy. We thanked God, who had sent so able, learned and eloquent a Bishop to rule over our beloved diocese.

We looked forward to many years of loving and fruitful labour in the Lord's vineyard under your prudent guidance and wise administration. Our Bishop was young—in the fullness of strength. It was not, however, as without hope that we looked forward to the three years in which would expend the fulness of its strength, when we should be assisted by your energy and fostered by your care these institutions of learning and charity which all the world over give to great honor to God and lustre to our holy religion. You have indeed accomplished much within a short space of time.

Now, alas! the call has come for your Lordship to "return to your own country," to the diocese which has been the cradle of your priesthood, and has become endeared to you by over twenty years of noble service in the sacred ministry. You are returning to a clergy who, well acquainted with Your Lordship's great ability and exalted virtues, have often and unequivocally expressed their admiration, and are even now preparing to receive you with demonstrations of great joy. But no clergy will love and admire you more Lordship more than do the priests of the diocese of Peterborough.

When your Lordship came to us you found great and holy work for your hands to do. Your Cathedral was far from finished. It was your desire to make it a model of architectural taste and beauty. Already you have completed the interior, beautified the surroundings, and given to it a grander and more imposing appearance. In doing this your congregations instance your first care. For while fashioning them in the knowledge of faith and the practice of virtue, you have desired for them comfort and accommodation in the House of God, by introducing a thorough system of heating and increasing its seating capacity.

You found your Cathedral clergy without a suitable dwelling. They, too, became your special care. Providence seem placed it in your power to provide for them. The opportunity was not lost. To-day, your Lordship leaves to your successor a parochial house worthy of Peterborough, and an episcopal residence which may well be the envy of many an older diocese. To complete this diocese, we, your Lordship appealed to the parishes. It is with pleasure we can now say that gladly and loyally did they answer the call.

In your Lordship's visits to the various parts of your vast diocese (and from Port Arthur to Lake Ontario you have left no place unvisited), it has been a joy and a happiness to welcome you. The words of piety, learning, and wisdom which fell from your lips on these occasions sank deeply into the hearts of all, and the lessons then received shall be long remembered and cherished by them. While instructing them by preaching and strengthening them by the administration of the sacraments, you have above all edified them by your pious and exemplary life. Long indeed shall your Lordship's episcopal visitation be remembered and bear fruit in the diocese of Peterborough.

We will not offend your Lordship's humility by endeavoring to enumerate your many public works. They are known to all. Their silent praise is far more eloquent than any word of ours can be. There is, however, one work, the last you have undertaken, which on an occasion such as the present we cannot pass over in silence. With the hospital of St. Joseph your Lordship's name shall ever remain united, even when the generations of those who saw you, with solemn ceremonies, in the name of the most Holy Trinity, bless and plant its foundations, shall have passed to their reward. Your zeal for God's glory, your love for the poor, your sympathy for the suffering, will find lasting remembrance in the monument of Christian charity. In the midst of your laborious duties in the wide field to which you are now called, your Lordship will find encouragement and consolation in the thought that from within its walls the cry of the poor and afflicted, the whimpering of the sick and the maimed, and the prayers of the widow and the orphan, ill continually ascend to heaven in your behalf. To us who know how sincerely your heart has been in the good work, St. Joseph's hospital shall ever be a fond reminder of your Lordship's great zeal and charity.

You are about to leave us. We must now say farewell. We have learned to love you, and your departure leaves us without words to express our grief. We ask your acceptance of this chalice as a sincere though inadequate token of the high esteem and veneration in which we have ever held your Lordship.

You go at the call of Christ's Vicar, our Holy Father Leo XIII, who in this, as in all else, has sought the greater glory of God and the welfare of His church on earth.

Our best wishes for your temporal and eternal happiness go with you. May Almighty God pour down on you the rich abundance of His graces! May he always bless your work. May you be long spared to the diocese which now claims you as a Bishop, is the fervent prayer of the priests of the Diocese of Peterborough.

With your Lordship's parting blessing for ourselves and our parishioners, we humbly ask a place in your memory and in your prayers.

TO REMAIN GRATEFULLY.

The following address to Rev. Father McEvay was read by Rev. Father Brown. It was accompanied by a purse of $300.

To Rev. F. P. McEvay, Chancellor and Rector of the Cathedral.

REV. AND DEAR FATHER,—We beg leave to assure you that it was with feelings of heartfelt regret that we learned some days since that you were about to sever your connection with the diocese of Peterborough and unite your lot with that of Hamilton. It was not our province to inquire into the reasons that influenced you in this decision, but of one thing we are quite certain, that they must have been strong, creditable and praiseworthy. The good priest ever regards it as a sacred duty to obey the wishes of those whom the Holy Ghost has appointed to govern the church, and we feel satisfied that it is to show your ready compliance with this duty that you are now making a generous sacrifice of your own personal feelings and bright prospects in the diocese.

We cannot, however, allow you to depart from amongst us to enter upon another sphere of labor without placing on record the great love, esteem and respect in which you are justly held by your brother priests. For seven years you have been exercising the holy ministry in the priesthood in this diocese. During that time we have had many opportunities of studying your character, of observing your ways and modes of acting; and truth requires us to say that words fail to adequately express our admiration of the noble gifts of head and heart with which God has richly endowed you. While, on the other hand, your well-known ability, unerring judgment, fervent piety and stainless life have made us regard you as an ornament to the diocese; on the other hand, kind unfailing kindness, your readiness to oblige and assist, and your courtesy and gentlemanly demeanor, have secured for you a firm and abiding hold upon our affections. [illegible] Your years of [illegible] were characterized by such [illegible] labors, such self-sacrificing devotion to duty, such tact and administrative ability, that Bishop Dowling wisely decided to give you [illegible] the guardian of those episcopal qualities, and accordingly named you [illegible] of the cathedral and Chancellor of the diocese.

The Central Bank Gets Transferred Hypothecs—Over $200 Unaccounted for.

GUELPH, April 29.—The city was completely surprised this morning when it was learned that George Maclean, cashier, had made an assignment of all his effects and placed his affairs in the hands of Macdonald & Macdonald for the benefit of his creditors, on account of the failure of his brother in Montreal. Little suspicion was paid to this outside of those interested until the rumor became current that his bookkeeper, Robert Mackenzie, had left the city rather suddenly.

It leaked out in this manner. Mayor Gowdy, who is a director of the Guelph Central Exhibition, went to Mackenzie's house this morning to consult him about having bills printed for the exhibition, when he was informed that Mr. Mackenzie was not at home. Mayor Gowdy was handed a number of books addressed to him. These were the bank pass-book and savings bank book of the Agricultural Society.

Mr. Gowdy made an examination of the books and found that there was only $300 to the credit of the society, whereas $1 the last audit stood was given $1,000. Reception at George Street Church.

Last evening the young people of the George Street Methodist Church were entertained by the Ladies' Aid Society. Between two and three hundred were present, and a rare time was spent. Tea was served from seven until nine in the basement of the church; prominent among the waiters on were Mesdames W. J. Mason, F. Mason, Boden, Nugent, Aiken, Green, Kendry, Owens, Cameron and Glass. Everything was life and animation, and all left the impression that a most enjoyable time was being spent. Before tea, the time was occupied in developing the social instincts and forming acquaintances. After the inner man had been satisfied a business meeting of the Association was held, with President Scott in the chair. With him on the platform were the pastor, Rev. Mr. Pearson, and the officers, Miss Turner, Miss Ellsworth and Messrs. H. A. Strike, H. Dixon and R. F. Morrow. A constitution, which had been prepared by a select committee, was presented and adopted clause by clause. A special committee, consisting of the officers of the Association, was appointed to draft committees. The first regular meeting will be held next Monday evening, conducted by R. A. Pearson, B. A. ECCE SACERDOS MAGNUS!

Consecration of His Lordship Bishop O'Connor.

The Third Bishop of Peterborough Consecrated and Installed—A Grand Occasion—Speeding the Departing and Welcoming the Coming Prelate—A Great Gathering of Dignitaries and Clergy—Ten Bishops and Over a Hundred Priests Present.

In the brief period of not quite seven years which has elapsed since the establishment of the Roman Catholic diocese of Peterborough, no fewer than three bishops, including the present newly consecrated incumbent, have occupied the episcopal chair. Bishop Jamot was installed on Sept. 21st 1882. His death took place on May 3rd, 1886. After an interregnum of one year, during which time Vicar-General Laurent, Lindsay, was administrator, Bishop Dowling was installed on May 3rd, 1887, and on May 1st, 1889, his successor, Bishop O'Connor, is consecrated the third bishop of the young diocese of Peterborough.

The dull cold weather of the day did not prevent the filling of the cathedral to its fullest capacity. The admission by ticket alone prevented a crush, which would have resulted in inextricable confusion.

The arrangements in this respect were excellent. The ushers were very effective in the performance of their duties, and the consequence was that while the church was filled, there was no crowding or confusion.

For days there has been great activity of preparation, and within the past two or three days the priests and prelates have continued to arrive. Bishop-elect O'Connor came to town quietly on Tuesday evening from Toronto, and yesterday there was a great influx of priests and prelates. Last night an excursion train from Barrie brought in about a hundred and thirty visitors, and this morning the other trains contributed their quota of visitors.

THE CLERGY REPRESENTED.

The occasion attracted great interest throughout Canada, as shown by the numerous body of prelates, church dignitaries and clergy who assembled. At 9.30 the ecclesiastical procession entered the Cathedral from the sacristy, to the music of an orchestra in charge of Prof. Doucet, Rev. Father Murray being cross-bearer. Passing down the eastern aisle and returning to the altar by the middle aisle, the prelates taking seats inside the altar, and the clergy outside.

The high altar was beautifully decorated and a chapel had been erected alongside the episcopal throne.

The Consecrator, Rt.-Rev. Bishop Cleary, of Kingston, vested in full pontificals, took his seat in the prescribed place at the altar, and the bishop-elect, properly vested for the occasion, was led to the Consecrator by the assistant bishops, the senior, His Grace Archbishop Fabre, Montreal, on his right and the junior, His Grace Archbishop Duhamel, of Ottawa, on his left, and presented as a candidate for consecration. The secretary of the bishop-elect, Very Rev. Vicar General Laurent, Lindsay, read the Apostolic commission, appointing the bishop.

The examination of the candidate for consecration having been completed by the Consecrator, his assistant led the bishop-elect to the Consecrator to whom he knelt, kissing his hand. The Mass was then begun. After the Confession the bishop-elect was robed with tunic, dalmatic and chasuble. The service and ceremony then proceeded to the point where the bishops, mitred, knelt and the bishop-elect prostrated himself at the left of the Consecrator. Then the book of the Gospels was placed reversed on the neck and shoulders of the elect, held by one of the clergy. Then the Consecrator and assistants laid their hands simultaneously upon the head of the elect each saying

"RECEIVE THOU THE HOLY GHOST."

The ceremony continuing, the head of the Bishop-elect was bound with a linen cloth, and, to the accompaniment of the "Veni Creator Spiritus," the Consecrator anointed the head of the elect, making the sign of the cross, followed by a prayer. As the choir took up an antiphon the consecrator anointed the hands of the elect. The next step was the consecration of the crozier, the symbol of authority, the ring was then blessed and placed by the Consecrator on the finger of the elect, and with appropriate words the gospels were delivered to the Bishop-elect. Then the latter received the kiss of peace from the Consecrator and his assistants. After the service had continued the mitre was blessed and placed upon the head of the newly consecrated Bishop. Then, also, the gloves and ring were blessed and placed upon the hands of the consecrated.

THE SERMON

was preached by Rt. Rev. Bishop Walsh, of London, who said that the occasion had a deep interest for clergy and people of this diocese. The ceremonies, with their solemn concomitants, were full of meaning and spoke eloquently of the powers, authority and graces of the episcopacy. The episcopal order was the plenitude of the priesthood, the channel of sacramental graces, which ordains, confirms, consecrates. In a word the church was in the bishop, and the bishop in the church. A bishop could not exercise his functions and mission without the authority of the Holy See, the successor of St. Peter. The only true apostolic succession was the episcopate in affiliation with the Holy See. The commission of Christ was given to His Apostles and His promise was to be with them to the end of the world. St. Paul showed that the church must be one, and that an apostolic ministry worked through it. The was something beyond unbroken succession necessary, it was authority for the episcopal mission, from the apostolic college and their successors had power to teach, administer the sacraments. The head of the apostolic college was the successor of St. Peter, who is alone the custodian of the graces of the church, and through him alone can they be dispensed. It was incumbent on all who claim to be ambassadors of Christ, must prove his claim. These principles had their application in the Catholic church and every Catholic has the consolation of knowing that he is a member of the church that Christ founded. Modern churches originating fifteen hundred years after Christ could not be apostolic. An eloquent and practical tribute to the virtues of the new bishop and his claims and upon the obedience and loyalty of his clergy and people and also a tribute to the kind but efficient career of the late Bishop of Hamilton, closed the address.

After the sermon the customary homage was performed by the clergy, the bishop-elect kissing the ring of the Consecrator, and then the latter blessed the mitre, placed it upon the head of Bishop O'Connor, and then the gloves upon his hands and then the ring. The newly consecrated bishop was next conducted to his episcopal chair, and being seated the crozier was placed in his hand by his consecrator. The Te Deum was chanted and the new Bishop, properly attended passed down the middle aisle of the church dispensing his blessing. Bishop O'Connor then gave from the altar the episcopal blessing, and having received the kiss of peace from consecrator and assistants, took his seat upon his throne and listened to an ADDRESS FROM THE CLERGY.

To the Most Reverend Richard Alphonsus O'Connor, D.D., Bishop of Peterborough:—

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR LORDSHIP,—We, the priests of your diocese hasten to offer our homage and wish you ad multos annos as Bishop of Peterborough. In Peterborough for the first time has been celebrated to-day the gorgeous rite which 2,000 years ago was celebrated for the first time in Jerusalem, Antioch, Rome and Constantinople. This gorgeous rite has transformed you into a Bishop of the Holy Catholic Church, and well may we exclaim "By the Lord hath this been done, and it is wonderful in our eyes." The mitre tells of your Pontifical dignity and accent to say, "obey your Prelates." The Crozier tells of your pastoral authority and seems to say, "He that heareth you heareth me." The Ring tells of your indissoluble union with the spouse of Christ, and seems to say, "Christ loved the church and delivered Himself up for it." The Sandals tell of your commission as a lawful descendant of the Apostles, and seem to say, "How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace." In one word we behold you clad in the panoply of a Christian Bishop and we hear Jesus, "the author and finisher of faith," solemnly declaring, "as the Father hath sent me I also send you." The eminence on which you stand would be under other circumstances a giddy height, but the Cross near your heart tells of the humiliations of our crucified Lord and seems to say, "God forbid that I should glory but in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ."

The Diocese deplores the departure of Doctor Dowling, but rejoices that his successor is a Bishop who, during all the years of priesthood, has been remarkable for his piety, prudence, learning and administrative ability. Your consistent and brilliant career as a priest culminated naturally in your merited elevation to your present exalted position. Always sincere, unselfish and conscientious, your appointment to the Episcopate has been hailed with satisfaction wherever high character is appreciated. Your pastorate of more than a quarter of a century is an open book where he who runs may read of your administrative ability, the fact that you have been called to the high and holy position of piety and learning. Your whole life has been the life of a student, and a continuous invocation of "the Lord who is the God of all knowledge." The knowledge you have so anxiously sought and which to-day you possess in an eminent degree is not the knowledge that "puffs up," but the knowledge that is power, the knowledge that is efficacious in promoting the glory of God and procuring the salvation of souls.

The piety also for which you were always remarkable will now in the fertile soil of the Episcopate "yield fruit a hundred fold," and bring forth that ardent charity which is the special attribute of the Catholic bishop, and which in the words of the Apostle "never faileth," whether prophecies shall be made void or tongues shall cease, or knowledge shall be destroyed. Every best gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the "Father of Lights," and we reverently thank Him for having vouchsafed to constitute you Angel of the Church of Peterborough.

In the next place we thank our gloriously reigning Pontiff, the immortal Leo XIII., who holds the highest position on earth, the successor of St. Peter, the only Apostle who in the full sense of the world yet lives and rules in the person of his successor, and from his unfailing chair imparts to all who seek it the truth of Christian faith. In the next place we thank your illustrious colleagues in the episcopate who are the honor and glory of their respective dioceses in this province of our beloved Canada, and who would add lustre to episcopal Sees in any portion of Christendom. At the time of your appointment as Bishop you were ministering in the same parish, where many years ago laboured as an humble missionary the late lamented Doctor Jamot, the sainted founder of your diocese. How consoling the communion of saints! From His heavenly abode He still interests Himself in the welfare of those who in this world were His spiritual children. Always and everywhere the Catholic Church has been the friend of education. The bishops who preceded you were indefatigable in their efforts in this beloved cause. Your diocese is famed for the excellence of her Catholic schools. Under your jurisdiction are several pious confraternities. Also the St. Vincent de Paul conference is flourishing. There is, likewise, several Catholic associations, the object of which is to supply our young men with the means of innocent amusement and mental culture, to encourage in all habits of industry, thrift and sobriety.

Your illustrious predecessor laid the foundation broad and deep of St. Joseph's hospital, where in the near future Christian charity shall care for the afflicted of all creeds and classes.

You will be pleased to learn that in your Episcopal city Catholics and non-Catholics dwell together in peace and harmony. The duties of a Bishop are many, and various, and difficult, but always and under all circumstances you may rely upon the good-will and co operation of your clergy. This thought will tend to lighten the load so solemnly laid to-day upon your shoulders.

We ask your blessing, and in conclusion our fervent prayer is that your reign over us may be very happy and glorious. Quod felix faustumque sit.

HIS LORDSHIP in reply cordially thanked the clergy for their loyal and dutiful address. He recognized the difficulties, duties and responsibilities of the episcopate, and added that he would be cheered and encouraged to meet those difficulties bravely with the knowledge of the loyalty and fidelity and support of his clergy. He had heard both Bishops Jamot and Dowling praise the piety, zeal and devotion of the priests of the diocese, and he would expect, and would, doubtless, receive, their co-operation and assistance in promoting both the material and spiritual interests of the diocese.

ADDRESS FROM THE PEOPLE.

To the Right Reverend Richard Alphonsus O'Connor, Bishop of Peterborough:

May it please your Lordship: We, the parishioners of your cathedral parish of Peterborough, approach your Lordship upon this most important epoch in your life, to convey to you the expression of our profound homage and of our heartfelt joy at your elevation to the Episcopate. It is ever a gratification to Catholics to learn that one of their priests has received Pontifical recognition by having the exalted dignity of the Episcopacy conferred upon him, and it was with deep pleasure that we heard that His Holiness, Pope Leo the Thirteenth, had bestowed the crozier on your Lordship, who is so fitted by a cultured mind and a life of sanctity to worthily wield it as one of the princes of the church.

Your predecessor, the Right Reverend Thomas Joseph Dowling, during his brief tenure of the episcopal office, has won for himself profound respect and endearing love, from all with whom he came in contact. His activity in diocesan affairs is evidenced by the vigorous spiritual life everywhere manifest throughout this portion of the Lord's vineyard. We regret to part with a prelate we have learned to love, but bow submissively to the decision of the centre of Catholic unity in the change promulgated in the interest of Catholicity. Our sorrow, is however, lessened when we remember the successor of the Right Reverend Dr. Dowling, has been chosen on account of his special fitness in education and training to govern with efficiency and acceptance the Diocese of Peterborough. An elevation to the hierarchy in the selection of one whose training and aspirations are identified with the people over whom he is chosen as chief pastor, is a source of profound gratification to the laity, and we cordially thank His Holiness for having made an appointment which has given such universal satisfaction.

Many of us, although not enjoying heretofore a personal acquaintance with your Lordship, have watched with admiration your upward and onward course in the exhibition of the world yet lives and rules in the person of his successor, and from his unfailing chair imparts to all who seek it the truth of Christian faith. In the next place we thank your illustrious colleagues in the episcopate who are the honor and glory of their respective dioceses in this province of our beloved Canada, and who would add lustre to episcopal Sees in any portion of Christendom. At the time of your appointment as Bishop you were ministering in the same parish, where many years ago laboured as an humble missionary the late lamented Doctor Jamot, the sainted founder of your diocese. "As Others See Us."

"Oh that some power the gift would gie us,
To see ourselves as others see us."
Thus sighed old Scotia's Bard in vain,
For what he could not then attain.
But had he lived in this fair town
He had no cause to sigh or frown,
For if he walked on Hunter street,
An eager throng he'd surely meet,
With faces bright as summer light,
All coming from one-fifty-eight.
Where photos always are in view,
Which are to life so very true,
That each one who has seen them there,
Does to his comrades all declare,
"SPROULE is the very man can gie us,
The power to see as others see us."

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

WINDING-UP OF THE BUSINESS OF THE SESSION.

The Bill for the Construction of the Harvey and Salisbury Road Given the Six Months' Hoist in the Senate.

OTTAWA, May 1.—The House met at 11 o'clock this morning and the business remaining to be disposed of was speedily put through.

In the absence of Mr. Charlton, in whose name the question stood, Sir Richard Cartwright asked: What are the names of the six Pagans returned for the Parish of St. Elizabeth in the County of Joliette, Que., in the census returns of 1881, as appears from the original schedule of the enumerator for that parish?

Not having the desired information Sir John Macdonald answered the inquiry by pointing his finger across the House and declaring: "They are all over there." This was greeted with roars of laughter at the expense of the Opposition.

During the morning Hon. A. G. Jones strongly condemned the practice of allowing the greater number of members of the House to return home before the business of the session was done and blamed Sir John Macdonald for having sanctioned the departure of many members last week.

In reply Sir John said his consent as leader of the House had been given in but two instances of early departure, the members being Mr. Yeo of Prince Edward Island and another of the Opposition.

Mr. Trow, the chief Opposition whip, rose to corroborate this statement, declaring that there had this session been no departure from the usual practice and that his consent had been obtained before the full sessional allowance was paid the departing members. This statement drew upon Mr. Trow the censure of Sir Richard Cartwright, Mr. Lovitt, Mr. Mulock and Hon. Mr. Jones.

Having adjourned for lunch the House met again at 2.15 p.m. and wound up the business as far as possible, pending the return of bills expected from the Senate. Opportunity was then taken to question the Government on some undetermined matters which have been discussed.

Mr. Mulock asked what was the intention of the Government with respect to the demand from the milling interest for a readjustment of the wheat and flour duties. He asked also the view of the Government with respect to testing in the courts the constitutionality of the Jesuits Estates Act.

With respect to the wheat and flour duties Sir John Macdonald said the tariff as at present arranged had when settled upon been quite satisfactory, and the unfair discrimination now claimed to exist had been brought by subsequently changing conditions. The Government realized the force of the contention for a readjustment and had given the matter serious consideration, but had come to the conclusion not to deal with it until after another session's consideration. It was the intention to call Parliament together early in January next year, and if in the meantime it was still considered that there should be a change Parliament could then deal with the matter.

As to the Jesuits Estates Act he did not think that the moment a constitutional question arose the Government should submit it to the Privy Council. The Parliament of Canada was a proper tribunal to decide upon matters of constitutional law, and after the overwhelming majority by which this Parliament had pronounced the act constitutional, the Government would be wanting in respect to the House were it straightway to appeal to the courts for another decision. He saw by the press, however, that steps were now being taken to test the constitutionality, so that there was a likelihood of a settlement without the Government sending the decision of Parliament for review.

Hon. Peter Mitchell asked what truth there was in the rumor that there were to be six sessions of this Parliament. He for one would not be sorry to learn that it was true, and it seemed to him that the Government were working in that direction by making each year's session earlier than the last.

Sir John Macdonald said the matter having then been brought to their attention, the Government would take it into consideration to see what could be done in this direction. [Laughter.]

At 3.30 the House took recess until 5.30 o'clock. Upon meeting at 5.30 the House received a report from the Senate that certain bills had been passed and then adjourned until 11 o'clock to-morrow morning.

SLAIN BY THE SENATE.

The Harvey and Salisbury Railway Measure Given the Six Months' Hoist.

OTTAWA, May 1.—The Senate to-night gave the six months' hoist to the bill to authorize the construction of the Harvey and Salisbury Railway, an amendment to that effect moved by Senator Miller from Richmond, C. B., being carried by 22 to 11. There was a long debate on the subject, in which those opposed to the bill urged that the proposed expenditure was uncalled for and that the new line would seriously interfere with the Intercolonial.

Speaking in support of the measure Hon. Mr. Abbott said there was no truth in the rumor that had been circulated in the corridors that the Government were apathetic about this bill. He knew, from having been present when it was discussed in Council and from conversations he had had with members of the Government, more especially with the First Minister, that it was the earnest desire of the Government to construct the road, their faith and the faith of the country being pledged to it. He admitted the spirit of independence which the members of the Senate had exhibited in this debate, but he would like to see not only independence but consistency displayed. On two previous occasions the Senate had formally declared in favor of the road when it was proposed that a company should build it. The attempt to have it built by a subsidized company had failed and the Government therefore wished to undertake the work themselves. No argument which had been advanced against its construction now was not in existence upon the two previous occasions when the Senate had voted for its construction.

The division on the amendment giving the six months' hoist resulted as follows:

Judge Dugas Brings a $20,000 Libel Suit Against Mr. Vanasse and His Paper.

MONTREAL, May 1.—Judge Dugas has instituted an action for $20,000 damages against Le Monde and its editor, Mr. F. Vanasse, M.P., for alleged libel. Judge Dugas complains that Le Monde, by a series of insidious and malicious articles, attempted to throw ridicule on his actions while he was on in Compton County fulfilling a public mission concerning the arrest of Donald Morrison. He also complains that Le Monde insinuated that he had failed in his military duties while an officer of the 65th Battalion during the Northwest rebellion.

Mulcahey and Phillips Liberated on Giving $2000 Bonds Each.

MONTREAL, May 1.—The wife of Ludger Duvernay in the Maisonneuve case was released this afternoon. Judge Dugas, after argument, held that the offence was a bailable one and fixed the amount at $2000 each, $2000 by each of the accused and $1000 by two bondsmen for each. James Baxter and J. C. Laird signed Harry Phillips' bond and J. C. Laird and George Koester signed Andy Mulcahey's. The accused were then liberated.

A BROKEN ENGINE WHEEL.

MAY HAVE CAUSED THE JUNCTION CUT DISASTER.

General Manager Hickson Interviewed—A Thorough Investigation to be Had—Another Victim Identified.

HAMILTON, May 1.—This morning there was considerable agitation apparent among the railway authorities here. General Manager Hickson had arrived to ascertain why so many people had been killed on the southern division lately. He came in on the 8.20 train from Toronto, and the fine large engine Princess was attached to his car to take it out to the scene of the accident. Mr. Armstrong appeared with an immense armful of maps and plans, and the general manager, accompanied by Chief Engineer Joseph Hobson, W. W. Pope of the Solicitor's office, Chief Clerk Joseph Wallace and Samuel Barker (superintendent of the Northern and Northwestern division), started for the scene of the wreck and spent an hour there looking over the ground. Then they returned and examined the debris which is piled on cars in the yard.

Mr. Hickson was seen by a reporter after his examination was concluded and asked if he had decided what caused the accident. "I have seen all that is to be seen in connection with the accident," he said, "but I really can't undertake to express any opinions while the matter is in the hands of the coroner. I would be glad to afford the press any information but it would not be right for me to express an opinion until the jury has given its verdict. I may say that when the inquest is over a rigid investigation will be made independent of that by me in the interests of the company."

"I understand you are also going out to St. George this afternoon," said the reporter. "Will the investigation which you propose to make cover both disasters?"

"I think I will go out to St. George before I return, but that has already been investigated."

"As a result of this disaster at the cut will any change be made in the road at that point with a view to taking off part of that sharp curve at the foot of the grade?"

"No, I don't see that there is any necessity for that. The fact that there was an accident there does not prove that the spot is dangerous. The track has been the same there ever since it was built, and no accident ever happened at that particular spot before."

"It has generally been considered dangerous, though. I understand Senator Sanford wrote to you some years ago pointing out the fact and suggesting it be altered to lessen the curve?"

Mr. Hickson smiled: "You know how that sort of thing is. If you were to see the number of letters I get in a year offering gratuitous advice you would appreciate the fact that running a railroad is something like running a newspaper."

"It is said, Mr. Hickson, that the locomotives used on the Grand Trunk fast trains are not of a sufficiently good class for the purpose, and that to this fact the recent accidents are attributable?"

"All nonsense. The engines we use on our fast trains are as good as any on the continent. In fact they are the best that can be got. The engine on the limited express was built in Kingston on the best model, and had only been in use six years."

Mr. Hall, locomotive superintendent, has discovered that in addition to one axle of the engine truck being broken, the outside, or north wheel in front, had five pieces broken off it, and the fragments were found and brought in from the wreck this afternoon. The pilot of the engine was buried seven feet down in the mud. It is now thought that the accident was caused by the front outside wheel breaking and taking the guide rail instead of the proper one.

One by one it is being discovered, though not to a certainty, who were the victims of the disaster. The remains cannot be identified, but from the personal effects found and from the fact that their owners have not been found nor can they be heard of, it is surmised that their remains help to make up the contents of the cases at the undertaker's.

The railway authorities have been having the contents of the unclaimed baggage saved from the wreck investigated, with a view to ascertaining who the dead folk are. This morning they obtained the following list: H. Levy, Chicago; Mrs. Smith (no address); Capt. Butler, Cook County Insane Asylum, near Chicago; F. Randall Orr, Omaha, Neb. Also another piece of baggage belonging to a lady, in which the owner's name does not appear.

Some of the passengers who were uninjured themselves lost sums of their effects. Mr. M. Crum of Alverton, O., told a reporter that he had lost his watch and all his luggage. Mr. D. Forbes of Grand Rapids said he missed his watch when he got to Hamilton, though he was coarsely scratched himself. The watch, he thinks, was jerked out of his pocket. The finding of more watches than bodies is also accounted for by the fact that some of the pieces of baggage is said to have contained several samples of watches and cases.

A. Colvin, 550 Warren-avenue, Chicago, arrived here this morning in search of the body of Morgan B. Scullin of 781 West Lake-street, Chicago. Mr. Colvin examined the burnt remains and identified a body as that of Mr. Scullin by a fragment of the coat and waistcoat. The body was the one shovelled to be that of Mr. Carnick yesterday. Mr. Colvin left for Chicago with the remains this afternoon.

This morning Chief McKinnon received a letter from William Long of New York inquiring about Henry Pringle, a young man from Chicago, who is supposed to have been killed. He had about $120 in gold in his possession.

Mr. Doherty, the traveler for J. M. Williams & Co., has been heard from. His wife received a telegram from Wiarton saying he is all right.

Mrs. McLeod, a Toronto lady, came to this city from Stratford yesterday and examined the remains of the charred bodies. Her [illegible] Mr. H. H. Stone, and his wife, of Marquette, Mich., [illegible] Saturday, intending to go on to New York to the Centennial celebration. They have not since been heard from. Mrs. McLeod could find no traces of her relatives among the remains of the dead. This morning she examined the watches and jewelry in the superintendent's office, but nothing there bore any resemblance to any of the jewelry worn by Mr. Stone or his wife. It is believed that they were not on the train. Probably they went through by an earlier train.

Eugene P. Newhall, formerly of The Spectator staff, and now of Omaha, arrived in the city this morning in search of his brother-in-law, C. J. Fraser of Toronto. Mr. Newhall traced the missing man as far as Detroit, and when he arrived here he found that Fraser's watch had been found in the debris and identified by a Toronto relative, so that there is no doubt whatever that Fraser was one of the victims.

THE INQUEST.

Captain Hall and David Walker Give Details of the Accident.

HAMILTON, May 1.—At the coroner's inquest to-night Mr. Joseph Hickson asked permission to speak and it being granted he said it was a matter of the deepest regret on the part of the company that the accident had happened and he hoped no efforts would be spared to get to the very bottom of it.

Captain Hall and Mr. David Walker of Toronto were sworn. Their evidence was largely of the nature of details of the accident. Both said that the train was not making more than 25 miles an hour at the very outside before the accident. They also said that the screaming and cries for help had ceased before the cars took fire. The inquest will be continued on Friday.

The Deadly Razor.

KANSAS CITY, May 1.—During a drunken fight between negroes which became general in a low quarter of the city last night, Annie Edwards was cut in the throat, James Sevell was dangerously cut near the heart and several others received wounds. The woman died this morning.

A DAY OF DISASTERS.

Chicago's Centennial Celebration Crowded with Calamities.

CHICAGO, May 1.—Lehmann's Windsor theatre was burned last night, only the walls being left standing. The loss is $40,000, fully insured. Three firemen were injured, two seriously. The fire was caused by sparks shot into the floor from rockets fired on the stage during the evening performance.

One hundred thousand people assembled in the park on the lake front last night to witness a display of fireworks. Two huge set-pieces placed close to the crowd took fire over everybody in their course. Women fainted everywhere, and were trampled on by the crazed multitude.

After the fireworks were over, the people started homeward came in collision with contestants who had been unable to see the display. The crush was fearful. Many persons in all are said to have been seriously hurt, a number perhaps fatally.

Another panic attended each discharge of rockets. Frightened almost as the cause arose in the north division of the city. When the fireworks fell among the crowds in Zouth Park, the thousands of people rushed out pell-mell in a mad race for seats on the street cars. A waggon on sidewalk about 500 feet long gave way, and several hundred people fell five or six feet. In the scramble to get out the women and children were trampled upon and many were [illegible] but it is reported none fatally. [illegible]

RUINED TO HELP HIS EMPLOYER.

Treasurer Heatherington of the Central Fair Writes a Letter to Guelph's Mayor.

GUELPH, May 1.—A peculiar feature developed to-day in connection with the flight of Secretary-Treasurer Mackenzie and the shortage in the funds of the Agricultural Society. Mayor Gowdy received a letter from Mackenzie to the effect that he drew the $1,000 to tide Morton over his financial difficulties and after the assignment he could not see his way clear out of the difficulty and came to the conclusion to skip out. It is reported that an effort will be made to settle the matter and bring Mackenzie back to take charge of the books of the society again, as the confidence in his integrity is nowhere so in the least.

Morton's liabilities will amount to between $18,000 and $19,000, assets $9000, which will pay between 20 and 30 cents on the dollar.

Ambitious City Notes.

HAMILTON, May 1.—The license commissioners have completed their labors. They granted ninety-one saloon and inward licenses and struck off nineteen of those who had licenses last year, giving them three months to dispose of their stock.

The receipts of the Inland Revenue office during April were $33,893, a decrease of $1500 as compared with April, 1888. The experts to the United States from the consular district of Hamilton last month aggregated $23,054.

A BIG PARADE.

Close of the Centennial Celebration in New York.

NEW YORK, May 1.—The parade to-day was a magnificent turnout. The Columbia College students created much amusement as they passed the grand stand by repeating in unison the cry "Who was Gen. George Washington?" and accompanying the answer by a "break down."

The motley army from the fields of labor and industry formed a spectacle which for grandeur and impressiveness transcended anything ever witnessed in this country. There were quite 100,000 men in line.

KEEPING UP THE AGITATION.

Gabriel Dumont Stirring Up the Halfbreeds —A Rumored Resignation.

WINNIPEG, May 1.—Gabriel Dumont, replying to the Metis' address at St. Vital, said his people were only seeking their rights and the agitation would go on until all wrongs were righted. The damage done at Batoche, most of which was wilful, should be paid for.

Rumor has it that the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba and the Northern Pacific Railways have made traffic arrangements.

Johnnie McLeod died last night and the remains were sent to High Bluff for interment.

A body, supposed to be that of an Icelander named Thompson, was found to-day by the Military School while skirmishing in Fort Rouge. The body was sitting against a tree with a revolver in its hand. There was a bullet hole in the head and the pockets were turned inside out. It was evidently a suicide.

Replies to the Priests.

Copies of the Replies to the Addresses of the Priests of the Diocese, by His Excellency Bishop Dowling and Rev. Father McEvay.

BISHOP DOWLING'S REPLY.

REVEREND AND DEAR FATHERS,—The occasion which calls us together this evening is indeed a sad one, but it is also one of edification. Sad, inasmuch as we are to say to each other that sorrowful word "farewell," and ratifying, as much as we are here to give expression to that mutual and unbroken affection that has existed between bishop and priests for the last two years during the short but happy term of my humble administration.

It is the holy will of God that bishops and priests, as well as others, should occasionally meet with trials which it is not pleasant to bear; and among the many trials incident to my office, it seems to me that there is none so painful on that of parting with a loving priesthood, who have shared with him his responsibilities, co-operated with him in his undertakings, and lightened the burdens inseparable from his office. Such is my trial to-night, and it is a severe one. For a long time I have thought of it and even endeavored to avert it, not only by prayer, but by supplication to the only tribunal on earth that could prolong my stay amongst you. Even as our divine Lord prayed His heavenly Father that the chalice of His suffering might pass away, so I humbly asked the vicar of Christ that he might spare me this pain of premature separation. In that petition, among other things, I told the Holy Father, as I take pleasure in telling you to-night, how dearly I loved my priests, using for that purpose the most [illegible] expressions I could find in the Latin tongue, clerum populumque Petroburgensem Bishop Jones Petroburgensis omits dilige, adding, however, the words of our divine Lord in regard to my removal, "Nu eastem mea sed divina voluntas fiat," and now, "Roma locuta est, quanto finita est." Sad as I am in parting from you, I am consoled by the thought that I am following the direction of the vicar of Jesus Christ, and, therefore, have every reason to believe that I am doing what every good bishop and priest is expected to do at all times—the holy will of God.

For the kind words you have been pleased to say of me I am extremely thankful. The virtues you are pleased to ascribe to me are only mine to a very limited extent; without your co-operation I could have done very little indeed, but, thanks be to God, since the first day I came amongst you that co-operation never failed me. Wherever I went through the diocese you received me with open arms, and not only encouraged and cheered me, but invited your flocks to come to my aid, setting yourselves a noble and rare example of self-sacrifice by generously contributing out of your own limited means towards the reduction of the diocesan debt. Your sympathy cheered me, your approval encouraged me and your generosity enabled me to purchase and to pay for the Bishop's house, of which it may be said that you are not only the benefactors but the builders.

In my relations towards you as bishop I am glad to bear testimony to your loyal fidelity, to your zeal and to your discipline, and thank God to be able to state that since I came amongst you there has not been a single instance of disobedience, of disloyalty or of insubordination. I rejoice further to know that your new bishop is one of my most devoted friends and a priest who will be to you a true and loving father, sure to supply my many defects and shed additional lustre on the diocese of Peterborough. From you, dearest Fathers, I may bespeak for him a loyal and hearty welcome and a continuance of that cordial co-operation you have always extended to me.

I share with you in the joy of having helped to lay the foundations of St. Joseph's hospital, promising you always to take a fatherly interest in it, and I earnestly commend that most excellent institution to your charitable patronage.

In conclusion I wish to say that if I ever have done to any of you an unkind or harsh act, I am heartily sorry for it. I should regret to give pain to anyone. In thanking you for your golden chalice, I accept it as a symbol of the golden virtue of charity, and as often as I shall use it at the holy altar you shall have a place in my prayers.

At these final words the clergy knelt and received His Lordship's blessing.

FATHER M'EVAY'S REPLY.

VERY REVEREND AND REVEREND CONFRERS,—Sometimes we look upon addresses as rather formal affairs, but I can assure you that I fully appreciate the importance of your beautiful and touching address, representing, as it does, the sentiments of the priests of this diocese from the Vicars-General down to the last priest ordained. And I appreciate it the more, knowing, as I have good reason to know, the honesty, integrity and sterling worth of the priests of the diocese of Peterborough—priests whom I have known for many years—whom I have labored with since my entrance into the holy ministry, and whom I have always esteemed and loved. To answer your address as it deserves to be answered, I will not attempt to-night. You, true priests that you are, know that it is our duty in a special manner to obey our prelates, whom the Holy Ghost placed to rule the church of God, and whatever success you are pleased to attribute to my feeble efforts, either [illegible] the scattered missions committed [illegible] Bishop, be attributed [illegible] Lordship, who carries out, as far as he knows how, the directions and suggestions of his bishop. And it is in accordance with the directions of my ecclesiastical superiors that I am now leaving the diocese of Peterborough.

To say that and feel no grief at bidding farewell to a diocese wherein I have so many friends both lay and clerical, would be to say what is not true. My years with you have been very happy, and I shall always continue to take the deepest interests in everything connected with the diocese and especially with its noble band of priests who have always been to me a model of unity of action—of devotion to duty—of obedience to authority and of the many other virtues which form the character of the true priest. In conclusion I thank you most sincerely for your very generous purse. I thank you for the many acts of kindness you have showered on me during the past years of my priesthood, and I am deeply grateful for the loving sentiments and good wishes expressed in your magnificent address.

I now bid you a loving farewell and trust you will sometimes kindly remember me during your moments at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

Hope Spring Fair.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

SIR,—In a clipping from the Port Hope Guide I notice that some person (who for the want of a more suitable term I will call Saphead), in describing the Hope Spring Fair, held in the town of Port Hope on the 29th inst., comments more particularly in the contest between Lord Sudley and Norfolk Hero, says that at Cobourg Lord Sudley was first, but at Port Hope the tables were turned. Now, I wonder if Saphead can tell us what turned the tables? I wonder if he can tell us why the judges who were first appointed by the directors were not allowed to get full three of them being in town that day)? It seems rather strange to me that a crony of Meadeth Hero's proprietor should be allowed to object to Mr. Hearden and Mr. McNeil, saying that they were favorable to Meadeth horses. How he knew that they would, I'll not know, unless he knew them to be men of honor who would use common judgment and give the prize to the best horse rather than prize Ann and a horse that I am not aware ever took a first prize before against all comers. It also seems rather possible that the only stranger out of the five who did not as judges (E. Aldrich, from across the line) should be my certain knowledge sack an interview with Mr. Staples to say that the decision was contrary to his judgment. He did not run home like a dog with his tail cut off, as some of the others did. Now, I claim that the tables were not turned, but Mr. Staples, rather than make a scene on the Port Hope fair ground, acted the gentleman by submitting quietly and taking the prize which was handed to him by Pollard, who walked timidly forward and with grin erected and crinkle drooping presented him with No. 2. Now, I have no [illegible] for Pollard's Quixotic

TORONTO TOPICS.

Molly Maddox Wants Next Week—Miss Wood Would Shoot—A Fashionable Wedding.

TORONTO, May 2.—John Larney, alias Molly Maddox, and Joseph Dubuque, alias Barrett, were charged at the Police Court yesterday with picking pockets. Miss Lillie Powers gave evidence that as she was entering a car at the Union Depot she was jostled against by the prisoner Maddox, and when she took her seat in the car she found that her pocketbook containing $2.10 had been taken. She complained first to the conductor after the train started and on her return to Toronto she complained to the police. She positively identified Molly as the man who jostled up against her. Mrs. Amy R. Owen, a sister of the previous witness, gave corroborative evidence. The Magistrate did not think the evidence strong enough to convict and discharged both prisoners. They were then charged with picking the pocket of E. M. Bell and taking $160. There was no evidence against them and they were discharged on that count also, the $160 having been returned to Bell and he having left town.

When the woman who claims to be Mrs. Mollie heard that Mollie had been captured in Toronto she left Cleveland post haste for Canada. She was in court yesterday morning when Mollie and Joe Dubuque came up on remand, and expressed the greatest possible joy when the Police Magistrate ordered their discharge. Sergeant Detective Rabbitt thought he would give Mollie a piece of wholesome advice as to his stay in the city, and collaring him after he left the office marched him out to the corridor. Mrs. Mollie rushed between them, and shaking her fist in Rabbitt's face, exclaimed: "By——, I will put a hole through you as fast as I look at you." "Now, old girl," replied the officer, "just keep quiet, you cannot bluff me worth anything, and if you open your mouth to me again I will put you where I have put Mollie." This quieted her down and she began to make apologies, when she was ordered out of the building. Mollie and Joe left for Detroit last night. Mrs. Mollie is a fine looking woman, 30 years of age, fine eyes which blaze up when she is mad, and wears red hair.

Before Judge Macdougall yesterday David Cox was charged with larceny and housebreaking, the complainant being J. H. Brown of Lloydtown. Cox pleaded guilty to the offence, which was committed on April 21 last. He was remanded a week for sentence. John James Lesson was charged with bigamy. On April 17 Lesson married Mary Smith at Aurora. He, it is alleged, had a wife at the time living at Sturgeon Bay. Upon pleading not guilty he was remanded one week for trial.

Sir John Lister Kaye is in the city. He says ranching and farming in the Northwest pay as conducted by his company. They expect to bring out a large number of emigrants next year and people all the territory between their farms.

There was a gay and fashionable wedding in St. George's Church at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when one of the wealthiest young men of Toronto took to himself a wife. The newly made husband was Mr. Eber B. Ward, son of Mrs. Alexander Cameron and of the late Captain Ward of Detroit, while the fair bride was Miss Rudie Hugel, daughter of Baron von Hugel of Port Hope, a young lady who has for several seasons been a visitor in Toronto and an active participant in the gaiety of the Queen City's society. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. D. Cayley, rector of St. George's. Chief of all the many valuable presents was a check for $30,000 from Mr. Ward to his bride and a $5000 check from Mrs. Alexander Cameron.

There is considerable excitement in Shaw-street over the mysterious disappearance on Tuesday of a 15-year-old girl named Alice Arthurs, who resided with her father, William, at 192 on that thoroughfare. Alice went for a walk in the afternoon and has not been seen since. She is described as stout, fair complexion, with short cropped hair. Her parents express the greatest anxiety as to what has become of her.

TO BE TRIED FOR MURDER FIRST.

The Harvey Embezzlement Case at Guelph Adjourned Without Day.

GUELPH, May 1.—The oft-adjourned Harvey embezzlement case has at last arrived at a conclusion. This afternoon at 3 o'clock the case was called before Police Magistrate Saunders. At the opening of court Crown Attorney Peterson said that after consultation and explanations given by the Deputy Attorney-General the case could not proceed until the charge of murder had been disposed of.

Mr. Guthrie, counsel for Lyon, said when the charge was laid he believed it to be true and still believed it, and that while he did not want to be harsh he desired to vindicate Mr. Lyon's position and make public the evidence, as Harvey's friends desired that the charge be investigated and thought it would be better for all parties concerned.

Mr. McLean, counsel for the prisoner, said that Mr. Harvey was not particular whether the trial went on or not, as he was not guilty of any embezzlement. On the question being asked if the prisoner was ready to go on with the trial it was answered by Mr. McLean that if the Crown so desired he would be shortly, but thought that the case should stand over.

The Police Magistrate said he would not [illegible] him and on the suggestion of Mr. Guthrie as to taking the evidence in the presence of the prisoner at the jail, His Worship would not do that, but said that after he had examined the books he was satisfied that Mr. Lyon had a prima facie case for laying the charge and that it was wrong for the people to impute anything to the contrary.

Mr. Guthrie then said in accordance with the views of His Worship he would not press the case unless the prisoner desired it, and the case was adjourned sine die.
